ENTRANCE

For You Are My God

John Foley SJ

Refrain

For you are my God;
you alone are my joy.
Defend me, O Lord.

1. You give marvelous comrades to me;
the faithful who dwell in your land.

Those who choose alien gods have chosen an alien band.

2. You are my portion and cup;
it is you that I claim for my prize.

Your heritage is my delight,
the lot you have given to me.

3. Glad are my heart and my soul;
securely my body shall rest.

For you will not leave me for dead,
nor lead your beloved astray.

4. You show me the path for my life;
in your presence the fullness of joy.
To be at your right hand forever for me would be happiness always.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

“Taste and see the goodness of the Lord, the goodness of the Lord”

MASS OF CHRIST THE SAVIORCOMMUNION

The Supper of the Lord

Laurence Rosania

Refrain

Precious body, precious blood, seen as bread and wine;
here the Lord prepares the feast divine.
Bread of love is broken now,
cup of life is poured:
come, share the supper of the Lord.

1. This is the bread of God coming down from heav’n, giving life to us, to all the world.

2. “I am the living spring of eternal life;
you that drink from me shall not thirst again.”

3. “I am the bread of heav’n giving life to you;
you that eat this bread shall never die.”

4. “All those who feed on me have their life in me, as I have my life in the living God.”

5. All praise to you, O Christ, present in this feast;
in this bread, we share in one life, one Lord.

RECESSONAL

Sing of the Lord’s Goodness

Ernest Sands

1. Sing of the Lord’s goodness, Father of all wisdom, come to him and bless his name.
Mercy he has shown us, his love is forever,
faithful to the end of days.

Refrain

Come, then, all you nations, sing of your Lord’s goodness,
melodies of praise and thanks to God.
Ring out the Lord’s glory,
praise him with your music,
worship him and bless his name.

2. Power he has wielded, honor in his garment, risen from the snares of death.
His word he has spoken, one bread he has broken, new life he now gives to all.

From the Pastor's Desk

We are living in a world where people of all races and creeds hunger more for spiritual sustenance than for physical food. In response to the spiritual hunger of people in his own day, Jesus proclaims Himself to be "the Bread of Life that came down from Heaven" and feeds them with His words.

Scripture lessons summarized: The first reading describes the physical and spiritual hungers experienced by the prophet Elijah. The Bread of Life Jesus speaks about is prefigured in this reading by the miraculous food with which the angel nourished the Prophet Elijah in the desert while he was fleeing from the soldiers of Queen Jezebel. After being nourished by the Lord, Elijah was strengthened for the long journey of "forty days and forty nights," to Mount Horeb where God instructed Elijah to continue his prophetic work. The second reading presents Christ Jesus, the "Bread of Life," as a "sacrificial offering to God for a fragrant aroma." Paul reminds the Ephesian Christians that, instead of seeking satisfaction in the stale food of anger, slander, bitterness, and malice, they are to nourish one another with the spiritual food of compassion, kindness, and mutual forgiveness. Today's Gospel describes Jesus' discourse in the synagogue at Capernaum on his return there after his miraculous feeding of the five thousand. During the discourse, Jesus reveals himself as the true "Bread of Life that came down from Heaven," to give life to the world. Jesus proclaims that it is He himself, the Incarnate Son of God, who is the new and perfect manna, literally "come down from Heaven." This means that in the Holy Eucharist, Jesus gives us a share of eternal life while we are still on earth. But some of Jesus' followers turn away when Jesus explains the Source of His mysterious power and Heavenly origin.

Life messages:

#1 Let us accept the challenge to become bread and drink for others. "You are what you eat?" Let us recognize that Jesus whom we consume in the Holy Eucharist is actually God Who assimilates us into His being. Thus, from Sunday to Saturday we will grow into Jesus, as Jesus grows in us, our lives will be transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit, and we will become more like Jesus. In this way, we shall share in the joyous and challenging life of being the Body of Christ for the world – Bread for a hungry world, and Drink for those who thirst for justice, peace, fullness of life, and even eternal life. In other words, the Eucharist challenges us to sacrifice ourselves for others, as Christ has done for each of us.

#2 Let us appreciate Christ's presence in the Holy Eucharist. Since the Holy Eucharist is "the Body and Blood, together with the soul and Divinity, of our Lord, Jesus Christ," the Sacrament: a) increases our intimate union with Christ; b) preserves, increases, and renews the Sanctifying Grace we received at Baptism; c) cleanses us of past sin and preserves us from future sins; d) strengthens the theological virtues of Faith, Hope, and Charity in us, thus enabling us to be separated from our disordered attachments and to be rooted in Christ; and e) unites us more deeply with the mystery of the Church.

Feast of Faith

Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus: Song of Heaven

The words of the Sanctus are rooted in the scriptures. They recall the song of the seraphim in the prophet Isaiah's vision of God in majesty: "Seraphim were stationed above; each of them had six wings: with two they veiled their faces, with two they veiled their feet, and with two they hovered aloft. 'Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts!' they cried one to the other. 'All the earth is filled with his glory!'" (Isaiah 6:2-3). They recall the Gospel accounts of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem: "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest" (Matthew 21:9). Yet the liturgy adds something new to these ancient texts. The seraphim sang, "the earth is filled with his glory." But the liturgy proclaims, "heaven and earth are full of your glory." In the Eucharist, earth and heaven meet. For a moment in time, we join in the song that the angels sing for all time. The Sanctus raises us to heaven, but does not remove us from the earth. It is the song of the King who took on our human flesh so that we might share in his divine life.

August 8: Ordinary Time- The Bread of Life Continued

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." This statement caused some of Jesus' disciples to turn and run away; while for others, this statement galvanized their belief in God that they ultimately gave their life for Jesus. Where do you stand? Do you truly believe that the bread and wine we receive at Mass is the actual flesh and blood of Christ? If so, why? How would you explain the Eucharist to a curious friend? If not, why not? Many people believe in God. But there is a big difference between knowing facts about God and actually having a relationship with Him. You have to spend time with someone to develop a relationship, not read a book about them. God wants a personal relationship with each one of us. Take time every day, in silence, talking and listening to the Lord. Invite Him into your heart and enjoy the fruits of your new friendship.
