

NASP 2022

ANNUAL CONVENTION
FEBRUARY 15–18, 2022

SOLVE CHALLENGES IN BOSTON

It's been a challenging 2 years for us all. We're still in the COVID-19 recovery process as we also continue to address the need for lasting and meaningful progress against racism. Join thousands of your peers in Boston this winter for a chance to refuel your practice, assess your professional needs, and identify solutions for challenges big and small.

- Choose from 1,200+ sessions covering a mix of emerging and recurring issues.
- Learn practical skills you can take back to your district.
- Connect with peers facing similar situations.
- Continue to reinforce your passion for the profession.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: TEMPLE GRANDIN

ENGAGING HEARTS AND MINDS: UNWRITTEN RULES OF SOCIAL RELATIONSHIPS

Keynote speaker Dr. Temple Grandin will share her experiences and expertise on being a person living with autism, her understanding of the human mind, and the ways educators and school psychologists can support the learning and healthy development and well-being of students with autism. Dr. Grandin is renowned for her trailblazing work on behalf of people with autism and her work with animal behavior. Tapping into her personal experiences from the challenges of being a child with autism to her significant accomplishments as a scientist, author, and public speaker, her keynote address will focus specifically on how to help individuals with autism navigate the often unseen, unwritten rules of social interactions.
