A Message from our Chair...

As a Chamber we take great pride in providing our members with various opportunities to network and grow their businesses here in Santa Rosa County. We offer monthly networking opportunities through Business After Hours, Networking Lunch, and The A.M. Network. If you have not attended one I invite you to come out and get to know other Chamber members and promote your business.

Nicole Frenk, Membership Services will be sending our entire membership a brief survey to measure how we are doing and to ensure that your chamber expectations are being met. When you receive the survey via email I do encourage you to take a few minutes to complete and submit back to us in a timely manner. Your input is greatly appreciated and as always the Chamber is here to serve you and your business!!

I realize this is a little early to announce but want to make sure you all mark your calendars for our first

"Casino Night" on October 16, 2021 at the Santa Rosa County Auditorium. All proceeds of this fundraising event will go to the Chamber building fund. Thank you to Board of Directors, Mike Johnson and Matt Howard for your hard work and dedication to making this event possible. So again, mark your calendars and I hope you make plans to attend!

And hot off the presses – we've just learned Military Appreciation activities have tentatively been approved, keep an eye out for announcements.

If you are not a member of the Santa Rosa County Chamber of Commerce, please join us very soon. Your membership will greatly benefit your business and the community.

Respectfully,
Robin Vickers
2021 Board Chair

WITHOUT A CHAMBER...

Many people still don't know...

The Santa Rosa County Chamber of Commerce & Tourist Information Center is not a government agency, we are not funded by the County, the City, your tax dollars or any source other than by local businesses, non-profits and individuals that join and two annual fundraisers, The Leadership Awards Banquet and Dan McKenzie Golf Classic. We thank the currently 610 members that support our Chamber, your businesses and your community. Consider joining if you are not already a member and please remember to support those businesses and organizations that are a member and make it possible to keep your Chamber active in our community.

YOU – our members keep our doors open and our offices staffed.
THANK YOU for supporting your business community and your Chamber of Commerce.

We Invite You To Join Us!

FROM YOUR PRESIDENT / CEO

Donna Tucker
President/CEO
Santa Rosa County
Chamber of Commerce

Are you affiliated with a non-profit organization? If you are a staff member, board member or volunteer you may want to consider attending our monthly Community Service Coalition. Chaired by Jaimie Hudson, Project Box, this monthly meeting is comprised of area non-profit representatives that come together to compare special event and fundraising calendars to ensure there are no major conflicts (is definitely beneficial to all to spread out volunteer time and sponsor dollars), and discuss the possibility of partnerships or just to compare do-betters and don't dos! Guest speakers present on fundraising, volunteers, how to obtain sponsors, social media marketing and more. Like many Chamber coordinated committees and target groups it is sometimes difficult to communicate the many benefits you gain from participation. Bottom line, there is always the opportunity to meet a new client, supporter or partner and learn or share something new. Meetings are held the 2nd Wednesday of each month at 2:30 p.m. in the McKenzie room.

*Jaimie Hudson holding her
2020 Chair Appreciation Plaque –
THANK YOU Jaimie!*

Jayer Williamson
State Representative
District 3

The five committee weeks leading up to the 2021 Legislative Session, which begins on March 2, were incredibly efficient and ultimately very productive. During these meetings, important bills that protect our health care heroes, promote home-based businesses and protect responsible businesses passed committees. The most notable pieces of legislation include the following:

CS/HB7: Civil Liability for Damages Relating to COVID-19: Our businesses have done everything they can to stay open, to stay safe and to serve us during the COVID-19 pandemic. We can champion their comeback by protecting those who did the right thing from frivolous lawsuits with HB 7 – the most aggressive liability protection bill in the nation. HB 7 provides COVID-19 lawsuit protections to businesses, schools, nonprofits and religious institutions making good-faith efforts to follow established federal, state and local guidelines. HB 7 passed its third and final committee stop on Tuesday, February 16, and is now headed to the House Floor.

HB403: Home-Based Businesses: Florida's home-based businesses are currently burdened by heavy local regulations and unfair taxation from each of the local jurisdictions that they work in. HB 403 empowers business owners to challenge impractical local mandates, allows startup businesses to flourish without high overhead, and encourages entrepreneurship by limiting business taxes to only the county and municipality where their home-based business is physically located. This bill will allow businesses to grow and thrive in their communities and throughout the state. HB 403 passed its first committee stop on Thursday, February 18, and is headed to the Commerce Committee.

PCB HHS 21-01: Our health care heroes saved lives in the face of daunting challenges throughout the COVID-19 pandemic. They confronted changing government guidance, inadequate personal protective equipment, and staffing shortages. They deserve protections from frivolous lawsuits so they can focus on patient and resident health – not unnecessary legal defense. PCB HHS 21-01 protects hospitals, practitioners, mental health facilities, nursing homes, assisted living facilities and many other health care providers from being unnecessarily second-guessed by COVID-19 claims. Health care heroes should not be overburdened by lawsuits if they are following public health guidance. PCB HHS 21-01 passed its first committee stop on Wednesday, February 17.

The 2021 Legislative Session: Taking Shape

I am also pleased to report that HB259: Safety of Religious Institutions, which I wrote about last month, passed its first stop in the Criminal Justice & Public Safety Subcommittee with bipartisan support. HB259 allows concealed weapons permit holders to carry on the property of church, synagogue or any other religious institution when it is located on the same property as a school or preschool. However, it is important to reiterate that the bill does allow religious institutions or owners of the property to continue prohibiting firearms should they so choose. I've also filed several other bills, which I look forward to sharing more about in the next few issues.

For the most up-to-date information, I would encourage you to set up a bill tracking account at MyFloridaHouse.gov. The process is simple and allows you to customize your notifications to receive emails on legislation and issues that are important to you. We also post updates on my official office Facebook page (@RepJayerWilliamson) and distribute a monthly e-newsletter, which you can subscribe to from my Facebook page. It is truly an honor to serve District 3 in the Florida House of Representatives.

With Ultra-low Rates, Should You Still Invest in Bonds?

If you've been investing for many years and you've owned bonds, you've seen some pretty big changes on your financial statements. In 2000, the average yield on a 10-year U.S. Treasury security was about 6%; in 2010, it had dropped to slightly over 3%, and for most of 2020, it was less than 1%. That's an enormous difference, and it may lead you to this question: With yields so low on bonds, why should you even consider them?

Of course, while the 10-year Treasury note is an important benchmark, it doesn't represent the returns on any bonds you could purchase. Typically, longer-term bonds, such as those that mature in 20 or 30 years, pay higher rates to account for inflation and to reward you for locking up your money for many years. But the same downward trend can be seen in these longer-term bonds, too – in 2020, the average 30-year Treasury bond yield was only slightly above 1.5%.

Among other things, these numbers mean that investors of 10 or 20 years ago could have gotten some reasonably good income from investment-grade bonds. But today, the picture is different. (Higher-yield bonds, sometimes known as "junk" bonds, can offer more income but carry a higher risk of default.)

Nonetheless, while rates are low now, you may be able to employ a strategy that can help you in any interest-rate environment. You can build a bond "ladder" of individual bonds that mature on different dates. When market interest rates are low, you'll still have your longer-term bonds earning higher yields (and long-term yields, while fluctuating, are expected to rise in the future). When interest rates rise, your maturing bonds can be reinvested at these new, higher levels. Be sure you evaluate whether a bond ladder and the securities held within it are consistent with your investment objectives, risk tolerance and financial circumstances.

Furthermore, bonds can provide you with other benefits. For one thing, they can help diversify your portfolio, especially if it's heavily weighted toward stocks. Also, stock and bond prices often (although not always) move in opposite directions, so if the stock market goes through a down period, the value of your bonds may rise. And bonds are usually less volatile than stocks, so they can have a "calming" effect on your portfolio. Plus, if you hold your bonds until maturity, you will get your entire principal back (providing the bond issuer doesn't default, which is generally unlikely if you own investment-grade bonds), so bond ownership gives you a chance to preserve capital while still investing. But if the primary reason you have owned bonds is because of the income they offer, you may have to look elsewhere during periods of ultra-low interest rates. For example, you could invest in dividend-paying stocks. Some stocks have long track records of increasing dividends, year after year, giving you a potential source of rising income. (Keep in mind, though, that dividends can be increased, decreased or eliminated at any time.) Be aware, though, that stocks are subject to greater risks and market movements than bonds. Ultimately, while bonds may not provide the income they did a few years ago, they can have a place in a long-term investment strategy. Consider how they might fit into yours.

Before investing in bonds, you should understand the risks involved, including credit risk and market risk. Bond investments are also subject to interest rate risk such that when interest rates rise, the prices of bonds can decrease, and the investor can lose principal value if the investment is sold prior to maturity.

Have your New Year's resolutions long since fell away to the rubbish heap?

Kay Montgomery
Independent Coach,
Trainer and Speaker

Do you struggle to change habits you really want to be different? Welcome to life!

Changing habits and lifestyle is not usually something that can be changed by one single decision.

The one exception is a life-altering or catastrophic event. Those kinds of events do not happen often. Our path to change most often involves a series of steps and decisions.

Wouldn't it be nice if we could tell ourselves, "Ok, from now on I will never... always... keep a positive attitude... stay on that eating plan... exercise every day... organize my life and keep it organized... control my temper... etc.," and that would be the end of it? Nope. Doesn't happen like that.

We have all experienced the reality of making that heartfelt decision and then failing in the attempt by the end of the day. It is discouraging.

We ask ourselves, "What is the point? Why bother to set a goal if I don't, or can't, keep it?" We tell ourselves the goal is too big, anyway, and we wind up giving up. We quit even trying.

That is when we make our biggest mistake. We want to look at the long-term result. We look down the road of time and think we must conquer all of it at once. I must get in shape NOW, we say.

The truth is, we live our lives in each moment. We can look and plan the future, but we experience life moment by moment, one moment at a time. I cannot lose all the COVID weight in one day, but I can make a start today.

I cannot quit drinking, or drugs, or anything else, forever, in one day. But I can begin today.

What if I fall off the plan? I make another start tomorrow-at breakfast, then lunch and dinner. Multiple decisions made during the day, moment by moment.

I once heard someone explain how he quit smoking. "The secret" he said. "was that I never quit quitting."

Whatever your goals are, whatever habits you want to change in your life, whatever resolutions you failed at or were afraid to make.

Let me encourage you to make another start-to-day-in this moment. Let us learn to both treasure and take the most advantage of this and every moment in our lives.

Never Stop Starting.

The best AIR PURIFIER on the planet and in space!

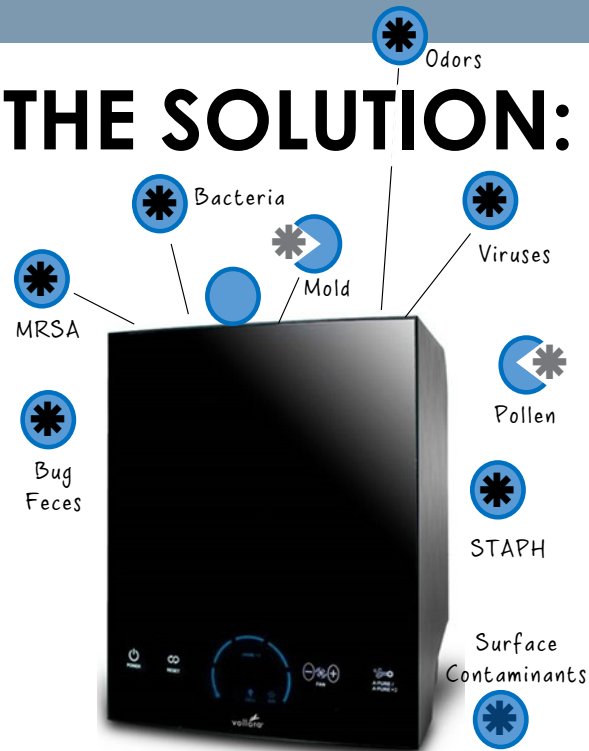

and we can prove it

THE PROBLEM:

The pollution in the air that is not pulled into a HEPA or UVC air purifier will remain as odors or as harmful viruses, bacteria, mold, and VOCs. Even more, these air purifiers cannot possibly filter out or destroy harmful pathogens that have settled on surfaces.

THE SOLUTION:

VOCs

The Vollara Air & Surface Pro with ActivePure® Technology fills up to a 3,000 sq. ft. area with safe oxidizing molecules that destroy harmful pathogens and contaminants that are in the air—and on surfaces.

Technically, it creates a continuous blast of hydroxyl kill agents that blow out into the atmosphere, creating up to 99.9999% destruction of DNA & RNA viruses, bacteria, mold, pollen, odors, etc., in only an hour. No other technology does that.

The patented ActivePure technology was developed to protect the astronauts on the NASA International Space Station.

The ActivePure® Technology is one of only 75 technologies that have been inducted into the Space Technology Hall of Fame.
