

NATIVE SONS HIT THE JACKPOT

Exaggerator holds off Sunny Ridge | Coady Photography

Exaggerator (Curlin), ridden and trained respectively by Louisiana-born brothers Kent and Keith Desormeaux, gave the pair quite the welcome home present Saturday as he came through at 4-5 odds in the $1-million GIII Delta Downs Jackpot. GI Champagne S. runner-up Sunny Ridge (Holy Bull) was a game second, beaten just a neck, while longshot Harlan Punch (Harlan's Holiday) made a menacing move before settling for third. A second-up winner sprinting at Del Mar in July, the dark bay found a seam and powered through to take the GII Saratoga Special S. in August. Freshened after that, he returned to be second behind Brody's Cause (Giant's Causeway) in Keeneland's GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity S. Oct. 3, and was last seen finishing fourth 28 days later after chasing the pace in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

"It's really making the Breeders' Cup [result] a little more aggravating," said Hall of Famer Kent Desormeaux, who won the inaugural running of this race with Outta Here (Dehere) in 2002. "I'm grateful, and certainly happy to do it for all the Louisiana people... but he just wanted to do so much more in the Breeders' Cup and this just ascertains my judgment of his race. Today he just floated along and he had plenty left--something I wasn't allowed to do in the Breeders' Cup. Today, he was just allowed to be himself, and he can really run." Cont. p3

'MAGIC' PULLS OFF DELTA PRINCESS UPSET

The bettors had virtually handed Saturday's GIII Delta Downs Princess S. to local My Trusty Cat S. romper La Appassionata (Bernardini), but Jet Black Magic (Hold Me Back)--third in that same heat--had other ideas. Let go at 9-1, the Carl Moore Management colorbearer catapulted past the heavy chalk in the lane en route to a 4 1/4-length score. Above Fashion (Paddy O'Prado), second in the My Trusty Cat, rounded out the trifecta. "I'm a little surprised," admitted winning conditioner Bret Calhoun. "[La Appassionata] showed she was an awful nice filly in the prep--we did have a little bit of a rough trip, but we weren't beating her that day. We thought we were running for second or third [here] at best, but we've really liked this filly for a long time... Today was her day." Cont. p4

Taking a slight stutter-step out of the gate, Exaggerator was well out into the center of the course passing the wire for the first time. He challenged for the lead hitting the first bend, and established command through splits of :47.53 and 1:13.47. Sunny Ridge put a head in front of the favorite leaving the home turn, but Exaggerator responded willingly, and always seemed to have that foe's measure, with Desormeaux putting his stick away a stride or two before the line.

"As Kent alluded to, the fact that he was over-aggressive in the Breeders' Cup was not his fault, it was mine," said Keith Desormeaux. "I had him a little too on edge. That's a trainer error. I'll take the brunt for that one, but we didn't do a bad job today." Cont. p4

The Desormeaux brothers looked to have a serious GI Kentucky Derby prospect around this time last year in the form of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile romper Texas Red (Afleet Alex). While that runner missed first Saturday in May, Keith Desormeaux is excited about Exaggerator's Classic prospects. The dark bay sits second on the 2016 Kentucky Derby leaderboard with 16 points.

Kent Desormeaux | Coady

“He’s bred for it, he obviously has the precociousness and athleticism,” Desormeaux said. “The Derby’s still a long way off, but we have time to recover and it’ll be a fun trip to take the Louisiana connections to Louisville.”

Exaggerator hails from the female family of Canadian champions Embur’s Song (Unbridled’s Song) and Eternal Search.

Taking a left turn out of the gate, Jet Black Magic traveled at the back of the pack into the first turn as the chalk sat closer while kept well in the clear. La Appassionata made her move to the fore after a half in :49.60, and Jet Black Magic began to pick up the pace. Above Fashion pestered La Appassionata into the lane, but Jet Black Magic proved the bigger threat, and she ranged up down the center of the track to scamper to the lead and clear without being met with any real resistance.

Jet Black Magic | Coady Photography

Calhoun and Moore were celebrating a stakes double Saturday, having already won the Orleans S. earlier on the card with Mayla (Sharp Humor), who is co-owned by Brad Grady.

"It's a great day," said Moore. "That's two wins on the day, and two stakes--and to have a Louisiana-bred come up and win this kind of race, it's unbelievable... Early on I was kind of concerned where we were, but he gave her a great ride and she came running down the stretch."

Jet Black Magic, the first graded stakes winner for her second-crop sire (by Giant's Causeway), was a debut winner sprinting at Indiana Downs Sept. 2 before finishing second in a grassy Churchill optional claimer 25 days later. She is out of a half-sister to Louisiana-bred millionaire Superior Storm (Stormy Atlantic). Her dam has a yearling colt by Half Ours and was bred back to Liaison.

You could barely see him through the torrential rain coming down during this event, but accomplished veteran Lochte proved a clear-cut best while earning his third-straight victory. A 39-1 upset winner of the GI Gulfstream Park Turf H. last February, the dark bay annexed the GII Tampa Bay S. this January. More recently, he took Gulfstream's Mr. Steele S. Sept. 27, and was last seen grabbing the local Spider John S. Oct. 25.

Close to the pace while three deep into the first turn, Lochte challenged for the lead into the home bend and splashed away from his competition to win for fun.

"I wasn't too afraid of the wet turf," said Lochte's trainer Marcus Vitali. "He'll like a wet turf, this horse. This was a little more than wet. I didn't get wet. I stayed inside and watched it. I saw him splashing through there and it looked like [rider] Matt [Rispoli] made the right decisions. I kind of left it up to him. I told him if it was a rough trip and he didn't handle it, just take care of him and we'll live for another day. He told me he was running well and he felt good and when he asked on him, he exploded." Cont. p7

Of what could be next, Vitali said, "We're going to give him a little time and see how he comes out of the race. You know me, if they're doing good and eating good and training good, we run them. We're not here for the season, we're here for a reason." Rispoli added, "I couldn't have asked for a better trip. I kind of just stayed in the best part of the track which was the three path, it seemed like. I just sat against him the whole way and coming to the three-eighths pole, I felt like I was driving a Ferrari to tell you the truth. Marcus did a great job getting the horse ready for the race. Lady Lara, a stakes winner and Group 3-placed for Timothy Jarvis last year in England, bested Distorted Beauty (Invasor {Arg}) and Sandiva in her Stateside debut for Bill Mott in Belmont's Pebbles S. last October. Second in Churchill's GII Mrs. Revere S. the following month, she resurfaced successfully in Gulfstream's GII Honey Fox S. Mar. 29, but was looking to snap a five-race winless streak Saturday. Second in Belmont's GIII Noble Damsel S. Sept. 19, she filled out the trifecta from out of the clouds in that venue's GIII Athenia S. Oct. 17.

Hugging the hedge from the pocket while a bit keen into the first turn, the bay was taken into the two path to attack pacesetter Pink Poppy (Tiznow) with main rival Sandiva to her outside. Pink Poppy offered up some resistance to the eight pole, but Lady Lara strode away authoritatively to return to winning ways.

Lady Lara | Leslie Martin

"The timing from her last race worked out well," noted winning trainer Bill Mott. "We shipped her down here and we weren't sure if we were going to run her. She took the ship well and seemed like she looked good and was training good, so we decided to go ahead and run." The Hall of Famer added, "After we got around the first turn, it was great. She got around the first turn in good order, and she got a good post. She's been unlucky if you look back, where she's drawn the 13 and 14 hole several times. [Saturday] she was able to get an inside post so she could at least try to save a little ground around the first turn."

Button Down, who made her first seven starts in England for Lady Cecil and breeder Juddmonte, was purchased by Bill and Carole McAlpin's Greenwood Lodge Farm for 65,000gns at last year's Tattersalls December sale. She was a maiden winner second time out for the new connections in a May 31 off-the-turf special weight at Woodbine and added a turf allowance July 1. Second in the Aug. 15 Flaming Page S. and Sept. 13 GII Canadian S., she was coming off a close-up fifth-place effort in the Oct. 18 GI E. P. Taylor S.

Hustled to keep pace with the early leaders, Button Down found herself in traffic and shuffled back going under the wire the first time. The bay filly settled in fifth while within striking distance and racing three wide. She moved up to challenge for the lead on the turn, grabbed control in upper stretch and kicked clear in the final furlong before holding sway late.

Button Down gave trainer Josie Carroll her second stakes win of the afternoon, following shortly after Ami's Mesa (Sky Mesa)'s win in the Glorious Song S. at Woodbine. Button Down is out of Juddmonte homebred and stakes-winning Modesta (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), a half-sister to Group 1 winners Elmaamul (Diesis {GB}) and Reams of Verse (Nureyev), as well as to the dam of GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf winner Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). Modesta produced a filly by Makfi (GB) in 2014 and a colt by Rail Link (GB) in 2015. She is also responsible for multiple stakes placed juvenile Platitude (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and multiple group placed Model Pupil (GB) (Sinndar {Ire}).

He had to survive an objection, but Great Britain's 2015 champion jockey Silvestre de Sousa earned his first North American graded stakes win Saturday aboard East Coast shipper Rusty Slipper. The Graham Motion pupil, whose last victory came in Monmouth's GIII Violet S. last August, was a close-up third in Santa Anita's GI Rodeo Drive S. that September before finishing 10th--beaten less than six lengths--in the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf. The dark bay resurfaced again in California to be sixth in the GIII Robert J. Frankel S. two days after Christmas, and was a close third in the Megahertz S. Jan. 17. Cont. p9

Seventh in the GII Santa Ana S. Mar. 15, she finished in the same slot in Monmouth's GIII Eatontown S. in June and over yielding sod at Indiana Downs July 18. Rusty Slipper returned to winning ways two back in the restricted Glen Hill Farm One Dreamer S. at Kentucky Downs Sept. 19, and was fourth last time in Belmont's Oct. 17 GIII Athenia S.

Rusty Slipper

Traveling sweetly in fifth behind the free-wheeling Three Hearts, Rusty Slipper made her move spinning for home as the pacesetter grew leg weary. She struck the front in midstretch, and had too much in the tank for fast-finishing Electrum in the run to the line. Victor Espinoza aboard the runner-up lodged a claim of foul against de Sousa after Electrum found herself in tight while Rusty Slipper to her outside into the first turn, but the stewards made no change.

"I had a great trip around there," said Brazilian-born de Souza, who moved his tack to New York in the fall (click here for more). "I'd spoken to the trainer and he was very confident. He said he thought he had the best horse in the race. He told me to come away from there and get a good spot. I was concerned about the [11] post, but she came away well and we got a good spot. Then she went on from there."

Assistant trainer Alice Clapham added, She broke well out of the gate, settled well and was given an excellent ride. Recently we had been thinking about bringing her out here for [next Sunday's GI] Matriarch, but we liked the distance of this race and she likes firm ground. You're more likely to get firm turf out here than you are back east at this time of year."

Sudden Surprise went box-to-wire to capture his career bow in a sloppy state-bred test at Saratoga July 30 and took that venue's Empire-bred Funny Cide S. a month later. He beat out Get Jets (Scat Daddy) by a neck in Belmont's state-bred Bertram F. Bongard S. Sept. 27, but was forced to settle for fourth behind that rival last time in the one-mile Sleepy Hollow S. Oct. 24.

Hustled away from the outside stall by John Velazquez, the chalk pressed from second through an opening quarter in :22.1.

Poking his nose in front, he clocked a half in :45.18 and easily drew clear to return to his winning ways.

"Sometimes the ones you're supposed to win are the hardest ones to win," winning conditioner Todd Pletcher said. "You never take anything for granted. The horse had trained very well, we were backing up to a distance he's had success at and we drew a good post, but I think this year's crop of New York-breds is the strongest I've seen in a while. You know these races are going to be competitive, but I was pleased with his effort." Sudden Surprise is the first foal out of Ready and Good, who also raced in the Repole silks just like the winner's freshman sire Giant Surprise. In addition, she has produced two fillies by fellow Repole runners, a yearling by Overdriven and a weanling by Stay Thirsty, and was bred back to his champion and top freshman sire Uncle Mo. Sky Flight, a narrowly beaten third behind Lochte (Medaglia d'Oro) in the Jan. 24 GIII Tampa Bay S., returned in his next start to be third behind Departing (War Front) in the June 27 GII Firecracker S. Off the board in three starts over the summer, he returned to the winner's circle with a narrow allowance tally at Keeneland Oct. 15. Sky Flight settled just off the pace while hugging the rail. Angled out for running room at the top of the stretch, he reeled in the pacesetters down the lane to just get his head in front on the line. "Perfect trip with the one-hole," said Randi Melton, assistant to winning trainer Mark Casse. "We were able to sit off the speed to see what it was like and try to have a little something to aim at, which is what Joel [Rosario] did. He's such a tremendous rider. [Aztec Brave] gave us our work to do, but it was good to get up. It's wonderful to win for Mr. Oxley here." Rosario added, "I was very confident. He's the kind of horse if he sees a horse in front he comes and gets it. Every time he saw [Aztec Brave], he just kept on coming, kept on coming. He didn't want to get beat." TASIT (c, 2, Tapit--Fantasia {GB} {MGSW & G1SP-Eng, GSW & G1SP-US & G1SP-Fr, $724,401}, by Sadler's Wells) finished third on debut over this course Sept. 20 and missed by just a nose over this course and distance last time Oct. 9. Hammered down to 1-2 favoritism for this third attempt, the gray broke a bit to his inside, but was quickly righted by Victor Carrasco before he could bother his inside rival and settled in a stalking third. Slipping past the leader shortly after a half in :50.53, the juvenile eagerly tugged at the reins, but Carrasco held him steady until they turned for home.

Laurel Town Hall Meeting Attracts a Crowd:

A Town Hall-style meeting Friday evening at Laurel Park attracted a crowd of 400 industry leaders, horsemen, government officials and fans, according to a release from the track. The meeting was assembled to discuss The Stronach Group's vision of the future of Maryland racing and speakers included Tim Ritvo, COO of The Stronach Group, Maryland Racing commissioner Bruce Quade, Tim Keefe, president of the Maryland Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, Cricket Goodall, executive director of the Maryland Horse Breeders Association, and breeder Josh Pons.

"Over the past 10 months we've invested nearly $20 million into our facilities on the front and back sides," Ritvo said. "Handle is up nearly $60 million this year, the OTB at the Horseshoe Casino has been a tremendous success, and the support from horsemen has been wonderful. Mr. [Frank] Stronach believes there is great potential in Maryland racing, but we must continue to improve our business. We must have a high level of integrity, have a safe environment for our customers, take care of our retired horses, widen our network of fans, and continue to grow the business."

Quade spoke of a bright future for the state's racing industry. "This place is going to be world class," he said. "Believe me, The Stronach Group is walking the walk. Maryland racing's best days are yet to come."

Horse of the Year Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro)'s breeder Dolphus Morrison gave Heaven Trees Farm's Dede McGehee that champion's dam Lotta Kim (Roar) when he dispersed his horses in 2012. (Click here for full story). McGehee named the first foal she bred from the mare DOLPHUS (Lookin at Lucky) in his honor and the colt debuts here for trainer Joe Sharp. The chestnut's pedigree has gotten some major updates this year thanks to the offspring of his half-sister Rachel Alexandra, herself a two-time Eclipse winner and five-time Grade I winner. Her 3-year-old Jess's Dream (Curlin) and 2-year-old Rachel's Valentina (Bernardini) were both tabbed "TDN Rising Stars" after impressive debuts at Saratoga. Rachel's Valentina captured the GI Spinaway S. next out and was second in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Oct. 31. Brereton and Ned Jones's Mason County (Haynesfield) also boasts a pretty big pedigree. Making his career bow for Larry Jones here, the dark bay is out of a half-sister to two-time champion and recent GI Pacific Classic heroine Beholder (Henny Hughes) and GISW sire Into Mischief (Harlan's Holiday). A half-brother to SW & GSP Harry's Holiday (Harlan's Holiday), Mason County gains the services of red-hot pilot Florent Geroux here. Jones also sends out Dreamchaser Thoroughbreds' All Out of Aces (Proud Citizen), who is a half-brother to GISW Hard Aces (Hard Spun). The dark bay finished fifth on debut over a muddy track at Keeneland Oct. 3 and has been working well since, including a best-of-28 four furlongs in :48 two back here Nov. 10. TJCS PPs.

Fourth in a pair of allowance events going nine panels at Saratoga Aug. 13 and a grassy mile here Sept. 25, the bay recently failed to factor going 1 3/16 miles over the lawn at Keeneland Oct. 22. Tabbed as the 2-1 choice in this return to the main track, the filly dueled with Rhiana's Candy (Candy Ride {Arg}) through a half-mile in :48.79 and came under pressure from Titanium (Bellamy Road) soon after shaking loose from her initial pace rival. Fully extended in the lane, Silverpocketsfull forged clear in deep stretch and reported home 1 1/2 lengths ahead of Titanium. Ami's Mesa, tabbed as a 'TDN Rising Star' after posting a sensational eight-length debut win at Woodbine Oct. 12, ran to her even-money odds to remain perfect in Saturday's Glorious Song S. Placed in midpack after a bit of a slow break, she awaited racing room as She'll Do It (Badge of Silver) led through a quarter-mile in :23.48. Swung out widest of all in the stretch, Ami's Mesa turned in an eye-catching rally down the center of the track to win going away. Conquest Babayaga also closed well, but was simply outfinished by the winner. "I certainly had some anxious moments," commented winning owner/breeder Ivan Dalos. "She didn't break well at all. I wasn't sure she was going to get there, but she has an [awfully good] finishing kick. She did it." The winner is a half-sister to Ami's Holiday, who won this venue's GIII Grey S. as a 2-year-old and the Breeders' S. one year later. She is also a half to Victory Exchange (Exchange Rate), a lightly raced sprinter who recently returned from an extended layoff to annex an optional claimer here Nov. 15. Victorious Ami is also responsible for an unnamed yearling colt by Exchange Rate. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

AGA KHAN FAMILIES STAR AT GOFFS MARE SALE

The session-topping Ebeyina, from the Aga Khan draft | Goffs

By Emma Berry and Daithi Harvey

The headline session of the two-day Goffs November Breeding Stock Sale was once again a showcase for the Aga Khan bloodlines, with an in-foal mare and a filly in training filling Saturday's top two slots.

Ebeyina (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}) (lot 1368), a winner last year on debut at three for Dermot Weld, hails from the black-type-laden family that has produced the Queen's G1 Ascot Gold Cup winner Estimate (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) and her half-sister, the Irish champion 3-year-old Ebadiyla (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who features as the grandam of the sale-topper. Sold for €460,000 with her first covering to hot property Kodiak (GB), she will reside forthwith in the Kilkenny paddocks of Ballylinch Stud. Ballylinch Manager John O'Connor commented, "Obviously she's a very nice mare; the fact that she is a black-type mare is particularly appealing. She comes from a true Classic family and I've been lucky buying from Giltown before."

Ballylinch Stud later went to €260,000 to secure another mare in foal to Kodiak, lot 1402, the G3 Firth of Clyde S. winner Majestic Dubawi (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) from the Darley draft, which ended the day as leading vendor with 38 fillies and mares sold for €2,028,500.

MILITARY ATTACK SWOOPS IN CUP PREP

Along with Designs on Rome (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), Military Attack (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) and Blazing Speed (GB) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) represent the three most dominating local figures over the 2000-meter distance, and that pair kept true to form when finishing one-two, respectively, in Saturday's G2 Longines Jockey Club Cup, the local prep for the G1 Hong Kong Cup Dec. 13. Blazing Speed proved narrowly best over Military Attack in the 2014 running of the Longines Jockey Club Cup, but the 7-year-old, who has had his fair share of age-related problems, turned back the time at least one more time and turned the tables in Saturday's renewal.

The 2012/2013 Horse of the Year off wins in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup and G1 SAI Cup in Singapore, Military Attack won the 1600-meter Sha Tin Trophy H. first-up for five months last year. Cont. p4

Irish-based Japanese trainer Takashi Kodama signed the ticket at €320,000 and outlined plans for Silwana, saying, "I've bought her on behalf of Mr Koji Kamiyama of Kawakami Racing. She will stay in training with me next year but will ultimately go to Japan as a broodmare."

Pat Downes, who manages the Aga Khan Studs' operation at Gilltown Stud, commented, "I'm delighted with the prices for the two top fillies. I believe Silwana stays in training in Ireland before being covered and continuing her breeding career in Japan. Ebeyina is a beautiful mare; everyone who came to see her agreed and she had a very attractive cover with Kodiac, whose foals have been so popular all week. Overall we're very happy with how they sold. There's a great buzz in the ring, year after year we come to Goffs and we seem to always sell well."

Silwana | Goffs

The trade was certainly healthy. The 198 fillies and mares to have found new homes represented a clearance rate of 81% and turnover for the day improved by 29% to €8,640,500, albeit for 20 more horses sold than in 2014. The average was also up by 16% at €43,639 and the median improved fractionally to €25,000.

David Nagle stepped in at €270,000 for the unnamed and unraced 2-year-old Galileo (Ire) half-sister to stakes winners Yellow Rosebud (Ire) (Jeremy) and Seeharn (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) who was offered by the Irish National Stud as lot 1333. He said, "She's a beautiful looker and you could say she is a long-term project. Her credentials were quite obvious being by Galileo. She will come back to Barronstown Stud and we will take a bit of time in deciding what stallion to cover her with."

The Irish National Stud's John Osborne added, "Obviously it's a bit unusual in that she is a 2-year-old; she missed her engagement at the sales as a yearling after a sequence of minor setbacks, but eventually we got her here. We are delighted with the price; she is a beautiful filly and was very well received on the sales grounds. We still have the mare, who is middle-aged, and we also have her half-sister Aimhirgin Lass (Ire) in training for the President, Michael D. Higgins. She stays in training next season with the hope of adding some further black print to the family."

Osborne continued, "The mare is in foal to Mastercraftsman (Ire) and I believe her Dragon Pulse (Ire) yearling half-sister is with Richard Fahey, so there is lots going on in the family."

Two more mares also brought €270,000, the first being lot 1324, the four-time-winning sprinter Badr Al Badoor (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), who was offered by Darley in foal to Dream Ahead. The 5-year-old is a half-sister to four black-type performers, including listed winner Profitable (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}).

Purchaser Eamonn Reilly of BBA Ireland was unable to name his client but offered, "When the catalogue came out online he picked her out on pedigree and when I went to see her she had the looks to match her page. She is a lovely individual from an active family and she is a young mare so should have a great future."

Late in the session, Galileo's 3-year-old daughter Mohini (Ire) out of the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac winner Denebola (Storm Cat) reached the same price when sold from Lord and Lady Lloyd-Webber's Kiltinan Castle Stud to Hubie de Burgh.

Gatewood Bell swung into action to buy the Ridge Manor Stud mare Bridal Dance (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) (lot 1390). With an enticing covering to Dark Angel, the dam of this year's G3 Prestige S. winner Hawksmoor (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) fetched a winning bid of €260,000 and she too will be heading to Barrowstown Stud.

"I've bought her for David and Diane Nagle. Obviously Dark Angel needs no introduction and she has already proved she can breed a top-class horse so I think she should make a fine addition to the Nagles' broodmare band," Bell commented.

Wildcard entry Quake (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) (lot 1344A) may be an unraced 3-year-old but she is also a half-sister to Group 1-winning sprinter King's Apostle (GB) by one of the world's best stallions, and thus attracted a bid of €200,000 from Peter and Ross Doyle on behalf of an unnamed client.

The sale day ended with the auction of nine stallion nominations on behalf of the Ann Hanley Research Fund for Parkinson's Disease, including the last one available to Haras de Bonneval's popular young sire Siyouni (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}), which was sold for €58,000. His advertised fee for 2016 is €30,000.

GOFFS NOVEMBER SALE -- SATURDAY

1295, Ascending Angel (Ire), f, 4, Sea The Stars (Ire)--

Maskaya (Ire), by Machiavellian

Consigned by Wardstown Stud

Wardstown Stud had to shell out just 18,000gns for Ascending Angel as a filly out of training at last year's Tattersalls December breeding stock sale. Fast forward a year and, put in foal to Casamento (Ire) at a €5,000 stud fee, Wardstown enjoyed a considerable return yesterday when Ascending Angel was hammered down to MAB Agency for €120,000. Ascending Angel's 3-year-old half-sister California (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}), who was unraced at the time of her sale last year, has now won twice and was second in the Listed River Eden S. for trainer John Gosden Oct. 29. Last year's 2-year-old champion Belardo (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) appears under the second dam.

Military Attack then missed by a head in this and by a flared nostril behind Designs On Rome in last year's G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup. Off the board in his next couple, he was runner-up to fellow Hong Konger Dan Excel (Ire) (Shamardal) in Singapore May 17 and was exiting a useful third to up-and-coming miler Contentment (Aus) (Hussonet) in this year's Sha Tin Trophy Oct. 25. Sent off the second choice in the wagering behind the somewhat surprising favorite Helene Happy Star (Ire) (Zamindar), Military Attack was actually first under the line with a circuit to travel, but Zac Purton was happy to take back from the low draw and allowed Top Act (NZ) (O'Reilly {NZ}) to take them into the turn.

Helene Super Star (War Front) was close, but Khaya (NZ) (Librettist), who made the running in last year's G1 Longines Hong Kong Vase, burned around them and was in front heading down the back. Purton had Military Attack in a share of fifth, with Blazing Speed, who eased out to a generous 9-2, to his outside. Khaya led rounding the circle, but the big guns were ready to pounce, and Blazing Speed took the first crack at them about four away from the fence with 300 meters to travel. That left Purton and Military Attack to follow that move through, but a gap came to the inside entering the final furlong, and while Blazing Speed--spotting his rival five pounds under the conditions of the race--punched on gamely, Military Attack got the upper hand late and found the line first. Beauty Only, stretching out off a runner-up effort in the Sha Tin Trophy, flashed home from near the tail to be third over a somewhat unlucky Helene Happy Star. Dominant, winner of the 2013 Vase and prepping for that race, finished well for fifth.

"He's had a lot of problems," said winning trainer Caspar Fownes. "Last season it was his feet and this time it's his joints and a suspensory. It's been a battle, day in and day out. The vets have done a great job, and my team as well, they've worked really hard. Everyone has put in the hours to just get that result for the owners and for the fans in Hong Kong. He's getting on in age but I'm sure he'll still be a force on the big day. I'd say he'll strip a little bit fitter from this run, as I'm sure the second horse will--that was a big run from him, too. I'll try to have him the best I can on the day."

Able Friend came into Saturday's G2 Jockey Club Mile as a near certainty, and why not? After all, he had made nine starts over the course and distance for eight wins, including this event last term followed by an impossibly easy victory in the G1 Longines

Beauty Flame, who saw his fair share of Able Friend's considerable hind quarters last season, parlayed a soft trip into a boilover bigger than his off odds of 36-1 might suggest.

Having last visited the winner's enclosure following a Class 1 success 371 days prior, Beauty Flame never could solve Able Friend thereafter, filling second spot in the G1 Stewards' Cup (1600m), the G1 Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup (1400m) and the Chairman's Trophy (1600m) in April. Well down the field in his first two runs this preparation, the former Roca Tumu most recently set the pace in the Sha Tin Trophy H. Oct. 25, but weakened late to finish fourth behind Contentment.

Hong Kong Mile. His lone defeat came over unsuitably soft ground in the 2014 G1 Champions Mile, a race he won with ridiculous ease 12 months later, and after overcoming top weight and a trip well short of his best in the Premier Bowl H. Oct. 25, surely there was little standing in his way of a successful

Though the 5-year-old typically does his thing from the front, he was content to lay second when Able Friend's stablemate Secret Sham (Aus) (Shamardal) showed the most initiative, and that ultimately proved a winning strategy. Contentment raced in a handy third, while Able Friend, away a half-step slowly, was buried down inside with no way out nearer the back of the pack. There was little change in the plot through the middle stages, although given the body language of most of the gallopers, the pace backed down noticeably on the turn. Secret Sham held the call at the head of the lane, but Beauty Flame was pulled out by Gerald Mosse and took command with a furlong and a half to race. Contentment had a clear shot and Able Friend tried to make ground up the inside, but he was left with simply too much to do off the race shape, and Beauty Flame proved not for catching. Contentment boxed back to claim second, while Designs On Rome (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), making his first start since fetlock surgery, closed his final quarter-mile in a race-fastest :21.80 for sixth. He'll attempt to defend in the Hong Kong Cup over the 2000 meters Dec. 13.

"I was expecting that, if I was not going to make the running, the John Moore horse [Secret Sham] would, so I didn't rush my horse and I got a perfect race," said Mosse. "I just sat behind him and waited for the straight, like [trainer] Tony [Cruz] told me to do, and when I pressed the button he answered perfectly."

John Moore was chalking up Able Friend's defeat to racing luck--or better put, lack thereof.

"People might put it down to a flat run but I'd put it down to circumstances--the pattern of the race and so forth. He'll be absolutely right for the Mile in December," said the conditioner.

The one-time champion miler in this part of the world, Gold-Fun is another of the jurisdiction's top-shelf runners who has seen his career path altered by the presence of Able Friend. Though he has always run with credit over further, Gold-Fun was equally proficient at shorter trips, or at least that's what trainer Richard Gibson would have you believe. The flashy chestnut, partnered Saturday by flamboyant Belgian Christophe Soumillon, continued to make Gibson look good with a something-left-in-the-tank victory in the Jockey Club Sprint.

Runner-up to the reigning Horse of the Year in last year's Hong Kong Mile and sixth in the Stewards' Cup, Gold-Fun cut back to six panels and, with Soumillon in for the ride, charged past last year's Hong Kong Sprint hero Aerovelocity (NZ) (Pins {Aus}) in the Chairman's Sprint Prize in February. Third to Able Friend in the G1 Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup over 1400 meters in March, he completed a Gibson 1-2 behind Dundonnell (First Defence) in the Sprint Cup in April, and but for a freakish performance from Able Friend in the Premier Bowl, would have gotten the season off on a winning note Oct. 25.

Peniaphobia, this race's defending champ and second in the big race, was sent from his widest draw to make the front by Joao Moreira, but they had to work hard to do it, with the likes of Super Jockey (NZ) (Sandtrap), Not Listenin'tome and Dundonnell also showing keen early interest. Those events left Soumillon and Gold-Fun with some open space from sixth position, and the duo were happy to allow what appeared to be a cracking pace take its toll on those that chose to race prominently. Despite the taxing splits, Peniaphobia wasn't backing down and looked a winning chance at the quarter pole, but Not Listenin'tome was looming to his outside, while Gold-Fun was tracking that one into the final stages, looking loaded for bear.

The pacesetter was holding on grimly, but Gold-Fun came with his relentless rally and proved too good in the finish, as Peniaphobia, Not Listenin'tome and senior citizen Lucky Nine (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) picked up the minor shares.

"He won by a good margin and Richard said he was unfit today, so I reckon he will be better next time," said Soumillon. "You can see he was stooping a bit, looking around and hanging right, so I had to try to get him to concentrate at the end. I did not want to let them run away so I had to come out and he gave me a very good turn-of-foot. I hit the front too early."

A first-crop Frankel (GB) half-sister to Gold-Fun sold for ¥96 million as a foal at the 2014 JRHA Select Sale in Japan.

While Buffering does not yet boast the international acclaim of some of the past winners of the Winterbottom--like Ortensia (Aus) (Testa Rossa {Aus}), Miss Andretti (Aus) (Iltiram {Ire}) and Takeover Target (Aus) (Celtic Swing {GB})--he has nonetheless been a force in the Australian sprinting ranks for five years running, seeing out the eras of superstars like Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}), Sepoy (Aus) (Elusive Quality) and Hay List (Aus) (Statue of Liberty) to earn nearly A$6 million. Cont. p7

Buffering reached another milestone in his career Saturday when collecting his sixth Group 1 win in Ascot's G1 Winterbottom S., in which he was victorious two years ago, and the 8-year-old gelding could yet get a chance to prove himself on the world stage after receiving an invite to Dubai for next March.

Buffering | Magic Millions

Rested most of this year after a trip to Hong Kong last December--when he finished sixth, beaten less than four lengths--in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint, Buffering showed no ill effects of old age when winning the G1 Moir S. for the second year running first-up at Moonee Valley Oct. 2. He had to settle for fifth behind Chautauqua (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) in the G1 Manikato S. over that strip three weeks later, and was beaten a half-length when fourth in the G1 Darley Classic. Nov. 7. Trainer Robert Heathcote said after Saturday's score--which established a new race record time--that Buffering would aim for the A$10 million card for Magic Millions graduates on the Gold Coast Jan. 9 before a possible trip to Dubai.

"It is something I hadn't even told some of the owners," Heathcote said of Buffering's Dubai invite. "The world is Buff's oyster. He's eight years old--he's won two Group 1s this prep. If he comes through that [the Gold Coast] in good order I'd love to go over and shake hands with the Sheikh."

Good Project handed trainer Chris Waller a 10th Group 1 of the spring season and owner C C Lai a second this month--after Delectation (Aus) (Shamardal)'s score in the G1 Darley Classic at the Melbourne Cup Carnival--when taking out Ascot's G1 Railway S. Saturday. The winner of a 1200 meter benchmark 85 race at Rosehill to kick off his spring campaign Sept. 12, Good Project was placed twice at that level in Sydney before winning over this trip in a benchmark 92 race at Randwick Oct. 17. He was second when dropping back 200 meters at Flemington Nov. 3, and was making his Group 1 debut here. Jumping strongly and heading straight to the lead, Good Project managed to make all to post a clear-cut win.

"He is a lovely colt and he is a lovely horse to deal with," said Justine Hales, foreperson to Waller. "Everything he does he just takes in his stride and that is what has helped him."

"He is now a Group 1 winner and it gives me a great thrill to come over to Perth and win one of their biggest races," said jockey Craig Williams.

RACE DAY (IRE) (c, 2, Dubawi {Ire}--Nadia {GB} {G1SW-Fr, $211,534}, by Nashwan) made a swift return after garnering a novice heat going one mile here last week and broke best to seize immediate control in this one. Increasing his advantage rounding the home turn, the 5-1 chance kept on gamely under a drive in the short straight to hold the late flourish of Special Season (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) by a half length. "He's a bit of a cheeky playboy, but has really knuckled down for his last three races and is learning his trade nicely," commented rider James Doyle. Cont. p8

“He was all over the place on his first three runs, but has kept on improving since his first win here [Ocr. 29],” Doyle continued. “We went a hell of a pace all of the way and wanted to draw the sting out of the rest of the field because he won over a mile last time and all he does is gallop. He seems to be much more straightforward in front, doing his own his own thing, and he doesn’t over-race. He was in front with his ears pricked and wasn’t losing any energy.” Race Day’s dam, Nadia, won the G1 Prix Saint-Alary and finished second in the G1 Prix de Diane. Garlingari, who was unsuccessful in ten starts since annexing last November's Listed Grand Prix du Nord at Le Croise-Laroche, tuned up for this with a conditions third at Toulouse one week ago.
