How to use this activity book

This activity book is designed for ease of use by the parent or teacher, and to stimulate enthusiasm on the part of the Adventurer. This activity book may be used as a whole, or the pages may be removed and completed one at a time. Collecting the completed pages and binding them together (with stapler or yarn) at the end of the year will provide a keepsake for the children to remind them of their Adventurers.

Suggestions for Parents or Leaders

The Busy Bee Reading Award is awarded to children who read or listen while someone else reads:

1. Two chapters from the Gospel of Mark, from a simple, modern translation of the Bible
2. A Bible story book or a book about Jesus
3. A book on health or safety
4. A book on family, friends or feelings
5. A book on history or missions
6. A book on nature

Provide children with several good books to choose from, which will help them to understand and apply the things they are learning this year in the Busy Bee classwork.

Be sure that the books are:

1. True to life. The books must present an accurate picture of reality. It must not be overly simplistic, sentimental, or exciting.
2. Lasting value. A good book helps the child to understand God, human nature, or the things of creation without appearing to be preachy and contrived.
3. Positive Morality. Evil and sin are recognized as such, and receive their just reward. The good should be upheld as the model and goal for the children.
4. Enjoyable. The book should be one that the adult enjoys reading. (If the adult does not enjoy it, it is highly unlikely that the child will—or should.)
5. Developmentally appropriate. A good book will fit the child's level of reading ability, sophistication, and interest.

Sunbeam Bible Story Chart

Suggestions for Parents and Leaders

Background Information

The Sunbeam requirement builds upon the Busy Bee emphasis on Jesus' love and care for us and His plan to save us from evil. The basic concepts emphasized in this requirement are the ugliness of sin and evil and our need of Jesus' forgiveness for, and help in overcoming sin.

The coming of Jesus to earth is one of the most amazing events in the history of the universe. The Son of God came as a human being and suffered from the awful effects of sin in order to save the very sinner who destroyed His world by disobeying Him. He chose to be born as a human child to a poor family to show us what God is like and what each one of our lives can be like if we follow Him. He acted in love toward people by feeding and healing them and by telling them the exciting news of His wonderful plan to rescue us from sin and make us a part of His own kingdom.

During His life on earth He demonstrated His love and forgiveness in many ways. He helped Mary Magdalene to understand His love and forgiveness and helped her choose to live as a good and happy person. The paralytic made himself sick from the bad things he had done, but Jesus told him that his sins were forgiven. Jesus gave him strength to get up and to live a good life. Jesus told the story of the prodigal son to teach His followers that even though we may do many foolish things, He is always waiting and eager to forgive us and help us to live more happily.

The horribleness of sin is shown by the willingness of the people to hurt and kill Jesus, the Son of God, in order to get what they wanted for themselves. His death on the cross gave Him the right to forgive us and showed how much He really loves us. When He rose again He showed His power over death and the life He will bring to all who love Him when He comes again. (Stories from the classroom or Sabbath School Bible curriculum may be chosen to emphasize these same concepts, if you prefer.)

The Bible Story Chart may be used in three different ways:

1. Place the pictures on a large wall story chart, adding each new picture as you tell the story. The children may refer to this chart as they work on their own chart(s) and as they learn about other stories from the Bible and history.
2. Provide the children with a practice activity by making available a blank chart and the pictures, stories and labels provided on the following pages. The children may set the blank chart on the floor and place the pictures, stories and labels in order on the chart.
3. Children may also color the pictures and use the stories and labels to create their own story charts or story chart booklets.

Review

Review the major events of earth's history introduced at the Busy Bee level: creation, sin and sadness begin, Jesus cares for me today, Jesus comes again, and heaven.

Jesus' Birth

Jesus, God's Son, came to earth as a baby to help people.

Jesus' Life

Jesus showed people how much He loves them. He showed how happy we can be if we obey Him.

Jesus' Death

Jesus let evil men kill Him on a cross because He wanted to take away our sins.

Jesus' Resurrection

Jesus came back to life after three days.
He is in heaven, now, watching over us.

His Message to Me

.....

A. Memorize and explain two Bible verses about being saved by Jesus.

Match the texts with what they say.

- Matthew 22:37-39

Suggestions for Parents or Leaders

Your child needs your example and leadership as he tries to form good devotional habits.

You can help by:

- Having your own daily quiet time with Jesus;
- enthusiastically sharing some of the inspiration and

- insights you receive during your quiet time;
- leading out in family worship daily;
- helping your child choose a wise time and place for his quiet time;
- being a part of your child's quiet time until he is able and eager to continue on his own.

Make a tracing of yourself. Decorate it with pictures and words which tell good things about yourself.

You could write or draw about things you like, things you are good at, things you wish, and things about your family and friends.

Suggestions for Parents or Leaders

⇒ The tracings can be made in two ways:

1. If there is sufficient paper and space, have each child lie on a large sheet of butcher paper while another child traces around his body with a watercolor marking pen.
2. Tracings may also be done by using a strong light to project a profile of each child onto a piece of paper that has been taped to the wall. Another child can trace around the shadow with a pencil.

⇒ Next, have each child describe himself/herself using some of the following ideas. This may be done together at the teacher's direction, or various ideas may be written on cards for the children to work with individually. Drawings, cutout pictures or written words and phrases may be used.

1. Child's name, its meaning, how parents chose it

2. Physical Characteristics eye/hair color length of foot, hand, arm fingerprint, footprint clothing age height weight birthday (earliest memory...)

home address phone number heart rate (sitting, running)

2. Likes and Dislikes

food color animal things to do (alone, with friends or family) game or sport book tree or flower month or day number weather holiday hero
Bible verse people Bible character place song subject things to make

4. Feelings

I feel ____ when ____ lonely worried thankful happy angry embarrassed sad excited rejected afraid important

5. Special Abilities

best/nicest thing I ever did things I'm good at I feel good about me because...

6. Ideas and Dreams

day dreams three wishes
when I grow up I will be...
I believe in...
someday I hope...
something I want to change about myself is... in 5-25 years I want to...

- ⇒ Emphasize the importance of "internal" characteristics by first putting only physical things on the tracings. Ask whether the children can tell, from those things, whether a person would make a good friend or neighbor. (See 1 Samuel 16:7).
- ⇒ Display the tracings for children to discuss and enjoy. A picture of Christ and a heading such as "Jesus Made Us Special" may be hung above them.
- ⇒ Take time to discuss similarities and differences with the children to help them learn to accept and appreciate each other for their uniqueness. Discuss any prejudices or stereotypes the children might face, and help them deal with them.

I Can Make Wise Decisions

Play the "What-if?" Game.

Use words or pictures to show what you would choose.

If I _____,
I Would...

Suggestions for Parents or Leaders

The choices we make daily are based upon those things that we consider to be truly valuable. These values strongly influence our feelings and thoughts. They influence our decisions even though we may be unaware of it. Often people claim to value something very highly but their actions show that there is a difference between what they claim to value and what they actually value. One example would be the mother who tells her child that honesty is a priority but who keeps extra change accidentally given her by a grocery store clerk. A drastic example of this problem is provided by the Biblical Pharisees. They claimed to love God at the same time they were crucifying Him.

Examining the things we value is one of the first steps in wise decision-making. When faced with a decision, third-grade children can learn to say to themselves, "What is most important to me?" This activity enables children to practice decision-making based upon their decisions to commit their lives to Jesus.

What-If?

- ⇒ Some problems which the children might consider in the "What-If?" Game include:
 - What if you had R50; how would you spend it?
 - What if you had only one week to live; what would you do with it?
 - What if you could choose only three people in all the world; which three would you choose as friends?

The children or leader may suggest other problems. The leader may read a story to the children, stopping at the point where the problem is introduced to discuss solutions.

- ⇒ Go over one of the problems listed above with the children, modeling how they can make a wise decision. Encourage them to ask:
 - What does the Bible say about this?
 - Is this just fun for now or will it help me live happily forever?
 - Is this really important to me?
- ⇒ Allow children to work as pairs or individuals on the problem of their choice. As they present their solution to the group, they should use the questions above to explain why they think their solution is a good one. Allow for group discussion of each solution. There is no one right answer.

a. Ten sit-ups

b. Climb a pole, rope, or tree

c. Hang from a bar with hands and knees

8. With your group, participate in an organized game that requires physical fitness, for example, ball game, relay race, leapfrog, etc.

I Have a Family

Ask members of your family to tell some of their favorite memories.

Our Favorite Memories

Suggestions for Parents or Leaders

Every family has enjoyed experiences that were extra-special. These may be times that were particularly enjoyable or meaningful or that helped them to feel close to each other. Often families have not considered which of their activities may be important to other family members. Many family members may have experiences which they treasure but that other members have not recognized as special.

Be sensitive to the children who do not have “normal” or happy families. Emphasize that there are various kinds of families. Some children may choose to use substitute families such as the Adventurer Club “family,” the church “family,” or another family that cares about them.

Do this activity as a:

1. Family worship
2. Adventurer Club Family Night
3. Individual project
4. Supper table discussion

Families Care for Each Other

A. Show how Jesus can help you deal with disagreements. Use:

- 1. Puppets
- 2. Role-playing
- 3. Your choice

Report on what you did:

When I Feel Unhappy with Someone, I Will...

1. Think about what the problem is.
2. Talk about it privately with the person. Listen.
3. Look for solutions together.
4. Ask for help, if you need to.

Suggestions for Parents and Leaders

One of the first things that should be understood about disagreement is that disagreement is okay and normal. A disagreement does not indicate that anyone is bad, wrong, or stupid. Disagreements can be very positive because they allow people to bring problems and feelings into the open so that they can be solved.

Use this outline to help children understand what to do when they feel unhappy with someone.

- 1. Think about it. Ask yourself: Why am I feeling this way? What is the disagreement about? Why might the other person be acting this way? Is it something I can ignore or solve myself? Am I doing something to create the problem?
- 2. Talk about it privately. Listen. Choose a good time and place. Tell how you feel and specifically why you feel that way. Listen carefully to the other person's feelings and try to understand why he/she is feeling that way. Never interrupt the other person when she is talking.
- 3. Look for solutions. Together think of ways to solve the problem. This might include doing what you or the other person wants, finding a compromise, thinking of other ideas, or agreeing to disagree. Choose one solution and act on it.
- 4. Ask for help if you need it. Tell your problem to an adult you trust and ask him/her to help you find a solution.

As each step is discussed, the children may use puppets or role playing to show different ways in which they can carry out that step. It will be easier for the children to visualize if they are given a specific situation to deal with as they go through the steps; e.g., someone cuts in line at the drinking fountain, or your brother borrowed your crayons without permission and broke them.

The children's knowledge of these steps will have no meaning until they begin to practice the steps themselves. To do this:

- 1. Refuse to hear children's tattling or complaints about each other until they have attempted to solve the problem themselves (except in emergency situations).
- 2. If the child has not yet attempted to follow the problem solving steps, remind him/her to do so and be sure he remembers how.
- 3. Supervise the child's attempts to follow the steps, if necessary. Many times children can solve the problem alone when reminded, but occasionally (especially at first) they may need some kind of supervision. The leader may need to ask the child to wait until a time when he/she can sit down with them, or he/she may supervise the problem-solving discussion by standing nearby and listening "with one ear" while supervising the rest of the group.

B. From your list, choose ways and spend time making your neighborhood better.

Share what you did.

Suggestions for Parents or Leaders

To prepare children for this activity, review Jesus' special trip to our earth to help us, and point out some of the many places in the Bible where He asks us to help our neighbors.

The children's walking tour should be leisurely and not more than an hour and should not try to cover a whole neighborhood but rather see some of the representative parts. Part of the tour may be completed by car or bus.

Children's lists might include: community services, such as a fire or police station or grocery store; a special landmark, such as a park, river, or special building; a particularly nicely kept home or garden (not expensive, but orderly). Help the children to find as many of these things as possible on their own so they can enjoy a sense of exploration and discovery.

The children can list a number of different projects to help the needs they have seen. Then lead them to decide upon an activity or project they can do well and feel a sense of accomplishment in completing. A few possibilities include:

- Beautification: Clean up a road, park, or vacant lot; plant flowers or trees.
- Visit shut-ins: Present programs for nursing homes or children's wards; adopt a grandparent; do yard work; wash windows; read letters and cards; make phone calls; create May baskets.
- Help those in need: Collect clothing or food; raise funds for a special project; tutor first graders.
- Spiritual assistance: Form special prayer hands; help with VBS, fair booth, neighborhood Bible club; literature distribution.
