My Dear Parish Family,

Two thousand years ago Jesus started our Church. Through the community of the twelve apostles that he called by name, the faithful women that journeyed with them, and all the disciples that were nurtured and fostered along the way, Jesus started our Catholic Church.

Three decades at home. Three years of ministry. Three days in the tomb... One beautiful Church.

Pentecost is not a commemoration of a past event, but a celebration of what God is doing within us now. In baptism, each of us received the Spirit; that is our Pentecost! The Spirit dwells within us as divine Life, enabling us to be faithful and true disciples.¹

Jesus said, "Take and eat ... remember me."

Jesus said, "Take and drink ... remember me."

Jesus said, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit."

On the weekend of May 2 and 3, our parish was blessed to have 119 children receive Holy Communion for the first time in the company of their families in this community. The following Saturday, Archbishop Jose Gomez anointed 85 high school teens and 11 adults confirming them in our Catholic faith in the company of their families in this community.

Two thousand years later, roughly 20 generations, Jesus still calls us by name to transform the world simply by the way we live every day. Through daily acts of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, gentleness, self-control, and generosity we give testimony to the richness of life lived with God at the center. This year, 653 children and teens came to church after school every week for Faith Formation and more than 100 parishioners volunteered to help lead, teach and serve them. What a testimony to our families' values and priorities!

I am so grateful to be Catholic in 2015, to be a part of this faith community, and to be surrounded by the Spirit dwelling within you. Thank you.

Siempre Adelante,

Eve Collier

Protect the Children

Preventing child abuse is everyone's responsibility

It is every adult's moral responsibility to protect possible victims by reporting suspected abuse or neglect to the responsible authorities. Sexual abuse of minors is a pervasive, societal problem, and only rigorous and sustained efforts by all adults in every segment of society can help to protect children and youth. The State of California's Office of Child Abuse Prevention website contains helpful information about how to report abusive behavior and provides contact information of local authorities: <http://www.childsworld.ca.gov/PG2289.htm>. For particular help you may call the Assistance Ministry at (213) 637-7650.

Be Inspired ~ Faith Formation

Each year more than 650 children and teens enroll in Faith Formation! Faith Formation is afterschool religious education for children, preschool through high school. It's not your grandma's CCD!! It is active, engaging and inspiring! Just sit in the courtyard and watch the children run to their Centers to meet their friends and leaders, then later leave campus telling stories with big smiles. Faith Formation is for every year. Sacrament preparation is in addition to regular sessions; we take care of that too.

Little Church

Preschool children gather on Sundays to make friends and learn about God through gospel stories, prayer, songs, crafts and snacks.

Spark! ~ Grades 1 and 2

Children meet in small groups three times a month to form community, grow in relationship with Jesus, and learn about our Catholic faith traditions through games, lessons and crafts.

Spark! ~ Grades 3, 4 and 5

Children meet about three times a month to learn about our Catholic faith in a way that fosters fun, fellowship and discipleship, with a focus on service to the poor and the meaning of the gospel message in our daily lives.

Three:Sixteen ~ Middle School Ministry ~ Grades 6, 7, 8

These kids have a blast reading scripture, playing, praying, listening to music and being crazy.

LIFE

High school teens meet most Monday nights to make connections, share insights and concerns and grow in faith and community.

Youth Confirmation

This two-year process includes Sunday sessions, hands-on ministry, large and small group faith discussions, community events, retreats and service experiences.

Have questions? Can't wait to volunteer? Contact Eve Collier, eve@padreserra.org. Registration packets available in the parish office and website www.padreserra.org, I Want to Learn.
