What an opportunity here to own one with years of experience! Sage rode Junior through JR and High School Rodeo for heading and tie down roping. Tate rode him for tie down last year. Junior would make a young cowboy/cowgirl and outstanding breakaway horse. Junior is very gentle and has been there and done that, turn him out and he's the same when you get him back in. We are not selling him 100% sound due to some arthritis in his hocks, with a little TLC he gets along just fine.

Lot 7 CHIEF

Quarter Pony

Owner: Brandon Kenner (402)389-1081

Chief has been used on the ranch, roped at brandings, doctored cattle, pulled the calf sled during calving. While he is not ready for beginners yet, he would be perfect for an experienced kid to finish.

These kind of horses are really hard to find. Smoak has brought Tate up through the ranks. An all around horse- ranch, head, heel, breakaway, poles, barrels, goat tie, Smoak has been there and done that. It's hard to sell him, but its time for him to help a youngster compete, or as a horse just to ride once in awhile-kick him out for 6 mos, catch him and ride off as if you turned him out yesterday. He has lots of years left.
