Life Beyond Sufferings (St. Teresa of Avila)
Put yourself at the foot of the cross.
The dying Jesus has been deserted by some,
denied by others.
It is a moment of utter loneliness.
Think of his sufferings;
But more important,
Think of those for whom he is enduring them,
Who it is that endures them,
And the love with which he is bearing them.
Remain with him in the silence of understanding.
Look upon him who is looking upon you
And be grateful
For where you find yourself.
There is no way
You could have deserved
To share those moments with him.

No Greater Love (Feargal King)

No greater love can we have than to lay down our lives and to follow the path of our Lord.

'At the foot of the Cross, Mary, together with John, the disciple of love, witnessed the words of forgiveness spoken by Jesus. This supreme expression of mercy towards those who crucified him show us the point to which the mercy of God can reach. Mary attests that the mercy of the Son of God knows no bounds and extends to everyone, without exception. Let us address her in the words of the Salve Regina, a prayer ever ancient and ever new, so that she may never tire of turning her merciful eyes upon us, and make us worthy to contemplate the face of mercy, her Son Jesus.'

Pope Francis – Misericordiae Vultus – The Face of Mercy

I See His Blood Upon The Rose (Joseph Mary Plunket)

I see his blood upon the rose
And in the stars the glory of his eyes,
His body gleams amid eternal snows,
His tears fall from the skies.

I see his face in every flower;
The thunder and the singing of the birds
Are but his voice—and carven by his power
Rocks are his written words.

All pathways by his feet are worn,
His strong heart stirs the ever-beating sea,
His crown of thorns is twined with every thorn,
His cross is every tree.
