WINE LIST: Coravin Selections

Domaine Julien Gros 'Clos Du Roi,' Grand Cru, Aloxe-Corton, Burgundy 2016

3 oz. $50 6 oz. $90

Designated a Grand Cru in 1937, this wine was already well-known in the 15th century when the King of France added Corton wines to his personal cellars. Upon the death of Charles le Téméraire, the final duke of Burgundy, this parcel of vines passed into the hands of the royal winemakers and therefore became Corton "Clos du Roi" (plot [of land] of the king).

Egon Müller 'Scharzhofberger,' Spätlese, Mosel-Saar-Ruwer, Germany 2014

3 oz. $48 6 oz. $86

The Scharzhofberg, or Scharzhof Mountain, is among the finest Riesling sites in Germany and is considered Grand Cru. As such, it is allowed to be labeled with its vineyard name, or "Einzellage", rather than its village name. The Müller holdings here include a parcel of un-grafted vines that were planted in the 19th century. These wines deliver at the highest level of quality and are without question among the world's greatest wines.

Nikolaihof 'Vinothek,' Wachau, Austria 2002

3 oz. $52 6 oz. $94

The Vinothek cuvée is the philosophical apotheosis of the Demeter Certified Nikolaihof estate. Though Nikolaihof commonly holds back their wines until they believe they have fully developed, the Vinothek cuvée is extreme for even these standards. Harvested in 2002 from the Im Weingebirge site (the oldest named site in Europe 470 A.D.), this wine rested in barrel for 17 years in Nikolaihof's ancient, Roman-built cellar. This profoundly extended barrel aging along with the inherent distance of its vintage creates a singular wine not to be experienced elsewhere. Vinothek is the only dry Riesling to receive a 100 pt. score from Robert Parker.

Gunderloch 'Nachenheim Rothenberg' Beerenauslese, Rheinhessen 2004

3 oz. $48 6 oz. $86

Gunderloch is a thriving estate, consisting of approximately 25ha of vines in the "Roter Hang" ("red slope") area of the Rheinhessen appellation. The average yield is held to 45 hl/ha, among the lowest in Germany, resulting in wines of high extraction and great quality. The wines are never de-acidified, and in high acid vintages, bottling is delayed to allow the wines to harmonize and soften. Cellar work is accomplished with minimum handling, the resulting wines from Rothenberg are considered among the finest and most important in Germany.

Sine Qua Non 'Trouver l'arene,' Syrah, CA 2015

3 oz. $50 6 oz. $90

Sine Qua Non (an essential condition) is the benchmark for Rhône varietals in California. Founded by Manfred and Elaine Krangle, there is no competition when it comes to creativity in the wine making, having never repeated a blend, label or bottle shape. SQN is a wine many Rhône collectors believe is an essential part of their cellars. Critics Jeb Dunn and Robert Parker have both given this wine a perfect 100 score, while Jeb compared it to the great vintages of Guigal's Côte Rôtie La Mouline. Composed of 80.5% Syrah, 7% Petite Syrah, 7% Mourvèdre, 2% Grenache and 3.5% Viognier, all sourced from estate vineyards.
