From the President

TOL Congregants,

The TOL Coffeehouse committee's second concert is scheduled for January 6th (doors open 6:30pm) in the Reyner Family Social Hall. Jack Williams is a wonderful singer-songwriter, and will highlight another great music experience for the TOL Coffeehouse concert series. Several of Tree of Life's members (and others) continue to work very hard to make this second concert as fun, successful, and entertaining as the first. Groucho's will have concessions available before and during the show. The proceeds from a portion of the tickets sales and all of the concessions will go to the Tree of Life. Please try to attend. Some great Hanukkah presents can be found in the Tree of Life gift shop. Please check out Seth Wandersman's art slide show found in the Tree of Life atrium (Another great gift idea).

I hope to see you soon!

Bruce Miller

From the Rabbi

Dear Friends,

Since October we have had so many wonderful events at Tree of Life. Moving from the Hebrew month of Tishrei to Cheshvan is traditionally a time of some calm for the Jewish community but we have been moving full steam ahead throughout. Back in October we welcomed Rick Recht back to Tree of Life for a special Simchat Torah Shabbat and we celebrated the Bat Mitzvah of Kate Weiss among many other events therein.

In the month of November we also had plenty of cause for celebration as we enjoyed the first Friday Night Live service of the year featuring our temple band, Shorashim, and Tree of Life welcomed five new members to our community and to the Jewish people. It was a beautiful evening and we are so lucky to officially welcome them into our temple family.

Near the end of November we hosted the Interfaith Thanksgiving Service for the Trenholm Rd cluster of churches and synagogues. Nine clergy and over 200 congregants were in attendance at the service. It was a sweet and special event as we marked the 30th anniversary of the service which began at Tree of Life in 1987.

Following our service, the Tree of Life Sisterhood and Brotherhood teamed up to provide a phenomenal Oneg that really showcased the importance of going the extra mile to make guests feel welcomed. Thank you to everyone who made this beautiful service possible. We certainly did our community proud at this important gathering.

Now that Thanksgiving is behind us and we are entering December, it is time to look forward to our next major/minor holiday, Chanukah. Please see below for upcoming events to look out for in December.

- ◇ Lunch and Learn: Thursday, December 7, 2017 @ 12:00pm at Groucho's Deli in Five Points
- ◇ Friday Night Live: Friday, December 8, 2017 @ 6:30pm at Tree of Life
- ◇ Chanukah Happening: Sunday, December 10, 2017 @11:00am at Tree of Life
- ◇ Public Menorah Lighting: Tuesday, December 12, 2017, at 5:45pm at the State House
- ◇ Shabbat Chanukah and Consecration: Friday, December 15, 2017 at 6:30pm at Tree of Life
  - Bring dinner, matches, candles, and a Chanukah menorah for our Shabbat Chanukah latke dinner (made possible by the TOL Brotherhood) and candle lighting. Consecration will take place during our Shabbat Evening Service.

Wishing Everyone a Bright and Joyful Chanukah,

Rabbi Avi Mollo

From the Education Director

For decades now, the “December Dilemma” has been a hot topic amongst Jewish families and educators. Mistakenly, we used to think that how the winter holidays are celebrated is only an issue reserved for interfaith families to negotiate. As it turns out, Jews married to others Jews raising little Jews still have to contend with Christmas at school and work.

What works one year may not work another in terms of splitting time between families, distribution of presents – when, where, and how many – and the display of symbols and ritual practice.

Every year, we face new trends and challenges, and therefore have the opportunity to reevaluate our priorities and how we choose to express them. The common theme running throughout all of the holidays, however, is the focus on sacred time with family, making meaningful memories, and bringing light to a world that can seem dark and confusing. This can be achieved with all or none of the traditional components we typically think of – it all comes down to our intent.

Wishing you all a bright season,
Rabbi Carolan

Community Involvement

Jewish Family Service and Ronald McDonald House Needs YOU!

JFS is looking for people to help staff the Ronald McDonald House during the Christmas Holiday so that the staff may enjoy the holiday with their own families. Ronald McDonald House is a place where families find strength, and hope among each other while dealing with what is sometimes the most difficult situation of their lives.

3 days for volunteer opportunities!

Sunday December 24, Monday December 25, Tuesday December 26

JFS needs volunteers who can stay at the house two hours at a time from 9 am-10 pm on 12/24, and 12/25, and 9 am - 4 pm on 12/26.

This is a great way for students to earn volunteer hours while providing a Mitzvah at the same time!

Please contact Laney Cohen 787-2023 ext 220 for more information.
