

Michel Foucault's shorter works in English

Bibliography and concordance prepared by Richard A. Lynch
© copyright 1997-2018

The following list provides bibliographical information for the English versions (either translations or original English language versions) of Michel Foucault's shorter texts. Part I includes texts collected in Dits et Écrits (Paris: Gallimard, 1994; 4 vols. & 2001; 2 vols.), organized by DE number (and hence by year of initial publication). In cases where multiple translations (or multiple publications of a single translation) are available, I have designated them with Arabic numerals, in order of publication. Part II includes English versions of works not included in Dits et Écrits, listed (as far as can be determined) in order of initial presentation or publication. Taken together, these two lists aim to include all of Foucault's shorter works available in English. Monographs and the complete courses given at the Collège de France are excluded; however, portions of either that were published separately are included (cf., for example, DE nos. 4 and 193, and OT-61-01).

Part II

Other short texts by Foucault available in English (not included in Dits et Écrits)

N.B.: The following English texts are not included in Dits et Écrits, and are numbered "OT," to designate that these are "other texts." Each text is designated first with an OT, followed by the last two digits of the year of initial publication (or writing, if appropriate), followed by a sequential number, a period, and (if there are multiple English versions) another sequential number. Within each year, items are not listed in order of original publication, but rather in the order they were added to this bibliography (so that item numbers will be consistent even as new items are added to this list). Some of these texts are listed the supplemental bibliography appended to that collection ("Complément bibliographique" by Jacques Lagrange, 1994 v.4, pp. 829-838; 2001 v.2, pp. 1649-1664)—if they are included, I have noted their listing as "CB...". When appropriate, archival catalog numbers or other bibliographical citations are also included. "Saulchoir" refers to the catalog numbers introduced at the Bibliothèque du Saulchoir, Paris. Since the Fonds Michel Foucault was transferred in 1998 to the Institut Mémoire de l'Édition Contemporaine, Paris, these catalog numbers may eventually be superseded, but were still in use in January 1999. "Clark" refers to the annotated bibliography of Foucault's work by Michael Clark. "Macey" refers to the bibliography included with David Macey's biography of Foucault.
