LION (PG)

10 - 12, 14 - 16, 24,
25 & 28 FEBRUARY &
3 MARCH

Director: Garth Davis.
Starring: Dev Patel, Nicole
Kidman, Rooney Mara.
Australia/UK/USA 2016.
118 mins.

Five-year-old Saroo gets lost in Kolkata, 950 miles from his home in Madhya Pradesh. Afraid and disoriented, he is eventually adopted, and starts a new life in Australia. Twenty-five years later, the grown-up Saroo (Dev Patel) falls in love with Lucy (Rooney Mara), who helps him to search for his mother back in India. Based on a true story, this emotionally charged film boasts shimmering visuals and dramatic heft.

DENIAL (12A)

10, 11, 13 - 16 FEBRUARY

Director: Mick Jackson. Starring: Timothy Spall,
Rachel Weisz, Tom Wilkinson, Alex Jennings.
UK/USA 2016. 110 mins.

In 1993 American academic Deborah Lipstadt dubbed British historian David Irving “one of the most dangerous spokespersons for Holocaust denial”. Irving was well known for his outspoken pronouncements, which included declaring that there had never been gas chambers at Auschwitz. Lipstadt was stunned then, when he sued her for libel. Their landmark battle is the subject of this compelling courtroom drama scripted by David Hare.

Contains infrequent strong and racist language.

HACKSAW RIDGE (15)

17 - 19, 21 - 23 FEBRUARY

Director: Mel Gibson. Starring: Andrew Garfield,
Sam Worthington, Hugo Weaving. USA 2016.
139 mins.

The true story of conscientious objector Desmond Doss (Andrew Garfield), who won a Congressional Medal Of Honour during the Second World War without firing a shot. Viewed as a pariah by his peers, Doss took part in the assault on Hacksaw Ridge as a medic and saved the lives of 75 men during the brutal battle that followed. Mel Gibson's directorial return is a moving account of an outsider finding redemption through extraordinary suffering.

LOVING (12A)

17 – 23 FEBRUARY

Director: Jeff Nichols.
Starring: Ruth Negga,
Joel Edgerton. UK/USA
2016. 123 mins.

In 1950s Virginia, Richard Loving (Joel Edgerton) falls in love with Mildred Jeter (Ruth Negga). Since interracial marriage is forbidden in Virginia, they travel to Washington DC to tie the knot. When they return, they are sentenced to one year in prison – suspended for 25 years if they leave the state. But the Lovings are determined to go back home. Director Jeff Nichols (Mud) delivers an affecting tale of quiet courage.

Contains infrequent racist language.

SECOND CHANCE

LALA LAND (12A)

24 FEBRUARY – 2 MARCH,
4, 7 & 9 MARCH

JACKIE (15)

25 & 26 FEBRUARY,
1 & 8 MARCH

MANCHESTER BY THE SEA (15)

24 – 26, 28 FEBRUARY,
1, 2 & 7 MARCH

FENCES (12A)

3 – 9 MARCH

Director: Denzel Washington. Starring: Denzel Washington,
Viola Davis. USA 2016. 139 mins.

Denzel Washington and Viola Davis both won Tony Awards for their performances in the stage version of August Wilson's passionately acted drama. Canny Troy (Denzel Washington) and stoical Rose (Viola Davis) are the parents of three variously troubled boys in 1950s Pittsburgh. There's much wit and affection in all the characters, but ultimately it's a hard-edged family drama about secrets and buried emotions.
Contains outdated use of racist language.

TONI ERDMANN (15)

4 & 5 MARCH

Director: Maren Ade. Starring: Peter Simonischek, Sandra Hüller. Germany/Austria 2016. 162 mins. German with English subtitles.

When his dog dies, Winfried decides to bond with his daughter Ines instead – much to her horror. Wearing a long wig, a bad suit and a combative attitude, he adopts the bizarre wild-man alter ego of Toni Erdmann, forcing Ines into increasingly hilarious attempts to preserve her career-woman image.

Writer-director Maren Ade's distinctly offbeat comedy was the deserving winner of the FIPRESCI Prize at Cannes 2016.

20TH CENTURY WOMEN (15)

10 – 12, 14 – 16 MARCH

Director: Mike Mills. Starring: Annette Bening, Elle Fanning, Alia Shawkat, Greta Gerwig. USA 2016. 118 mins.

Writer-director Mike Mills (Beginners, Thumbsucker) draws from the well of personal experience for this Oscar-tipped tale of a boy growing up in 1970s California. Single mum Dorothea (Annette Bening) wants to do right by her teenage son, Jamie (Lucas Jade Zumann). To this end she turns to two very different women, punk photographer Abbie (Greta Gerwig) and 16-year-old rebel Julie (Elle Fanning), in the hope that they can teach him about life, love and freedom.

MOONLIGHT (15)

10 – 16 MARCH

Director: Barry Jenkins. Starring: Alex Hibbert, Naomi Harris, Trevante Rhodes, Ashton Sanders. USA 2016. 111 mins.

Never less than riveting, Moonlight is the story of an African-American gay man growing up in a USA that is perhaps even more intolerant than ever. Three different actors brilliantly portray the same character at different ages: the naive schoolboy (Alex Hibbert) living with his mother (Naomi Harris, Our Kind Of Traitor); the bullied teenager (Ashton Sanders, Straight Outta Compton) discovering his sexuality; and the confident drug-dealing adult (Trevante Rhodes).

HIDDEN FIGURES (PG)

17 – 23 MARCH

Director: Theodore Melfi. Starring: Taraji P. Henson, Octavia Spencer, Janelle Monáe. USA 2016. 127 mins.

Without three gifted mathematicians, America might not have put its first man into space in 1961. That they were also female and black in a country where racial segregation still had a sour normalcy, only adds piquancy to the story. The uplifting biopic Hidden Figures tells their remarkable tale. Plucked from numeric drudgery to help meet a timetable, accelerated by presidential decree, the determined trio overcome numerous obstacles to achieve amazing things.

T2: TRAINSPOTTING (18)

17, 18 & 21 MARCH

Director: Danny Boyle. Starring: Ewan McGregor, Ewen Bremner, Jonny Lee Miller, Robert Carlyle, Kelly Macdonald. UK 2016. 117 mins.

Two decades after director Danny Boyle's groundbreaking drama set in Edinburgh's dark, druggy underbelly, the four friends drawn from Irvine Welsh's novel return to make amends... or seek revenge. Begbie (Robert Carlyle) has just been released from jail, Renton (Ewan McGregor) is making an emotional homecoming, and Sick Boy (Jonny Lee Miller) and Spud (Ewen Bremner) are awaiting them both with very mixed feelings.

VICEROY'S HOUSE (12A)

24 – 30 MARCH, 1, 2, 4 & 5 APRIL

Director: Gurinder Chadha. Starring: Michael Gambon, Gillian Anderson, Hugh Bonneville.
UK/India 2017. 106 mins.

Hugh Bonneville and Gillian Anderson play Lord and Lady Mountbatten, charged by King George VI to oversee the peaceful transition of power from Britain to the India it had ruled for 300 years. Set in the Viceroy's House in Delhi, drama escalates as the Mountbattens struggle to manage both the hundreds of servants under their care, and the conflicts that emerge over the birth of a newly independent nation.

Contains brief distressing images.

THE TIME OF THEIR LIVES (CERT TBC)

31 MARCH, 1 – 6 APRIL

Director: Roger Goldby. Starring: Joan Collins, Pauline Collins. UK 2016. TBC mins.

In this bittersweet comedy, faded Hollywood glamour puss Helen (Joan Collins) and her pal Priscilla (Pauline Collins) set off to France for the funeral of Helen's favourite director. A series of mishaps then culminates in a rich artist (Franco Nero) falling for Priscilla, despite Helen's efforts to intervene. Veteran TV writer-director Roger Goldby (Hustle) maintains a heady pace and light touch in what might be called a silver-haired Thelma & Louise.
