1.0 PREAMBLE

1.1 Introduction

The Forms 1 to 4 Literature in English syllabus outlines areas to be covered in the learning of Literature in English. Literature is an ideological tool which is used to create self-awareness, inculcate the principle of inclusivity and acceptable attitudes, values and habits. The Literature in English syllabus focuses on the literary qualities of imaginative prose, poetry and drama from which Unhu/Ubuntu/Vumunhu (societal norms and values), identity and the prevailing ideological framework are promoted in the learner. It generates interest in literature in general and Zimbabwean literature in particular, so as to help learners acquire knowledge about themselves and their society as well as other societies.

1.2 Rationale

The syllabus is intended to capture the experiences of Zimbabweans, Africans and other peoples of the world. It builds on the foundation laid at Infant and Junior Levels and also lays a broad foundation for Advanced Level Literature and imparts life-long skills of appreciating literature and literary works. It provides sound background knowledge for 'A' level literature. The syllabus promotes environmental and heritage awareness. The learners' knowledge of literature enables them to tackle life situations with a critical eye, at the same time handle social relations humanely. The syllabus promotes enterprise skills through creative writing and audio-visual performances.

1.3 Summary of Content

The Forms 1 to 4 Literature in English syllabus covers literature from Zimbabwe, Africa and the rest of the world. The emphasis is on Zimbabwean literary heritage which is traceable in pre-colonial, colonial and post-colonial phases. The syllabus will encompass the study of drama, prose and poetry

1.4 Assumption

It is assumed that the learners:

- are able to read and express themselves in English

- have basic exposure to the different genres of literature , that is, drama, prose and poetry
- have a culture to which they can relate
- have had an awareness of contemporary issues such as HIV/AIDS, poverty, gender issues and corruption among others
- are aware of the local literary writers and their works
- appreciate the need to study literature

1.5 Cross - Cutting Themes

Through the teaching and learning of Literature in English in secondary education, the following cross-cutting themes should be taken into consideration:

- Children's rights and responsibilities
- Communication
- Gender Equity
- Human Rights
- Sexuality, HIV and AIDS
- Child Protection
- Heritage
- Collaboration
- Enterprise Skills
- Environmental Issues
- Guidance and Counselling
- Life Skills

2.0 PRESENTATION OF SYLLABUS

The Literature in English syllabus is a single document covering Forms 1- 4.

3.0 AIMS

The syllabus aims to:

- 3.1 develop skills of critical thinking in learners
- 3.2 cultivate a culture of extensive reading for knowledge and enjoyment
- 3.3 instil in learners Zimbabwean values of Unhu/ Ubuntu/Vumunhu
- 3.4 enhance patriotism and appreciation of national heritage
- 3.5 develop in learners the knowledge and content of the different genres of literature
- 3.6 equip learners with skills necessary for teamwork, leadership and enterprise

- 3.7 promote creative writing skills for livelihood and economic development

4.0 SYLLABUS OBJECTIVES

It is expected that by the end of the four-year period of study, learners will be able to:

- 4.1 critically analyse different literary texts
- 4.2 display an understanding of both literal and metaphorical meanings of literary texts
- 4.3 offer solutions to challenges raised in the studied texts
- 4.4 synthesise ideas and produce comprehensive arguments
- 4.5 respond independently to literary works relating them to their own experiences
- 4.6 demonstrate an enjoyment of the different genres of literature
- 4.7 appreciate the Zimbabwean values of Unhu/Ubuntu/Vumunhu
- 4.8 acknowledge and be proud of their identity as Zimbabweans
- 4.9 create own literary works to make a living and create employment
- 4.10 use literary skills to manage their own lives

5.1 Time Allocation

The learning area should be allocated 4 periods of at least 35 minutes per week. At least 1 educational tour and one performance and display per year are recommended.

6.0 TOPICS

- Introduction to literature
- Rationale for the study of literature
- Genres of literature
- Literary elements
- Background to set texts
- Setting
- Plots and sub-plots
- Themes
- Characterisation
- Literary techniques
- Critical appreciation

5.0 METHODOLOGY AND TIME ALLOCATION

Interactive, multi-sensory and holistic approaches are recommended in the teaching of Literature in English.

The use of the following suggested methods should meet the diverse needs of all learners:

- Research
- Presentations by students and resource persons
- Discussion
- Debate
- Performance and Display
- Use of ICT tools
- Drama
- Role play
- Song and dance
- Educational tours
- Interviews
