Greetings from our Pastor

Dear Family in Christ,

As we leave October behind and enter the month of November, we enter the holiday season. It is a time we begin to plan our family gatherings, parties with friends and neighbors, special excursions, and occasions of joy, to name a few. It is also a time to thank Almighty God for all His blessings in our lives.

The upcoming season is an opportunity to focus on others and those who are special to us in many ways. Simply put: it is truly the month of Thanksgiving, but for the Christian, "thanksgiving" in a genuine way that is connected to God and the living of our daily lives in union with our family, friends, and our sisters and brothers across the globe. Thanksgiving is a reminder to connect our Christian faith with our daily living – with those we know and those we do not know.

When Jesus walked the earth, He was constantly reminding His apostles and the crowds to go beyond themselves. First, He taught them to stretch their hearts and minds and to see and love with the eyes and heart of God. He also taught them to always think of others first and to place the needs of others before themselves. Do we always place our needs first or last when a genuine need or concern is present? Do we think of others as "gifts" or "blessings" in our lives? Do we live the values of the gospel message or at least try to integrate them daily? Do we see the lives of our suffering sisters and brothers as opportunities to lift them up with our prayers, friendship, and resources? The aforementioned questions are presented to wake up all of us from our slumber of missed opportunities, of being unconscious, unaware, uninvolved, unattached, etc.

The month of November is a wakeup call to each of us. It is a beautiful way Jesus draws us together in love, friendship, forgiveness, and community. Do you feel His tugging or hear His whisper from the ear of the heart? If not, listen more closely in prayer, silence, and good works. Allow Almighty God to work His blessings and miracles through you!

Blessings on your week,

Reverend W.C. Paysse
Pastor

When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." And he came down quickly and received him with joy. When they all saw this, they began to grumble, saying, "He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner." - Luke 19:5-7

Barry had a life sentence in prison for doing unthinkable crimes. He would often remark to the chaplain that he was an atheist and could not bring himself to believe in any "god." When the chaplain asked why, Barry quickly retorted that the book of Genesis speaks of God creating everything and feeling very good about it. God's creation of people and things is beautiful. Barry continued, "If there is a God who creates something and likes what He makes and that God is good, then how could He have created someone as evil as me?" The chaplain fell silent as tears welled up in his eyes. "God loves you too, Barry. The stuff that you did is another matter. God puts His image and likeness in each one of us, in our souls. How can God not love himself?" God cannot despise or hate anything or anyone. He made you. Life hurt you. He is always about unconditional love and mercy. Barry found a glimmer of hope that day and was touched by love.

Zacchaeus met love incarnate in Jesus. He knew there was something special about him, and he had to see Jesus for himself. Realizing and knowing God's unconditional, penetrating love is a game-changer. Sinners don't repulse Jesus, he wants to eat with them! We can often find ourselves conflicted about how God sees us. We want to believe that He loves us, but other tapes playing in our heads convince us that this cannot be true. We carry our sins around like heavy sacks weighing on our shoulders. We are crippled.

God's divine blessing lives in each of our souls. It is our essential goodness, a free gift given to us by God. The beginnings of salvation's blessings are discovered when we begin to understand who God is, who we are, and how we are to act relative to our brothers and sisters. We become more focused and courageous, eager to gather up all of the fragments of our lives and become whole. Zacchaeus, after meeting Jesus, finally knew who he was. He saw his sins and his potential for goodness as a blest child of God. When we allow God to meet us and touch us in such a profound way, we find what our selfishness has lost. We are on the road to salvation. ©LPi

PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF PROMPT SUCCOR

Please pray daily during this hurricane season.
 “Our Father in heaven, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, spare us from all harm during this hurricane season and protect us and our homes from all disasters of nature. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Amen”

Mission Statement for St. Dominic Parish

From the grace of God and in concert with the life of our patron saint, the people of St. Dominic Parish prayerfully dedicate themselves to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus as taught by the Roman Catholic Church through word, sacrament and service. We accept as our mission the call. To know our faith. To live by truth and love. To serve the needs of others. To teach by example. And thereby strengthen and inspire the parish family. And with respect to Saint Dominic’s devotion to education, we will passionately support our school.
