

History of Brownville

Second in a series of excerpts from Brownville's Centennial Book:

Brownville consists mostly of rocky ridges, rich in slate quarries which for many years helped to build up the town and which will, no doubt, in years to come, be one of the leading industries, as the slate is of the finest quality. Pleasant River which runs through the town is well named. Not only is it a river lined on both sides with pleasant groves, but it also affords excellent mill sites.

The earliest records tell us that Hiram Heath was the first man to make an opening through this great wilderness. This was in the northern part of the town, in what we now call North Brownville. It is quite probable that there were settlers here before that time but no names or places of settlement can be found. In the spring of 1806, Francis Brown was sent by Brown and Hills to build a dam and mills on Pleasant River. These mills which have since been destroyed by fire, were situated on the east bank of the river. The tools, mill irons and provisions for the workmen were brought by boat from Bangor. The men worked so diligently that by fall both a saw

Milo Wedding

25th Anniversary

Miss Vernetta May Mudgett became the bride of Mr. George Allen Francis, Jr. on July 20, 1974, at the Baptist Parsonage, with the Rev. Dr. George M. Gray performing the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jeanette Mudgett of Milo, and the late Vernon F. Mudgett. The groom is the son of Mrs. John Murphy of Stetson and Mr. George Francis, Sr. of Tennessee. They were attended by Mrs. Paula Pierce of LaGrange and Mr. Malcolm E. Wilson of Bangor.

The bride wore an A-line gown of pink polyester with long sleeves of matching pink eyelet. She carried a cascade of white daisies and pink baby's breath and had a matching wreath of flowers in her hair. The matron of honor wore a yellow gown and carried a nosegay of white daisies and blue baby's breath with a matching flower for her hair.

A reception was held at the Milo Town Hall dining room. Miss Rose Mudgett and Mrs. Paulette Hanson attended the gift table and Miss Sharlene Murphy circulated the guest book. Miss Theresa Mudgett cut and served the wedding cake which was made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Roger Stanchfield. Mrs. Cindie Wilson dipped punch.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my gratitude to my many friends neighbors for cards, gifts and flowers sent me during my recent stay in the hospital.

Special thanks to the staff of Milo Community Hospital and especially to Dr. Rodriguez.

COUPLE CELEBRATES 25TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sawyer were honored at a surprise wedding anniversary open house given by their daughter, Ann, at their home on July 20.

Mrs. Sawyer is the former Barbara Parlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Parlin of Machias. Mr. Sawyer is the son of Hazel Sawyer and the late Malcolm Sawyer of Ellsworth. The couple was united in marriage on July 17, 1949.

Following their graduation from Washington State Normal School, the couple taught school briefly in Oxford, Maine before moving to Connecticut where they lived for 10 years. Mrs. Sawyer taught grade school while Mr. Sawyer was principal at Sykes Jr. High in Rockville. While living in Connecticut, their daughter, Ann, was born. They left Conn., lived briefly in Machias, then resided for 2 years in Eastport, where Mr. Sawyer was Supt. of Schools. In 1967 Mr. Sawyer accepted the position of Supt. of Schools of M.S.A.D. #41 here in Milo.

FROM CONGRESS

Last week the government of Turkey, as expected, resumed cultivation of opium poppies. In 1972, the Turkish government agreed to ban the growing of poppies in exchange for $35,700,000 in compensatory economic assistance from the United States.

In response to Turkey's decision, I have cosponsored a resolution calling on the President to cut off all economic and military aid to Turkey.

There is a severe threat to the United States in Turkey's decision to resume poppy cultivation and opium and heroin production. Turkey is the major supplier of black market drugs to addicts in the United States. Since Turkey imposed its ban on opium production, the number of heroin addicts in the United States has declined by an estimated 50 per cent. And experts say the withdrawal of Turkish heroin from the American market is perhaps the principal reason.

Obviously, the resumption of Turkish poppy growing will have harsh repercussions for the United States, as well as representing a clear violation by Turkey of its previous agreement with the United States.

If poppy cultivation resumes at its prior rate, we can expect to lose tens of thousands of young people to the ravages of drug addiction. We would also have to anticipate the alarming increase in crime that we associate with drug addiction.

This is clearly an instance where the United States government must exercise the strongest available remedy to protect its internal well-being.

The resolution I have cosponsored begins with an attempt at moral suasion. It calls upon Turkey to reimpose the ban on opium production that had shown such hopeful results.

But should this appeal fail, I call without hesitation for the imposition of economic sanctions and the withdrawal of all U.S. aid to the Turkish government.

In the past, the United States has treated Turkey as a friend. Even now, Congress has before it requests for $215 million in military assistance and almost $20 million in economic aid to Turkey.

But no nation that would willfully contribute to the degradation of American youth deserves to be treated as a friend. It is time we demonstrated that there are certain types of behavior we simply will not tolerate.

LOANS FOR BUSINESSMEN

In October of 1972 the Congress passed tough regulations to control water pollution. But it tried to temper the impact on small businesses by providing for loans to firms seeking to comply.

The anti-pollution regulations are now in effect. But the loans have never been granted.

The problem can be traced directly to the Environmental Protection Agency. Under the terms of the bill passed by Congress, the EPA was to establish regulations under which the Small Business Administration would be authorized to make loans to small businessmen.

Today, more than 18 months later, the EPA has still failed to issue standards, as the law required it to do. As a consequence, the Small Business Administration remains paralyzed.

This week I wrote to the Administrator of EPA, protesting the procrastination and delay that have proved so costly to small businessmen. I hope that my letter may have some small effect in untangling this bureaucratic snafu.

BY SENATOR WILLIAM D. HATHAWAY

REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

During the past week, a Senate panel reported out a bill that would curb some practices in the Executive Branch of the government which, in my opinion, led to some of the abuses we have heard so much about during the past year. Essentially the proposal would cut down the size of the White House staff.

Even the President has admitted that his staff has grown "somewhat like Topsy" over the course of the past few years. Given the new and expanded federal programs, more staff has been called for, but primarily in the agencies where these programs are administered, not in the Office of the President.

The addition of so many high-paid staffers to the President's office has somewhat insulated him from Congress and the public. It has also weakened the role of the Cabinet members who head the various federal agencies. And finally, the oversight role of Congress has been reduced since White House staffers, by claiming executive privilege, can refuse to testify before Congress while Cabinet members are required to appear and testify.

I believe that the abuses of Watergate were partially the result of a Presidential staff which had grown so large that it lost its sense of accountability to the people. This bill in no way would impose unreasonable restraints on the President in hiring qualified personnel. It just limits the number of the top-salaried staffers who are hired without Senate confirmation and are accountable to no one. At the same time, they have been in a position to set domestic and foreign policy.

M.S.A.D. NO. 41

M.S.A.D. No. 41 has been re-chartered for the fourth time since its original organization. The new charter is due to the efforts of the reapportionment committee which has been working since last winter on the problem of having not been in compliance with the one man, one vote principle. The State Board of Education has declared the new arrangement to be in compliance and have sent an official new charter calling for 13 directors instead of 12.

The new additional director Mr. Roy Monroe is assigned to Milo and was chosen by the Milo selectmen to serve until elections are called next year. Next spring this position held by Mr. Monroe will be open as a three year term for interested candidates.

Under the present plan the directors will have voting power according to the population in their respective towns. Atkinson will have 2 directors each with 107 votes; Brownville, 3 directors each with 497 votes; LaGrange, 2 directors each with 197 votes; Lakeview, one director with 16 votes, and Milo with 5 directors each director representing 514 votes. Total population and voting power is 4,684. Directors votes are figured to the nearest whole number.

The final reapportionment committee was by statute made up of Joe Bradeen, Rachel Prescott, Roy Monroe - Milo; Mel Ames, Sara Harvey, Owen Goodine - Atkinson; Bill Curtis, Clive Royal - Lakeview; Dick Russell, Rose French, Bruce Bowden - LaGrange; Greta Connors, Donald Stickney, Martin Krauter - Brownville. Chairman of the Directors Don Stickney acted as chairman and Superintendent of Schools Richard Sawyer acted as secretary to the group.

RENT-A-KID PROJECT EXPANDS TO MILO

Through the co-operation of Milo's Town Manager and Board of Selectmen, the Neighborhood Youth Corps, and the Penquis Community Action Program has made possible the expansion of Rent-A-Kid to the Milo-Brownville area. Town officials gave the project office space in the Town Hall. The Neighborhood Youth Corps furnished Miss Rhoda Kennedy to answer requests and register workers. A telephone was made available by the C. A. P. Agency, and Rent-A-Kid went to work.

RENT-A-KID service is available to prospective employers who have odd jobs to be done and to area teens aged 14 to 18 who wish to work. Employers and teens wishing to register may call 943-2603 from 9:00 A. M. to 12:00 noon or 1:00 P. M. to 3:00 P. M., Monday through Friday.

The employer who calls is matched with a pre-registered kid who will do the job requested. The kid is notified by phone. If he or she accepts the job the kid should contact the employer to make arrangements for transportation if necessary and to settle the financial details.

Some odd jobs we will be handling include: mowing lawns; garden work; babysitting; cleaning cars; household chores; window cleaning, cleaning windows, general cleaning; pet care and feeding, exercising; and painting projects.

MILO YOUTH LEAGUE

The Milo Youth League sponsored a car wash Saturday, July 13. The players washed twenty-six cars, themselves, and one dog vacationing in Maine for the weekend. The players wish to thank Buddy Daggett for the use of his parking lot and the Explorers for the use of their hose and all the townspeople who brought their cars in to be washed.

The Milo Allstars are planning a car wash a week from Saturday from 9:00 - 12:00 in the Parking Lot next to Daggett's Pharmacy. Monies collected from the car wash will be used to buy trophies for the winning teams in the playoffs next month.

PLAYGROUND FIELD DAY

On July 18, the playground activities included a track and field meet at the Elm Street ball park. Twenty-four boys and girls competed in the 50 yd. dash, 100 yd. dash, softball throw, and the running long jump for some 48 ribbons.

First place winners gained 5 points while second place received 3 points and third place 1 point. The individual points were then totaled and an overall winner was determined.

MILO PLAYGROUND

On Wed., July 17, 28 boys and girls from the Milo Playground and 27 from the Brownville area attended the Kiwanis sponsored circus in Abbot. For most of the boys and girls this was the first time attending a circus. We would like to thank Mr. Reuben Lumbrina and Mr. Buddy Daggett for donating tickets to our boys and girls. This act of kindness was greatly appreciated by all.

This past week has been filled with much excitement for the playground children. On Tuesday the Dexter Shoe donated a box of leather scraps to our playground. The boys and girls, under the direction of Due Sharrow, have been making leather bracelets. Special thanks to the Dexter Shoe for their donation.

Wednesday the boys and girls brought T-shirts and tie-dyed them, so they could wear them Thursday at the Track and Field meet that was held at the Elm Street field. Some 48 ribbons were won by all of the boys and girls. A good time and a great experience was enjoyed by all.

Open Letters

The Pen Is Mightier Than The Sword

We welcome all Open Letters and Letters to the Editor.

Dear Editor:

I have just read in the Town Crier a letter from the selectmen in which they state they believe the Town of Milo should join Hospital Administrative District #4 as soon as possible.

Didn't we vote on April 1 not to join this District?

I think the selectmen should honor our wishes and not play the part of "Big Brother" and say, "we know what is best for you."

Dorine "Shorty" Comeau

Letter to the Editor, regarding Hospital:

July 9, 1974

To the friends of the Milo Community Hospital Association, I wish you all the luck in the world in your most worthwhile endeavor. May you be successful in your fight against our outstanding local officials who are dedicating themselves to the betterment of our town and its needs.

We understand that some of our elected officials realize a good percentage of our senior citizens will never need hospitalization or medical attention. Certainly none of the younger folk will need medical facilities or a Doctor. These officials could care less if older people suffering the pain of a heart attack, broken bones or just felt rotten in general had to drive to Dover to get medical attention. Of course in the winter during a storm, the hills between Milo and Dover are never any obstacle to impede a person getting to Dover very easily. Isn't it strange I happen to know a teacher who taught in Monson who had to turn back in a storm because of these little obstacles, namely hills. This of course would never happen when YOU needed to go to the hospital or to a Doctor.

In a time when we are told of an energy shortage our capable leaders tell us to move our sick people to Dover. After all, it's only a twenty minute drive. We can have a beautiful edifice built in Dover with some of our tax dollars. Now this kind of reasoning says to many of us that just maybe the opponents of having a hospital in town know there isn't any fuel shortage. What's that? Oh, it would be cheaper to heat only one building. What about the gas used to travel from the different towns to Dover. Is this saving energy? There are still some sentimental folk who like to see Their Sick and not just send them off and forget about them!

I can understand some of our officials being very concerned about this matter because of the tax increase it would bring to bear on the citizens of this town and we have to build a new sewage treatment plant which needs our tax dollars. Dear officials, you have made this clear and the townspeople have voted not to go into a H.A.D. District. Many are telling you they want their own HOSPITAL. They want their tax dollars in MILO not in DOVER. The Eastern Maine Medical Center has always provided service for the more serious medical cases and furnishes many more facilities and specialists than a grand building in DOVER will.

Has anyone polled our doctors to see how many are going to stay in town when the doors to the hospital are closed? How many of you would like to drive 40 minutes in order to make rounds before and after office hours? But then we all know we don't need any Doctors in Milo anyway!

Questions:

Is it true that one of the Doctors in town tried to find a Doctor to come into town to take his place, but when the status of the present hospital was revealed went elsewhere?

Is it true that a certain H.A.D. is running in the red and may fold? Is it building on a new wing without allowing the involved communities a chance to approve such a measure?

It appears that all the communities have to do is elect two directors and kick in their percentage of ruining the factory!

As to the newly appointed trustees of the Milo Hospital, I have known one of them for years as well as their children. I find it very hard to believe that that person would accept the position of trustee if they did not feel they could work for the benefit of the hospital. Do we have trustees serving on a hospital board who are not big enough to resign if they can not live up to the code?

I also feel that the officials who have dedicated themselves to fight against a hospital in town should come up with some more valid reasons other than taxes will go up. We all know taxes will go up regardless. Some of us voted for you officials, I think it would be nice if we weren't had by you also!

Citizens of Brownville, Brownville Jct., Lagrange and Bradford you will have further to travel than we here in Milo. How about your help?

President Nixon is always making it "perfectly clear" that he doesn't think Washington should run states and towns. Are you going to let Washington run your hospital or are you going to fight to run your own community!?

Mr. Paul, I wish you and your committee the best of luck and congratulations for having the courage to stand up and fight!
Mary I. Hood

July 18, 1974

Dear Citizens,

Being from the "old school of thought," this writer feels that when the majority of the citizens in a community want something like a hospital they should be allowed to have one. This is a basic right.

But the question arises, when did this change? Today we should be more concerned over losing our rights that so many people have given their lives for, than for losing our hospital.

Maybe the time has come for us to join hands proving we cherish these rights, and fight the powers who are taking them from us. Already a group of citizens of highest esteem have worked out an acceptable plan where our present facility can be upgraded to fulfill our needs at a price we can afford. And it should be established now that this cannot be done without all of us speaking out against the powers that are trying to keep a hospital out of Milo.

The Medicare program has been with us for a few years and it is now facing bankruptcy. This program is expected to be phased out soon, hopefully to be replaced with something more sound. I ask, should we join a system that has already proven to be unsound? It is apparent that the system is unworkable and should not be dictating to us.

A more complete medical facility in Milo will be needed in the future and the least we can do for our future generations is to build now what we need and can afford.

I, for one, had the wool pulled over my eyes when I was told we could not operate a hospital in Milo. After finding out the facts, I feel we are passing on our responsibilities, and with them go our rights which we have failed to exercise. I do not pretend to love my town more than the next guy, but I have seen first hand what happens when a group of people trade their responsibilities for a little more security. They lose both this is frightening.

If we move forward now, maybe someday our grandchildren will say Milo is a better place to live because a few people loved them and provided them with fine churches to repair their souls schools to train their minds parks to show them nature's beauty and yes, a hospital to repair their bodies.

 What more is there?

and grist-mill were in operation. These were the second mills built in Piscataquis County, the first being at Foxcroft.

The settlers then began to come in, fifty acres of land being given to those coming first. The same fall that the mills were completed, 1806, Maj. Hills, one of the proprietors, moved in to take charge. He sold his share, however, after a few years and moved his family to a farm in the newly settled territory where he died in 1810.

In 1808, the first practicing physician, Dr. Isaac Wilkins, moved in, occupying the farm now owned by E. C. Ryder. He remained until his death in 1820. He raised a family of four or five girls and as many boys, the eldest, Sydney, being the first living white child born in the new territory. Descendants of the Wilkins brothers still claim Brownville as their home land.

The same year which brought Dr. Wilkins to Brownville also brought the first clergyman, Rev. Hezekiah May, who was sustained by the proprietors. Mr. May not only preached but he taught the first school as well. He was the first Congregationalist minister to enter the county. He partly cleared the place now called the Brown place and built a small frame house upon it. In 1814 he sold out to Deacon Francis Brown and moved from the state.

From the day of his arrival, Francis Brown figured largely in the affairs of the plantation and later of the town. He lived on the hill which now bears his name in the house built by Rev. Hezekiah May. At one time according to early town reports, he was elected to most of the town offices, Town Clerk, Selectman, Tax Collector, Treasurer, School Agent and School Committee. Other names closely associated with Francis Brown's during the early years were Ichabod Thomas, the Ryders, the Morrills, the Smiths, James Rankin, Samuel Stickney, Elisha Johnson and many others.

Thus the town grew rapidly until in 1810 it numbered 131 inhabitants. From 1810 to 1820 there was not much gain, only 41 being added, making a population of 172.

June 29, 1819, Brownville was organized as a plantation, remaining so until 1824 when it was incorporated as the town of Brownville, taking its name from the early Browns, Moses and his family.

PUBLIC HEARING ON FOREST PRACTICES IN THE STATE OF MAINE

The Bureau of Forestry is sponsoring public hearings relating to forest practices in the State of Maine and the impact of proposed legislation upon these practices. Several bills were submitted to the past legislative sessions attempting to regulate the harvesting of timber in the State. Although these bills were not successful in passing, the Bureau of Forestry feels some regulation and restriction of timber harvesting is likely.

In order to determine if a need for such regulation actually exists, and if so, to what degree, the Bureau of Forestry is conducting a series of public hearings throughout the State to get the largest possible amount of public opinion on this issue. These meetings will consist of a brief review of the pressure related problems, present legislative regulation, the high points of proposed legislation, possible alternatives to legislative regulation and, most important, a chance for the landowner and logger to express their views.

The meeting in this area will be held on Monday, August 5 at 7 o'clock in the evening in the SeDoMoCha Junior High School gymnasium on Mayo Street in Dover-Foxcroft.

The Youth Services Coordination Agency in Augusta announced that a Consortium on Youth Services and Juvenile Delinquency in Piscataquis County will be held in Dover-Foxcroft on July 29.

Stephen Roach, Northern Field Coordinator for the agency, that are dealing with youth that have an interest in preventing juvenile delinquency." Those attending the consortium will discuss new and old youth problems and programs in Piscatain Augusta. Plans are being made to hold one for each county in the State.

The Piscataquis consortium will include such persons and not replace the need for Defensive Driving by all," Chief Nichols said.

From January through June 1974, highway traffic accidents decreased 12.3 per cent, and persons injured by 7.3 per cent compared to the same period for 1973, according to the Planning and Research Office, Maine State Police.

A fatal accident summary for June 1974 shows 15 persons were killed in 13 fatal crashes, compared to 26 deaths in 22 crashes during June 1973. This reflects a 40.9 per cent reduction in fatal accidents and a 42.3 per cent reduction in persons killed, Col. Nichols said.

Leading cause of these accidents was driving under the influence of liquor and inattention to driving conditions.
