(Our Lady of the Roses)

Status: Established as Not Supernatural (Constat de non Supernaturalitate)

Episcopal Remarks: “The apparitions have no supernatural foundation” (Enrico Manfredini, Bishop of Piacenza, Official Notification, issued 1 May 1980)

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP OF PIACENZA: OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION

ENRICO MANFREDINI, Bishop of Piacenza

May 1, 1980

My recent Pastoral Visit to the parish of St. Damiano as well as the announcement already made of gathering of young people at the place where the apparitions of Mary are presumed to be force me to take action regarding these events. It is a known fact that for a long time these activities have been disturbing the spiritual life of that parish and are bringing much discredit on Religion and on true Christian piety. The authority and responsibility which come from God to me as Bishop of the Church in Piacenza urge me to judge the facts which regard faith and ethics. I cannot shrink from the duty to denounce and strongly deplore the serious disobedience of those people, laymen, religious and priests coming from outside the Diocese who continually neglect to follow the judgement and directions of the legitimate and competent Ecclesiastical Authority. The Apostolic See, indeed, has issued, among other correspondences, the letter from the Secretary of State of His Holiness the Pope dated May 16 th 1977 prot. 327.022.

Therefore, I ORDER AND DECLARE what follows:

- 1 Once again I express the negative judgement already more times declared by my Venerable Predecessor and by myself regarding the so called happenings of St. Damiano and which I again stress have no supernatural foundation.
- 2 No act of cult to the Blessed Virgin, connected with those presumed apparitions and messages, may be licitly practiced and encouraged.
- 3 Those who advertise through writings in order to propagate such events, or who organize pilgrimages or go to St. Damiano for devotional reasons are in blatant disobedience to the Church.
- 4 On the 3th. and 4th. of May and in future days during which, according to the judgement of the competent Authority, particular circumstances could require it, St. Damiano's Church will remain closed. The Pastor will provide other means for the parishioners to participate to the celebration of the Eucharist.
- 5 In the whole Diocese I renew the following dispositions: a) Priests from outside the Diocese going to St. Damiano for such a devotional reason must not be permitted to celebrate Mass, and if they dared to do it, they are suspended "a divinis". b) To the Priests and religious going to St. Damiano Holy communion is to be refused.
- 6 I invite the Rectors of the Churches, including those administered by Religious and at times frequented by groups of "pilgrims of St. Damiano" to give an adequate instruction to enlighten them on true devotion to the Blessed Virgin and on the obedience to the legitimate Authority of the Church according to the doctrine of the Second Vatican Council and in conformity with the Canon Law.

Corroboration by Other Seers: Sister Lucia dos Santos (One of the three shepherds of Fatima) recommended to her three cousins that they witness the phenomenon of the pear-tree blossom in San Damiano. Padre Pio was also a believer in these apparitions.

Biographical Information: Rose Quattrini was born January 26, 1909 in the village of Santimento Italy. Rosa had three sisters who all became nuns. She married Guiseppe Quattrini and they had three children, each born by cesarean section. Upon the birth of her last child complications resulted requiring surgery. During the next nine years Rosa was in and out of the hospital because her wounds would not heal. On September 24, 1961 Rosa was discharged from the hospital as incurable. They could nothing else to help her. At her home Rosa was cared for by Aunt Adele. On Spetember 29, 1961, five days after being discharged from the hospital, a beautiful young lady came to the door requesting alms for Padre Pio. Aunt Adele told the young lady that they had only 1000 lira in the home and needed it for Rosa because she was ill. At the lady's insistence Adele led her to Rosa's bedside. The lady asked Rosa if she had faith in Padre Pio. When Rosa said “yes” the lady replied “If you have confidence in Padre Pio, he will cure you.” As the noon bells rang the lady recited the Angelus with Rosa and helped Rosa get up out of bed and stated that Rosa should visit Padre Pio. The lady then departed. Soon Rosa arose and went to the kitchen to do the dishes, suddenly she announced to Aunt Adele that she was cured. The following Spring of 1962 Rosa went on a pilgrimage to San Giovanni Rotondo. Whilst reciting the rosary ub the church a lady called out “Rosa! Rosa!”It was the same beautiful lady who had cured Rosa. The lady identified herself as “I am the mother of Consolation and of the Afflicted. After Mass I will accompany you to Padre Pio and he will give you a mission” When Rosa met Padre Pio he told her she must care for the sick, both physical and spiritual care. Rosa did this for 2 years and finally went to her own home to care for Aunt Adele who was herself sick. The Apparitions began on October 16, 1964 while Rosa was inside her own home reciting the Angelus ¹...The apparitions at San Damiano began with an impressive ”miracle.” According to well- documented reports, a pear-tree heavy with autumn fruit, suddenly flowered and remained in bloom for seventeen days ²...It is reported that Our Lady continued to appear to Rosa until Rosa’s death in 1981. However no messages are reported for this period. From the first apparition until September 2, 1968, Rosa would kneel at the pear tree and pray the rosary, then Our Lady would appear. As of September 2, 1968 the bishop ordered Rosa to cease kneeling before the pear tree. Rosa obeyed and thereafter the apparitions took place inside Rosa's own home on each Friday and on some Feast days on each of the first Friday's and First Saturdays and on all Marian Feast Days. Rosa received, recorded and distributed Our Lady's messages until May 31, 1970 when the bishop forbade her to report or distribute messages. Again Rosa obeyed and thereafter privately recorded all further messages. Our Lady's messages exhort us to prayer and penance, to pray the rosary, to embrace the cross and follow Jesus, to attend holy Mass and receive the Eucharist frequently, to pray for the Church and for the Pope, to increase devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and to the Sorowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary and to pray for family unity and for young people. The messages warn of great purification and of chastisements, and of a great war to come if people do not listen to Our Lady's messages. The chastisements are to come after a great epidemic. Other presences heard or seen or mentioned during the apparitions include: The Most Blessed Trinity, the Eternal Father, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, St. Michael the Archangel as well as other angels, St. Joseph, the Apostles, and Jacinta and Francisco of Fatima. Some reported predictions made by Rosa have come true. The knowledge obtained by Rosa came through visions and dreams. Many people have reported seeing visions while they were at San Damiano, some have seen the "Dance of the Sun", others have smelled heavenly perfume and heard heavenly voices. Spiritual conversions and physical healings have been reported. Photographs depicting Our Lady and other images not explained through natural causes have been taken and preserved³

The Messages

Vision, October 15, 1964

During the night Rosa experienced a vision of the local Church full of people coming to venerate the Madonna. So large were the crowds that many had to stand without. (The Church has more than 300 seats yet the congregation numbered only 150 at the time)

Our Lady, October 16, 1964 (First Apparition)

Whilst praying the angelus at midday heard a voice calling her outside " Come, come! " and then a second time "Come,come here, i 'm waiting for you!" emanating from the garden. Fearing a trick from the devil, Rosa took her rosary in her hand and left. She was however partly reassured, because the voice was so beautiful, so soft. Upon arriving in the yard Rosa saw a cloud going down from the sky and setting on the plum tree. This cloud was bright of light and studded with golden and silvery stars. Inside it an incalculable number of petals of roses of all colors flew. She did not see anyone but felt a great joy within. Then after sitting saw a large red sphere come out of the cloud which settled over the pear tree. Then the cloud disappeared, while the Madonna surrounded by a bright light remained visible. From her hands came out large luminous rays full with petals of roses which fell to the ground. The Madonna was wearing a blue dress tied at her waist by a white belt, and a large white coat. On her head she wore a crown of star of which an intense light spouted out. The seer cried out "I am not worthy that you come close to me, but say only one word and I will listen to you." The Virgin remained so visibly sad the seer started to cry and ask her for forgiveness for herself, her close relations, and the whole world. She looked on but still did not say anything. Then after the seer started reciting the rosary the Blessed Virgin started to smile and spoke "My daughter, I'm coming from a far. Announce to the world that all must pray, because Jesus cannot carry the cross any more. I want all to be saved, the goods and the malicious ones. I am the Mother of love, the Mother of all, you are all my children. This is why I want all to be saved. It is for that that I came, to bring the world to the prayer because the punishments are close. I will return each Friday, and I will give you messages. And you must make them known in the world." The seer asked " But how will I be believed ? I am only a poor ignorant country-woman. I was not believed when I was cured. One will throw me in prison!" to which the Virgin replied " Do not fear, because I will now leave you a sign. This tree will flower. " After this the apparition ceased but at the same moment the pear tree was covered with flowers, so much so that the leaves were barely visible. A branch of the plum tree, that the Virgin had touched, flowered the following day.

"The Madonna says that here a great source of graces will come out, of pure water which will purify your souls and bodies...Will emerge here a large sanctuary"

August 13, 1965

"My sons, come, come here; a great source of graces will come out. A source of running water, pure, which will purify and bodies" The seer has a vision of the sanctuary to be built carried by the angels and indicates that it will rise on the ground close to the pear tree

August 15, 1965

"I want a sanctuary, very, very large, said the celestial Mom, so that all can come there, from all the parts of the world, to request graces. I am very close to you here, I await you at any moment...Look at this white dove " The Holy Spirit was present under the form of a dove

August 20, 1965

"Go to confession, prepare yourselves with a good confession and Communion. Remain prepared for when these days of scourges come. If you are ready you will be united to Jesus. Call Him aloud "Jesus, Mary, help us! Jesus, Mary, save us!" At the moment of trial take the crucifix in hand and emphatically call Jesus"

August 27, 1965

"If you continue this, there will be great, terrible scourges, shocks that will make the whole world tremble.How many cities , how many countries will be destroyed, I come Myself to announce that scourges have begun and they will always become more terrible"

September 9, 1965

"This place is a place of prayer. It will be a place of prayer until the end of the world"

March 25, 1966

My children, I love you so much! I am here in your presence. You all are all under my coat, those who are present here as well as those who are far. You are all my children, the good like the malicious ones. Pray, insist near Our Heavenly Father, so that all convert and that he has pity of all! My children, I love you so much! I am the Mother of everybody, the Mother of the love, the Mother of the joy, the Mother of the consolation, the Mother of the pains! I understand your pains, your sorrows and I embrace you very strongly against me. I will assist you in this life and will accompany you one day in the other. pray! Have a strong faith and you will receive so many graces, because with the faith all is obtained! Be strong! When you are in sadness, call me with the soft name of Mother! Call me with force and I will come to assist you, I will give you the force and courage to support everything, whatever the fight. I spread many graces in the world, but men do not understand that it is me who comes to bring the light and the love in the hearts. Fights, there have always been some it; but in the fights, if one is under the coat of the celestial Mom, one always overcomes. Pray, pray and I will come soon to give you a great light and I will awake all the hearts! Ask graces for the conversion of the sinners and I will widen my coat to the borders of the earth, so that all convert, that all have peace, joy and tranquillity in the heart. My children, send your guardian angel to the borders of the earth, everywhere where light, peace, love are needed! That your faith be always burning, that your heart be always ignited for Jesus and Mary! Your celestial Mom assists you, guides you step by step until the summit of the Calvary, where Jesus will open the gate of the sky to you. One day, we will all be in the glory of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, there, close to the throne of Our Heavenly Father. My children, pray with a great faith and a great love, and Jesus will come to bring the joy in the hearts, the peace, the triumph. I will come soon to give the light to the whole world: all will love me and will believe me! Since a long time I come on this earth to announce that one must pray a lot, but one does not beware of it. What will happen to you if you do not listen to me? When I will come with a great light, those who will not have the faith will fall and will not rise any more! I am long to come, waiting until all have the faith, because I want that all save themselves! All! That all have the light in Jesus! Pray, pray and send your guardian angels to the whole world, so that all convert, that all love me! Be strong, my children, be strong in the faith! When I will come to give the light, you will feel such joy and consolation; there will be so many graces in your heart. Be strong in the faith, so that the daemon cannot enter there and that you can, you, win the victory. Be always victorious in the faith, the love for Jesus. Jesus always reigned and he will always reign. Fights, there will always some, my children, still more fights, but your celestial Mom will always triumph. Jesus will always triumph. Be strong, because great plagues will come. Pray! I give you a strong blessing, so that you are strong during the life and at the time of death. Often hold in hands a lit candle and recite a Ave Maria and you will then have the force and courage to support all.

I am here, near you, to bring you much joy, peace and tranquillity. I widened my coat until the ends of the earth. In the same way, my powerful hand will reach the whole world to bring peace, joy and consolation to all those who resort to me. I am the Mother of all, the Mother of the beautiful love, the Mother of pains, the Mother of consolation, the Mother of the universe. To all those who resort to me, I am ready to give light and force, to give what they wish! Ask graces, my children! I have so many graces to spread, but nobody asks them with faith. Ask them with faith! I am here listening to you. I am your Mom of the sky and I do not want that children to be lost. I want all near me, because I want all to join you all together one day in paradise. My children, be strong in the faith! Be strong! Do not doubt me, because I am always here near you! I surround you with tenderness and joy. I assist you along your way, in your houses, everywhere! When you call me, I am ready to listen to you. Be serene, because your Mom of the sky will come one day to give you much light and much force. Do not fear and do not pay attention to the world! Listen to my word and you will find the truth, peace and joy! Don't you know that when he was on earth, Jesus also was calumniated, maltreated, insulted? But him, by his softness, his talking, always gave the good example to all, always said fine words to all and listened to all. If you are also calumniated, under my coat, you will always overcome! You will see that one day I will come with my power and that I will awake all the hearts. But then, those who will be in darkness, what will happen to them? He strong, my children, he strong! Ask graces to Our Heavenly Father for the conversion of the sinners. That the Our Heavenly Father makes mercy, that he forgives to everyone! Pray, pray, pray, because the world is losing destroying itself! There is so much mud, such a ruin in the world! Men do not pay any more attention to the words of the celestial Mom. Not, they do not listen to me any more and the world goes losing itself hour after hour, day after day. You, my children who have the faith, be strong, pray and insist towards Our Heavenly Father! Ask him with insistence to have pity on everyone, to inspire to everybody the peace, the good behavior, the love of Jesus and Mary. Pray, so that all the souls can go to receive Jesus in the holy Eucharist, because it is the comfort, the support of all. Pray and you will obtain everything! I ask you this: your love, your heart, all your being, your life, give it all to me ! And when comes this day of terror, if you are between my arms, you will not fear and will be very strong to surmount everything. Stay close to me hold, my children, especially by the recitation of the saint rosary, because it is the most powerful weapon. Often send your guardian angel to the souls, so that all convert, that all have peace in the heart, that all can approach Jesus! Send it up to the end of the world, over there in the missions, the foreign grounds! It is him who will act: it will help missionaries, the nuns, the guardian angel will give to these missionaries the force to fight for Jesus and to save many souls. My children, pray and make pray so that the immaculate Heart of Mary and the Heart of Jesus triumph in the whole world and that, everywhere, Jesus can reign in great triumph! I will give you many graces, really many, throughout your way, I will surround you with joy, tenderness and gladness. Be strong and without fear, because the celestial Mom follows you step by step and assists you hour after hour...I love you so much, my dear children. You, give it back; love me and, also make me loved by others me and Jesus will be content. Often as receive Jesus, often attend the holy mass: this Sacrifice gives so many graces! Speak about Jesus and Mary! Prepare the souls for Jesus! Prepare them, because the times are sad. If you prepare them with faith, if they are ready, if they have the faith when these great jolts will come, they will then have the force to surmount everything. Me, I do not abandon you, I do not abandon anyone ! When you are tempted, you should not listen to the daemon; call me!”

Be strong, my children, be strong! Under my coat you will always overcome! Have the faith, be humble, patient, gentle with everybody ! No vanity, no pride! Be humble and gentle with everybody and you will always find peace and serenity in your heart, but be strong in the faith, because with the faith all can be overcome! I am the Mom who fills you of caresses, of joy, of kisses. In this month which is dedicated to me, come here to my feet and kneel in my presence! I am alive here like you. Ask me graces! Listen to my word! I come here to save you, to fulfill you with love. I am the Mom of the sky, the Mom of all. I guide you, I support you. Call me with the soft name of Mother!

Listen to my word! Come to my feet! I am ready here to grant graces, to spread roses on your path. Be strong in the faith and the love in Jesus! Pray for the devoted! I lavish joy and love on them, because they hold between their hands my Son Jesus, his Body, his Blood! They are my sons! I love them so much! Pray, so that they are illuminated by me, that they speak about their celestial Mom in public, that they come here to my feet, where I will give them light and force! My children, be strong in the faith and the daemon will not come to take you! Be strong, hold close to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament! He will open your heart and will give so many graces and love for all will give. Pray for the whole world, because the world is destroying itself! They do not understand any more the word of God. They do not want to listen to it! My children, I love you so much! I will never give you up, neither in this life, nor in the other. Be strong in the faith! Be close to Jesus in the holy Eucharist! Jesus is the comfort, the joy, the love of all. Jesus gives the cross, but he also gives the force to carry it. He carried it before you. and how heavy door it was! You too, follow the way of the Calvary with great love and resignation! One day I will come to take you and I will carry you up there in the sky where you will find such joy and consolation! There you will find all the angels and the saints, the celestial Mom, Jesus, Our Heavenly Father. I give you a strong blessing so that you are enlightned and protected. Be serene look in direction of the pear tree: it is me who is here in your presence!
(There is among the people present two person possessed who makes noise, yell and roll themselves on the look at me: I smile to you! Do not be afraid of my presence. I am here with you. Do not pay attention to anybody else... As soon as I opened the gates of the sky that he unleashed and raged out. You saw my power that of the celestial Mom! Now you know, I allowed that to show that I am here, that I come here... You must pray, pray, pray! Your Mom will not abandon you, but assist you, encourage you. I hold you under my coat my children and tighten you on my heart. I guide you step by step. Do not doubt me who am always here. From hour to hour I await you here where I want a large sanctuary which is dedicated to me, here you will receive many graces. My children, be serene, under my coat. I follow you constantly, step by step. I guide you hour per hour. Day and night, I look after you. When you are in the need, in sadness, call me with the soft name of Mother! I am the Mother of kindness, the Mother of love, the Mother coredeemer, the joy of all. Those who call me with faith, I am ready to listen to them, the malicious ones like the goods a glance is enough for me! I want that all convert. All, I want them here with my feet! I want that none goes to perdition. I want for you all salvation. All with me, one day, in paradise ! My children, I make fall on you a rain of roses, graces. Often recite the saint rosary! It leads you to the sky, gives you the force, helps you to support all contrarities and adversities of the life. I require few sacrifices: the rosary and that you often approach the blessed Sacraments. It is then Jesus who comforts you and assists you. Kneel! I give you a strong blessing and make fall a rain of roses on all those who are present here. That those who are far unite to us!

Seer describes a vision of the sanctuary the apse of glass, which will enable to see the tree of the apparitions. The basilica will rise in the middle of the trees and flowers. The fifteen altars will honour the fifteen mysteries of the Rosary. On the gate will be engraved a M, formed of roses. The sanctuary will be entrusted to the franciscains capuchins. They will have to always expose the Blessed Sacrament, night and day

"There are so many, so many children who die of hunger. They should all be brought. I want a great number of houses, a great number for the poor, for all ".

October 2, 1966

"It is necessary that I speak clearly, because my sons do not understand, do not want to understand my words as a mother. My City, the Maryal City of my triumph, must be of love. The City, I want it at all costs. I will inspire many souls, so that they understand. My triumph, I want it in the large City and the Church where Jesus always reigned, triumphed always and will triumph always"

October 21, 1966

"My daughter, I assure you that here there is water. A fountain of water of salvation for numerous souls must here emerge, to purify their souls and bodies" Our Lady requested that a well be dug here so that the water could serve many as the purification of soul and body. This well was completed.

October 29, 1966

Rosa indicates that the Virgin presented herself, accompanied by saint Michel, saint Gabriel, saint Raphaël. She was very beautiful, wearing a coat all in gold. She held, in her hand, a rosary of white roses, which ended in a cross having two red roses. The white roses are the graces, said Rosa, and the cross, the suffering. The rosary in hand, the Madonna made a circle above the well in construction, while turning above all the pilgrims. Then she descended inside: Water, she said, will be very limpid, very fresh and miraculous.

November 18, 1966

“Still dig. Come to drink to this well the water of the grace. Wash yourselves. Purify yourselves. Drink and rely on this water. Many are those which will cure of physical evil. Many will be sanctified. Carry this water to the serious patients, in the hospitals. To the dying. Go everywhere where you see the souls groaning. Be strong. Do not fear. I am with you. It came, the hour when the well will give light. Here is the confirmation. Come to take water, and bring it in your houses. You will obtain infinite graces. I love you. Love me”

December 8, 1966

“I want many houses to put in them many children, who are without roof. They have nothing. They should be cared after. Do all that is possible. I will spread on you much graces. You, do all that you can, do everything to save many innocents who suffer and cry. You, promise, and I promise too. to many souls, Jesus gave much wellbeing, and they only make use of it to do much evil, but now, my sons, it is enough, enough! Promise here, at my feet, to do everything”

December 9, 1966

“I want that my sons unite, all, as brothers, in love, peace, harmony, and that they prepare many houses, very close to me, here, where I came to bring joy, triumph in the world ”.

January 6, 1967

“This water is a source of graces for the souls. It will cure the evils of the soul and the body. The possessed people will be freed in my presence and that of many priests. Join together and say to the world that all should unite to my instrument... I want a sanctuary, a large sanctuary. It will be link between everybody in peace and harmony and will be used for the salvation of the world. Pray, put your trust in me and hold on to me who is your celestial Mom, the Queen of the world, the Queen of the Universe who loves you so much. I deneaned myself towards you to save you, to give you the joy and consolation, me who is the Mother of the pains, the Mother of the graces, the Mother of the comfort, the Mother of the consolation. On the 13th of May, there will be fifty years that I am on this earth with you to unite myself to you, to embrace you, to give you such an amount of joy and comfort. And you, my children, why don't you listen to me? Why don't you come to my feet? I pass by the roads, I go from house to house, I stop making meetings of prayer... All, you can meet at my sides, because I want to save you all of all the obstacles, of all temptations, all misfortunes, of everything. I am your Mother which come precisely to save your soul and body. Ask here many graces and I am ready to spread them on you. Why don't you ask for the graces with faith? Why don't you hold on to me, your Mom who loves you so much? Let us go, my children, awake you of this sleep, because from one moment to another the world can be to the ground. And what will happen to you if you do not have a ardent faith? Be strong, my children! Your Mom will not abandon you neither on this ground, and a day she will take you along to the celestial fatherland, where you will enjoy such happiness and serenity. Courage and go ahead, my children! Raise the eyes to the sky where I await you, where are my Son Jesus, Our Heavenly Father, the angels and the saints who sing "Gloria " and " Hosanna to the highest skies " and spread peace and joy down here. Prau and trust me and you will receive so many graces ! Thank Jesus Child for the great gift that he made you by being born. You will know him the day when I will come with a great light and will bring so much joy in your heart. Listen to me! Listen to me! Announce the world, to all my devoted sons, that I await them all here at my feet where I will give them force and power to carry the victory in all and for all. My children, speak to your priests, to the bishops, to the priests of the whole world! Make it at first by sending your guardian angel. Inspire to many souls to come to my feet, because I am the celestial Mom who wants to cover you with kisses and tenderness. My Jesus Son brings you so much peace in the heart to you. Give him your heart, your love, and he will ignite it of a saint love. Jesus will come on this earth, him also, with a great mercy, a great love. He will level the mountains and the valleys and will save the souls... those who want to save themselves. My children, prepare yourselves, because soon I will come with a great light! You, prepare yourselves with faith! If you have the faith, you will see this light of love! hold on to me! Pray and have trust confidence that Our Heavenly Father will show pity and mercy. Our Heavenly Father wants to make justice, because you do not listen to my word. I cry so much! I have a torned heart and from my eyes overflow tears of blood because of my children who do not listen to my word, whereas I come to save you and bring you all the graces you wish. love yourselves as brothers! No pride, no superb, no vanity! Love, love, my children! If you have love the ones for the others, you will receive so many graces and the punishments will disappear, all will disappear and only will come the joy and the love in the hearts, in the fatherland, in the whole world. Pray and send your guardian angel until the endings of the earth so that all awake and have the light. They should not sleep of this deep sleep in which the daemon has plunged them.

My children, I give you a strong blessing, I cover you with my coat and follow you step by step...”

January 27, 1967

My children, you paid attention to my words: I had asked my instrument to pray for devoted who need so much faith and force to overcome all temptations and all that will occur to them. Pray a lot for my sons of predilection, a lot, a lot, so that they have the light and the force to support all, that they walk on the way of holiness, humility, kindness, charity, as Jesus when he was on this earth. So that they approach all the sick and bring to them so resignation, peace and joy, that they live in harmony and have the great consolation to arrive one day at the sky! All the souls who will have clung to me will be carried to the sky in a great jubilation and songs of joy. Pray for the sick, because so many sick people suffer and groan on their bed of suffering! There are so many young people who do not find resignation! During this rosary, recommend all the sick, especially those who do not want to be reconciled with Jesus. And for those who are in good health, ask that they have the faith, so that they can approach Jesus in the holy Eucharist. Pray, pray, my children! Me, I pray with you, with all the angels and the saints, so that you are inundated with joy and love. I tighten you against me, I embrace you so tight! I give you such assistance and consolation, here at my feet. Often come to my feet! Come and I will give you light, comfort, love peace. I will revive in you a faith able to surmount all that will come. Support all, comfort everyone and bring the love and peace in the hearts... Be united by the prayer and the sacrifices for the conversion of the sinners, particularly for the most stubborn persons who do not want to reconcile themselves with my Son Jesus. Pray a lot the Holy Spirit to illuminate these souls, because there are times of terrible tests, anguish and tears. They make me so much cry! Such tears of blood! I demeaned myself up to the middle of you, my children. In these days when approach my great feast (on February 2), I walk in the middle of you. I will follow you step by step and give so many thanks to those who resort to me with faith. These days, pray a lot and prepare yourselves for the eucharistic banquet, resort to my So Jesus, because he is the force and the support of all. And him, he grants graces! My children, raise towards me your hand which holds the rosary and I will come to kiss them all. I will embrace them all, one after the other. Be united to me and you will not perish! Down here, all passes by, but eternity never, never. It is here where I await you, me who is your Mom of the sky who loves you so much. Open your spirit, fix your eyes on the next world, where I await you ! Support with love and resignation the cross which will come! Support it! Me also, I suffered so much when I was on this earth. So much, so much! I will give to all the force to carry the cross by the sides of my Son. When you will be at the top of the Calvary, I will kiss you and will open the gate of the sky to you. I will come to you with your guardian angel. My children, this rosary, tighten it on your chest day and night. It is it which will give you the force to walk on in the way of holiness. I will spread on you so much graces. Ask graces, ask! The Mom of the sky can give you everything. (Petals of roses fall from the sky) These are all the graces that you will ask during this time of my neuvaine. Often come to my feet! I will give you such strength and assistance, because the crosses are close, day after day, increasingly stronger. But I will give you the force and courage to carry them! Under my coat, you will always overcome! Love one another! My children, love one another, love one another! no pride, no vanity! Love one another with sincerity. Be united together in a sole heart! Bring your heart, your love to the feet of Jesus, in front of the tabernacle, and Jesus will ignite it of such a fire that there will be no more discord, that there will be only peace! Promise to me, here at my feet, to love one another! Your Mom cries so much of tears of blood to the sight of some ungrateful sons. With pride and vanity, they do not want to love one another! In these days, promise to make neuvaine, to go to attend the mass, to receive Jesus. To Jesus, ask peace, harmony, tranquillity in the whole world. Jesus loves you so much and your celestial Mom too! I do not abandon you, my children. Love one another! Pray your guardian angels, send them to all those which are not in the grace of God, who don't want to be reconciled with Jesus... Promise to me to love me and I will love you so much and spread on you so many graces! I bless you and hug you in my arms. Be calm, be in peace in concord and harmony! No pride and vanity, but the harmony! Promise to me and I promise to you to assist yourselves in this life! And at the time of your death I will come with your guardian angel to carry you there high in the sky, where Jesus and your celestial Mom will make you a great feast!

February 11, 1967

I am the Immaculate Conception. I came amidst you to give you peace, love and consolation. I want peace, my children, I want that you love one another, that in the family there are peace, harmony, serenity and a great love for Jesus. I come precisely on this earth to save you, to help you and take you along one day in the celestial fatherland. At this time, join all together with a big and solid faith, with a great love for my Son and for me. Ask the grace of peace, so that my Heart triumphs in the whole world, that it brings to all the love for all and that all my devoted, my sons of predilection, love me, make me known and speak about me. All must know me. Speak, my children, speak clearly! Tell everyone to unite with love and which one to testify his love towards Jesus by the prayer and penitence! Continue the way of the Calvary with Jesus and with the Mother of the pains! Support the sorrows, because one day you will have such a reward in the sky! In this world everything passes, but eternity never! My children, listen, speak little, but clearly! Say only the plain truth! Do not say useless things, because when you arrive in front of the Court of God, in the other world one year is like ten years down here. If you made penitence, if you achieved your duty, there will be such joy up there in the sky. But if you denied my presence, if you blasphemed imprecations and proclaimed things which are not true... what will happen to you in front of the Court of God? Jesus is just, Jesus is merciful, Jesus forgives. But he lets do the leaves men free. Think it over! Ask graces! I do not abandon you, but assist you, protect you, defend you of any danger. I want you holy, all saints in the sky with me. Often recite the rosary ! One day, I will come to take you and you will be in the joy of the paradise. I promise it to you. You, here at my feet, promise to recite the rosary and me I promise to you the glory of the sky. Often go to receive Jesus, pour out your heart in him when you are in anguish, in pains. Tell him everything ! Jesus has pity of you. He forgives everyone. Pray; remember Rome especially! That the Pope may triumph, that he can give the light and that all listen! Join together in prayer, because Rome must be the triumph, the joy of the triumphing Church! No pride, no superb, no vanity! Be always humble, soft and calm with everybody! Testify your love to Jesus and give him your heart! he will ignite it with love for him. My children, you must be firm in the faith, because with the faith you will overcome always and everywhere. I will come soon with a great light. If you have the faith, you will see so many beautiful things and you will arrive one day in the celestial fatherland. I bless you and hold you tight between my arms. I await you often here at my feet, where I will give you such light and force to carry the cross, like my Jesus Son carried. I blessed you, you and the whole world.”

My children, tell the priests to make hours of worship to appease these large plagues, these floods and these avalanches. I distribute many graces to those who are present here for the sacrifices that they made while coming here. Courage, my children, courage in the tests! Be strong: the stronger the fights will be, the more I will come with a great light which will illuminate everyone and your heart will be happy and in the joy. I will give you such happiness, so much joy to have listened to my word and to have come here in my presence. I will grant so many material favours to you, but also that, larger, to arrive at the sky in my company. I promise it to you, my children: you will be happy in this life and more still in the other, where you will enjoy the eternal happiness. Pray and rely on me! Carry the cross with Jesus! Let us follow the way of the Calvary! Jesus suffered more than you. Your celestial Mom suffers still much in this hour, because his word is not listened to. I want you all under my coat. I do not want that a single one is lost, because my Son died on the cross to save them all and now they do not listen to anybody any more! Pray and rely on me! Do not fear: during your journey, I will send to you the guardian angel with the three archangels who will follow you, will assist you, will defend you of any danger. Cling to me and do not fear! I am your Mom of love, peace, mercy, the mediator of all, the consolation of all, the joy of all those who resort to her. This snow, my children, these are all the graces that I want to spread on the world... Prepare yourselves to my arrival! Prepare yourselves with faith and a great joy in the heart! Prepare yourselves! I will do everything to comfort you, to love you so much. And you, show your love towards Jesus; give him all yourselves, also your sins, all!

Comfort Him and Jesus will ignite your heart. This so brilliant cross (visible in the sky) will be the cross which you will have to carry with Jesus, but if you have the heart burning of love for him and me, you will not feel its weight. In this period, often do the path of the cross, meditate it! Do it for the devoted, so that they have the light and make triumph the celestial Mom. Pray for my sons of predilection! Pray a lot and I will not abandon you. Rely on me! I promise to you that I will give you such consolation and love. You, promise to me to love me much, to be strong, to overcome your own selves, even if it costs you sacrifices! When you feel the inspiration of your Mom of the sky which calls you, leave everything and come to my feet! I await you and want to give you graces. Listen to my inspirations, listen to me! I also announce you to prepare for my arrival by the prayer, the sacrifice, the penitence and the frequent taking of Jesus-Eucharisty. Thus prepare your heart and Jesus will ignite it. Holy, it is holy which I want you, my children! Be strong in the faith! Do not let yourselves overcome by temptations, because the daemon is now ready to fight extremely in the world to overcome the souls. You do not let it get you down, hold close to Jesus-Eucharisty who will give you the force, the support, everything! Love one another! Bring peace, serenity in the families by the recitation of the rosary ! Your Mom does not abandon you. She assists you now and hour after hour defends you of any danger... Goodbye, my children! Often come to my feet and I will give you so many graces and consolation!

“Will come a day when you will see such light, so much consolation and so much joy, in this sanctuary which I announced and which you will make... Prepare for the abandoned children, for the poor, for all. Begin work. Do not wait until it is too late. Join together by the prayer and work, so that when come these punishments, youth is united under my coat, that their souls are ingenuous like snow, Jesus will forgive them, will give them the kiss of forgiveness, will comfort them in the sad hours”

March 25, 1967

“Since the first day I came, I announced that the whole world will come here to my feet, that I want an international center of the world whole. A City of the Roses... I want that my painful Heart triumphs in the hearts, that triumphs peace, that triumphs the Love”

April 14, 1967

“This place was blessed and consacred by Our Heavenly Father, place of great love and holiness for all”

May 13, 1967

“Today, abandon this place! Take turns until the return of the Pope in Rome! That one is always in prayer for him, so that he can triumph with a great light and bring in the hearts peace, serenity and a great love towards me. I love you so much, my children, assist you hour per hour, embrace all between my arms, give you all a kiss on the forehead. I am your Mother and I want to save you. Even if you are bad, I want to love you. Pray for the devoted, so that they are holy and that you can follow, thanks to their ministry, the ways of holiness. Pray, pray, my children, and when it will be your hour I will come to take you and I carry you in the celestial fatherland, where you will enjoy the happiness with Jesus and your Mom of the sky, with those who are dear to you and with the angels and the saints of the paradise. Pray, my children, because I will come with a great light and I will triumph over the whole world. Also will come my Jesus Son will come with the new reign. He will bring the peace and the love, the calm and the joy in the hearts. Love my Jesus son much, because there is nobody who loves you like him. On this earth everything passes, but eternity never. Be joined together under my coat! What a joy you will feel, my children, in my arms! The pope Paul VI, my son of predilection who loves me so much, me I love him dearly! My children, embrace the cross and follow me on the way of the Calvary with Jesus. In kindness, in charity, humility, you will arrive to the sky. pray, my children, pray, all join in the love, harmony, serenity. That there is no more superb, pride, vanity, but only love one for another, love towards me and my Jesus Son who loves you so much. You, love each other awell, support all, forgive you like Jesus forgave to the good thief on the cross. Forgive and you will be forgiven for the sins which you made from the beginning of your life so far. I give you the kiss of forgiveness. Promise to start as soon as now a new life, a life of holiness, humility and kindness. From the top of the sky, your Mom assists you and looks after your way, hour after hour. Join together for the prayer of the rosary ! When he left this morning for Fatima to bring the light, peace and the victory to the world, the Holy Pope was protected by the prayer from the rosary. Pray for the Holy Pope, my children ! I am the Mom of love, mercy, forgiveness, graces and consolation. Those who resort to me, I do not abandon them; no, I never abandon them , never! Be serene between my arms and those of my Son Jesus and a day you will find such happiness. I bless you, my children, and spread on you so many graces and so much comfort.”

“I want houses for the children, the patients and the old devoted. I always announce to my instrument to speak to the world, so that it can start fast, the building of large houses; especially for youth, because there are so many on the ways who grieve, cry, are hungry and also makes sins of impurity because they are abandoned by all. It is necessary to unite them and save them because Jesus died on the cross for them too. So many old devoted have nothing. They gave all their life for Jesus and I, and now they are abandoned of all. It is necessary to do everything, it is necessary to comfort my beloveds. It is them who bring peace and consolation in the world, thanks to what they made and suffered. Do all that you can. Speak to the world, because I ask everything, to save the world and the souls. Pray a lot your guardian angel, so that it goes to see many men who received from my Son so much of wellbeing and only use it to make evil. Pray, Pray your guardian angel so that it will illuminate them and so that they can thus make many charitable works for the salvation and the souls”

“My Sons increase your faith! Ask it of Jesus in the Eucharist”

December 29, 1967

My beloved sons, I made you recite these Ave Maria for each one of your nations. Pray, join together in a sole heart with me. Make me triumph to me in the whole world, in all the hearts and all the nations ! I am your Mom of the sky who comes in this place to save you, to love you, to give you so many graces and celestial blessings. I love you so much, my sons, so much, so much! I love you and I am on this ground to save you. Since a long time I come on this ground and so flew listen to me ! I always arrive with a large troop of angels, of great apostles, of martyrs who gave their blood for Jesus. And you, my sons, do not let yourselves get caught by temptations, because the daemon fights in this moment a very battle, but you must overcome! Even if you are insulted, turned in derision, do not pay attention to it. Your Mom of the sky will put joy in your heart. On the way of the Calvary, Jesus will comfort you. He also was turned in derision, was insulted, maltreated. To arrive to the sky, necessary crosses are, my sons! The more there will be crosses, the more you will go up high! But you must make this promise to the celestial Mom: you must make her triumph! Courage, my sons, courage! Your Mom will give you the force. She supports you, gives you all. I want to come with a great light on the world and to awake all the hearts, so that they all love me. I have for you so much and so much love and you, my sons, what do you promise to your gentle Mom of the sky? If you, you promise, me I promise. You will undergo calumnies, persecutions, but you will up there have such joy up there in the sky close to Our Heavenly Father and to your Mom of the sky. The Holy Spirit will come on you and will illuminate you of a great light. Your guardian angels will come and will guide you. It will be the holy archangel Michael, with his sword, who will defend you in the great fights that you will have to undergo. But you, courage! With the cross on the shoulders, follow Jesus on the path of the Calvary and, under my coat, you will enjoy such joy and happiness. Go in the world! Priests, and others join together in a prayer of love! muddle together close to me ! Go everywhere, to the other priests, the bishops, to the pope ! You must make me triumph, because the world is at the edge of the abyss, my beloved sons, and I cry so much! You who love me, do everything! Me I will do! You promise! Me I promise! Go, and your guardian angel will follow you with your gentle Mom of the sky! Do not fear anything: everything will be solved! Jesus will come on this earth and his reign will be a reign of mercy and forgiveness towards all. Jesus will come with a great troop of angels and martyrs. He will go by all the roads, everywhere. But be strong, with the rosary, and go without fear, because the rosary is the most powerful weapon to save you! I will come and I will drive out the enemy in the depths of the abyss from where it will never arise ! One of the priests requires the blessing. The Madonna of the Roses: I give you everything, beseech me, my beloved sons, for you, for your fellow-members, for those who are here and those who are far, for those who suffer from hunger, from the cold. It is necessary to do quickly with the prayer and the sacrifice to prepare the houses, to give to eat, to equip and place those who are deprived. Another priest present intervenes: Give us the force! The celestial Mom: I will give you such force, my sons! I precisely come in this place to give you this force, to give you the strength, the light, the intelligence, the consulting, the force... everything ! A priest calls upon: Give us the faith! The celestial Mom: I will give you such faith, my sons, but you must always ask it, wherever that you be. Even in the center of a place, everywhere, kneel down and piously recite a Credo and Jesus will open your eyes and will give you the light as regards to the world! I have so many graces and I want to spread them. I am ready to spread them on you, on your path so that it is a path of joy, peace and love. Love one another, my children, like true brothers! Love much my Son Jesus and me! Often receive him in the heart, so that he gives you force, that he supports you and encourages you. He is the King of the kings and he can give you everything. A priest intervenes again: Make of all a family, your family! The celestial Mom answers: It is what I want, my sons. It is that! You spoke with love, my beloved son: a sole family! I want that all under my coat. Show to me a great love to get a great consolation! I am very close to you, in order to give you peace and courage. It is enough that you call me, that you ask! Open your hearts, open them and often come to rest between my arms and I will welcome you with my love of Mother. I blesse you, my children. Be strong, fight, fight! Jesus always overcame and you will overcome with love, joy and courage. Pray, join together in groups of prayer, sacrifices and love join. It is with the prayer that you will obtain everything. In the name of the Father, of the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

“Unite yourselves with the angels, the archangels, and with me, in a sole heart. And let us pray with a great faith, so that the Our Heavenly Father takes mercy... I announced it a long ago: I want houses to nourish the children who die in the street. There are so many old men, so many mother who suffer, who groan ". Rosa, terrified, sees them " Speak to the world, my son, (Rosa speaks to a priest), so that all can hear that I want houses for these children. They are brothers like you, moms like you, dads like you, sons like you. You must be concerned about your brothers”

January 12, 1968

“I will give you such of light, force, courage to surmount any obstacle, my children. Be strong, be strong in the faith! It is time to fight firmly for the faith. Do not let yourselves overcome by temptations, because the daemon makes a carnage and wants to lose the hearts! Me, I suffer so much, so much, so much, and my Jesus Son gave his life for you! Comfort my heart which is so afflicted! Make the dedication to my painful Heart in the families. I will come in the meddle of you to bring graces, peace, love to you. I will comfort you in your sorrows. (Mamma Rosa announces the presence of all the celestial court which prostrate itself to adore Our Heavenly Father and his Son, and to venerate the Virgin Mary.) The celestial Mom: Ask graces to Our Heavenly Father who will listen to you! (Then Mamma Rosa recommends to the Blessed Virgin the Holy Father (Pope), so that he can continue his mission, her bishop, all clairvoyants; she beseeches pity and mercy for the whole world.) The celestial Mom: Yes, my children, I listen to you and grant you. I spread so many graces on you all, your close relations and everyone, because I am on this earth expressly to save you, to love you and give you the kiss of forgiveness and love. Make me triumph and loved in all the hearts by the recitation of the rosary which is the most powerful weapon to save you! Be united under my coat and I will embrace you on my breast! Never become confused! Be always in serenity, always united in my heart and in that of Jesus, in holy Eucharist, because Jesus is the King of the kings. He can give you everything and he loves you so much, my children! Be strong and Jesus will listen to your groanings and will grant you. Jesus calls you all to holiness. Be always humble, soft, serene with everybody! Do not have pride, superb, but only love and forgive everyone, also to the enemies, because with forgiveness you will arrive to the sky and because Jesus forgave the good thief. You, do, Jesus will do! I spread on you graces and blessings, on those who are here as well as those who are far.”

I am here in the middle of you to save you, to give you the love, because I am the Mother of mercy, the coredeemer who loves you so much! I come to save my sons of predilection, I come to save the Church of Peter. Pray, my children, because times are going sad! Do not say that calamities there have always been same, do not say that! See all these souls who have left this world! I announced Friday to you that there would be many disasters. I said to you to pray, to be ready, thanks to a good confession and a good communion, because if you have prepared, you leave for the sky and Jesus has mercy and gives the kiss of forgiveness, because Jesus died on the cross to save you. So many souls thus have passed in eternity, but what happened to them? You, my children, don't you think about it? You do not think of it? Today you are here, tomorrow you can be on the threshold of eternity! I cry so much, so much! My sons, be ready! I call the souls to the prayer, to the penitence, to the sacrifice, but so few listen to my invitation ! I give strength, consolation, salvation and graces to all those who resort to me, because a mom makes everything to save her children. To save you, I go throughout the whole world, in the houses! In so many places I deploy my coat and bring mercy and forgiveness! Listen to me! Listen to my invitation of Mother! I will put a great light in your heart and your spirit. Do not fear the insults, do not listen to chatterings, my children, because Jesus also was insulted, turned in derision, was calumniated! One made fun of him and one put him on the cross. I will give a great light in your heart: it will be a light which will burn in your heart such as a lamp of love towards my So Jesus and me. My children, listen to my words! Don't you see this sunbeam which brings to your heart and in your spirit the light, which awakes your hearts and your spirits? Why don't you think? I promised that I would help you on the path which leads here and on that of the return, I cleaned the road, the sun shines, the cold decreases: I give you everything to make so that you often return to my feet and feel there dashes of love. I am ready to give everything you, my children, provided that you listen to my call! Do not wait that the great punishments arrive, do not wait, my children! Speak, speak to the world! Speak to the devoted, to my sons of predilection, so that they awake and do not let themselves misuse by the daemon, because it is now the most terrible moment where he makes devastations, knowing that he has few hours to fight and take the souls! It is true that I will come and drive out everything, but, you be strong, my children, so that when comes this day from darkness, you have the light! The others, who will not have wanted to listen to my call, will cry. When comes this day of darkness you will have the comfort and them the anguish. My children, come and do not delay! Often come to my feet to ask pity and mercy for all! Join together in the prayer, so that all hear my call, that all my privileged wire raise the eyes to the sky and request pity and mercy! Pray for my sons of predilection, pray for the Holy Pope, so that he is strong and speaks with a gentleness serenity and love and that all understand him. Speak to everybody, always with gentleness and humility, kindness and charity. Do not do it with pride or arrogance, but with love and I will be always at your sides, I will inspire to you and will guide you. But speak, my children, do not fear, because the hour sounded! Me, I will give such an amount of light in your heart. My children, announce that I want that the painful and immaculate Heart of Mary be celebrated! I want that it be a feast of triumph! Announce to your priests that it must be a feast, one day of love to my immaculate Heart and that one should not wait until the punishments arrive! I repeat it to you, listen to my invitation! Speak, speak to your priests: I will give you force and courage and in your hearts will shine the light and the love! It is your Mom of the sky who kisses you, smiles at you and holds you tight against her! My children, be always serene, offer, support and pray! Even if you are calumniated, it does not matter! The more there will be calumnies, greater will be my triumph of the love, gentleness and serenity in the world! Never doubt your Mom who will make everything for you, if you listen to her invitation of Mother ! You, offer and be serene, because you are under my coat! Call the souls to the prayer, here where I am with you alive and true. Ask graces; ask them with faith, with love! I bless you, my children, always united in a sole heart. You, promise, me, I promise. Announce what I asked you concerning the triumph of my painful and immaculate Heart, so that there is as soon as possible a feast of light and grace! In the name of the Father, of the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

“Console My Heart which is so transpierced. Make the consecration to My Sorrowful Heart in families. I will come into your midst to give you so many graces, peace and love, to console you in your sorrows”

February 23, 1968

“My children, at the moment I spread abundant graces. To surmount each obstacle that occurs you must have a great force, a great courage and a great faith. Be strong! Sheltered under my coat, you will always overcome, because I will give you the force and courage to overcome each test, fights, earthquake, plague... any thing. Be strong and I will come to embrace you and to carry you up there in the sky. Between my arms, you will all sing and be united in a sole heart. Be happy, because Jesus and Mary are with you! Do not fear: soon I will give many signs in the sky! I've been announcing all these signs for such a long time, but you do not look... you do not understand... you do not believe in the signs that I give you. But you will see them and you will come to know them, because there will be little time to wait! Embrace the cross with Jesus, hold-it tight between your arms and imitate Jesus climbing the way of the Calvary. Jesus loves you, awaits you, called upon the Christian love, the paternal love, the love of kindness, softness, serenity. I want the love my children, the love and forgiveness! Forgive everybody with all, even if you are insulted and ridiculed Forgive, because when you will present yourselves to the Court of God, Jesus will forgive you and will let you enter the joy of the paradise. Those who were sorry and asked for forgiveness under the bombardments, among the ruins, went directly to the sky: there no was purgatory for those hearts. And, you prepare yourselves with Jesus in the heart! In a great faith, console yourselves while saying: " If we must leave... we will leave in the arms of Jesus and Mary and we will enter the eternal joy of the paradise " My children, love yourselves and forgive, because I will come soon to give you a strong light and so many souls will convert! I will put in your heart a great joy, a big and strong faith which will surmount any obstacle. I have been on this earth for a such long time to speak from one end of the world to another, on the mounts, in the valleys, everywhere, and you, why don't you listen to my word of Mother? Because a does everything to gather her children, to save them, to love them and to carry them to the sky! My Jesus Son died on the cross for the salvation of all! And you, repent and be sorry for all these words of insults, calumnies, so many of useless words... Repent for all that you said of evil; listen to my invitation of Mother. Listen to me, because I will come soon with a great light: many will convert... many... many... but will also come from hard tests! The angels and the saints are with me, and in the middle of you. There is also the Holy Spirit who looks after you and your Mom of the sky unloads her coat of loving Mother, of Mother of the consolation, Mother of the grace who loves her children so much! Come to pray in this place! I will always be present among you with a large troop of angels and saints who will surround you by a great love and I will spread many graces and blessings... Soon I will come and I will be in the middle of you with a great light and I will light the whole world. So many hearts will cry not to have listened to my invitation! But you, forgive everything and have pity of everybody, me, I will spread so many mercy, love and graces on your path. Ask the graces which I spread on you at this hour when I am in the middle of you to bring you a great joy in the heart ! that your thoughts are always directed towards me! (Mamma Rosa announces that arrives a large troop of angels arrives holding in a hand a white pink and in the other a banner on which figure the inscription " Long lives the triumph of Mary, Long lives the reign of Jesus") Soon Jesus will come in the world with the apostles to bring peace. Mary my sons of predilection be strong! No pride nor superb, but love and holiness! My sons of predilection, raise the eyes to the sky where Jesus awaits you; follow behind him the way of the Calvary! You will thus reach holiness with a great triumph of the Church, because I am the Mother of the Church which will triumph in the whole world. Pray a lot so that the Holy Pope is strong and can overcome his enemies, the daemon currently making a carnage. In this period, my children, pray and be clutched at me, because the sad hours arrive! Shelter under my coat and be all locked up in my heart! When you will be in confusion, call me by my soft name of Mother and come to rest on my heart: I will inspire you, will guide you and will give you the peace of the heart. I will give you much love and you will be able to transmit it to all. I bless you, my children. It is a strong blessing which you will be able to give, on my behalf, to all, your close relations as well as those who are far."

The graces, he must ask them to Jesus, for him and for all the families of the whole world, so that Jesus puts the peace and the harmony in all the nations and grants the grace of living as a christian. If it is useful to his soul, the grace which is asked will be granted to him. My son of predilection, I love you much, I love you so much, I always cover you with my coat and hold you in my arms. Rest on my heart and I will inspire you, guide you, sanctify you. All your sorrows, your anguishes, your tribulations, Jesus left them to you to save all your fellow-members, to carry them all to the sky, and Our Heavenly Father will purify them, will sanctify them and will carry them in the glory of the saint paradise. Jesus, your Brother, prepared you a great place up there in the sky where you will taste the eternal happiness. Be courageous, my son, be always serene, soft, humble with everybody. Support all, because the greatest joy, you will have it up there in the sky where Our Heavenly Father will embrace you and will give you the kiss of the love, of the recognition for all that you will have made on this ground. Love me much, my son, because I am the redeemer of the sky and the Mother of all, who loves you so much! I have descended, I came here to save you, to give you much love. A mom does everything for her children and today it is the day of saint Joseph, my husband. I brought him also among you to bless your families, as well as those who far away are linked with us on this hour. Now, Jesus blesses the present ones and those who are far. (to the sick priest) Make a sign of the cross on your forehead while saying: " Jesus in my spirit, Jesus in my heart, Jesus in my soul, strengthen me and sanctify me for the sky! " Jesus: I will give you the force, my son, my brother, my beloved, because I love you so much! I will always surround you of love and tenderness, because when I was on this earth I was gentle and humble. And you, follow me! I will be always close to you. Carry the cross with me, follow me on the path of the calvary and my Mother, your gentle Mom of the sky, will be always at your sides. She will assist you in this life and at the hour of the death agony. Assisted by your celestial Mom, by your Brother, and my feeder father at your last hour, you will have such joy. Courage, my son, courage! The celestial Mom: Be strong in the faith and fight! Triumph, all for the glory of my Son Jesus who is so tortured, transpierced, trampled, insulted, that he cannot continue any more this painful way. In this hour, ask pity and mercy for you and everyone ! Jesus: You must do everything, my brothers, with the prayer, the sacrifice, the good example. You must triumph, because Jesus, your Brother, always triumphed and will triumph always, even if he is calumniated, trampled, turned in derision and are crucified. But Our Heavenly Father gave me the glory and you, carry the cross with me, offer hour after hour your pains. When you receive Jesus, put in my heart all your sorrows. I will ignite your hearts of love for me. Be strong, because the fights will be hard, but if you cling yourselves on to me, you will have the force on this ground and glory up there in the sky! Love me and make me loved! Forgive and you will be forgiven ! Saint Joseph: I will support you in the tests and will defend you in the dangers. Promise recite the saint rosary who is the most powerful weapon to arrive to the sky! I will be your rampart in the lasts battles. I will be close to you and will insist near my wife and of my Son Jesus, so that they forgive you and carry you all to the sky.

“Make many houses to unite the young people, to dress them, give them all the necessities, to inform them a christian ...largest sanctuary of the world”

March 28, 1968

“My children, see how much my Jesus Son suffers for his brothers of the whole world! I am the Mother of the pains who cries because of my children. I come on this earth since such a long time, but little listen to me. I am insulted, ridiculed, so many of my children blaspheme against me, a sword wounds my heart! Don't you think a mom does everything for her children! And me I am the Queen of the sky, the Mother of the universe who loves you so much and wants to be so much loved you, because my Jesus Son poured all his blood to save you. Think of the day when I was on the path of the Calvary, seeing my Son overwhelmed by, blows and insults! Think it over, my children, and think that the time has come. Ask pity and mercy to the Our Heavenly Father who will express his mercy! Pray with the angels and the saints, Jesus and Mary! Go to the feet of Jesus-Eucharistie and ask for forgiveness! Make a self examination; think over the state of your conscience! I come to save my children, because I see so many of my children going to perdition and I suffer from it! Jesus is whipped, beaten, calumniated! They do not think of him any more ! They only think only of television, theatre, the cinema, but more to the prayer. They do not think any more of the love that Jesus gave and of the love which I gave to my children! Think, my children, think! Youth, youth... take the right path! Continue the way of the calvary with Jesus and you will find graces and comfort, because you are so confused that you understand nothing any more! Moms, moms, pray for your children! Pray, because when you leave this earth, with the sight of so many sons in the depths, what will be happen to you who do not make any more your innocent children pray morning and evening and do not any more pray the rosary? Nothing! Only the television which causes so many damage to humanity! Think, my children, while it is still time! Pray, intercede with Our Heavenly Father, so that he has pity and mercy of you and the whole world... so that by the prayer, the sacrifices, the good works, things will turn out all right. I will send the angels and the saints in the whole world to inspire the souls, to assist them, protect them, defend them against the enemy who makes so much, so much carnage! But the day will come when I will crush his head and will send him in the abyss. As for you, prepare yourselves with faith prepare. If you have the faith when I will come with the light, you will be able to cure you and to purify you. Before coming with the triumph I await from you the prayer, because if I come with the triumph while seeing such great number of souls going to perdition, I will cry such so much! Pray, my children, and I will cover you with my coat and will defend you of any danger. There are only the prayer and penitence to receive graces! You, promise, and me, I promise to you! As long as I am still with you on this earth, remain united under my coat! I call you all to the prayer and penitence, because I am Mother of love, mercy, forgiveness. Think, my children, think it over! I am ready to give you the kiss of forgiveness, to spread graces on all those who resort to me. I give you a strong blessing which will protect you during the life and at the time of death.”

Unite link, my children, in the prayer, the sacrifice, the offering, the suffering and silence. Me, I will do everything! Announce to my sons of predilection that they must, them too unite themselves to link itself in prayer in front of my Son at the very Blessed Sacrament to ask pity and mercy for them and for their fellow-members... because I cry so much for them and suffer much because of them! Pray, pray! Do not scorn my word, because a mom can do everything for her children! They should be saved! Think that I am the Mom of the sky, the Queen of the universe, the Mediator of mankind, to whom Our Heavenly Father gave such power, science and intelligence, kindness and humility, and that I have so much pity of my children! If you listen to my call of Mother, we will triumph. I will triumph with you and in the meddle of you ! I took this instrument, the most ignorant of the world, to speak with her, to be always with her, me and my son Jesus. I cover her with my coat and protect her from any danger. Jesus printed his own sorrows in her heart and in her chest and gives her so strong toutburst of love to transmit peace and love to all my children of the world. At my arrival, I had announced to her that I would give her so many and so many graces, but that she should remain under the cross with Jesus to help him, that she should suffer, offer and keep silent. She promised it and me, the Mom of the sky who loves her so much, I will never abandon her, not even for a moment. The world will come to my feet and I will grant so many graces and conversions to save my children. Wake up, my children! wake up, because the hours are sad of anguish and tears! Join together in prayer, with a great faith and a great dash of love! Pray for the Holy Pope who suffers and groans while seeing numerous sons of the Church of Peter getting lost, but the Holy Spirit gives him such light and me, the Mother of the Church, I cover him with my coat and gives him a great strength to speak clearly in the world. Pray, pray, so that the boat of Peter floats on the water and triumphs, and that germinate flowers of holiness in the meddle of this storm of fights which will come. Pray, united to my instrument! Do not let any temptation get you down, because the daemon does so many devastations! He is free to do everything, as long as Our Heavenly Father allows it... Do not scorn my word, but put it into practice, because I suffer so much! Meditate, think that Jesus died on the cross to save you and that I followed him until his death on the cross! You also, I want to follow you, my children. Often pray the Our Heavenly Father, so that he purifies you and sanctifies you for the sky. I am your Mom of the sky and want to hold you tight between my arms, so that you rest on my heart... and I will have such mercy!

My Son is resuscitated and he will also resuscitate in your hearts to bring you much peace, love and serenity. Kiss my Son, embrace him with so much joy and love, because he suffers so much. Jesus calls you all to the eucharistic Banquet to relieve you of your sorrows, your anguishes, to bring you so much love and joy, to wish you days full with harmony and holiness. Prepare yourselves, my children! Prepare yourselves by having every day Jesus in the heart and you will be constantly able to carry the cross with him ! I am your Mom of the sky who, in this hour, is in the middle of you to spread so many graces and celestial blessings. Ask and it will be open for you! I will cover you with my coat and will hold you tight between my arms. That the patriarch saint Joseph brings in your house so much patience and all his virtues, so that you can walk through the path of the life, serene and quiet under my coat! Pray him much, my holy patriarch Joseph ! Me, your Mom of the sky, I call for you always here, in my presence. I call for you hour per hour, day after day, because I do not want you to lose yourselves in darkness. The enemy wants to do so many devastations, he wants to carry all the souls to the damnation. Me who is the Mom of all, I cry a lot, I suffer so much! But, you tighten up around me! You will then be then always happy and I will give you so many graces to carry the cross with Jesus. Don't you see, my children, so much sadness, so much inconsistency in the world ? Why? Because one does not grip to me any more, because one does not want any more to recognize me and love me like the mediator of all, me who loves you so much. But you, my children, do not become discouraged, even if the world calumnies you and persecutes you! Remain under my coat and I will illuminate you, assist you, because in this life everything passes by, but eternity never, there where you will enjoy the eternal happiness. Our Heavenly Father is tired of my children! Since such a long time he is sending me on this earth to save you, to inspire you, to comfort you and give you so many graces, but so little resort to me! I am insulted, ridiculed... But, you pray a lot for the enemies, so that Our Heavenly Father makes mercy to all those who want neither to love me, nor to know me, those who want to harm my works. You, my children, come under my coat with the angels, the archangels and the saints, while they hold it rather largely open to cover all my children of the world. Do not wait until Our Heavenly Father restricts its width! Then, it will be no more time to raise the eyes to the sky to ask pity and mercy. I pour many tears of blood... Wake-up, my children wake-up! Listen to my words of Mother! Listen to them because I groan, I cry so much! The world rolls towards the abyss. So many souls get lost and precipitate in hell! My Jesus Son died on the cross to save you all. Pray, insist near to Our Heavenly Father. At the time of the consecration, ask Our Heavenly Father that, by the mediation of his divine son, he purifies and sanctifies your soul and prepares it for the sky, because the hours are sad. One does not want to believe me, one does not want to listen to my words, but one however sees the punishments which approach, hour per hour. You who listen to me, be ready! Remain at my sides and I will not abandon you, because everything passes by, but eternity never! When comes your last hour, I will kiss you and will tighten you up around. I will carry you in the eternal glory of the Father and you will then see immense splendours and so many souls who will smile and sing at your entry in the celestial fatherland. You will never find a day as happy as that when you will see the splendour of God. When you will see my face and that I will embrace you to give you the kiss of the love for all that you will have done and suffered, what a joy you will feel, my children! What a happy day it will be for you! You will never have felt on this earth such a big joy! Remember, my children, that everything passes by, but eternity never! I want that you resuscitate with my Jesus Son. You must triumph with Jesus and sing the glory of God ! Love one another without pride nor superb! That it be only love! Give such an amount of love to my Jesus Son and to me! pray a lot your guardian angel so that he does not abandon you, but assists you hour per hour, because the hours which come are sad. Pray for all those who leave from this world, so that they are ready and that I can welcome them in my bosom. Be serene, my children, serene with your Mom of the sky, Jwith esus in the heart. It will be your happiness and your joy on this earth and in the sky... Goodbye, my children! See you soon here at my feet and I will spread on you so many graces and will fill you of joy.

From the Sky I return in the middle of you, full with graces and blessings, because I love you so much! I come to save you, to help you, to comfort you. I want such love in your hearts, in your families, in the cities, the villages, the nations. that it be only love and peace! Pray the Holy Spirit, so that it gives you this great love and so that the peace, harmony and happiness reign. Promise to me, my children, to love one another. No discord, no pride nor vanity, but only love! Thus, you will be happy on this earth and you will enjoy the eternal happiness in the sky, because I love you so much. It is your Mom of the sky who speaks to you. I am present in the middle of you with a great troop of angels and saints who surround you, love you and pray much, so that you can be happy on this earth and then enjoy the eternal joy. I love you, my children, but you must be ready to any sacrifice which will come, because the crosses will not miss; they will increase always more, but with the love and the faith you will be able to face them and, close to me, I will give you graces and blessings. Courage, my children! Courage, because my So Jesus died on the cross for you, promise to do everything to love him, to receive him in your heart, because he will give you such love and will make your heart burn of love for him. Ask graces and consolation, because I am the Queen of the sky and the Mother of the universe! I came in the middle of you to save you and spread graces, because the world precipitates itself day after day in the abyss and I cry to see my children going to perdition. My children, speak about my presence in the meddle of you. All must know that I am in this place, sent by Our Heavenly Father to save you, to light you and to love you. I am in the meddle of you with the angels, the archangels, to give you the light. And my Son Jesus is there at my sides who smiles at you, blesses you and comforts you. I am in the middle of you, alive and true ! Do not make obstacle to these apparitions which are great... great! I came on the command from Our Heavenly Father. If you do not listen, he will make justice. Prepare yourselves! Prepare yourselves. I will give such a light that all will see me and believe! But it is to you, my children, to pray, offer, endure and make silence! When Our Heavenly Father will want, he will open the skies and all those who will have believed will see me. Jesus wants you holy. Prepare you for my triumph and the reign of Jesus with much love, prayers and sacrifices! Offer hour per hour all your pains and your anguishes; I will wipe your tears and will comfort your heart. I will convert so many souls and will bring many with me to the sky, where they will enjoy the eternal happiness. Pray, pray for my sons of predilection, so that all be true apostles of Jesus or can still return to their mission and that Jesus forgives them! Pray, pray my children, so that, when the punishments arrive which Our Heavenly Father wants to send, my children are all under my coat, because I want to save them all. Embrace the cross and hold it tight on your chest! Pray with faith, ask pity and mercy for you and the whole world, and neither my So Jesus nor me we will abandon you. With Jesus in the heart and your Mom at your sides, you will be without fear in this world and in the sky. You will reign with me who is your Mom of the sky and who spreads on you celestial graces and blessings... I am the coredeemer of the world, the Mother of love and mercy to whom Our Heavenly Father gave such power. I want you safe on this earth to kiss you one day in the celestial fatherland. I you bless you, you and all those who approach you. Goodbye, my children! As long as I come on this earth, be united to me in the faith, the hope and charity and with a great love towards your fellow being and Jesus and Mary! Goodbye!

“Jesus is real and alive in the Most Holy Sacrifice of the Altar”

My children, I am the coredeemer, the refuge of the sinners, the Mother of the dying. I inspire them, light them and support them in the great fight to go up to the sky, because this hour is sad. It is a great battle! The daemon wants to take the souls, but if the soul is in the grace of God and understands that Jesus died cross to save it, me I am at its sides with the archangels and the angels and I assist it until the last hour. Many do want to listen to my word and to be reconciled with my Son Jesus. You, pray, pray for the dying, so that they have the light and the love towards Jesus; they will leave then this earth, glorious and triumphing. As for these poor souls who leave with a mortal sin, when they to the Court of God, it is a burning fire which approaches, it is the daemon, and they are not able to pronounce. They are only howls between the soul and the daemon which comes to take it and to carry it in deepest of the abysses. It is so painful for me who let die my Son Jesus to save you! Pray for the sinners and all those who do not want to be reconciled with God, so that they have the light at their last hour and can pronounce the name of Jesus: my Jesus, mercy, pity and forgiveness! Jesus has mercy; he accepts the repentance of a soul, purifies it and sanctifies it for the sky. Remember that you have a soul to save! Think about it and think it over! My children, pray and make pray; repent while it is still time!

Love one another and love my Son Jesus of all your heart and of all your soul and you will have such a great reward! Pray Our Heavenly Father, so that he listens to the groaning of my children and gives them the light and the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit; this will reinforce them always more in the faith and the love towards Jesus and your Mom of the sky who love you so much! I am the Mother of the good advice who gives so many advices, inspirations and love to my children, but little listen to my invitation of Mother, me who am the coredeemer, the hope and the comfort of all those who resort to me. Pray a lot your guardian angel, so that it is always close for you, that it assists you hour per hour and guides you on the path of the sky. Your guardian angel can do everything near me and to get you so many spiritual and material graces. Pray it much, call upon it at every moment of the day and the night: it will defend you against temptations and of all the dangers of the soul and the body. Put your trust in it, because Jesus put at your sides an angel consolator which will support you and will encourage you, even in the hardest tests, if you resort to him. Pray a lot, my children, pray with the saint rosary who is the most powerful weapon to fight against temptations, whatever the test or whatever the grace that you ask! Promise this " small flower " in this month which is devoted to me! In your homes, do not give it up any more and I will be always in the meddle of you and will spread on you graces and blessings. I will welcome you under my coat and I will defend you of any danger. Always carry on you your rosary and often recite it in family to always obtain assistance and comfort. Whatever the test which will come, your Mom of the sky will not abandon you. Courage, my children, and promise to often recite the rosary with faith and love and I will be always at your sides and will save you. I bless you, my children, all united in the hearts of Jesus and Mary. I am the Mother, the coredeemer of all; I am the salvation and the hope to all see each others one day up there united together, in the sky.

“Blessed are the families in which the children and the elderly are united. I grant so many graces when they pray for their sons and love Me”

My children, I am here in the middle of you to approach you with love, mercy, kindness and power, in order to give you many graces and consolations, because I am Mother, coredeemer, advocate, as well as adviser and dispenser of all the graces. Resort to me who am a Mother who does not abandon her children that she loves so much! But, you wake up! wake up and cling on to me, because these are sad moments of anguish and tears. The world is up side down: one does not understand one another any more, neither between the nations, nor in the families. Only pride and arrogance reign! There is neither love nor peace. It is the daemon which works in the souls and involves them into perdition. How much I suffer from it! I go here, and there, to call to the prayer and penitence, to save my children, to light them and carry them to the eternal salvation. You who listen to me, pray for those who do not pray, do not believe, do not hope and do not love. I forgive. I have pity of all. But you, recourse to my assistance, do not get weary, do not delude yourselves! I repeat it to you: it is me, who am Mother, who comes to save you and carry you one day in the celestial fatherland, because down here everything passes by, but eternity never. Often raise the eyes towards the sky, where I await you to embrace you and hold you tight on my heart of Mother. I am here in the meddle of you with all the apostles, because I am the Queen of the apostles, the Mother of the Church, who loves my sons of predilection so much. I want that they achieve their duty of apostles, fathers, towards my sons that Jesus gave them. They must imitate the first apostles, in poverty, humility, obedience and, always firm in the faith, to be ready even to give their life, to spread their blood for the salvation of the souls. My sons of predilection, the hour sounded and you do not understand that it is Jesus, my Son, who calls you! Why don't you listen to him? Why don't you achieve your duty of priests? Courage! Courage, my sons of predilection! Take the cross on the shoulders, since your mission must be only this: to save the souls and to prepare them for eternity. No pride! Not arrogance! Do not ask the riches, since it is the richness which leads you to perdition! Poverty! Poverty! Imitate so many saints, so many of your fellow-members! Courage, courage, my sons of predilection! Misleading is the ambition! Misleading vanity! It is the poverty which is necessary, as when Jesus was on this earth. You must have love for everybody, support all the adversities of the life with a great patience and follow Jesus on the way of the Calvary. On his side, you will arrive to the sky. You who know me and love me, pray for your fellow-members of whom so many are lost! I want that all come back, that Jesus purifies them and sanctifies them for the sky. My children, unite under my coat, with the crown of the rosary between the hands. It is the standard of the victory and of the triumph on the earth and in the sky. Pray and rely on me who am Mother and Queen. I am the joy of all, the consolation of all, who comes to save you. Be serene, always humble and love one another, love one another in peace. I will send the angels and the archangels to you to assist you and protect you during the voyages and in your houses, and to help you and comfort you. If you are united in the prayer, you will feel their presence. Offer all your sorrows for the salvation of the souls and my triumph, because I will come soon to light all the spirits again and to ignite all the hearts. Happy those who believed and hoped in me: they will have such joy in the heart! Pray! pray, offer, suffer and keep silent, because all will become reality. When they will understand the mercy which I had towards my children, what will happen to those who made so much to ruin my word? I can do so much to save you and I love you! Repent, my children, while it is still time for you! Make a good self examination and you will understand that I can do everything and give you everything to save you! I want you holy, my children. I want you united, I want that you love one another and that you put yourselves in peace with Jesus and your Mom of the sky who loves you so much. You, my children wake up, because Our Heavenly Father wants to make justice, if you do not listen to my call! Our Heavenly Father will send everything purify you and save you. Pray, pray! Jesus is with you. He is in the middle of you, who blesses you. I want to save you on the earth and in the sky. I send to all the kiss of love. I bless you! Goodbye...

My children, I am here in the middle of you with my Son Jesus, who loves you so much, to bring peace, joy and love in the hearts. Jesus is with you. Jesus is in the middle of you. Jesus wants to enter your heart to ignite it, to encourage you and spread graces and mercy. You, my children, give you all to him; also give him your sins, because he will destroy them and ignite your heart of a burning love for him. Jesus is so merciful, He is all love, he is a judge, He is powerful, He assists you in all and for all! But you, resort to him with faith to obtain all the graces which you wish. Courages my children! You must be strong, not let the temptations get you down, because the daemon makes everything to take the souls. he has such an amount of mischievousness and, with his pride, he takes the souls. So many souls are on the edge of the abyss! Listen to my call and that of my So Jesus while you still have time! We love you much and want you saved. We want that there is no more pride nor mischievousness. Everywhere must reign peace and love in the hearts must reign, all to comfort my heart and that of my Jesus Son. My children, listen to me! I am in the middle of you, here, to bring much graces to you, but you must promise to recite the saint rosary, because the rosary is the most powerful weapon, I always repeat it to you, to obtain any grace. It is the union of the families, the love which one gives one another, peace in the hearts, the families and the nations. Promise, my children! It has been since such a long time that I repeat it to you, such a long time that I call you in all the parts of the world to the prayer and penitence, because in the families one does not pray any more, that there is no more love and that Jesus and Mary do not reign any more. They do not ask any more mercy, neither assistance, nor comfort; they want to do by themselves, but, alone, they will be able to do nothing! In the sad hours there is only my assistance, my power, my comfort! Listen to me, my children! Don't you see how currently presents the world? Don't you see all these punishments and so much of dying on the roads? When you leave the house, always ask assistance and protection to your Mom of the sky and your guardian angel, and we will be then your guides in the travels, during work, during the day, during the long nights. My children, the sad hours are close, but also the hours of joy ! Those who want to understand me and love me will understand all the love that I give you in these years when I walk on this earth. I saved so many souls and called you so many times to save you. It was me, it is me who is in the middle of you to give you all the graces that you wish, for the young people, for the old people, my sons of predilection that I love so much. That all know me, me who is the coredeemer, the Mother of all who comes to give the joy, triumph in all the nations, peace everywhere, as well as the grace of God. Jesus is with you. He wants to reign in the middle of you! He will come, he will also come also my son Jesus on this earth! Will come this happy day which will be a sole song of graces, peace, love down here with all the angels and the saints of up there. All the prophets will also come to announce the truth, the greatness of God, but there will be also in the middle of them the daemon which will make devastations if you do not listen to the word of Jesus. Long lives Jesus, long lives Mary! We will be always in your company if you listen to us and love us. Pray, my children, I repeat it to you, and make pray your children, love them, often join them together near you with the saint rosary, so that the grace of the Holy Spirit enters in them and that they are enlightened so to live well, to die well and to be all united together up there in the sky... Goodbye, my children! Prepare for my arrival!

My children... offer your sufferings! It is especially in the tribulations that are received graces and comfort for the salvation of your children and the triumph of your Mom of the sky who loves you much! Extend the arms and often recite the rosary! At each part of the rosary extend the arms, raise the eyes to the sky, recite a salve Regina with faith and I will give you such mercy and love. Courage, my children! Pray much your guardian angel and saint Mickael to go in the world to call back all my children! With my assistance and your prayers everyone will come under my coat. For a mother like me it is a great joy to see all my children beside me, united together in the prayer, in the faith, in a silence of love, to request pity and mercy. Call them all, also my sons of predilection! Announce without fear, without human respect, so that my invitation of Mother is listened to, because the moment is going sad. That my sons of predilection are strong in the faith and the love; that they are holy true apostles, ready to give their life for their brother Jesus! Upright! Upright, my sons of predilection! Do not let yourselves disturb by the daemon! I am your Mom who calls you to the prayer and penitence, because I want you all saved, all saints! That nobody loses himself! I cry so much at the sight of so many of my sons of predilection who do not listen to my word! It is the pride and the mischievousness with which the daemon makes a massacre among the souls. One needs only humility, charity, purity and perseverance until death! Pray for everybody, so that all know me, me who is Coredeemer and the Mother of salvation for all my children! My children, I am in the middle of you to give you graces, to convert and save you, because the Our Heavenly Father wants to make justice. Prepare by a good confession and a good communion! Have Jesus in the heart and the rosary between the hands and I will put at your sides your guardian angel, so that you redouble of ardour in the recitation of the rosary, the faith and the love. Jesus lives of love for you, you, live of love for him ! Jesus is mercy and love, kindness and softness for his brothers. Often go to the feet of Jesus to the Blessed Sacrament! Knock, knock on the gate of the tabernacle and ask first of all the grace of the paradise... then everything else, I will do it, me. Jesus is the King of the kings and he can give you everything. Jesus lives with you, reigns with you. You, reign with him! Listen, my children, my invitation of Mother, me who speaks to you by my " instrument " who suffers so much. Help her by your prayers to carry the cross! Day after day, she requests for the salvation of the souls and my triumph. pray, pray beside her! Me, I will be in the middle of you. I promised to you that I would not abandon you. Any person, whoever, who is around this small Garden of paradise, I bless it and I spread on it graces. Even if you do not see me, if I do not speak... my presence is always in the middle of you whom I love so much! It is my joy, my comfort, to be in the middle of my children, especially of those who love me and comfort me. But I want also all those who do not love me! I do everything to save them, if only they listen to me! I live of love for you and I spread so many graces on you. My children, listen to me. Minute after minute, hour after hour I spread graces. Day and night I comfort my children, but so many of them do not correspond to the graces that I give to make known myself and love. Speak about the graces, speak without human respect! You, you asked and Me, I gave you... And you, thank and announce them for my triumph! Do not wait, my children, because the hour approaches! What will happen to you if you did not bring the light to all? Have a pure and sincere consciousness, because those who will not have announced the received graces, what will happen to them? Because the punishments are terrible! You do not understand them and do not want to understand them, but when you see cities disappearing, wars, earthquakes, epidemics of any kind, what will happen to you who did not want to accept the peace and the love of your Mom of the sky? Think while it is still time! I want only love, kindness and charity. With Jesus in the heart and the rosary in hand, little by little you will arrive to the sky in the jubilation and the songs. With the angels and the saints, we will triumph, all united for eternity in the celestial fatherland. Pray and announce to all the love that I have for you. I bless you, my children. Listen to me as long as you still have time for it! Make open the gates, small and large! Call the souls to the penitence and Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Unite and request pity and mercy from the Heavenly Father, so that he purifies and sanctifies all his children of the world! Jesus is with you, he reigns on you. Your Mom of the sky, with the angels and the saints, opens her coat. through the whole world, I spread a crown of graces on all those who are united in prayer at this hour. Long lives Jesus, long lives Mary, always in your company!

My children, this day is dedicated to my painful and immaculate Heart which suffers much to see men so tormented, so plunged in the sin that they do not listen any more to my word of Mother and Coredeemer of mankind. They only listen to only the voice of the daemon which carries them to the damnation. I let die my Son Jesus to save you; to testify my love to you and to give much comfort and peace in the heart; but you do not listen ! You want to act alone! Man uses only of deception and mischievousness! But Jesus is merciful; he waits to see what you will do, but then punishments of any kind will fall on humanity. Why don't you listen to your Mom of the sky who loves you so much? Why do you want to do alone everything that exceeds you? Cline on to me, my children. Happy those who will be under my coat, because they will have the force and the assistance to fight and overcome by Jesus! Jesus always overcame and will overcome always ! Think and think to what your Mom of the sky announces while it is still time! Make a good self examination and put yourselves in the grace of God to be saved. Our Heavenly Father is tired to wait. Admittedly, the left the daemon free to act and this one is now making devastations in the whole world, seducing so many souls. Even the souls of elite do not understood themselves any more and do not love themselves. There are only pride and vanity! Pray, pray, my children, and often come to my feet to comfort my heart which is broken. I have pity and forgive all those who resort to me. Pray for the Holy Pope, so that he is strong and launches into the world to proclaim the truth and to announce clearly my words of Mother. Do hours of worship, the chain in hands. Recite it often and accompany it by anthems, songs and praises! That there are only prayer and silence and you will find the love and peace! Courage, my children! Do not become weary, while day by day the fights increase in the middle of great anguishes and tears. Announce to all my children of all the parts of the world that they resort to me who am the help, the consolation and the hope of my children. Jesus calls you to penitence and wants that you speak and that you call your children with the prayer. He does not want to see this pride and this vanity any more. It is only love which you must give to your children, so that they understand the evil which they make. Nights and day so many sins, so many terrible sacrileges! Don't you think that today you are upright and that tomorrow you can be lying on ground? What will happen to your heart when it will be front of the court of God? There it is the plain truth: or the hell or the paradise! My sons of predilection, wake up, you too! Do not sleep of the sleep of the death: convoke the whole world to the prayer and penitence! Be very humble and poor, but rich of graces and love for all those whom Jesus entrusted to you with. Prepare them with a good confession and communion! That there is no more vanity nor pride in the families! That there are only love, peace and much faith to overcome all the difficulties! Go, go, my sons of predilection! You must speak, you must listen to me, me who am the Mother of the Church who comes to save my children. Why so much luxury? Jesus was poor and all love and how much He brought peace in the hearts! You also, my children, give love to all, go in the families to bring peace, to bless, love and make love, comfort the sick, bring resignation to them, give them Jesus in the heart. Don't you know that the hour of death is terrible, that the daemon does all that he can to take the souls ? A priest must unceasingly get busy to release them from temptations, to give the peace of the heart, so that they leave this ground assisted of Jesus, Mary and

Joseph, their guardian angel and saint Michael, and that they fly away towards the court of God to ask forgiveness and mercy. But if the soul goes away disturbed and in the sin, when it is presented to the court of God there are only fire and terrifying anguish and the soul cries hopelessly, because the sentence is hard, right, truth! And you, my sons of predilection, think about what will happen to you when you will be front of the court of God! If you did not fulfill your mission of fathers, what will happen to you? Embrace the cross and meditate it to understand what Jesus suffered to save you! Jesus is with you; he is above you who inspires to you and lights you so that you are loving fathers, full with kindness for those that Jesus entrusted you with. Run, run here to my feet, under my coat, near me who am the Mom of the sky and your Mother who wants to save you and love you of an immense love and who has such mercy towards you! You, my children, listen to my word and do not wait until the punishments fall on you. Then, you will not be able any more to call me by the gentle name of Mother. Wake up, love one another and love me while I extend the arms and you embrace on my breast. That all be only love, charity and joy! Near me you will have the force to support all that will arrive. I have such joy in the heart when I see you all surrounding me by a great and sincere love. But many come to make fun of me, to insult me. They make me so much cry, but when comes this day of triumph, what will happen to those who will not have believed nor loved? It will be a day of great sadness if they had time to understand the damage which they made to my works and my word! They destroyed it so much, my sons of predilection! Not to believe is not a sin, but to insult is one, because a mom makes everything to save her children when she sees them in danger. I am the Mother and the Queen of the beautiful love, of the consolation and I so much and so much asked to Our Heavenly Father to have pity and mercy of my children! Now, He does not listen to me any more and wants to make justice on the whole world. Pray, pray, pray and recommend you to me and to my Son, so that Our Heavenly Father makes mercy! Maintain yourselves in a great faith, a great love, with peace in the heart! Under my coat, you will find everything! I bless you... In the name of the Father, of the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

August 30, 1968

“And you My sons of predilection, go to the feet of the Eucharistic Jesus. Make a good examination of conscience and reflect on My words. Think of all the harm and the many insults I receive from My privileged sons, I want to save you”

September 29, 1968

I am Saint Mickael, your brother who loves you so much and who wants to protect you from all the dangers of the soul and the body, of the temptations and any evil. I am always here with you. I look here after you day and night. My wings are more than doves in the sky and on the earth, over the sea and the ships, and in all the parts of the world where one resorts to me. On this day, the celestial

Mom gave me many graces to be distributed to all. She gave me the responsibility to bring the comfort to you and a surplus of force to fight the enemy. Here are present several souls which fight against the Mom of the sky and me, but we are not afraid of anybody, because the celestial Mom with her power and me with my sword we will crush the head of the enemy and will release many souls which are confused by serious sins. Let us pray, pray together, my brothers! With the prayer and the sacrifice, we will overcome all. We will deploy everything the banners of the love, peace, charity and the purity. I requested forgiveness from the celestial Mom for all those who, on this day, put themselves in the state of grace. Ahead, ahead with Christ! Ahead with your Mom of the sky who will triumph in the whole world and will gain the victory! I am the Prince of the sky who makes honor to the Queen of the Sky and Mother of the Universe who loves her children of down here so much. On this day especially, all the angels and the archangels make a great feast in my honor. They help me to fight to save the souls, to save my brothers and the youth whom I like so much and whom I wrap of love. What a joy did you give me yesterday at the sight of so many young people who surrounded the Garden of the celestial Mom! With my sword, I circulated around the Garden and I defended the youth of the dangers and temptations. They were all love and so full with joy! Promise, my brothers, to be thus during all your life and you will comfort so much those who you love and your Mom of the sky who makes everything to give graces and love to you. Ahead, ahead youth! With Jesus in the heart, we must overcome... but overcome with Jesus and not with Satan, because he carries you to perdition. Do not torment your spirit, but be always serene. Often call me and me, with my sword, I will always defend you. I circulate all over the world and I accompany everywhere the celestial Mom with the angels and the archangels to help you and comfort you. Come, youth, in this place where you will find everything : material and spiritual graces and that to arrive one day to the sky. I am saint Mickael archangel, that to whom Our Heavenly Father gave a so great power to go by the world to release the souls and to save them. But you, you must be strong! Pray the saint rosary who is the most powerful weapon to receive everything. You, with the rosary, me, with my sword, we will overcome everything and we will have everything: such joy and love! The Mom of the sky called you today in this place to gather all the hearts, close and distant. With the prayer, via the guardian angel and with my assistance, we will comfort the brothers of the world, especially those who, innocent, are in the prisons or the concentration camps and who suffer so much. There are some who suffer the agony of Jesus, the martyrdom! But Jesus is with them, Jesus supports them and me I defend them in so many circumstances. Let us pray! That this day be only one day of prayer, songs and love! That our hearts be all united in the hearts of Jesus and our Mom of the sky! Ahead, ahead, my brothers! We all, fight for the glory of God, the salvation of the Church, because the Church of Peter must reign until the end of time. Jesus always reigned and always, he will reign in the hearts and everywhere. Jesus is with you and I am at your sides. I give you many inspirations and reinforces you in the faith to save you and carry you one day to the sky with me.

October 16, 1968

The celestial Mom: My children, I am in the middle of you to give you many graces and to comfort you. You must love me a lot, know me always more and make me known of all, me who am the Queen of the sky and the Mother of the universe which loves my children so much. I came in this place to save innumerable souls, to convert them and bring them to the sky in great joy and feast. But you, you do not understand me and often wound heart! What is worth this pear tree to come to gash it? One nothing! (Allusion to an act of vandalism caused on the pear tree of the apparitions in the night of the 14 to October 15, 1968) Me, I forgive to all because many repaired, much requested, many prayed beseeched pity and mercy. But what will happen to those who made this act? They will shout and all, really all will know what they did! I will call everyone in this place; all will come and receive graces, mercy and forgiveness... those who will request it. The more time will advance, the more I will show myself, the more I will give graces, the more I will use of mercy. Ahead, my children! Even in the fights, do not fear: the more there will be fights, greater will be my triumph. My heart will triumph everywhere in the world over my children. I want to save them at all costs. I want that all return under my coat. I am the Queen of the apostles and the Mother of the Church, the Mother of all my children and I want them all saved. Ahead with the cross on the shoulder; follow Jesus on the way of the Calvary. To his sides, you will arrive to the sky. And do not fear! Our Heavenly Father wants to make justice, because you do not listen to my call. Pray, my children, and ask pity and mercy. With my power, saint Mickael and his sword we will do everything and triumph in everything: in the hearts, the nations, everywhere. I am Mom and I can do everything, because Our Heavenly Father gave me so much power, so much graces and so much love to give all my children of down here. I let die my Son Jesus to save you. I want to save you at all costs; I want to take you all along up there with me. There, there are only love and peace. Put yourselves peace! My children, ask one another for forgiveness and think at what you are doing and at what you say. I protect you all, especially my sons of predilection whom I love so much. I want holiness. With their holiness, they will walk the road united to those whom my Son entrusted them with and will bring them to the sky. Courage, be strong, my sons of predilection, because the fights become strong and you must gain the victory in everything and everywhere. I bless you.

Our Lady announced to Rosa that a well must be dug in the enclosure. Rosa and others present saw a yellow globe fall onto a spot behind the pear tree indicating the exact spot where the well was to be dug. After much hassle and after obtaining the advice and blessing of Padre Pio, the well was completed on October 26, 1967.

October 25, 1968

Be united in prayer, My sons, for union makes strength. It is by uniting in prayer that graces are obtained

November 1, 1968

My children, I called you here in my presence to open myself to you to give you all my love, all my affection and my mercy. My Son Jesus, King of love, kindness and mercy, peace, justice and truth, is present also here. He wants to testify to you much love and to give you many graces. Do not doubt of my Son Jesus, nor of me. All the sacrifices, all the efforts which you make to come here all are registered in the Gold Book of the sky. You brought many young people, all your children, your small children. Devote them to me soul and body! Make them pray the rosary, make me loved, and make love my Son Jesus in the holy Eucharist. Pray, my children, do not disturb your spirit, but raise it to the love of Jesus. Are present here the angels and the saints, also your beloveds deceased who look at you and smile at you. You, pray and resort to my Son and to me, also with your beloveds, to the angels and the saints of the sky who will intercede for you, so that you receive mercy and forgiveness. Be always merry, but without sinning. Love of all your heart my Son Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. When occurs a cross, if you have Jesus in the heart, he will give you the force and courage to carry the cross with him because he carried a heavier than you. Jesus gave his whole life for you, to purify you and ignite your heart of love for him. My children, the hours which approach are sad of anguish and tears, but, do not fear under my coat, between my arms. If you are not saved on the earth, you will be saved up there with the sky, because Jesus called you for the sky; it did not call you for the earth. Up there, you will enjoy all the joys, all joys; you will find all your beloveds who will surround you love. I am your Mom, fountain of mercy, mediator of all the graces which I wish so much to give you. I call you day and night in my presence to hold you tight between my arms and to grant you all that you wish... if it is for the good of your soul. Do not weary of praying. Do not weary to love my Son Jesus and me. I repeat it to you, my children, recite many Credo during the day and several rosaries. Do many works of piety and charity. Do not worry of material things, but worry especially of the sky. It is me who thinks each day to give you to eat, to give you work, to support you in your tirednesses, your sorrows and your joys. Pray and be sorry for those who do not request it, for those who offend Jesus day and night. Jesus forgives all, but he is also Judge! Open to him your heart, pour out your heart in him. he is here in your presence, wrapping you of a glance of love, a smiling glance, full with kindness. He is surrounded by angels and saints of the sky. Our Heavenly Father is present above him. My children, be sorry for all your past... Jesus carries a white coat to make comprehensible to you that you must purify, that you must make yourselves small and very humble. In humility, kindness, purity, persevere until death! Ask with insistence a firm faith, a faith which transports the mountains, a burning charity, a true repentance of your sins and wish to enter to the sky close to him. Knock and it will be open for you; ask and you will receive! All will be given to you, because Jesus gives all. It is enough of a glance of repentance, of a glance of love so that he ignites your heart. Pray, so that all listen to him, that all listen to me, me who am the Mom of the sky, who am the Queen of the apostles and the Mother of the Church who loves my children so much. Pray for them, so that they understand me and love me, that they understand that it is me who encourages them to ask for forgiveness because I am the Mother of all and that I want that my children are all under my coat to keep them all in the way of holiness, on the path of the sky, where they will enjoy during all eternity with Jesus, with me and all angels and saints. I spread so many graces; I flood you of graces and blessings. You, be faithful, be ready to answer my call. Do not doubt of me who am alive and true here like you ! Do not wait until comes the punishments to recognize me! How many graces I spread these last years in the whole world! I came in the name of Our Heavenly Father, of my Son Jesus and the Holy Spirit to bring the light to all my children, to encourage them in the way of holiness, but few listen to me and many ridicule. It is enough that you underst that it is me who comes! But a day will come - it will arrive soon! - when you will understand that it is me, will you still have time to ask for pity and mercy? I am the Mom of all, of those of the sky and of the earth and I came to save you. Ask forgiveness, pity and mercy. You will be forgiven and will have peace in the heart. Our Heavenly Father blesses you. The Holy Spirit illuminates you with its seven gifts. Goodbye, my dear children, always here at my feet where I will give you assistance, graces and comfort. Do not fear, because your Mom assists you along the roads, in everything and everywhere!

November 11, 1968

Listen to me, my sons, listen to me! Goodbye, see you on December the 8 th! Bring many small totally white handkerchiefs. Put them in a small bag out of nylon, and put them all in my small garden. These handkerchiefs, you will give them to many sick souls. They will wipe their tears with them. I will give this handkerchief a great gift. Those who will wipe their eyes with them will have the light of the Sky, will understand who that Jesus calls them, will understand that they have to prepare for penitence and for forgiveness to arrive to the Sky, happy and content. It is the great gift which I make you, my sons, a great gift that that Our Heavenly Father gave me to save my children. Say it to everyone. That all can come running, that all can come to love; that all can come to receive the graces for this life and to go up there....Go often to Holy Mass. It is the greatest Sacrifice and Jesus gives you many graces there”

December 12, 1968

Saint Michael announces that tomorrow morning, or this evening, it is necessary to prepare all the handkerchiefs around the enclosure, along the alley in the field. Tomorrow the celestial Mom will make the procession with all the celestial Court. Prepare the innocent children, that they be dressed in white. Along the path, the celestial Mom will bless them. It is Jesus who will bless all the handkerchiefs. The celestial Mom will cover them all with her coat, because she will have a long, long coat, which will pass on all the white handkerchiefs. Remain united in prayer, silence, and preparation. That all the cars, tomorrow, be in the field close to the enclosure. That all the buses be in the field towards the large house. The celestial Mom will bless them all, with Jesus. That every one be in its car, or bus. The driver, in the car, will hold in hand a white handkerchief. He will make it float, as a sign of triumph. That one recites three Ave Maria when the celestial Mom passes on the path. You, during this procession, recite a Pater, Ave, Gloria. My instrument will kneel as a sign of penitence, of repair that one makes me, to me and my Son Jesus. That it be only one a meeting of love, prayer and songs, and you will have so many graces, so much of comfort in your heart, your families and the nations. Listen to the celestial Mom, listen to her. Do what I announce to you in the name of the celestial Mom. That those which can remain kneeling, with great devotion and prayer....My children, the handkerchiefs! It is a great gift which I made you, so great, so great.... The chastisements are to come after a great epidemic”

“This place has a double vocation. It is a call and a point of arrival. It is a sending and a starting point. Rosa Quattrini often pointed out that, if the Virgin unceasingly convenes her children of the whole world in this place, it is so that they gather there, in love, penitence and sacrifice, in great meetings of prayers. They are invited to come to unite themselves there with the Mother of the Sky, with the angels and the saints so that to implore God for the Church and all the men: With the angels and the saints, all united, we will be able to do everything”

My children, I am here in your presence and I want to announce a great news to you: soon I will come to give you a great light ! Come here to my feet! It is I who am here. Do not doubt me! You who came here with the rain, the fog or snow, never nothing happened to you. See, I ensure you my assistance, my comfort! Pray, my children! Pray, here at my feet, day and night! Join together to pray! There is here my instrument who listens to you. Join together to pray, because the plagues will be terrifying! Come, the Mom awaits you to give you the kiss of the love, forgiveness, reconciliation. Have faith and you will be saved! Pray, pray, because I you want all to be saved. Jesus suffered so much to save you! Jesus is mercyfull; he will give you the kiss of love, the kiss of mercy. My children, pray Our Heavenly Father! Make neuvaine to Our Heavenly Father, so that he has pity and that all receive the light! I am the Mother of Love, the Mom of all! Come here, do not doubt my presence, because I want that you all to be saved! You are all my children, the bad ones like the goods. I listen to you all. A glance from you enough for me to understand you. Make meetings of prayers! Pray

Our Heavenly Father as follows: " Our Heavenly Father, I offer you the Body and the very precious Blood of Jesus-Christ, in repair of my sins, for the conversion of the sinners and the relief of the souls in the purgatory. "

Before reciting this prayer, call upon all the angels, the saints, cherubs, the seraphes of the paradise, so that they support you in the prayer for the salvation of the world. Jesus will be mercyfull! Grip to me, my children, with faith! This life will end, but eternity never! I cry to see such great number of my children getting lost. My heart, full with bitterness, cries particulary for the youth. Do not give up the saint rosary! It is the crown which will carry you to the sky. Send your guardian angel everywhere in the world towards these innocent people who die of hunger, so that they are comforted! Pray for the Pope who suffers a lot! Pray for all! IThis month, especially in this time of carnival, pray for all, because Jesus, is even more nailed on the cross and martyrized. My children, pray! The blessing that you will receive, carry it, via your guardian angel, everywhere in the world: to all the executives, so that they have the light. Use your guardian angel! Do not leave it inactive; but say to him to go towards all ! I also ask you a small sacrifice: make during this month fifteen minutes of worship per day for all those which are in the mud! Do it with faith! Make this small sacrifice! On your way, the celestial Mom will give you joy and light. Come always here, day and night, and I will grant you light and consolation! Come now that the weather is fine! Come, my children, here in my presence! I will always come, Our Heavenly Father promised it to me, every Friday as long as there will be my instrument, then all first Fridays of the month until the end of the world! Pray and you will obtain everything! I give you a strong blessing, especially for those who are in the mud so that they have the light

I come to comfort you, you too. So many of my children are in the pain and sadness, because they carry in the heart heavy sorrows and great anguishes! I come to comfort you, to help you, to give you graces and love. I am the Mother of the pains, the Mother of the hope, the Mother of all my children of down there. Today is similar to the day - so many years ago - where I was at the foot of the cross. It was a time of anguish... and the present hour is also a time of anguish for my Son Jesus and for me, because men do not understand and love themselves any more. There are only pride, spirit of domination and so much of mischievousness... See the weather (a storm rage)! It is similar to that day: thunders and lightning! The sky and the ground trembled. Such sad days will still come and I cry much at the sight of my children who in so great number go to perdition. My children, meditate on my words and put them in practice. Listen to me while you are still down here! Pray, because Our Heavenly Father wants to make justice! He has had enough... enough! Me, I have so much pity for my children so much, I am the fountain of mercy, but you must listen to me! I am the Mother of the pains: seven swords transpierce my heart. I suffer so great pains because of my children who do not listen to my word! I let my Son die to save you, I supported so many cross and humiliations for your salvation... But I am ready to forgive you, to welcome you in the sky, ready to take you in my arms and embrace you on my breast. Listen to me, my children! Listen to me! When these days of sadness will come, take the crucifix in hands and hold it tight on heart; because I will then be close to you and will protect you. Ask pity and mercy to Jesus! It is enough for him to have a glance from you to save you. Come, my children, come here: it is my refuge and your refuge since here I widen my coat and welcome you all there. Here, it is the refuge forever. Here, you will find the joy, the comfort, the consolation. You will find more faith and force to surmount any obstacle. Put yourselves here at my feet and I will embrace you between my arms. I will not release you any more, but you, love me, because me I love you so much! I want you all in the sky, all united in the glory of the saint paradise, if you love me. Pray the rosary, as you do it these days: a meeting of love by which you comforted my Heart. That Jesus ignites your heart, so that it burns of love for him! Jesus is with you, who blesses you and assists you. Be serene, always serene, the heart in peace. Think only of my Son Jesus who died on the cross for you. If you have Jesus in the heart, you will not perish, but you will be saved. Remain always united, under my coat. I protect you, assist you, defend you, that those who are present here as well as those who are far, but who at this time are united to me by the prayer. Pray for those who do not believe, do not love me, do not hope, as for those who offend me, so that all can save themselves and love, that there is peace in the hearts, the families, the nations and that love returns in all and everywhere. I will always reign with you, my children, when you will have Jesus in the heart. That Jesus opens your heart, so that it burns of love, because Jesus is King, he is Judge and love for those who are down here. My sons of predilection, raise your eyes towards the sky and contemplate Jesus who is your brother and your model, who awaits you as true apostles, all united to my Son Jesus and to me. Pray for all those who do not pray, for those who moved away from me. All can become again true apostles and repentants. A glance of repentance is enough so that I give the kiss of forgiveness and the love to my children! But I want you saved, all saved, especially my sons of predilection who must start again to save all those that Jesus entrusted them with. Pray for all and comfort each one, because I want you all saints, all in the celestial fatherland. I blesse you, my children.

Our Lady instructed Rosa to obtain a specific tract of land near her own “Little Garden of Paradise” and that a Basilica must be built threrin containing 15 altars, one for each mystery of the Rosary. The land now called “City of Roses” consisting of 109 acres was purchased in 1974 to be used for the assigned purpose
