COMMUNITY NIGHT OF NETWORKING IN SUMMIT

Pat Regenberg, and Patricia Wright

OMC Health Sciences Library

The Summit Community Night crowd enjoying the band on the Village Green.

The Summit Department of Community Programs hosted a networking event for Summit area nonprofit organizations and city departments at the Summer Nights concert series on Tuesday, July 23rd.

The OMC Library CLIP program (Consumer Library Information Prescription) was represented there by Medical Librarian Pat Regenberg and Library Technician Patricia Wright. Many interested parties visited the CLIP table. CLIP information was distributed to visitors at the event.

OMC Archives

The OMC Library has a designated archive room containing photographs, newspaper clippings, nursing yearbooks, medical instruments, and other memorabilia from Overlook's rich history.

Both members of the OMC Library Staff have completed training in various aspects of archiving through the New Jersey Collections Care Network initiative and are working toward preserving the historical media in their care.

Plans are being made to to catalog each item online so that images can subsequently be accessed through the internet.
