Introduction

For awhile now, I've been praying the same prayer, every day.

Lord, create in me a desire for Your Word. Amen

It's short. It's simple. But it's soul deep. And it's a prayer, I feel, God finds joy in answering.

So earlier this year, I put together a study journal for my own personal use. It was simple. I wanted to read and study the scriptures, to dive in, to sit with God and have this conversation with Him through His Word. But the whole 'open your Bible and start reading' approach didn't really work for me. I just didn't know where to start.

So I prayed about a topic. When I asked God where to start, what He wanted to talk about, He answered right away and in a big way. With not just one topic, not even two or three. He didn't answer with some rain drops, he answered with a flood! I think I have monthly study topics to last a few years. When I asked God what He wanted to talk about, He filled up my calendar.

Now I would love to invite you to join me on this Soul Deep journey. Oh I am so hungry for The Word of God. I, just like all of the ladies joining in this project, am happy to share with you, with anyone who will listen, how God has shown up in our lives and what He has taught us through His Word.

My prayer for you, is the same prayer I began with. For God to create a desire in your heart for His Word. You see, I know if you have that desire, He will more than satisfy your hunger. He longs to have relationship with us, to spend time together, to reveal Himself to us. I have found in my life when there has been a distance between God and myself, it is because I have placed a barrier between us; He is standing faithful waiting for me to return.

The topic we will be diving into with this devotional is: Light.

We live in a dark world, and it seems to be getting darker day by day. Fear, depression, grief, abuse, illness can seem overwhelming. But there is hope. There is a light.

We want the world to know who is the light, and we want to know Him better.

Lord, create in me a desire for Your Word. AMEN

“AND JESUS SPOKE TO THEM SAYING, ‘I AM THE light of the world.
WHOEVER FOLLOWS ME WILL NOT WALK IN DARKNESS.
BUT WILL HAVE THE LIGHT OF LIFE.’” ~ JOHN 8:12

I love this topic and look forward to diving soul deep into the scriptures with you.

I have invited several of my Soul Friends along on this journey. Each will be sharing from their personal experiences and talking with us about the insight they received from studying these scriptures about light. What I love so much about having such a variety of friends joining in, is how the message from each individual scripture unfolds for them personally, and for you as well. The beauty of so many of us reading, studying, writing and sharing about the same topic and scriptures, is that God speaks to each of us individually and personally, and reveals exactly what we need to hear from Him.

Scattered throughout this devotional journal, you will also find Bible study tips and information about study resources. There are pages to color and plenty of room to journal and study creatively, so let your soul be inspired. I love to color in my Bible and write and highlight all over the books I read. So I hope when you’ve finished Let Your Light Shine, it is used up, marked over and dog-eared.

This is a devotional to use with your Bible not instead of your Bible. Open it up, and open your Bible. Linger there. Pray there. Meet God there. And then write down what He said, make notes of the moments you shared.

And then ... Tell somebody. Come tell us. Join our community on-line and share with us what God has revealed to you through spending time with Him in His Word.

I normally wouldn’t suggest that someone start a book at the back of the book, but that’s where I’m going to suggest you go before you ever begin with Day 1. In the back of this book I want to show you these sections.

- Praying Scripture. I believe prayer is a vital part of Bible study, so a bonus section just about prayer has been included. I invite you to go there first, where you will find blank prayer journal pages as well as a daily prayer prompt to use during your study time each day.
- Meet Our Contributors. Joining me on this soul deep study journey are several of my Soul Friends with the most beautiful hearts for Jesus. In this section, you can learn more about each one and find out how to personally connect with each contributor.
- Additional Resources. Flip a few more pages over and you will find a section listing all of the additional resources we offer which compliment this devotional. In addition, there are several free downloads which can be used in conjunction with Let Your Light Shine.

But the aspect of this devotional and journal I am most excited about is such a blessing.

For every copy of Let Your Light Shine purchased, a woman incarcerated in prison or living in a shelter will receive a copy of Let Your Light Shine for free.

Yes, free.

To Encourage the Study of God's Divinely Inspired Word.

So thank you for partnering with us in ministry and blessing other women with these Bible study materials.

Soul Friends, I so look forward to this study journey with you. And I pray that God reveal His light to you in life changing ways.

Blessings,

YOU ARE THE
light of the world

A CITY SET ON A HILL
CANNOT BE hidden

The Choice is Yours

BY DONNA FENDER

“YOU ARE THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD, A CITY SET ON A HILL CANNOT BE HIDDEN.”

MATTHEW FIVE : FOURTEEN

"I don't like to fly" she exclaimed. "Well, the good news is that you don't have to fly because I am the one who is going on the trip", I replied. The time came and as we stood in the airport waiting for me to board the plane a familiar statement rang in my ears. "Remember who you are and Who you represent."

Who do we represent? What a loaded question.

I grew up in church, singing all the Bible songs and being told that there was a God who was real and would take care of all my needs. I learned when I was young that I had a light inside of me that was there to shine for the whole world to see. But if you are reading this, you may not have a clue what shining a light means....especially when it means that you are shining it for Jesus.

So, what does shining a light mean?

We must first understand who the Light is.

In John 8:12 we read, "Jesus spoke to them saying 'I am the Light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.'" (ESV).

Jesus is the Light. Jesus gives us life and when we accept His offer to follow Him, we have His light in us to share for all to see.

When we make the choice to decline His offer, we continue to live in darkness and are lost. In other words, we have something missing and will continue to look around in every aspect of our lives to fill the void....with no success, I might add.

Without Jesus, we become a reflection of the world.

So, until we follow Jesus and accept His free gift of life everlasting, we cannot shine His light. God chases us and graces us with Himself and we could not ask for anything more. When we decide to be a Jesus follower we can then learn from our focus verses how to shine for Him.

Matthew 5:14-16 says this: "You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in Heaven." (ESV)

Basically, we become a reflection of the One who brings light to our life. We need to stand high, not being ashamed of the light we have been given. When others ask why we shine, we are able to share that it is because Jesus lives in us. With Jesus, we become a reflection of Him.

Living in Jesus offers true freedom and we become a reflection of His love and perfection.

What does your reflection look like?

- The brightness of His Light or the absence of His light.
- Do you follow the world or do you follow Jesus?

We have a choice and we can choose to represent the Light or the dark.

Choosing to follow Jesus is not as complicated as we think. We must simply believe and accept His invitation.

Read the following verses to learn what Jesus has done for you and me!

- Romans 3:23, "for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God," (NIV)
- Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." (ESV)
- Romans 5:8, "but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." (ESV)
- Romans 10:13, "For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." (ESV)
- Romans 10:9-10, "if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved." (ESV)

What's your choice?

Diving Deeper

Read:

1. Read John 1:5. "The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." (ESV)

Is there darkness in your life? Declare what is dark in your life and ask God to bring His light in the darkest corners of your life.

God loves you and me so much and want us to be His reflections for all to see.

2. Read John 10:10. "The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly." (ESV)

Jesus wants to offer us a life of abundance, why not represent Him and all that He offers? What does it look like to represent God?

If it was your last day on earth, who or what would people say that you represent?

Let's be women who know who we are and Who we represent!

Reflect and Relate:

1. With Jesus we reflect Him....even in our brokenness. We are all broken, even those of us who "grew up in church." Your story can be re-written with a different ending when we let Jesus write our story. Read John 3:30. "He must increase, but I must decrease." (ESV)

When we decrease so God can increase, our story becomes less about what happened to us and more about what God did to rescue and redeem us. How does this perspective re-write your story?

2. Have you ever shared your story with another? If not, practice reminding yourself what God has done in your life. Journal some notes. Then ask a friend if you can practice sharing your story with them.

Start here: What words describe you now after God has rewritten your story.

Prayer:

Dear Lord, I pray for each woman who will receive and read this devotion on Light. Lord, thank you for shining so bright in a dark, dark world so that we may have hope. Lord, help us to understand that even in our brokenness that we can still shine Your light but if we do not know you, we are trapped in a life of darkness. Lord, I pray that we accept your invitation and choose You! In Jesus' name, Amen.

LET YOUR SOUL BE Inspired

When You Need a Light in the Darkness

BY BETSY DECROZ

“SEND OUT YOUR LIGHT AND YOUR TRUTH; LET THEM LEAD ME; LET THEM BRING ME TO YOUR HOLY HILL AND TO YOUR DWELLING!”

PSALM FORTY-THREE : THREE

When was the last time you experienced a power outage?

In the overseas country where I live, electricity cuts happen often. Everyday activities like cooking or taking a shower can be downright difficult in the dark. Most people in my city live in high rise buildings, and let me tell you, the worst part of a power outage is going down stairs.

Just the other evening, I had to go down six flights of stairs in the dark!

Scary when you're a clumsy woman like me who manages to fall down and hurt herself even by daylight. As I stood on the stairs looking into the blackness, fear almost paralyzed me. My husband and daughter were a few steps below me, but I couldn't see them.

The stairs had no handrail, but I was able to inch my way down by sliding my hand against the wall beside me and creeping my foot forward to feel the drop of each step.

Finally my husband got out his cell phone to shine light on the stairs.

A little light made all the difference. Fear left when I could see my way.

Sometimes life circumstances leave us feeling like we're groping in the dark, unsure of our way. You may be grieving the loss of a loved one, struggling to care for your children, or caught in an abusive relationship. Depression can set in when you can't see the way forward.

When life feels like a staircase in the dark, Psalm 43 offers a beautiful prayer:

*"Send out your light and your truth;
let them lead me;
let them bring me to your holy hill and to your dwelling!" Psalm 43:3 (ESV)*

The Psalms are a book of prayers to read and make our own. When I feel downhearted, it helps to remember that the men and women of the Bible faced tough times too. We don't know what the writer of Psalm 43 was going through, but in verse 11 he wrote, "Why, my soul, are you downcast? Why so disturbed within me?" (NIV) It sounds to me like he was depressed.

How wonderful that today we can read his words and pray along with Him. This verse shows me three ways to pray through discouraging times.

Lord, send your light.

God's light dispels depression, renews hope and gives guidance. When life's challenges leave us unsure of our way, we can pray for God to shine His light on our path. He knows the way forward, and He'll show us each step we need to take.

Let your truth guide me.

When we're discouraged, we're susceptible to Satan's lies. Satan whispers to us: "Your situation is hopeless," "No one loves you," or "You're worthless." In God's Word, we find the truth: "Nothing is impossible with God," "Jesus gave his life for you," and "You're fearfully and wonderfully made."

The truth we find in the Bible gives us the encouragement and wisdom we need. I'm learning that when I take even ten minutes to read the Word each day, I find hope, comfort, and guidance for everything life throws my way.

Lead me to Yourself.

When the Psalmist prayed that God would lead him to His Holy dwelling, he was thinking of the temple in Jerusalem, where people went to meet with God. Because of the Holy Spirit's presence with believers, today we can meet God in our living rooms or on the walking trail. A few minutes with Him can lift our spirits.

When I take time to listen to a worship song, pray, or read a portion of scripture, I remember how much God loves me, and I gain a new perspective on life. I see again how God is great enough to handle my problems.

When you feel down or unsure of your way, remember God has the light and truth you need. He wants nothing more than to lead you to Himself. We might not always know where we're going, but we can find comfort in remembering Who we're with.

Diving Deeper

Read:

1. In many ancient Hebrew manuscripts, Psalm 42 and 43 are one Psalm. One verse repeats itself three times in these Psalms. Let's listen to the Psalmist's self-talk:

*"Why, my soul, are you downcast?
Why so disturbed within me?
Put your hope in God,
for I will yet praise him,
my Savior and my God."* Psalm 43:5 (NIV)

What do these verses tell you about the writer's frame of mind?

What can we learn from his words about how to react to hard times?

2. Read Psalm 42 and write down the verse you like best in the space provided below:

Reflect and Relate:

1. Take a few moments to consider what situations might be adding heaviness to your heart. List a few of these, and ask God to shine His light and give you His perspective on each one.
2. Do you have concerns or problems you don't know how to solve? Make a list of them and ask God to give you wisdom and guidance.

Prayer:

Lord, I praise you because you are the source of light and truth. Help me to look to you for hope and guidance today. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Adrienne Cooper Terrebonne lives in Valdosta, GA, with her husband and three children. She is a lover of all things chocolate, a recovering people-pleaser, and loves to encourage other moms in their journey of discovering Christ in the chaos.

You can connect with her on her blog at www.blessedbeyondexhaustion.com.

Amanda Wells is the proud wife of a third-generation farmer, and they have taken Psalm 127:5 literally, raising their quiverful of six kids on the farm. She loves baking, reading, writing, and arithmetic (kidding!).

Amanda writes about faith, homeschooling on the farm, and family life at farmwyfe.com.

Additional Resources

Dive deeper into God's Word with the Soul Deep Scripture Journal. A 62-page journal with two full pages of space to journal for each of the Let Your Light Shine scriptures.

The Scripture page includes 5 sections:

- Read: the day's scripture
- Reflect: what does this scripture mean
- Relate: how do I apply this scripture to my life
- Pray: talk to God about the scripture and topic
- Remember: what is the day's key take-a-way

The Verse Mapping page includes plenty of room to map out all of the words and phrases of the day's scripture.

Free gifts for you!

Incorporate prayer into your Soul Deep Let Your Light Shine study time with our 31 Days of Prayer Prompts. Download your printable calendar with 31 daily prayer prompts aligned with the daily scripture.

Blank Scripture Journal Pages & Daily Reading List. One of our goals in developing the Soul Deep materials is to create resources engaging to use if you have a few minutes or if you have hours. Another goal was to make these materials available for little to no cost. To that end, even if you can not invest in a Soul Deep Devotional or Soul Deep Scripture Journal, we want you to invest in spending time in God's Word.

Creative souls who love coloring in their Bibles will enjoy our Bible Journaling Page Templates. Whether a novice or a pro, these templates are super easy to use. Print and use as a color sheet or transfer the design into your Journaling Bible. But beware, download these free printables and you'll be hooked!
