Revision Resources/Tools:	Hodder: "My Revision Notes" series Pearson: "Revise for Edexcel GCSE History" series Exam technique guides & unit guides (given out by teachers) Quizlet: search for the username "historyteacher85" as we've written these ourselves and know they are relevant. Please do log in and request to join a class: this way we can see how well you're doing and what we might need to go over again in class. BBC Bitesize GCSE History has a section for the Edexcel board.
Textbook(s) Used:	Hodder GCSE History for Edexcel (9-1) series, one per topic. We do not issue these. Students may find it helpful to have personal copies which they can highlight and use at home. The books are also available as e-books. We sometimes use the Pearson textbooks to supplement the Hodder ones in class. Students in Y11 may also be issued with a textbook which was used for the previous specification (AQA GCSE History) because it has useful chapters on the Cold War which overlap with the new course content.
Topics Covered:	Anglo-Saxon and Norman England Crime and Punishment through Time (and Historic Environment: Whitechapel) Weimar and Nazi Germany Superpower Relations and the Cold War
Top Tips for GCSE	Regular self-quizzing will help you develop rapid factual recall. Ask for help if you are struggling in any way. We offer a range of support opportunities throughout the three years including short bursts of small group tuition. Make sure you have fully understood the techniques to be used for each different question type. Make sure you complete practice question HW tasks thoroughly and act on the feedback you receive.
