CLERGY CORNER

Last Sunday we shared a beautiful Night of Fire and Light. It was a blessed evening and a wonderful opportunity to say goodbye to Msgr. Martini. Thank you to all who worked so hard to make this event possible.

As our parish came together on Sunday to offer love and prayers, many of us were deeply saddened by the tragedy in the Philippines and offered our prayers for those people. The Archdiocese of Los Angeles is giving us the opportunity to also offer love and hope to our brothers and sisters in the Philippines.

As many of you know, I am honored to be the Director of Filipino Ministry for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. In this role, Bishop Salazar who is the Director of the Office of Life, Justice, and Peace, has asked me to take charge of the Archdiocese relief campaign to help those devastated by the typhoon in the Philippines. I will be working with pastors here as well as directly with the Bishops and pastors in the Philippines in the areas where the need is the greatest.

You can help immediately through a donation to the second collection today or you may send your check to the parish office or put it in next weekend's collection. We will also be collecting necessary items to be shipped directly to the devastated areas. Items you wish to donate may be dropped off at the door on the back of the old rectory across from the fence surrounding the school. You can drop off donations Monday through Friday from 7:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. or call the parish office for more hours when donations can be accepted.

I ask your prayers in this vital effort and let us join together to offer love, prayer and hope to our sisters and brothers in the Philippines.

Fr. Albert Avenido

Members of our Parish Staff offer their love, prayer and hope ..... Meet Francisco Flores

Francisco Flores is the Maintenance Supervisor for our parish. Those who know Francisco and anyone who encounters him on our campus are immediately touched by his hard work, dedication, and pride in our parish. On a weekly basis, Francisco and his assistant, Abel Gonzalez, work hard to assure the appearance, maintenance, and efficiency of our campus and its operations. Francisco's day starts with touring our grounds with a keen eye on anything amiss, not operating correctly, or possibly in need of attention. He weekly cleans the church, performs the necessary gardening, and handles all calls for maintenance. He is always willing to help with special events, stuff the pews when asked, and assure the necessary supplies are stocked. He is a huge help with our annual parish Barbecue, has a wonderful sense of decoration for the holidays, and a solution to things most would think can't be overcome.

Francisco cares deeply about our parish both professionally and personally. He is married to Griselda and they have two children. Griselda and Francisco have been parishioners of OLPH for seven years. She is a lector and both are involved in our ministry, Vida Familiar (Family Life).

Next time you see Francisco proudly wearing his OLPH t-shirts and scurrying about in the parish golf cart or truck, give him a thumbs-up, a wave, or simple smile of thanks. We, on the staff, casually say that our Francisco reminds of us of another "Francis" ☒. Both seem to be working humbly for the goodness of the church every day.

DID YOU KNOW?

What Is 'Relational Bullying'?

Relational bullying is unwarranted, persistent, unwelcome behavior in the form of criticism, isolation, or fabricated allegations that can damage relationships. Examples include social exclusion ("You can't be with us"), spreading rumors ("Did you hear...?"), and withholding friendship ("I won't be your friend if you..."). Though relational bullying can often seem ambiguous to outside observers and often garners less attention than physical bullying or verbal bullying, it should not be discounted simply as normal, adolescent behavior. In fact, several recent studies suggest relational bullying is more strongly related to emotional distress and teen depression than any other form of bullying. Make sure your child's school does not tolerate such behavior among its students.

NOT WATCHING FOR THE SECOND COMING

As we near the end of the Church year, the scriptures become more urgent. Both the prophet Malachi and Jesus in the Gospel according to Luke offer graphic pictures of a terrible future. But we are missing the message if we use these passages to speculate about when the world will end. The troubles predicted have already occurred, and then some. In the last century alone we have seen devastation beyond anything the ancient prophets could have imagined.

We weren't given these passages to strike fear in our hearts, but faith. The sun of justice will rise, Malachi assures us, for those who are faithful. And Jesus promises, "By your perseverance you will secure your lives." But it is Paul who brings the message down to earth. The Thessalonians were so sure that the end of the world was upon them, some of them had stopped working! Paul states his case clearly: "If anyone was unwilling to work, neither should that one eat." We are not called to worry about how things will end, but to live today faithfully.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We are faced with strong and disturbing readings today that hold a certain fascination, since they seem at first glance to be blueprints for future inevitable wars and hardship. A fundamentalist interpretation focuses on this aspect. Yet we hear them at our Sunday celebration of the Eucharist, which infuses them with hope and optimism. Rather than dreading the future, today's liturgy assures us that God is with us in all of life's inevitable trials, and that we have a role in shaping the outcome of human history. Occasionally, some Christians have attempted to decode these readings for an exact measure of the world's end, but they have thus far been disappointed.

"Nothing lasts forever" is a lyric from a Broadway show. Stars fall from the sky, leaves wither and fall, mountains wash into the sea, human projects and governments totter and collapse with great regularity. Today's liturgy opposes this idea as incomplete, reminding us that Christ has made a permanent change in human history, and that life in him is life forever. Rather than inviting us to throw in the towel, today's liturgy strengthens us for acts of goodness and grace in our families, communities, and world.

RINCON DEL SACERDOTE

El domingo pasado compartimos una Hermosa “Noche de Fuego y Luz”. Fue una noche bendecida y una oportunidad maravillosa de decir adiós a Mons. Martini. Gracias a todos los que trabajaron duro para hacer posible este evento.

Mientras nuestra Parroquia se unía este domingo para ofrecer amor y oraciones, muchos de nosotros estábamos tristes por la tragedia en Filipinas y ofrecimos nuestras oraciones por ellos. La Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles está dándonos la oportunidad de ofrecer también amor y esperanza a nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Filipinas.

Como muchos de ustedes saben, tengo el honor de ser el Director del Ministerio Filipino de la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles. En este papel, el Obispo Salazar, quien es el Director de la Oficina de Vida, Justicia y Paz, me ha pedido que me haga cargo de la campaña Arquidiocesana de ayuda para quienes han sido afectados por el tifón en las Filipinas. Estaré trabajando con los párrocos aquí, así como también directamente con los Obispos y Párrocos en las áreas de más necesidad en las Filipinas.

Usted puede ayudar inmediatamente a través de una donación en la segunda colecta hoy o puede enviar su cheque a la oficina parroquial, o ponerlo el próximo fin de semana en la colecta. También estaremos recolectando artículos necesarios para enviar directamente a las áreas devastadas. Las cosas que desee donar, pueden ser depositadas en la puerta en la parte de atrás de la antigua rectoría, frente a la cerca de la escuela. Puede dejar sus donativos de lunes a viernes de 7 a.m. a 3 p.m. o llamar a la oficina de la parroquia para preguntar de otras horas en que se estén recibiendo donaciones.

Pido sus oraciones para este esfuerzo vital. Unámonos para ofrecer amor, oración y esperanza a nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Filipinas.

Miembros del Personal de Nuestra Parroquia ofrecen su amor, oración y esperanza..... Conozca a Francisco Flores

Francisco Flores es el Supervisor de Mantenimiento de nuestra Parroquia. Los que conocen a Francisco y cualquiera que se lo encuentra en los alrededores de la Iglesia, se dan cuenta inmediatamente de su trabajo duro, dedicación y orgullo por nuestra Parroquia. Cada semana, Francisco y su asistente, Abel González trabajan duro para asegurar la apariencia, mantenimiento y eficiencia de nuestras instalaciones y lo que en ellas se realiza. El día de Francisco comienza con su recorrido por los terrenos con una mirada dedicada para encontrar aquello que esté fuera de su lugar, no funcionando correctamente, o que necesite atención. Cada semana limpia la Iglesia, realiza la jardinería necesaria, y atiende a todas las llamadas de mantenimiento. Siempre está dispuesto a ayudar en eventos especiales, poner en las bancas de la Iglesia lo que hace falta, y asegurarse de que haya todo lo necesario. El es de gran ayuda en nuestro BBQ anual, tiene un estupendo sentido de decoración para las fiestas, y una solución para cosas que la mayoría daría por perdidas.

Francisco se preocupa profundamente por nuestra Parroquia tanto profesional como personalmente. Está casado con Griselda y tienen dos hijos. Griselda y Francisco han sido feligreses de OLPH por siete años. Ella es lectora, y ambos están involucrados en nuestro ministerio de Vida Familiar.

La próxima vez que veas a Francisco portando orgullosamente su camiseta de OLPH y recorriendo la parroquia en el carrito de golf o en la camioneta, salúdalo o dale las gracias. Los otros miembros del personal, de vez en cuando decimos que nos recuerda a otro “Francisco” ☒. Ambos parecen estar trabajando humildemente por el bien de la Iglesia día a día.

¿SABÍA USTED?

¿Qué es un “Fanfarrón Relacional”?

Fanfarronear en las relaciones es un comportamiento desagradable, injustificado, cruel y persistente, que puede destruir las buenas relaciones por medio de la crítica, el aislamiento, o alegatos fabricados. Los ejemplos incluyen la exclusión social (“Tú no puedes estar con nosotros”), lanzamiento de rumores (“¿Ya saben que...?”), retirar la amistad (“Ya no seré más tu amigo si...”). Aunque este comportamiento puede parecer ambiguo a un observador distante y llama menos la atención que el fanfarroneo físico, tampoco se debería de minimizar como un comportamiento normal entre adolescentes. De hecho, estudios recientes sugieren que este fanfarroneo relacional está más relacionado con el sufrimiento emocional y la depresión del adolescente que cualquier otra forma de trato cruel. Asegúrese de que la escuela de sus niños no tolere este comportamiento entre sus estudiantes.

¡GRACIAS MINISTERIO HISPANO!

Agradezco sinceramente a todos y cada uno de ustedes por el apoyo y participación que tuvimos el pasado 11 de noviembre en la noche de oración y agradecimiento a Mons. Richard Martini.

Su presencia, participación, cantos y oración han sido un emotivo momento tanto para Monseñor como para cada uno de nosotros. Sigamos orando por él.

También ofrezcamos nuestra oración y apoyo, por el Padre Ray Márquez, por el Padre Tony, y por nuestro Párroco Temporal Padre Albert Avenido. Para que cada día continúen haciendo la voluntad de Dios en nuestra comunidad parroquial.

$50 donation made to church for every new patient.

Luminarias were aglow, three bonfires burned and the sky over our Pastoral Center was illuminated with lights. Over 125 parishioners joined in song with our new, wonderful 8:30 am Mass Ensemble and lifted their hearts with intentions and prayers during our first Night of Fire and Light.
