ROLE OF OBAMA LEGAL ADVISOR IN COMMERCE RECALL CALLED INTO QUESTION

By Randy Economy and Brian Hews

Two weeks ago, a major campaign effort to recall four seated members of the Commerce City Council was declared invalid by election officials at the Los Angeles Registrar Recorders Office.

Hews Media Group-Community Newspapers learned that the Registrar declared between 800 to 1000 different signatures-over 4,000 in total-on four different recall petitions invalid due to the signature gathering leader, Sylvia Ortiz, deliberately forging signatures and adding

By Brian Hews and Daniel E. Beckham

Los Angeles County Sheriff candidate Todd Rogers and his top campaign advisor Leo Briones both made threatening statements to Hews Media Group-Community Newspaper Investigative Reporter Randy Economy during a series of telephone conversations last Friday afternoon after Economy inquired about their relationship with Kristin Otto Herzog.

Herzog made headlines around the world back in 2010 when Hollywood based TMZ reported that he was "a convicted felon with a history of firearms abuse" and had been involved with Iksana Grigorieva, who is the former companion of actor Mel Gibson.

Herzog denied that he was ever convicted as a felon in a Friday conversation with Economy.

HMG-CN then received a four-page print out of Herzog's past encounters with law enforcement showing several arrests

Cerritos reinvests in its outstanding parks and recreation facilities

By Mayor Mark E. Pulido

Growing up in Cerritos, I felt privileged to have access to the many parks and recreation facilities available throughout the city. Today, I am delighted that my children are able to experience these same parks and facilities, which continue to be as fresh and beautiful as they were when I was growing up. The City is committed to providing residents with the best recreation opportunities possible. Cerritos has 25 parks and recreation facilities, including neighborhood parks, community centers, the Cerritos Swim & Fitness Center, the Cerritos Iron Wood-9 Golf Course and the Cerritos

Sports Complex. The gymnasiums at Cerritos and Whitney High Schools offer two additional facilities for recreation.

As part of the City's ongoing efforts to keep its parks vibrant and updated, new playground surfacing was recently installed at Joe A. Gonsalves Park and at the Cerritos Sports Complex. The new surfacing is made of a rubberized material and is part of an ongoing project funded by Community Development Block Grants to upgrade playgrounds throughout the city with materials and equipment that adhere to Americans with Disabilities Act standards and Consumer Product Safety guidelines. All neighborhood parks will gradually be upgraded with the new playground surface.

Playground resurfacing at Heritage Park will be completed in June. The park also will soon showcase new playground equipment and a reconstructed picnic shelter. The new playground equipment will include colorful slides and swing sets, and a decorative colored concrete walkway also will be featured.

Camp Liberty, the City's largest outdoor covered venue, is in the process of being upgraded. Constructed in 1988, the previously existing wood frame structure has been demolished and a temporary shelter has been raised. The City plans to build a replacement structure in the future.

In honor of its efforts to provide outstanding recreation programs and facilities for children, Cerritos was recently named a "Playful City USA" for the seventh consecutive year.

KaBOOM!, a national non-profit organization that is dedicated to saving play, in partnership with the philanthropic Humana Foundation, honored 212 communities from across the country with the designation Playful City USA. Playful City USA is a national recognition program that honors cities and towns across the nation that make a commitment to play and physical activity by developing unique local action plans to increase the quantity and quality of play in their communities.

The "Community Services Program" in the February, May, August and November issues of "The Cerritos News" offers a wide variety of fun parks and recreation classes for you and your family. The City's website at cerritos.us also offers extensive information about fitness programs and facilities under the "Recreation" link. I encourage all Cerritos residents to participate in the City's parks and recreation programs to improve their health and happiness

'Andy's Law' Petition to Assemblywoman Cristina Garcia Seeks Stricter Sentences on Hit & Run Drivers

By Daniel E. Beckham

A petition has been sent to Assemblywoman Cristina Garcia asking to impose stricter sentences on motorist/drivers that flee in "Hit and Run" collisions where injury or death resulted to a pedestrian, runner or cyclist. The petition has rallied close to 700 supporters.

Garcia represents a wide swath of Southeast Los Angeles Count including the cities of Cerritos, Artesia, Downey, Norwalk and Bell Gardens.

HMG-CN exclusively interviewed Carmen Tellez, a schoolteacher in El Paso, Texas, regarding the recent tragedy of her son, who was killed by a drunk motorist.

Luis "Andy" Garcia came to Los Angeles in search of the big city life and new opportunities. He maintained employment at Starbucks until September 14, 2013 when Carmen, his mother, woke up to hear the news of her son's death. A speeding drunk driver dragged Luis on his bike under the drunk motorist's car for several hundred feet.

Carmen received a call from the Los Angeles County Coroner's Office. At first, the mother was defensive and could not believe what she was hearing, but after the Assistant Coroner confirmed all the information Carmen realized her worst fear had come true.

The drunk motorist also hit cyclist Mario Lopez, who was knocked into the cement, leaving him with a broken back. Another victim, Ulises Melgar, was hit so hard and launched so high into the air that he almost sailed over the railing of the bridge to the river below.

The two other victims were friends of Garcia. They had recently met half a year prior and became close friends.

"My son, Luis died at the scene", commented the distraught mother.

"Both Ulises and Mario ended up in the hospital. The compression fracture Mario sustained to his lower back forced him to move back home with his parents and lose three months of work."

Sources confirmed that the drunk driver was none other than Wendy Villegas, a 21 year-old college student. Wendy immediately drove off and did not think to check on the well-being of the three cyclists.

A motorist, Jeff Flores, who witnessed the scene of the crime followed Wendy to his residence. At 7:15, the following morning law enforcement were able to verify that she had been driving drunk.

Sources told HMG-CN she was drunk at the time of booking.

She was charged with a DUI, hit and run resulting in injury or death and vehicular manslaughter and was released on a $100,000 bond.

On March 22, 2014, Villegas entered a plea agreement of 3 years and 8 months in State Prison.

In accordance to California law, Villegas could have been sentenced to up to 15 years for killing Andy, injuring Mario and Ulises, fleeing the scene, and driving under the influence.

The prosecution instead offered her a plea bargain of 3 years and 8 months— a sentence that fits within the window of what she might have received for driving drunk and leaving the scene of the crash. In addition, because she is young and has a clean record, she will likely only serve a portion of that time.

"My family was not consulted about the plea offer and nor were the two young men involved in this horrific tragedy", commented Carmen Tellez.

"The only chance we had to participate in the legal process was after the fact,

A spokesman for the billboard company said it was purchased by Golden State Consultants in Santa Fe Springs.

In February 2013, HMG-CN exclusively reported that Art Chacon, Director at the Central Basin Municipal Water District in Commerce, had his life threatened by Rick Mayer and that during the investigation HMG-CN found that Mayer owned Golden State Consultants and R and M Consulting in Santa Fe Springs.

Mayer has since moved to Whittier.

HMG-CN conducted several additional searches under Golden State Consultants that confirmed Rick Mayer owned the company.

Mayer owns the lone active California Corporation filed with the California Secretary of State called Golden State Consultants & Associates, Inc., based in Whittier, CA.

According to a WHOIS internet name search, Mayer owns the domain name GoldenStateConsultants.com, which is registered to Golden State Consultants.

The company is based at 13619 Terrace Pl., Whittier, CA., with phone number of 562-325-5551.

A YellowPages.com search lists Golden State Consultants at 8531 Wellsford Pl, Santa Fe Springs, CA 90670, with the same phone number as the Whittier office, 562 325-5551.

HMG-CN attempted to contact Baca

by phone and email several times for comment about Mayer but the only contact numbers are found on his website workingjoebaca.com, and those calls and emails were never returned.

In a recent Facebook post, Baca proclaimed, "campaign finance has always been an important issue. Voters can make better decisions if they know certain candidates are not disclosing information about significant contributors."

But that runs counter to Baca's past.

From 1999 to 2001, Baca was fined several times by various election commissions for campaign finance violations.

Baca was fined $3,200 by the Federal Elections Commission for five campaign violations in the 1999 special election and in the 2000 primary election for accepting banned corporate contributions and not disclosing campaign debts.

In 2001, Baca was forced to return $4,575 after accepting $6,575-an excessive contribution-from Keep the Seat Democratic Committee.

Baca also failed to disclose $10,000 in contributions received just before his election in November 2001.

Lastly, then-State Assemblyman Baca was fined $6,500 by the state Fair Political Practices Commission for failing to list the occupations or employers of major campaign contributors.

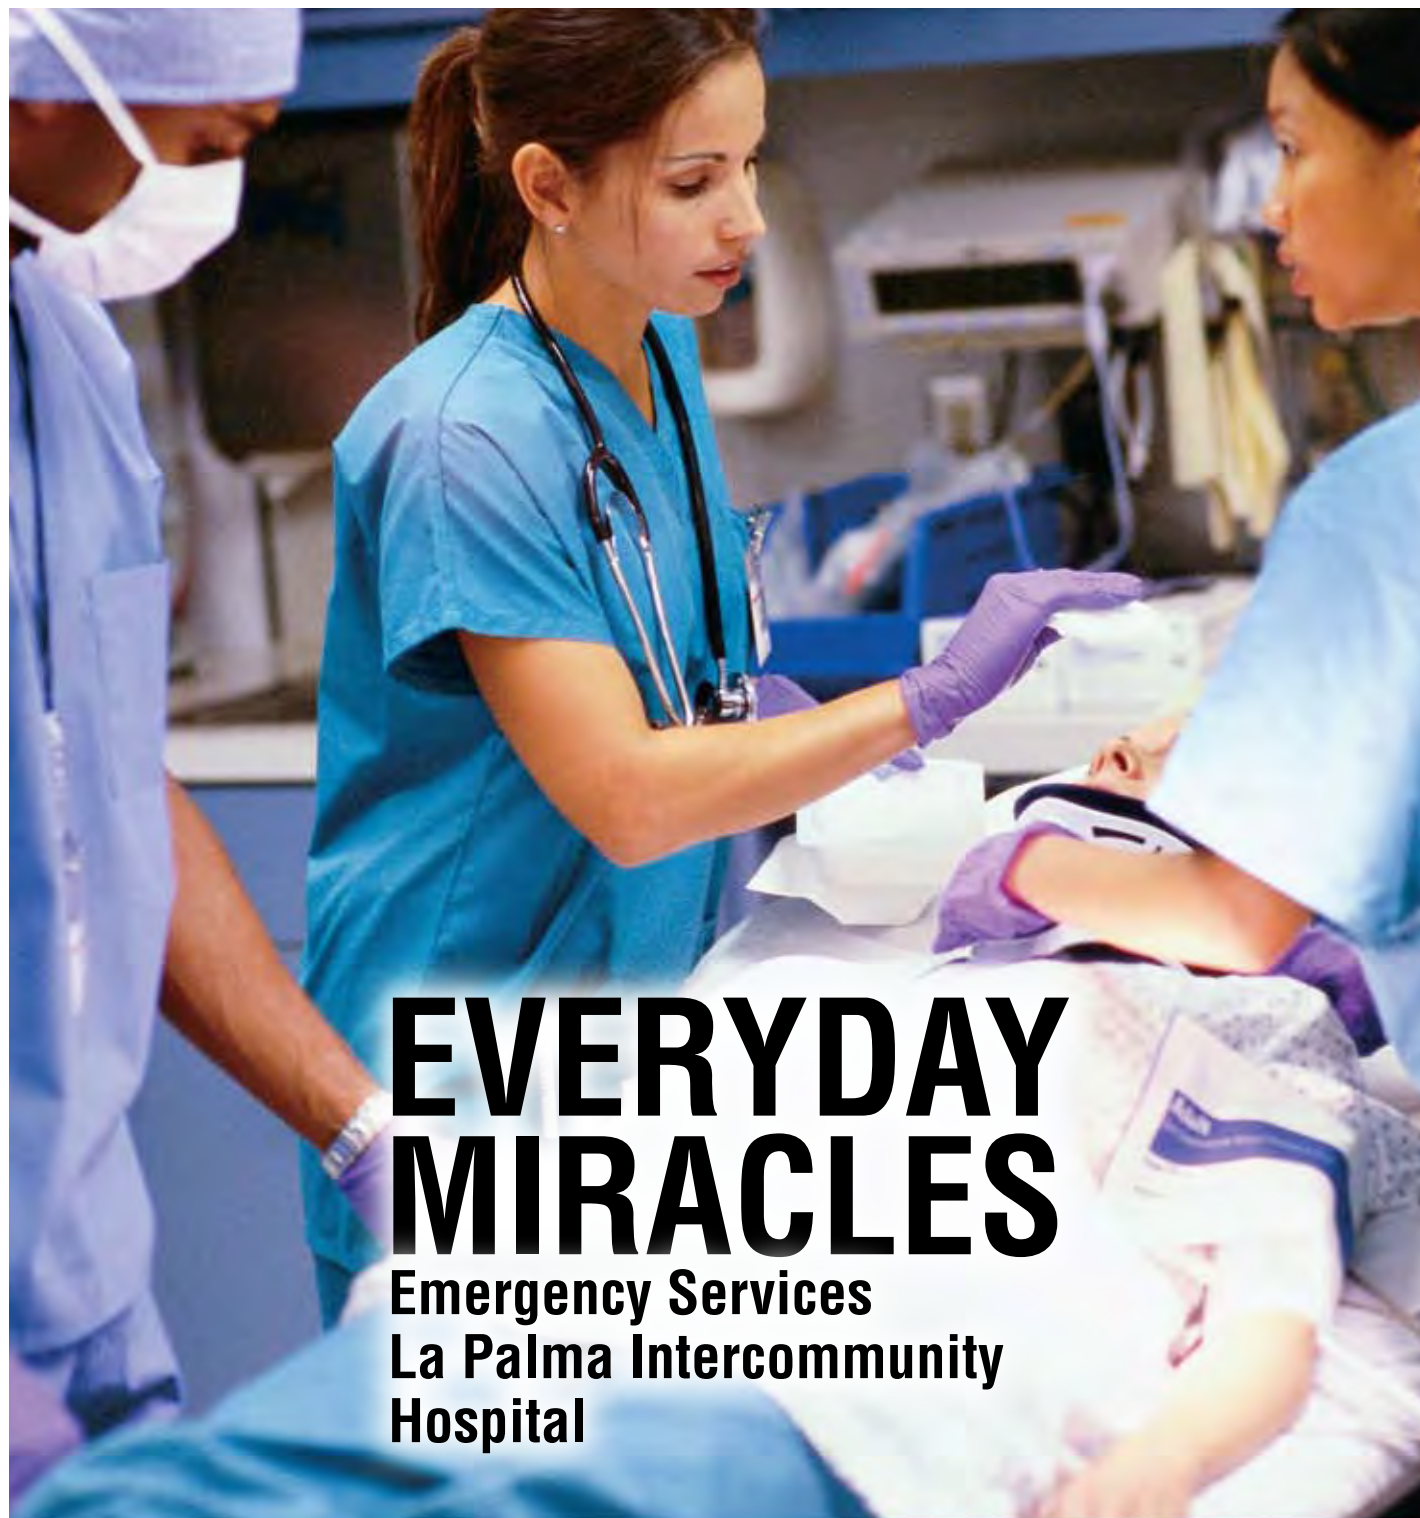

When contacted by HMG-CN Jeff Corless, spokesperson for 31st Congressional District Candidate Lesli Gooch said, "The Democrats have thrown everything but the kitchen sink at trying to take this seat back for Barack Obama and Nancy Pelosi's agenda for even bigger government. Its no surprise they would allow a convicted felon to run their Independent Expenditures."

NFIB Endorses Mario Guerra for State Senate

The National Federation of Independent Business, California's and the nation's leading small business association, today announced the endorsement of Mario Guerra for Senate District 32.

"NFIB is very proud to endorse Mario Guerra for the State Senate," said John Kabateck, NFIB/CA executive director. "He understands the important role small businesses play in our state and what needs to be done to save California's economy and jobs. He has proven as a leader in his own city that stemming the wave of out-of-control spending, onerous regulations, and frivolous lawsuits – and giving mom and pops more opportunities to succeed – paves the way to recovery. We know that he will apply that same business acumen and dedication as a member of the Senate."

NFIB has more than 23,000 dues-paying members in California representing a cross-section of the state's economy. The endorsement comes from NFIB's SAFE (Save America's Free Enterprise) Trust, the organization's political action committee, and is based on positions regarding key small-business issues including health care, taxes, labor and regulatory issues.

Registrar officials said, "We have never seen anything like this, it is about as bad as it gets, and we will call on the Los Angeles District Attorney to investigate Ortiz."

Ortiz reportedly admitted to forgeries and adding names of deceased people in a meeting with Registrar officials and immediately retained an attorney to represent her after the meeting.

But Ortiz seems to be just another player in a much larger scheme to torpedo the recall campaign and discredit the proponents.

The scheme allegedly includes a long-time Los Angeles political operative, the Commerce City Attorney, and an attorney who was nominated by President Clinton to the Federal Bench and defended President Obama against those who said he was not an American.

Ortiz was a former colleague of accused felon and long-time political operative Angel Gonzales. Gonzales was involved in a high profile corruption case involving another convicted felon Rick Mayer. Gonzales eventually plead down to a misdemeanor.

Other sources are telling HMG-CN that Gonzales had a hand in the signature fiasco. "Look, everyone in Commerce can spot when Gonzales is involved in seedy political work around here," said the source who did not want to be identified for fear of retribution.

When Tina Baca Del Rio ran successfully for election, Gonzales was her campaign manager. Sources are telling HMG-CN that after the campaign, Baca Del Rio owed Gonzales a substantial amount of money that she could not pay back.

In exchange, sources are saying Gonzales demanded Baca Del Rio hire his good friend and current city attorney Eddie Olivo, which they did

Five months prior to the hiring Olivo at the behest of Baca Del Rio, the council voted to fire Olivo.

In November of 2013, Olivo attempted to stop the recall by arbitrarily ruling that the newspaper the city has published its public notices in for nearly two decades did not qualify, therefore disallowing three of four recall campaigns to move forward.

That assertion was challenged by the newspaper and eventually thrown out.

Now, the role of a powerful political attorney who has defended President Barack Obama in past legal scuffles and who was nominated to the Federal Bench by California Senator Barbara Boxer, may have been working on behalf of the four recall targets through back door efforts with top Commerce officials.

Fredric Woocher with Los Angeles law firm of Strumwasser and Woocher said in a recent telephone interview with HMG-CN that he was not "directly involved" in the recall campaign in Commerce.

But HMG-CN has obtained emails and a voice mail recording of Woocher that contradicts his statement and could trigger a legal challenge from recall proponents.

Several emails between Commerce resident/activist Jaime Valencia and Woocher starting in October 2013 show Woocher advising Valencia on how to proceed with the recall effort. The advice centered on the required publishing of notices about the recall.

On April 29, 2014, Valencia asks Woocher several times to represent the recall proponents after it was learned that hundreds of signatures were deemed invalid.

Woocher wrote that either he or his partner would handle the recall situation, depending on which attorney "had the time."

Then Woocher left a voice mail message with Sylvia Ortiz who had tried to contact Woocher about the invalid signatures. The voice message was forwarded to HMG-CN on April 30, 2014.

The voice mail directly contradicts Woocher's statement of "direct involvement" in the recall campaign.

The voice mail transcribed:

Woocher: "It's Monday morning, around 9:45. I'm sorry I didn't get back to you (Ortiz) earlier. I knew you had left messages on Thursday and Friday and I was unexpectedly out at another matter."

"Unfortunately, we have a conflict with respect to the Commerce recall. Sometime ago we provided some advice to the city through the city attorneys office, in respect to what some of the rules were pertaining to recall signatures," Woocher states in a clear voice.

"So, while we're not actively involved in the matter at this time I think it would create a conflict if we were to provide advice to, uh, so we're an adversary to the city with respect to what happened later. So, I'm sorry we can't help."

The voice mail raises several ethical questions.

If Woocher advised Commerce officials prior to October 2013, it would be a conflict of interest and he should have informed Valencia of the conflict at that time and ceased communication.

But Woocher kept in contact with Valencia.

If Woocher advised Commerce officials after October 2013, it would be a conflict of interest and he should have informed Commerce of the conflict at that time and ceased communication.

But Woocher said in his voice mail that he could no longer advise Ortiz and the recall proponents because he had advised Commerce about the recall.

"This is typical Commerce politics," said Commerce resident and activist Mike Alvarado, "it looks like it was a coordinated effort to discredit the recall effort. There is just way too many connections between the recall opponents."

Downey Kiwanis Foundation Playground Project Takes Shape at Furman Park

By Tammye McDuff

Furman Park was established in 1955 as part of the Downey Recreation and Park Special District. It serves over 300,000 visitors per year through summer concerts. Camps. Picnic shelters, baseball, basketball, tennis courts, walking trails, two playgrounds and a multipurpose room. The two playground areas were last updated in 1990, since this time due to wear and tear or vandalism, many original pieces of playground equipment has been removed.

The Downey Kiwanis Foundation has been approached to adopt-a-park that would benefit the community as well as meet the objectives of the service organization. The Parks and Recreation Department submitted a proposal to replace the Furman Pak playground equipment to the Kiwanis Foundation for consideration of approval. March 2014 the City was notified that the organization had reviewed and approved the proposal to replace the playground equipment. They have selected PlayPower Little Tykes for the installation. The playground design includes a space theme paying homage to Downey's history. The proposed plan features structures that include a cover play area, slides, swing set, and climber with the Kiwanis logo placed within the playground design.

The City of Downey is a member of the National Joint Powers Alliance [NJPA], allowing the city to access competitively bid nation contracts. The City is able to utilize the existing NJPA contract with PlayPower for its Little Tike's Commercial brand of playgrounds and equipment.

Proposed Project timeline upon approval of the Reimbursement Agreement and Award of Contract by council, will be to order equipment June 2014 with a playground dedication; reopening and pre-summer concert ceremony July 2014.

The cost of the Furman Park project is an estimated $255,238.79 of which Kiwanis will provide $80,000 upon Reimbursement Agreement approval. An additional $173,239 is required from the General fund Reserve to cover the remaining project cost. The General Fund Reserve will be reimbursed $75,000 July 2015 and $75,000 in July 2016 for a total of $230,000 toward the project cost.

The Downey Kiwanis Foundation was formed in late 1985 to provide a vehicle by which Kiwanians as well as friends and other members of the community could contribute to a managed perpetual fund in support of specific emphasis on benefiting the youth of our community.

PlayPower, Inc. is the world's largest, fully integrated manufacturer of commercial playground equipment, floating dock systems and lifts for boats and personal watercraft. The company is headquartered in Huntersville, NC.

Mario A. Guerra for State Senate.

VOTE JUNE 3RD FOR MARIO A. GUERRA

Good people can make a difference.

It doesn't matter if you are Democrat, Republican, or Independent.

It matters that we stand together so we can get rid of the corrupt politicians in our government.

That way we can have good people in office who really want to make sure our kids get an excellent education, and who work to keep our communities safe.

~ Mario A. Guerra

Mario A. Guerra: Stand together to end political corruption

The amount of corruption in our government is embarrassing. I'll vote for independent, public investigations of public corruption, and vote to kick any corrupt politician out of office. Simply put...we deserve better.

Mario A. Guerra: Give our kids the kind of education that gets them ahead

Education is one of the civil rights struggles of our time. Every kid deserves an excellent education that helps them go to college or find a good job. I'll vote to give classrooms every dollar they need, but hold educators accountable for results.

Mario A. Guerra: Keep our families safe from crime

No one should be afraid to walk alone at night. No child should be afraid of gangs or drug dealers at school. I'll vote to increase the number of police on our streets and at schools, and I'll vote to stop letting violent felons out of jail early.

Mario A. Guerra: Working with everyone to get the job done right on felony charges, which Herzog claimed some were dismissed.

There is too much partisan politics in Sacramento. Everyone has good ideas – it doesn't matter if you are a Republican, a Democrat, or an Independent. I'll work across party lines with anyone with a good idea.

HMG-CN has been investigating claims that Rogers had been in contact with Herzog who owns and operates a private bodyguard company based in Hollywood.

HMG-CN was sent a picture of Rogers to replace his former boss Lee Baca as Sheriff in next Tuesday's primary election battle.

Leo Briones, Rogers top political consultants scoffed when asked if there was a relationship between Herzog and Rogers.

Herzog said he was encouraged to attend the fundraiser.

"This is total bull*. This is not good for the County. F Todd would not do this. This is f (Paul) Tanaka's people doing this on Todd. I want to warn you before you publish these photos," Brinot "given us any money."

Briones went on to say that Herzog was "not a convicted felon."

"Herzog showed up to a fundraiser. We aren't taking money," Briones said.

Then Briones told Economy, "Todd will kill you if you publish these photos."

"This is a dumb story. If you print this, Todd Rogers will kill you. You do not want to go there. Why are you messing with this (situation)," Briones said.

After the exchange, Rogers called HMG-CN and denied that he has had any past relationship with Herzog.

"I haven't gotten a dime (from Herzog)," Rogers said.

"We are checking his criminal history and this is asinine to have to qualify what took place," Rogers told Economy in the phone interview.

"These guys are coming out of the wood work. There were lawyers there at the campaign event. I have events every day, I can't police who comes in and out of my events," Rogers said.

Two days later, on Sunday, May 26 at 1:25 p.m., Rogers sent Economy a bizarre cryptic text message that stated: "Hi Randy, I just heard the Mexican comment you made about Lee Baca on tape. As someone who was raised by a Mexican immigrant grandfather and who has a sister born in Tijuana, Mexico I think the comment was at best in poor taste and at worst racially offensive. Others have called it racist. It does not reflect on your or the newspaper very well at all. I hope you chose your words more carefully in the future. As always, I wish you all the best in the future. Todd."

Economy is weighing whether to press charges against Briones and Rogers.

CIF-SOUTHERN SECTION DIVISION III BASEBALL PLAYOFFS

Gahr handles adversity on the road following easy wild card win

By Loren Kopff

GARDEN GROVE-After blasting Beverly Hills 11-0 in a California Interscholastic Federation-Southern Section Division III wild card game on May 21, Gahr head coach Gerardo Perez was anxious to see how his team would face adversity on the road. The eighth ranked Gladiators were facing Garden Grove League champion Garden Grove, which had the same number of victories, 20, as they had.

Despite stranding 11 runners on base including the bases loaded in the top of the second, the Gladiators conquered the adversity and got the timely hits they needed to scratch out a 3-1 first round victory last Friday afternoon under windy conditions. If anything, Perez can credit the team for having a solid practice last Thursday.

"What I do know is we won 11-0 and the next day was one of the best practices we had all year long," Perez said. "Even though we won 11-0, that game never existed. We still have to do stuff right, in which we do. We're not going to hit a three-run homer; there's not going to be a three-run homer to make up for any mistake.

"When you play the game, the game doesn't know that when you show up at the ballpark, what you did against Beverly Hills means nothing to them," he later added.

The Argonauts grabbed a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the second when senior George Castillo hit his counterpart, Eddie Carranza, to lead off the frame. Later in the inning and with two outs, Beto Vasquez hit a chopper up the middle to bring in Carranza. But after that, Castillo was solid.

He would allow only three runners the rest of the way, none of them getting to second base. In addition, he got some nifty defensive plays behind him. The first came when sophomore catcher Victor Salazar picked off Andy Nguyen who tried to steal second in the third inning.

Then with one out in the fourth, senior third baseman Nick Guerra made a sliding catch in between Castillo and Salazar. Castillo went the distance, striking out five and scattering four hits. He retired 14 of the last 16 he faced.

"It was a tremendous performance," Perez said. "When you talk about George Castillo and his time at Gahr, you use the word poise; making the pitch when he has to make the pitch. Both are signs of previous great pitchers who have come through the program including his dad [George Castillo Sr.], who was a left-handed pitcher in the late 1980's."

Gahr broke through in the third inning to take a 2-1 lead. With one out, Carranza walked sophomore designated hitter David Balboa, who would find his way to third after a sacrifice from junior first baseman Rafael Alvarez and a wild pitch. Sophomore shortstop Jesus Salazar was hit by a pitch and advanced on the same wild pitch that moved Balboa.

Then on a 1-2 count, junior left fielder

Joe Dressel singled to left to plate both runs. In the next inning, Carranza walked Guerra and with two outs, Balboa's run-scoring single to right capped off all of the scoring Gahr needed. Dressel had two of Gahr's six hits.

"We didn't play, offensively, our best game," Perez said. "But this isn't an easy place to hit. Obviously the wind was in our face, but with all that said, I'm very content with the effort and the commitment. Those two things helped to get us through today."

Gahr hosted Temescal Canyon this past Tuesday in a second round game and posted a 4-2 victory as Castillo picked up his first save of the season in relief of senior Octavio Lara. Gahr improved to 22-10-1 and will host unranked Redondo Union today in a quarterfinal game. The Seahawks upset second ranked Bonita 6-4 this past Tuesday. This marks the third straight season and four out of the last five that Gahr has advanced at least to the quarterfinals.

CIF-SOUTHERN SECTION DIVISION III BOYS VOLLEYBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Gahr foiled by South Pasadena again, swept in divisional finals

By Loren Kopff

The last two seasons, the Gahr boys volleyball team was swept by South Pasadena in the first round of the California Interscholastic Federation-Southern Section Division III playoffs. Last Saturday morning, the two met again with the highest of stakes on the line.

But that adage of the third time is the charm was not to be for the Gladiators as the Tigers earned their second straight divisional title, sweeping Gahr 25-19, 25-20, 25-23. Gahr ends its season at 26-6.

"They were better than us," said Gahr head coach Iris Najera. "They were taller; they jumped higher. I thought we fought harder but unfortunately it didn't show up on the scoreboard."

The seventh ranked Gladiators, who had knocked off second ranked Windward in the quarterfinals the previous Saturday, got out to a 4-1 lead in the first set. But with the score tied at 7-7, the division's top ranked team recorded five straight points and never relinquished the lead. Throughout most of the set, both teams were trading point for point, thus making it tougher for Gahr to gain any type of edge.

Down by four points, Gahr made one last rally to get to within a point. A serve into the net, a kill from senior outside hitter Noah Lourenco and ace from junior outside hitter Corey Chavers made it 19-18. But the Tigers ended the set with five straight points, the last on a kill from Greg Luck, his sixth of the team's 17 for the set.

Gahr was unable to lead in the second set but just like the first set, stayed right on the heels of South Pasadena. There were four ties and 12 times, the Gladiators were within a point. But with the score 20-18, Luck had a kill, followed by consecutive kills from 6' 5" outside hitter Richard Minghoo Yu. After a Gahr timeout and a kill from Chavers, Yu had two more kills to put the Tigers in great shape. Through the first two sets, Luck and Yu had combined for 23 kills, three more than the entire Gahr team.

"I know that were really strong hitting on the outsides, so we practiced that," Najera said. "We tried to defend it and we did the best we could, defending the outside."

"We did our best trying to block them; we did our best trying to defend them, and they're good," she continued.

Gahr played the Tigers even tougher in the third set and after consecutive kills from Chavers, had an 11-5 lead, it's largest of the match. South Pasadena rallied to take an 18-16 lead and held a 20-17 advantage following a kill from Thomas Kutzer.

But Chavers took matters into his own hands with a kill, followed by an ace. A kill from Lourenco made it 21-20 and when Yu hit long, Gahr could sense the match being extended to a fourth set.

However, the Tigers got all of the Luck (no pun intended) they needed in the closing minutes with three kills, plus another from Yu. Those two ended the match with 31 combined kills and half of the team's 10 blocks. Chavers led Gahr with 11 kills and seven digs while Lourenco added 10 kills. The Gladiators hit .136 as a team, less than half of what South Pasadena ended up with.

"We fight all set and then at the end, they just had a couple of tougher attacks," Najera said. "We couldn't catch any lucky breaks at the end."

This was Gahr's second trip to the divisional finals. In 2000, the Gladiators upset Mater Dei in five sets for the Division II crown. Even more noticeable is the fact that the San Gabriel Valley League is beginning to make some noise. Last season, Warren fell to South Torrance in the finals and in 2009, Downey took home the Division IV championship. Before that, the only other league team to even get to the finals was Gahr's 2000 team.

"Our league is great," Najera said. "I'm really happy with our team because volleyball traditionally is really strong in the beach cities and at the private schools. I'm really proud of the San Gabriel Valley League."

FUSE RUNS OUT ON THE DYNAMITE IN THE SEMIFINALS OF FIRST SUMMER TOURNAMENT

By Loren Kopff

CARDIFF-BY-THE-SEA-What began as a promising opening to the slew of summer tournaments for the three Cerritos Girls Softball Association all-star teams ended with a pair of heartbreaking losses plus an uncontested rematch in the San Dieguito Memorial Day Tournament. The best chance for a championship came from the 8-Under Dynamite, which reached the semifinals this past Monday at Cardiff-by-the-Sea Sports Park.

But the team was overmatched by Laguna Niguel in a 12-1 loss that saw the Dynamite record only two hits. Cerritos had ended pool play action with a 4-2 win over Laguna Niguel this past Sunday afternoon. But Laguna Niguel scored four runs in the top of the first and added one more tally in the next inning.

Laguna Niguel increased the score to knocked out of the tournament 6-5.

All three teams will participate in the South Huntington Beach Tournament beginning today. The Dynamite has pool play games with Huntington Beach today and Santa Monica on Saturday. The Bam What will face South Huntington beach today and La Mirada on Saturday while the 12-Under squad face South Huntington Beach today and Temecula Valley on Saturday. The playoffs begin as early as Saturday evening.

and had previously finished in third place in its first tournament of existence, followed by a runner-up performance in the TBL Easter Saturday Classic.

TRACK AND FIELD

Five area athletes advanced to the California Interscholastic Federation-Southern Section divisional finals but none of them had marks to qualify a place in this evening's Master's Meet.

Whitney senior Catherine Luo finished in fifth place in both the 1600 and 3200 meter races in Division IV. In the former, Luo led throughout most of the first 1200 meters but fell to third place with less than a full lap to go. She finished with a time of 5:10.78 in that race and 11:20.56 in the 3200 meter race.

Also in Division IV, Valley Christian junior Jonathan Nicholson competed in both the 100 meter dash, where he had a time of 11.26, as well as in the long jump, where he placed 6th with a mark of 21' 1 1/4".

V.C. senior Rataeja Sholes finished in fifth place in the 100 high hurdles (15.40) and tied for third place in the high jump (5' 1"). Also in the high jump, Whitney senior Michaela Platt was listed as one of nine Division IV participants but did not have a jump. In Division III, Artesia senior Tytus Simmons had a time of 15.08 in the 110 high hurdles.

The members of the 2014 Cerritos Legend youth travel baseball team are Noah Andrunas, Brandon Casas, Colby Cather, Nick Leung, Ryan Martinez, Kaleb Nakano, Jarrett Nielsen, Hayden Roberts, Royce Roberts, Ryan Rodriguez and Henry Wonderlick. The head coach is Bruce Wonderlick and the assistant coaches are John Andrunas, Keith Nakano, Jon Nielsen and Sean Roberts.

8-0 going to the bottom of the third before Cerritos, which had stranded five runners through the first two innings, avoided the shutout. With one out, Lily Roth singled and moved to second on an error. After stealing third, Roth scored on a base hit from Alexis Montez.

The team had begun the playoffs earlier in the day with an 11-6 win over San Marcos, a team it had blanked 12-0 last Saturday in pool play action. Cerritos wasted little time putting San Marcos away with four runs in the bottom of the first, highlighted by run scoring hits from Ashley McCart and Madison Wright,

In the bottom of the second, Cerritos scored four more runs on four walks and an infield single from Makayla Vanosse. In the bottom of the third, Roth and Bella Bulthuis each had singles to bring in the final three runs. Cerritos was limited to six hits but the San Marcos pitching staff issued seven walks.

Also this past Monday, the 10-Under Bam What team was doubled up by Peninsula, 6-3, in the quarterfinals. Down 4-0 heading into the bottom of the third, Cerritos got on the board when Maya Cisneros tripled to the left field gap and came home on a groundout from Azalea Herrera. Peninsula answered back in the top of the fourth but Cerritos got closer in the fifth when Makayla Sur and Piper Garcia each reached on errors. With one out, Sur would come home on a double steal and Garcia scored the final run on the second hit from Cisneros.

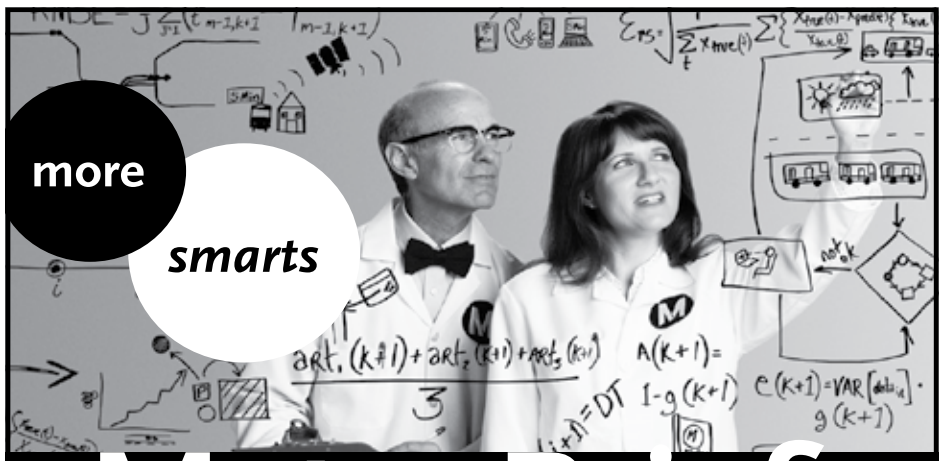

Cerritos began pool play action with wins over Alpine (5-2) and San Dieguito (6-5) last Saturday before falling to Tierra Canyon 6-5 this past Sunday. The 12-Under all-stars fell to South Huntington Beach 6-1 and Alpine 5-0 last Saturday in pool play action before knocking off Imperial Beach 8-5 this past Sunday. However, in the playoffs against Goleta this past Sunday, Cerritos gave up a pair of runs in the bottom of the fifth and was Unites States Specialty Sports Association Memorial Day Tournament after a 4-3 win over the Los Alamitos All-Stars 'B' team this past Monday.

Cerritos was limited to four hits but built a 4-0 lead by plating three runs in the top of the fifth. Jarrett Nielsen went two for three and drove in a pair of runs while Royce Roberts had a hit and drove in the other two runs. Nick Leung was one for two and scored once while in the circle, four pitchers combined on a three-hitter.

Earlier in the day, the Legend came away with a 4-3 win against the Orange County Spartans despite being held to just a Nielsen hit. But Nielsen and Roberts each pitched three innings and combined to give up four hits. The win avenged a 9-4 loss to the Spartans in the second game of the tournament last Saturday.

The Legend is built of seven and eight-year old players competing in the 8-Under age group. Most of the players and coaches are from the Frontier Baseball League

American Legion Officers & the Norwalk City Council also offered a wreath to recognize those who made the ultimate sacrifice for our freedom and for our nation. The ceremony ended with all members who attended placing flowers on the wreath.

The City of Artesia also paid tribute to honor fallen Civil War heroes at their annual ceremony held at Artesia Cemetery across from Gahr High School.

Members of the Artesia/Cerritos Women's Club decorated the headstones of military members who have died from wars tracing back all the way to the Civil War.

ANDY'S LAW

when the defendant finally entered a 'no contest' plea. We were allowed to read our statements about how her actions had affected our lives", a concerned Carmen said.

According to family members throughout the court proceedings, Villegas maintained a stoic facial expression. She did not make eye contact, apologize to the victims' family members or express remorse. She complained to the court that having to wear an electronic monitoring ankle bracelet impaired her ability to be fashionable.

Although Villegas was sentenced to 44 months, there is a strong likelihood she will only do about 50% of her sentence, which equals out to 22 months. She will serve about 18 months of that time in California State Prison and the final 4 months in a halfway house.

Carmen commented, "The tragic and violent death of my son Luis Andy Garcia, amount to little more than a short-lived inconvenience for Villegas. For me, the sentence is much harsher- a lifetime of pain and grief, both for the loss of my son and knowing that his killer got away with murder."

"Such a sentence is only possible because our judicial system does not take hit-and-runs seriously. For this reason, I feel it is important to advocate for this bill. We need to overhaul the sentencing guidelines for these types of tragedies."

Members are urging California legislature to take a hard stance against reckless motorists who cause injury or death to pedestrians, runners or cyclists.

The family wishes to champion stricter sentences for criminal defendants. According to family members although, a sentence was imposed, justice was not served.

In 2012, LAPD filed approximately 20,000 "Hit and Run" crashes. Out of the 20,000, 4,000 pedestrians, runners and cyclist were either injured or killed.

The proposed Legislative solution would impose stricter sentences that reflect that serious nature of motorists/drivers that "Hit and Run" from the scene of a collision.

The new law would also stress that if a pedestrian, runner or cyclist was injured or killed, the suspect would have his California Driver's License suspended for five years for an injury, and 10 years where a death resulted.

If these new sentences are not imposed, Carmen commented, "I will keep trying until something happens and I will keep working with those who have also undergone similar tragedies."

You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property.
