INTRODUCTION

The Federal government, through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), funds housing programs operated by cities and counties. Two of the programs help low-income families afford a home – the Housing Choice Voucher (Section 8) rental assistance program and publicly owned housing.

There are also apartment complexes offering rents below market rates. That list is included on page 10. While most of these rental units have a waiting list, they tend to be shorter than the waiting list for federal rental assistance and public housing.

This directory includes information about housing rehabilitation, shared housing facilities, home purchasing assistance, and emergency shelters. It also contains information and phone numbers regarding resources in the City of San Diego, the County of San Diego, and 18 cities.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR HOUSING ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

Geography

Eligibility for housing programs depends upon your income, where you live, and any adjustments in income limits as required by HUD.

If you live in the City of San Diego, you may be eligible to participate in programs administered by the San Diego Housing Commission (SDHC). See page 4.

If you live in unincorporated areas of San Diego County, or in the cities of Coronado, Del Mar, Imperial Beach, Lemon Grove, Poway, San Marcos or Solana Beach, you may be eligible to participate in the County's housing programs, on pages 8 and 9.

If you live in the County of San Diego, but not in the City of San Diego or any of the cities listed above, you may qualify for help through the County's Department of Housing and Community Development (visit www.sdcountry.ca.gov/sdhcd for more information).

Income

The programs in this guide help families with a broad range of income levels. Most are restricted to families with incomes at or below 80 percent of the Area Median Income (as adjusted by HUD) but many are restricted to even lower incomes.

Rental Apartments

The apartments in this guide also differ in income eligibility. Please contact the apartment manager directly for information on rents and income requirements. Other requirements are listed in the "Clientele" column of the Citywide Affordable Rental Housing chart on page 10.

Shelters

For information on homeless shelters, please turn to the Citywide Homeless Shelters chart on page 23. Check the "Clientele" and "Special Needs" columns of the table to see if you are eligible.

Single Room Occupancy (SRO) Hotels

*These housing developments were created or are being built under City of San Diego inclusionary housing programs, which ensure that affordable housing is made available to lower income households when new market rate homes are built.

SINGLE ROOM OCCUPANCY (SRO) HOTELS

Another type of more affordable housing, as compared to market-rate apartments, is single room occupancy (SRO) hotels—not recommended for families but only for single individuals. The following is a list of single room occupancy (SRO) hotels. They are typically single room units with a bed, small refrigerator, and a microwave. These units offer affordable rents and usually do not require security deposits, nor first and last months' rent. All of the SROs listed are in the City of San Diego. All phone numbers are in the 619 area code unless otherwise noted.

FAIR HOUSING

The City of San Diego, under the direction of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), enforces the Fair Housing Act. The Act is designed to reduce discrimination in the housing rental, sales, lending, and insurance markets on the basis of race, sex, color, religion, national origin, familial status (presence of children), or handicap.

The City of San Diego contracts with the Fair Housing Council of San Diego and The Center for Social Services Advocacy to administer Fair Housing programs. The Council provides education, outreach, and referrals to the public, and operates Fair Housing programs such as the Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Program. (See next section for phone numbers.)
