Our mission is to place God first in all things, to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ, and to grow in holiness through prayer, sacraments, and service.

A COMPASSIONATE GOD

Today's reading from the book of Wisdom presents an image of a patient God who "rebuke[s] offenders little by little" (Wisdom 12:2), an image endorsed by the psalmist, singing of how the LORD is "slow to anger and of great kindness, and compassionate toward all his works" (Psalm 145:8, 9). The crowd with Jesus, however, grumbles when they see Jesus's kindness and compassion extended to Zacchaeus, who was not just a tax collector, but the "chief tax collector"—a title that surely emphasizes his standing as a sinner to be scorned. In the second reading, Saint Paul urges the Thessalonians to be "worthy" of God's calling, so that "the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you" (2 Thessalonians 1:12); such people, unlike the crowd in the Gospel, would rejoice at Zacchaeus's determination to change his life after encountering Jesus. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — LORD, you love all things that exist (Wisdom 11:22 — 12:2).

Psalm — I will praise your name forever, my king and my God (Psalm 145).

Second Reading — May the name of Christ be glorified in you and you in him (2 Thessalonians 1:11 — 2:2).

Gospel — Zacchaeus, a tax collector, considered to be a sinner, is converted to the Lord (Luke 19:1-10).

RESPECT
LIFE
MONTH

RESPECT FOR LIFE PRAYER

O most loving Blessed Virgin Mary, in this month dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary, we honor you in gratitude for the maternal protection you provide the Church. We know you as Mother of God and we treasure that your Son, Jesus, has given you to us as our mother. Pray for us, your children, on our pilgrimage through this life, that we may share the faith and hope that marked your life. As you said "Yes" to giving life to Your Beloved Son, Jesus, intercede for us in our need for all people to say yes to the sanctity of life. May we always be thankful for the precious gift of life in the womb, the joy and wonder of the newborn, the promise of young people, the dignity of the disabled, and the wisdom of the elderly. Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, pray for us.

Amen
