My Utmost BIBLE & DEVOTIONAL READING

A Note from Joanna

Welcome to the “MY UTMOST” Journal. Over the years, nothing has changed my life like daily time in God’s Word. But adding a devotional has proved powerful as well.

In this reading program, we read a chapter from the Bible each day. But I’d like to also invite you to add an entry from my favorite devotional - Oswald Chamber’s classic: My Utmost for His Highest.

More than any other author, Oswald has shown me “the shape of godliness.” I can’t wait to share his words with you.

How to Use the Journal

On the pages that follow, you’ll find space to record your Bible reading highlights and devotional reflections. Print these pages and place in a binder for easy use.

As you approach your quiet time, have your Bible, this journal (which include a Bible reading schedule on pages 5-7), and a copy of My Utmost (or read online at www.Utmost.org). Here’s how the Bible reading program works...

1. Before you begin, ask the Holy Spirit to remove any preconceived ideas or biases so that you can receive a fresh word from the Lord.
2. Read the assigned scripture portion slowly until something speaks to you.
 - Note the verse(s) you want to meditate on.
 - Write it down word-for-word, including the reference.
 - Respond to what you feel the Lord is saying in the “how it impressed me” section.
3. Do the same as you read the daily entry from My Utmost.
 - If something stands out, write down the portion word-for-word.
 - Respond to what you sense God saying in your journal.
4. Take all of it to the Lord in prayer.
5. If you are part of the Facebook “MY UTMOST 2018” reading community, leave a comment in the daily thread, noting the Bible reference for scripture reflection and/or the devotional date for your “My Utmost” response.

Throughout the day, allow your heart and mind to return to the truth the Holy Spirit has illuminated. Allow a holy dialogue to develop as you talk to God about what He’s shown you.

Remember, the goal is to read slowly and prayerfully, listening for what God might to speak to your heart through the Bible reading and devotional. Don’t rush. Enjoy your time with the Lord.

For more tips on going deeper in your walk with God, visit www.JoannaWeaverBooks.com.

Print Instructions: To add pages to this journal, print pages 8-16 as many times as needed. (If you prefer reading only the Bible, print pages 1-7, then make multiple copies of page 19.)

I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know him better.

My Utmost BIBLE & DEVOTIONAL READING

Reading and Marking Your Bible

If you don't yet have a Bible that you really enjoy and understand, I suggest that you go to your local Christian bookstore and look at the variety of different translations available. Consider upgrading to a study edition that has a thorough concordance and study helps as well as brief explanatory notes and commentaries throughout.

Begin to make this Bible your own. When I began to underline and highlight scripture, my Bible became alive to me and a tangible record of my walk with the Lord!

Here are some tips to enhance your reading and study experience:

1. Ask the Holy Spirit to speak something fresh to your heart (Ephesians 1:17).
2. Read slowly, thinking of ways to apply what you're reading to your life.
3. Using a pen, colored pencil, or non-bleed highlighter, mark things that stand out to you, such as words of encouragement, insights, challenges, observations, etc.
4. While there are different methods, here are a few simple markings you can use:
 - [Brackets]—put around a phrase or place in margin to note a specific portion.
 - /Diagonal Lead-in and out/—use within the text or in the margin to mark a longer passage.
 - Circle—use to emphasize repeated words in a passage or to indicate the principal characters or themes of that passage.
 - Underline—use to highlight words, phrases, or a sentence. For a block of verses, other markings are often less tedious than underlining.

When a verse really speaks to a situation I'm going through, I mark it with a star or make notes in the margins with a date to remind me of what God has said. This personal interaction with the Word of God has caused me to fall in love with the Bible even more. I hope it helps you as well!

“Pray Every Day” Bonus Pages

To help you incorporate prayer into your quiet time, I've included “Pray Every Day” pages found at the end of this journal (pages 17-18).

If you're like me, I can get so overwhelmed by the needs around me that I don't get around to praying. To help you overcome the overwhelm, focus in prayer on one set of needs each day:

- MONDAY – Pray for Your Family
- TUESDAY – Pray for God's Family (local church & around the world)
- WEDNESDAY – Pray for Your Community
- THURSDAY – Pray for this Nation
- FRIDAY – Pray for the World
- SATURDAY – Pray for the Helpless, Hopeless, Hurting & Lost
- SUNDAY – Pray for Personal Guidance
