Today's Program...

aadl. Ann Arbor District Library,

What's Between the Covers:

Jerry Brown introduced Josie Parker, who has ably served as Director of the Ann Arbor District Library (AADL) for the past 14 years. Josie is also on the Governor's Commission for the Blind which is an advisory group to the Bureau of Services to Blind Persons in Michigan. As Director of the AADL she also serves as Director of the Washtenaw Library for the Blind and Disabled. She noted that the library has served Ann Arbor for 150 years and as the AADL for the past 20 years.

Josie Parker

Jerry Brown

Josie and her staff have honored our 95th Anniversary by chronicling our clubs history in photos and articles. Much of the source material came from the Ann Arbor News. AADL has "digitized" the material and made it available on the AADL web site as follows:

- Go to AADL.org
- Select "Research"
- Select "Local History"
- Select "Old News"
- Scroll down to "Happy 95th Anniversary Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor"

You may also log in to post comments such as names of persons in photos. Thank you Josie for this great gift!

Next Week's Program...

Announcements...

- Dave Drake thanked those who formed an interclub at a recent golf outing in Hillsdale. The next interclub will be Kiwanis Western, noon meeting on Tuesday, August 16 at the Quarter Bistro.
- Jane Talcott is calling for candidates to be chosen as 2016-17 Honorary Membership and Honored Volunteer. The deadline is 9/7/2016.
- Two emails were sent out last week regarding the proposed sale of the Kiwanis Center Downtown building:
 - ⇒ The first email is a series of questions and answers prepared by the Kiwanis Strategic Planning Committee.
 - ⇒ The second email has two parts. Part one is entitled The Evolution of the Kiwanis Sale by Sheridan Springer. Part two is an analysis of the proposal by George Gilligan. All members and volunteers who read these documents should have a better understanding of the reasons behind the proposed sale of the downtown building.
- Alan Burg with assistance from Cliff Sheldon and others has prepared a draft history of sale receipts and club giving from 1925 through 2016 (see pages 6-8). Alan is encouraging everyone to read, edit, correct, question, and add to this document so that by the end of September, the final data can be used for Marketing and become part of our wonderful Kiwanis history. Please contact Alan with your assistance.

Fines...

Dan Dever proposed a fine on any member who has not hugged our speaker, Josie Parker—passed.

Happy Dollars...

Save up for a future meeting!
