CAPITAL CAMPAIGN NEWS!

Unfortunately, due to a high volume of donations throughout the Diocese, we do not have a new number to report to you for our parish's participation in the Capital Campaign.

We know we are at least at 60% of goal!
We continue to encourage EVERY family to make a sacrificial pledge so that our ENTIRE parish is working together over the next four (4) years to Reclaim Christ's Mission Together!!!

A THANK YOU SET IN STONE!

We wish to acknowledge and thank Steve Gonsalves of Conco Cement for the donation of 72 yards of cement, David Gutridge of Chemco for providing laborers and finishers and Mr. & Mrs. Mike Pauline for their generous donation of labor and electrical materials for the recent work in the Spiritual Garden.

In case you haven't visited the Garden lately, we have removed the sand volleyball court which was being used as a large litter box by community cats and was an accumulation site for bugs and trash. These generous donors have helped make this area clean and available for parish and public events by installing a cement pad and electricity.

We are grateful for their commitment to our church and community and ask you to join us in thanksgiving and prayer for them, their families and their businesses.
