Director's Notes

The dining room. Gathering place for family and friends or museum piece. What once was the room where ideas were exchanged, family updates given, and triumphs and tragedies celebrated or mourned now seems to belong behind velvet ropes. As we watch the dining room across the decades we also witness the decline of the family — miscommunication, misunderstandings and missed opportunities — the play forces us to look at ourselves, our values, and feelings about those who mean the most to us. You will witness a mosaic of vignettes providing a window into a vanishing class of society from the 1930s to the 1980s. Oh if these walls could talk. Food for thought — enjoy the show!

PETER CICCONE (Arthur, Ted, Paul, Jim) is proud and excited to be part of his fourth drama and seventh show at the High School. He is a senior, so this experience has been very sentimental. He would like to thank Will for being his companion throughout this Drama Club journey since The Babbling Brooks in ninth grade. Amelia R and LJ have also been great friends since The Little Mermaid, and Amelia M, who joined Drama Club during The Laramie Project, has already become a special member of the club. Izzy was the first person in her grade to join and has always known her funny memes. Maddie has been a great student director and we are lucky to have had her for the last three shows. The sophomores are constantly having fun, whether it is Zubair drinking orange juice, Robert eating dinner, Abby singing, Keenan doing homework, or Natalie being a goofy baby sister. Peter hopes

The sophomores are constantly having fun, whether it is Zubair drinking orange juice, Robert eating dinner, Abby singing, Keenan doing homework, or Natalie being a goofy baby sister. Peter hopes the five freshmen this year have had the time of their life, and that this first show has been very special for them! Break a leg Chloe, Ryan, Katherine, Catherine, Gabe, and to everyone else in the cast!

KATHERINE EICHENBERGER (Girl, Claire, Ruth) Katherine is thrilled to be in her first show at Huntington High School. She has been in 11 musicals, but this is her first play. Some of her favorite roles include Patrice (13), Bridget (Bring It On), and Baker's Wife (Into The Woods Jr.). She is excited to be working with Schwen for the first time since fourth grade, when he directed the first musical she ever did, Little Mermaid Jr. She is grateful to be part of such an amazing cast.

WILLIAM FALLON (Father, Architect, Kid, Stuart, Standish, Host) is a Senior in his seventh production at Huntington High School. He has also been in The Laramie Project and Once Upon a Mattress (Dauntless) at the high school as well. MADDIE HAUGHWOUT (Student Director) is excited to start the new year with Drama Club. She'd like to thank the cast for all their hard work and dedication towards the show. Maddie helped out with The Laramie Project (2016) and Once Upon A Mattress (2017) at the high school. She's ready to learn as much as she can to prepare for a future in Theatre Arts!

ROBERT JEAN-GILLES (Michael, Grandfather, Ben, Gordon, Harvey) is very excited to be a part of this year's play. In the play Robert plays

Michael, Ben, Grandfather, Gordon, and Harvey. In the past Robert has played Sebastian the Crab, Charlie Brown, multiple roles in The Laramie Project, and King Sextimus in last year's musical. He is very grateful to his mother for supporting him with his involvement with the arts and couldn't ask for more. He hopes that all enjoy the performance.

LJ KINDALL (Annie, Kid, Old Lady-Mother), playing both a child and an old woman, is thrilled to take part in this production of The Dining Room.

She has joined the Drama Club in productions for the last four years, and is incredibly grateful to have such a wonderful cast for her last drama.

KEENAN LYONS (Howard, Fred, Chris, Dick) most recently performed at Manhattan School of Music as Jack in Into the Woods. In addition he GABRIEL MOSKOVITCH (Boy 1, Nick) is really excited to work with everyone on this amazing production and has made a lot of great friends in Drama Club. He plays Nick and Brewster in this production and working with the other kids in his scenes was a very interesting experience. He hopes that you enjoy this year's play!

AMELIA REILLY (Student Director) is excited to be taking part in her sixth show and first as a student director at Huntington High School.

She would like to thank Schwen and the rest of the cast for everything and she hopes you all enjoy the show!
