Welcome to the 2018 LSE International Development Volunteering Fair

This evening you have the opportunity to meet a range of organisations recruiting people to volunteer in international development in London and overseas.

This event is hosted by the LSE Volunteer Centre. We are here to inspire and support you to find the right volunteering opportunity during your time at LSE. Come and speak to us this evening to hear more about how we can help.

Our research shows that thousands of you will volunteer during your time at LSE and will make a huge impact with hundreds of organisations. Volunteering can also improve your LSE experience helping you make new friends, explore London and understand your course.

You can view our online vacancy board, LSE CareerHub, which currently has over 200 opportunities to volunteer including fundraising, research, community engagement, and mentoring roles. We promote roles to suit whatever spare time you have, from just one hour to two days a week.

To keep up to date with volunteering at LSE sign up to our newsletter by adding volunteering to your preferences on CareerHub and follow us on social media.

This fair is part of the LSE Careers International Development Events Programme (IDEP). To sign up to other presentations and seminars please visit the IDEP website.

We hope you enjoy the evening!

Got a question?

If you'd like to get more advice about volunteering you can book a one-to-one volunteering appointment via CareerHub. You can also send your questions to volunteer@lse.ac.uk.

Share your volunteering experiences

So many students take part in one-off and long-term volunteering whilst at LSE and we'd love to hear about your experiences.

There are a couple of ways in which you can let us know how you get on and what it's like volunteering with your charity of choice:

- ◆ Tweet or Instagram pictures (@lsevolunteering)
- ◆ email us a blog/article (volunteer@lse.ac.uk)

The LSE Volunteer Centre is here to help you find a voluntary opportunity at a charity during your time at LSE. We work with many different charities across London and internationally and advertise opportunities that range from one off community projects to part-time internships.

We run seminars and one-to-one appointments to help you find the perfect opportunity. We also organise many one-off volunteering opportunities where you can participate with a team of LSE students in a volunteering opportunity for a couple of hours to a day. You can come by our stall to learn more about our services and events.

aca.org.uk

Application deadline: Ongoing

The Afghanistan & Central Asian Association (ACAA) is a successful frontline Afghan charity set up in 2001 to promote British values and support the integration of disadvantaged and vulnerable refugees, asylum seekers and new arrivals into mainstream British society through the provision of a diverse range of holistic services.

Our services include ESOL classes, supplementary school, mentoring, internships and volunteer placements, free legal advice, employment workshops, women's support group, social and cultural events, sports activities and Mental Health support. We are the ideal placement opportunity for those interested in International development, law, politics, humanitarianism or those interested in working within the charity sector.

acted.org/en

Application deadline: Ongoing

Since 1993, ACTED has been committed to immediate humanitarian relief to support those in urgent need and protect people's dignity, while co-creating longer term opportunities for sustainable growth and fulfilling people's potential. ACTED endeavours to respond to humanitarian crises and build resilience; promote inclusive and sustainable growth; co-construct effective governance and support the building of civil society worldwide by investing in people and their potential.

We go the last mile: ACTED's mission is to save lives and support people in meeting their needs. With a team of 4,300 national staff and 300 international staff, ACTED is active in 36 countries and implement more than 450 projects a year reaching over 11 million beneficiaries.

foodforeducation.org.uk

Application deadline: Ongoing

Akshaya Patra tackles malnutrition and hunger by providing hot nutritious school meals in over 13,200 schools across India reaching 1.7 million children every day! We are the world's largest NGO-run school meals provider and aim to reach 5 million by 2020. We offer volunteer opportunities for students here in the UK as well as in India. Students can spend time in our award-winning state of the art kitchens in India which has been a case study at Harvard and MIT. Visit the schools and speak to the students, and hear first-hand the impact these meals have in their lives. Previous students have written case study reports and blogs from their visits. In the UK, we offer various fundraising opportunities and encourage students to attend our events.

epafrica.org.uk

Application deadline: 2 February 2018

EPAfrica is a volunteer-led international development charity, with almost 30 years of experience working with rural secondary schools in East Africa. In Summer 2018, successful applicants will fly to Kenya or Uganda to work in close partnership with one of our partner schools, bringing about long-lasting, sustainable improvements to the school's resource base. This opportunity offers a high degree of autonomy and responsibility and as such, we are looking for adaptable, driven volunteers who will be committed to seeing their projects through over a 10-week period.

globalgiving.org

Application deadline: Ongoing

GlobalGiving is the first and largest crowdfunding community that connects nonprofits, donors, and companies in nearly every country around the world. We make it possible for nonprofits to access the tools, training and support they need to make our world a better place. Our mission is to transform aid and philanthropy to accelerate community-led change.

We currently have three opportunities open to students:

Research Volunteer (London office, one vacancy)

Project Coordinator (London office, one vacancy)

Project Evaluator (part of our annual Evaluation Programme; we train skilled volunteers in project evaluation and nonprofit management to provide in-country support to our partner organisations overseas. Ten places are available)

icye.org.uk

Application deadline: Ongoing

Volunteering with ICYE UK is a transformational experience with real impact. Our ethical programme promotes peace and intercultural awareness, helping to fulfil our mission through culture sharing and by encouraging young people to live, learn and work together.

You can join us for as little as 3 weeks or up to 12 months and support local projects throughout Africa, Latin America, Asia and Europe. No matter how long you volunteer for, you'll work with local NGOs on impactful projects that matter and through your project, you'll benefit from personal and professional development, giving you the chance to share cultures and ideas, and gain new skills and experience.

internews.org

Application deadline: Ongoing

Internews supports local media around the world to give communities at the grassroots level the information that they need to make informed choices about the world around them, to hold their elected representatives to account and help them better understand critical issues in their country.

This is a new position reporting directly to the Head of Major Gifts, who has operational responsibility for our mission-led fundraising efforts among High Net worth Individuals, Trusts & Foundations and Corporate Donors in the UK and across Europe. The major responsibility of the team is to generate funds from the private sector to support our work around the world.

lepra.org.uk

Application deadline: Ongoing

By volunteering for Lepra, you'll join a team who have been working for over 90 years to change the lives of those affected by leprosy and other neglected diseases. We've played an active part in developing new treatments and we have worked to help shape global strategies to work to beat this disease. There is a cure, but sadly, many do not seek treatment due to poor health education, stigma and many having to travel hundreds of miles to access healthcare facilities.

We have opportunities within Events Planning, Communications and Marketing, Donor Support Fundraising, Programmes, On-site student representatives and designated one-off third-party events. To find out more please visit the website.

relief.medair.org/en

Application deadline: Ongoing

Medair is an international humanitarian charity motivated by Christian faith, whose mission is to relieve human suffering in some of the world's most remote and devastated places. We bring relief and recovery to people in crisis, saving lives in emergencies and then staying to help people recover with dignity, working side by side with communities to leave a lasting impact. We provide a range of emergency relief and recovery services, in a number of countries: Health care and nutrition, safe water, sanitation, hygiene, shelter and infrastructure.

We seek motivated volunteers in our London office, offering experience of the work of Medair, and an opportunity to further their interest in the humanitarian sector.

medecinsdumonde.org/en

Application deadline: Ongoing

For more than 30 years, Médecins du Monde, has been caring for the most vulnerable populations at home and abroad. Those working for this independent organisation do not solely dispense care and treatment but condemn violations of human dignity and rights and fight to improve matters for populations living in precarious situations. MdM focuses on 5 priority areas: health of migrants and displaced persons, sexual and reproductive health, harm reduction, health and environment, emergencies and crisis. We currently work in 45 countries with nearly 70 programs.

raleighinternational.org/

Application deadline: Ongoing

A Raleigh Expedition is a unique overseas volunteering programme for young people. Expeditions aren't like other volunteer programmes. They combine working in an international team on remote community and environmental projects AND an unforgettable adventure trek in some of the most incredible areas of the world. You can choose from 4, 5, 7 or 10 week Expeditions in Malaysian Borneo, Nepal, Nicaragua & Costa Rica or Tanzania. You will be challenged, have an adventure and belong to something worthwhile.

results.org.uk

RESULTS

Application deadline: Ongoing

RESULTS is a movement of passionate, committed, everyday people. RESULTS grassroots campaigners take action locally to fight global poverty - using their voices to influence political decisions that will change the world. They receive training and support to become skilled advocates, from influencing MPs to policy makers, and engaging others within their community. RESULTS campaigners in London meet as a group on the first Tuesday of each month to plan and take campaign actions and organise events. They regularly join our national conference calls, learning more about international development and sharing their successes from around the UK.

savethechildren.org.uk

Save the Children

Application deadline: Ongoing

Save the Children believes every child deserves a future. In the UK and around the world, we give children a healthy start in life, the opportunity to learn and protection from harm.

Volunteers are a crucial part of our organisation. Working as one team, we combine skills and experience to create positive change for children. We have lots of great opportunities for you to get involved: whether as a speaker, campaigner or event organiser or by helping out in one of our literacy programmes, shops or our office, there's something that will suit your schedule and interests. Come and by our stall to find out more - we're looking forward to meeting you!

madagascar.co.uk

Application deadline: Ongoing

SEED Madagascar works in local partnerships to implement health, education, conservation and sustainable livelihoods projects, in the Anosy region, a remote area that receives relatively little attention from larger charities or volunteering organisations. We are a grassroots charity, developing our projects in direct response to expressed local need, in partnership and consultation with the local community. We offer four volunteering programmes, all supporting our sustainable development projects, with valuable input by volunteers resulting in tangible benefits. Volunteers gain a life changing experience in a unique country and valuable experience in the field of international development for those looking to go into the sector. We offer Short-term Sustainable Development Placements, Construction Placements, Conservation Placements and English teaching.

street-child.co.uk

Application deadline: Ongoing

Street Child is an education charity, working in West Africa, Nepal and Sri Lanka to help some of the world's most vulnerable children to go to school. By becoming an International Volunteer with Street Child, you'll be working with our local teams to give more children the chance of a brighter future.

As an International Volunteer, you'll get stuck in with real development work and have an experience that will change your life. From getting working on our projects in Sierra Leone or Liberia, to conducting vital research in Nepal or Sri Lanka, we'll match your skills to projects where you'll have maximum impact.

teachamantofish.org.uk

Application deadline: Ongoing

Teach A Man To Fish is an international NGO that believes that education is the key to tackling global youth unemployment and poverty. Through our flagship educational programme, the School Enterprise Challenge, we work with schools across the world to set up school-based businesses. These businesses are both educational and profitable - teaching students entrepreneurial as well as soft skills, and generating much-needed income for the schools. We are looking for enthusiastic volunteers to join the School Enterprise Challenge team (based in Finsbury Park) and help in a wide variety of capacities. Come and talk to us to find out more!

uk.walkaboutfoundation.org

Application deadline: 1 May 2018

Walkabout Foundation is a UK and US registered charity with the mission of restoring dignity, freedom and independence to people with disabilities by providing wheelchairs and rehabilitation in the developing world and funding research to find a cure for paralysis. To date, we have distributed over 10,000 wheelchairs in 23 countries.

We are a small, energetic team based in Chelsea. We are looking for volunteers to work with us at any time throughout the year (but primarily during the summer of 2018). Internships will involve opportunities to assist on a variety of projects across all departments, including Programmes, Marketing, Events and Finance, giving volunteers a well-rounded introduction to working in the charity sector.

wonderfoundation.org.uk

Application deadline: Ongoing

Wonder Foundation works to empower vulnerable women, girls and communities through education. We partner with local, sustainable education projects in the UK and worldwide, helping them get the funding, knowledge and skills they need. We amplify the voices of our partners, supporting them as they provide education powerful enough to end poverty.
