Sense and Sensibility

A Lenten Exploration

Sam Portaro

"I can think of no better way to journey though Lent and Holy Week than to join Sam Portaro in an exploration of our five senses as pathways to a fuller awareness of ourselves and our relation to God."

—Frank Griswold, 25th Presiding Bishop, The Episcopal Church

"Sensuality and bodily experience: descriptions rarely applied to a Lenten study book, but here, directly on point. In an age when most of us live digitally, Sam beckons us to the incarnate life and asks us to engage our selves, souls, and bodies with Jesus as we travel toward the empty tomb. A must-read for any Christian on the journey today."

—Michael R. Sullivan, President/CEO, Kanuga Conferences

Hanging by a Thread

The Questions of the Cross

Samuel Wells

Hanging by a Thread revisits the harrowing story at the very heart of Christianity. With unswerving courage, elegant simplicity, and captivating example, it scrutinizes the assumption that the crucifixion was about fixing human problems, and instead suggests it was the culmination of God's disarming purpose to be with us, no matter what. This transformation from "for" to "with" discloses a profound, moving, and inspiring vision of what the central event of the Christian faith was truly about.

Living the Way of Love

A 40-Day Devotional

Mary Bea Sullivan

Foreword by Courtney V. Cowart and Stephanie Spellers

Forty brief reflections about the seven Jesus-centered practices identified by Presiding Bishop Michael Curry in “The Way of Love” initiative.

Sullivan tells stories from her own and others’ experiences as a starting point for discussion about how to seek and find a deeper connection to God. Rotating through each practice so that each is covered once a week, going deeper into the practice throughout the forty days, each reflection ends with questions designed to spur further discussion and assist readers in making the practices their own. Perfect for using as a Lenten devotional or at any time of the year, the book includes a guide for creating a personal rule of life and a downloadable Facilitator’s Guide.

Lenten Reading

Pilgrim Road, Revised Edition
A Benedictine Journey through Lent
Albert Holtz, O.S.B.

A classic Lenten devotional.

“Pilgrim Road does not feel like puffed-up spiritual advice from a wise sage; instead I felt it was written to the child in me, all too aware of not being ‘grown up’ enough (in Christ), yet still yearning to be assured that I am dearly loved. I look forward to re-reading it many times.”

Walking Home
From Eden to Emmaus

Margaret Guenther

An ideal book for reading groups during Lent. The spiritual life is oftentimes about putting one foot in front of another, always on the way, never home, until crossing another new threshold. However, the point of all our walking—whether tedious or joyous, rambling or goal-oriented—is getting home, as Guenther illustrates in this reflective work.
