Pentecost Sunday ~ June 4, 2017

Mass of Thanksgiving

My name is Deacon Bill Zondler, or Deacon Billy as many of you know me, and I would first like to thank all of you at St. James for your years of prayers and support for me as I have been thinking, discerning, praying, studying and ultimately being formed in preparation to become a priest.

As many of you know this has been a long winding road filled with many joys, trials, ups and downs. I would like to invite you, whether you remember me when I was a youngster sitting in the first pew with my mom and little brother, whether you remember me as a student at St. James Academy, whether you knew me as a guy studying to be a priest, or whether you don't know me, please come to my ordination to the priesthood and to my first Mass that I will celebrate. Both of these events are very special, and will be joyous moments for the parish that raised and nourished my faith and for me and my family.

Below I have posted dates, times, and addresses, but I want to say how excited I am to celebrate my first Mass here, at St. James, my home parish, home to the community and people who watered the seed of my faith, who handed on to me what they themselves have received. Please know of my deepest gratitude and know of my prayers for all of you. God bless you.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Today, Pentecost Sunday, is called by many the birthday of the Church. Not only does the Lord imbue His followers and Apostles with the Holy Spirit, but He sends them out into the world to accomplish and further His mission.

There are strong connections to the concept of stewardship throughout the readings on this day, including the statement by St. Paul in his letter to the Corinthians, "To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." That is a prompt to us that we are gifted in different ways, but we are to be willing to use those gifts to assist and support the Church and others.

Nevertheless, in the First Reading from the Acts of the Apostles is also a reminder to us about living a stewardship way of life. They are celebrating Pentecost, 50 days after Passover (which, for us, is Easter). Passover (as reported in the Book of Numbers in the Old Testament) was a time when the first sheaf reaped from the barley harvest was presented to God; however, at Pentecost the first fruits of the wheat harvest were given to God.

This concept of giving the first fruits to God is at the heart of stewardship. How do we share the bounty that has been given us? The people of Jesus' time were deeply conscious of all their gifts, including the gifts of the earth. Everything we have comes from God. This is a day to contemplate that and to respond to it.

ACTS 2: 1-11; PS 104: 1, 24, 29-31, 34; 1 COR 12: 3B-7, 12-13; JN 20: 19-23

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Quedaron llenos del Espíritu Santo y se pusieron a hablar idiomas distintos (Hechos 2:1-11).

Salmo — Envía, Señor, tu Espíritu, y renueva la tierra (Salmo 104(103)).

Segunda lectura — Hay diferentes dones, pero el Espíritu es el mismo (1 Corintios 12:3b-7, 12-13).

Evangelio — Así como el Padre me envió a mí, así yo los envío a ustedes (Juan 20:19-23).

REFLECIÓN DOMINICAL

Hoy, Domingo de Pentecostés, es llamado por muchos el nacimiento de la Iglesia. No sólo el Señor imbuir a sus seguidores y apóstoles con el Espíritu Santo, pero Él los envía al mundo para lograr y avanzar en su misión.

Hay fuertes conexiones con el concepto de la administración a través de las lecturas en el día de hoy, incluyendo la declaración de St. Paul, en su carta a los Corintios, "a cada uno se manifiesta el Espíritu para el bien común." Eso es un indicador para nosotros que estamos dotados de diferentes maneras, pero hemos de estar dispuestos a utilizar esos dones para ayudar y apoyar a la Iglesia y otros.

Sin embargo, en la primera lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles es también un recordatorio para nosotros de vivir de una manera la administración de la vida. Están celebrando Pentecostés, 50 días después de la Pascua (que, para nosotros, es Pascua). Pascua (como se informa en el Libro de los Números en el Antiguo Testamento) fue un momento en que la primera gavilla cosechada a partir de la cosecha de cebada se presentó a Dios; Sin embargo, en Pentecostés se dieron los primeros frutos de la cosecha de trigo de Dios.

Este concepto de dar los primeros frutos a Dios está en el corazón de la administración. ¿Cómo compartir la generosidad que nos ha sido dado? La gente del tiempo de Jesús estaban profundamente consciente de todos sus dones, incluyendo los dones de la tierra. Todo lo que tenemos viene de Dios. Este es un día para contemplar eso y para responder a ella.

HECHOS 2: 1-11; PS 104: 1, 24, 29-31, 34; 1 COR 12: 3B-7, 12-13; JN 20: 19-23

FIESTA DEL CUERPO Y LA SANGRE DE JESUS

El 18 de Junio habrá una sola misa en San Leo's a las 8:30am y otra en St. James a las 9:00am ( se invita a las personas que vienen a misa de 10:30 que vayan a St. James) después de esta misa habrá una procesión con el Santísimo de San James al parque y luego a St. Leo's. Se terminara con la bendición y un lunch los esperamos.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today, the languages of the whole world arise to God in a Pentecost of praise. In some American dioceses, the Mass is offered every Sunday in more than thirty different languages, including the silent praise of American Sign Language. Fifty years ago, the landscape of liturgy was very different. It was grounded firmly in Latin, which is to the present day still the official language of the Roman Rite. Very few people were fluent in Latin, even though in those days Latin was far more widely studied in school.

Nevertheless, almost every Catholic was competent in the responses and chants of Latin since it is not difficult to pronounce. The clergy were normally minimally competent in Latin, since much of seminary education was conducted in that language.

When the Second Vatican Council was convened, all of the debate and daily work of the council was to be in Latin. In the first session in 1962, Boston's Cardinal Richard Cushing continually complained about it, and threatened not to return in 1963 if something wasn't done. He convinced the fathers when he rose to speak in fairly fluent Latin in an unforgettable Boston twang. The next year, he returned, but with a simultaneous translation system funded by the people of Boston. The ordinary everyday language of the people, the vernacular, had arrived at the Vatican via Boston!

Eucharistic Adoration

Also, when you pray before the Eucharist, allow your desire for the things of God to intensify; allow your heart and soul to expand. Pray, "Lord, make me ready to receive the gifts you want to give," or even, "Lord Jesus, surprise me." -Bishop Robert Barron

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is “To Serve Christ and His Church.” For more information visit:
