ABOUT MIDDLE GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY

Middle Georgia State is a focused institution with resources dedicated to the advancement of an 18-county region in the central area of Georgia. The institution was created in January 2013 through the consolidation of two existing colleges, Macon State and Middle Georgia. On March 18, 2015, the University System of Georgia's Board of Regents approved the elevation of the institution to state university and changed its name to Middle Georgia State University, effective July 1, 2015. Middle Georgia State has campuses in Macon, Cochran, Dublin, Eastman, and Warner Robins, and is developing a strong online presence. Additionally, it has four-year athletics teams competing in the NAIA.
