ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE!

Go, Therefore, and Make Disciples of All Nations –

The history of missionary activity in the Church is vibrant and fascinating. From the Apostles who first heeded the call of Jesus to “Go and make disciples of all nations” to famous missionaries like Saint Francis Xavier and the Jesuits or Saint Teresa of Calcutta and the Missionaries of Charity, there is a long tradition of those who have traveled far from home to bring the good news of Jesus to every corner of the world, even at the cost of their own lives. Today, the missionary work of the Church doesn’t have to take us to the ends of the world, but just to the end of our street. The message of hope and new life of the Gospel is ours to share with family, neighbors, co-workers and strangers as we seek to continue the work of Jesus in the world today. At its heart, On Mission for The Church Alive! is an opportunity for us to be renewed in faith and sent forth to make new disciples in our parishes, our neighborhoods and throughout the whole world. Ask God for an abundance of his gifts to make this a reality in your life each day. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.

MEMORIAL DAY

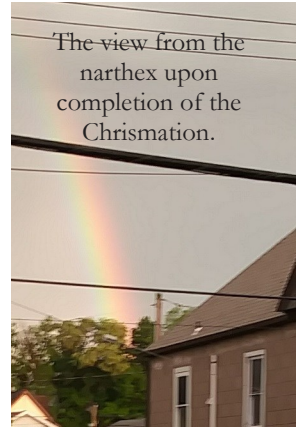

The first “Decoration Day” was observed on May 30, 1868, to mark the graves of soldiers of the “Grand Army of the Republic”—that is, veterans of the Civil War. Since then, “Decoration Day” has become “Memorial Day” on the last Monday of May, in honor of the U.S. servicemen who died in all our wars and conflicts. Many take it as an opportunity to commemorate other deceased veterans and family members. The Church in the U.S. eagerly accepts the responsibility of praying for the dead on this holiday. This year we observe the occasion on Monday, May 28, with a Mass at 8:30 a.m., followed by a drive up to St. Mary & St. Ignatius Cemeteries in Scott, where we will conclude with the Litany of All Souls and the blessing of a wreath honoring the dead.

- ✠ Our seminarians have new assignments. This month, Joe Uzar begins his “pastoral year”: A one-year, full time internship in a parish. Joe will be working with Fr. Bob Miller at the grouping of parishes including St. Cecilia, St. Felix, Holy Family, and Ss. Peter & Paul in the towns of Beaver, Freedom, New Brighton, and Rochester.

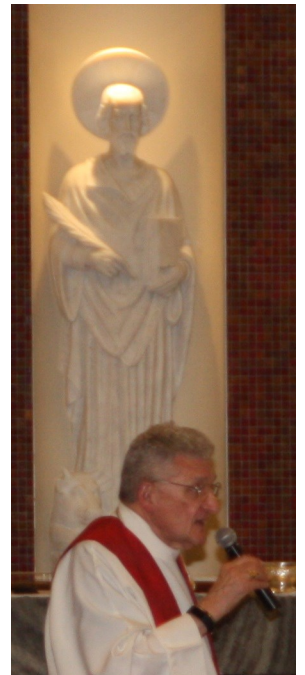

- ✠ Brian Hindt has a summer internship with St. Matthew Parish in Charlotte, North Carolina (where his mother lives), and will return to St. Paul Seminary in August. Please remember to pray for our seminarians!

HEARTS SPEAK TO HEARTS

SEAS EVANGELIZES

TRANSITION TIME

We, the Church of Pittsburgh, we, the parishioners of SEAS Parish, we, the people of the newly named Carnegie/Greentree/Scott Grouping, are baptized and confirmed Catholics. (If you somehow missed out on the Sacrament of Confirmation, be sure to contact our parish RCIA Director about this important step!). This means that we've received the power of God through the grace of Jesus Christ in the person of the Holy Spirit, with all of the gifts, strength, and power that comes with those sacraments to do the work of love required for the unification of the people of the three parishes in our grouping. We can recognize manifestations of this grace by the fruits we bear..."But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such there is no law" (Galatians 5:22-23).

During this special preparation time that God, our loving Father, has blessed us with, which of these virtues do you need to operate from more intentionally, in order to love our neighbors as Jesus taught us to love? Do you need more patience with the situations that will be different, more kindness or joy in opening your heart and our parish to neighboring parishioners, more gentleness or self-control when it comes to acceptance of how the pending changes might affect you, personally?

Let's thank God for this 'in between time', this 'adjustment period', so that we can listen to what the Spirit is saying through this season of change, and then behave accordingly.

"...our worship becomes pleasing to God when we devote ourselves to living generously, and allow God's gift, granted in prayer, to be shown in our concern for our brothers and sisters."

—Pope Francis

"Rejoice and Be Glad"

CONFIRMATION

Bishop Zubik celebrated the Sacrament of Confirmation at SEAS last Tuesday with students from St. Simon and Jude Parish joining our candidates. Many thanks to all who helped make the Mass a beautiful and memorable occasion, especially Fr. Dave and Sharon Falcioni (catechist) who worked numerous hours in preparing the students and planning the event. Thanks, too, to the Christian Mothers and Guild for the tremendous hospitality with hundreds of homemade cookies; and for the prayer booklets that you purchased for each student! A big "shout-out" to all parishioners who added to the cookie collection! It was amazing! Thanks to Christina Mayo for donating the big beautiful baskets of red roses and carnations for the sanctuary! And to Shop 'n Save floral department in Heidelberg for the deep discount on the students' flowers! Also appreciated was the gift of Rosary beads which was given to each student on behalf of the Knights of Columbus, and the Color Corps' presence at Mass. To the ushers, greeters, servers, Vince Dlugos (our photographer for the night) and the Contemporary Choir: thank you, thank you, thank you!

The generosity of time and talent that was demonstrated for these newly-Confirmed young men and women was extraordinary! Thank you!

MASS INTENTIONS/TABERNACLE LAMP

Whenever we have Mass, the celebrant offers the Mass for a particular intention. In most cases the intention is for a deceased person, however, it can be for a living person's health and well being also. We currently have Mass Intentions available for 2018. There are a good number of weekday, 8:00 a.m. Masses available and a few Sunday and weekday, Noon Masses available. We also have Tabernacle Lamp openings. You can remember a deceased family member/friend, or honor a living one, by having the Tabernacle Lamp burn in memory/honor of them for one whole week. Stop by the Parish Office, Monday thru Friday from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m., to make your request(s).

Have a Mass offered, or the Tabernacle Lamp burning, for your loved one!

CEMETERY UPDATE

Memorial Day is a day of remembrance, a day when we go to cemeteries to place flowers on the graves of those who gave the ultimate sacrifice for our freedom. When visiting St. Joseph, St. Ignatius/St. Mary, and Mt. Olivet cemeteries, to place flowers on a loved ones grave, please keep in mind that SEAS Parish is no longer responsible for the upkeep of these properties. If you have any questions, concerns, needs, etc... regarding any of these cemeteries, please contact The Catholic Parish Cemeteries Association of the Diocese of Pittsburgh by calling:

412-256-9370 or visit cpca-pgh.org.

On this Memorial Day Weekend we pay tribute to our Parishioners who lost their lives while serving our country.

"No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." John 15:13

- Jack "Jackie" Adragna a well-known boxer who lived on Cabbage Street was killed in Belgium on January 16, 1945. His funeral was held at Holy Souls Church on February 23, 1945. He left behind a wife and a 1½ year-old daughter.
- Bernard A. Bielewicz "Barney" was a member of St. Ignatius Parish and lived on Finley Avenue in Glendale. He died in World War II in 1944.
- James L. Boyce graduated from St. Luke High School. He was a sergeant in a rifle platoon with the 24th Infantry Division in 1949. Reported missing in action on August 15.
- Peter C. Chaido was killed in World War II in 1943. He was stationed on the USS Denver in the South Pacific, when his ship was hit by a Japanese torpedo. He was 21 years old. He was one of 20 sailors killed in the attack. He and his shipmates were buried after the war in Hawaii in the National Cemetery. Peter was a graduate of St. Luke High School (1940). Peter C. Chaido. March 30, 1922 —November 13, 1943
- Frank Cyprowski was born on March 21, 1923, and was killed in action in the New Britain Campaign; part of the Pacific Theater of World War II. He was in the United States Army and was 20 years-old when he died on March 17, 1943.
- PFC Alfred W. Diloreto was born February 27, 1926. He was in the Army Infantry and was killed in action on January 27, 1945, at the Battle of the Bulge in Germany. His brother Nick (a current parishioner) was fighting a quarter of a mile away in the artillery when he received the news that his brother had died. Nick was unable to go to him. Alfred was buried in Luxembourg, Germany. He was a month away from his 19th birthday.
- Frank A. Dornenberg died of wounds received in action in the Argonne Forest, World War I. He died October 8, 1918, at the age of 25, from the effects of a piece of German shrapnel.
- Thomas Michael Gannon "Bud" On February 3, 1943, Bud was serving aboard the USAT Dorchester when a German torpedo slammed into the engine room. Four chaplains aboard gave their lives to save others. Bud was pulled from the icy waters but despite two hours of the rescue-ship's doctor trying to revive him, he died.
- Theodore Kaszalowicz, from Glendale, died during World War II in a head-on collision as he was returning to his camp. Interment: St. Ignatius Cemetery.
- August Klinkner died in World War I. He was the first Carnegie resident to die in that war. He would be 1st cousin once removed to Ruth Simpson and Bob Greek. At age 23, he was a member of Company A, 5th Machine Gun Battalion and was killed in action in France on June 12, 1918.
- John F. Manion was killed in action on November 3, 1919, in France. In his last letter home, dated October 13, he wrote: "War is hell. I was over the top twice. I have seen many men lying dead on the battlefield." He was 23 years-old.
- Cpl. Carl Marchese was killed in the Southwest Pacific on July 19, 1943. Three of his comrades from Carnegie sent a request to Fr. Dominicis at Holy Souls Church, along with a $5 money order, to request a mass on his behalf. The letter was signed by Metro Kuncho, Carl Gabig, and Vic Maksa. On January 26, 1944, Fr. Dominicis sang the requiem high mass for Carl Marchese.
- James L. McCabe was killed in Vietnam on January 8, 1970. He was stationed 10 miles outside of Saigon. He attended St. Luke Grade School and Carnegie High School. He was survived by two daughters, ages 3 and 4, at the time of his death. He was 23 years-old.
- Joseph V. McGrogan was killed in action on August 13, 1918, at the age of 29. In his last letter to his mother he wrote: "Mother, I am going to be prepared. Am going to confession and Holy Communion tonight. We can hear the big guns roar."
- Paul Mente, age 24, was accidently killed in France during World War I while working on a machine gun.
- John M. Moore drowned in 1957 at the age of 18 in Guam. He was on a classified mission with the Strategic Air Command's 341st Bomber Wing at Andersen Air Force Base. He graduated from St. Luke High School and was a member of the St. Luke Men's Choir and Holy Name Society.
- Jack W. Phillips, was killed as a passenger in a car accident one month before he was scheduled for discharge from the Army in 1971. He was 21 years-old. Interment: Mt. Olivet Cemetery.
- PFC Frank Salerno was born in 1915. Died in Germany on April 10, 1945. He served in France, Belgium, England, and Germany.
- John A. Stripp was born on April 15, 1918. A member of St. Luke Parish, he was the 9th of 12 children of Andrew and Laura Belle Stripp, six of whom served in the military during WWII. John enlisted on July 15, 1941, and achieved the rank of Staff Sergeant. He was killed in action at Battle of the Bulge on January 29, 1945.
