

Hello Newcomers & Neighbors

Newcomers & Neighbors was off to a great start at our first meeting in September, as we welcomed many new faces and enjoyed a very interesting presentation by Mike Severance. Our next meeting will be a total change of pace, with Deborah Gott educating us about antique rugs, furniture, and textiles. And of course, there is the first annual Bocce Tournament coming right up on the 27th of September.

As summer winds down and the days shorten, we will all be looking for ways to ward off the cabin fever of winter. These newsletters present a wide range of upcoming events, a smorgasbord of activities offering something for everyone. Find whatever interests and entertains you - even if it's only eating and drinking - and join in.

We look forward to seeing you!

October Meeting

Our second meeting for the new program year will be at 7 PM on October 2nd, 2014 at the Community House in Kennebunkport. As usual, coffee and refreshment will be available at 6:30 and after the meeting, "Navigating the World and History through Textiles" is the subject of Deb Gott's presentation to Newcomers and Neighbors.

Examples of ethnic, antique and contemporary textiles will be shown from her extensive collection.

Having spent her childhood summers at Goose Rocks Beach, Deb Gott moved to the area permanently, married a local lobsterman, raised two children and once owned Jake's Restaurant in Kennebunk. Today she lives in Granite Point where she and her husband, Kenneth March, own and operate Interiors with Provenance, a unique antiques and interior design company. By carefully blending each client's design goals, personal history and heirlooms, they are able to create a fresh and sophisticated look. Interiors with Provenance specializes in antique textiles, oriental rugs, furnishings and fireplace equipment. They also do textile and rug cleaning, restoration and mounting. SCORE is a volunteer network of more than 11,000 trusted, knowledgeable mentors who help emerging and existing small businesses solve problems and improve competency as they create companies, jobs and revenue in their communities. Small business is the growth engine of our economy. SCORE has a proven track record of helping entrepreneurs create small businesses and jobs for America.

SCORE is a resource partner of the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA). Other resource partners of the SBA are the Small Business Development Centers, and the Women's Business Center.

SCORE impacts the community by providing services, programs, and resources to small business owners. SCORE is the starting point for new entrepreneurs, as well as existing business clients, seeking guidance. We meet with our clients face to face, online, or on the phone, to create actionable business plans. SCORE provides expertise on financials that matter: such as cash flow, achieving a healthy balance sheet, and improving the bottom line.

Our services are free, and we are here "For the Life of Your Business." Most of our mentoring relationships are measured in years, not months. Many clients have described us as, "a one person Board of Directors."

Score in Portland, which services Southern Maine, is in need of volunteers with different business skills as the current demand outweighs the supply. For more information either call the Score office directly at 207-772-1147 or your fellow Newcomer & Neighbor, Bill Foster, at 404-435-9326.
