AN ALTAR ON MARS?

“You shall make an altar of earth for Me, and you shall sacrifice your burnt offerings and your peace offerings on it, your sheep and your cattle. In every place in which I cause My name to be remembered, I will come to you and bless you. And if you make an altar of stone for Me, you shall not build them of cut stones. When you swing your tool on it, you defile it.”

BEFORE FOUNDATION OF THE WORLD

KATABOLE comes from the verb KATABALLO which means to cast down. Paul, speaking of the power of God at work in him to overcome the attacks of the enemy, triumphantly announces the victory of those who are “persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down [kataballo], but not destroyed” (2 Cor. 4:9). And again, John hears the proclamation from heaven that “Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down [kataballo], which accused them before our God day and night” (Rev. 12:10). When this verbal idea is expressed as a noun, the concept of “ruin” or “overthrow” is far more natural than that of “foundation.”
