

NJTV is Now NJ PBS!

Public media has a rich legacy in New Jersey, which is why we are delighted to share with you, our friends and neighbors, that an evolution of that tradition continued on February 24, when NJTV became NJ PBS!

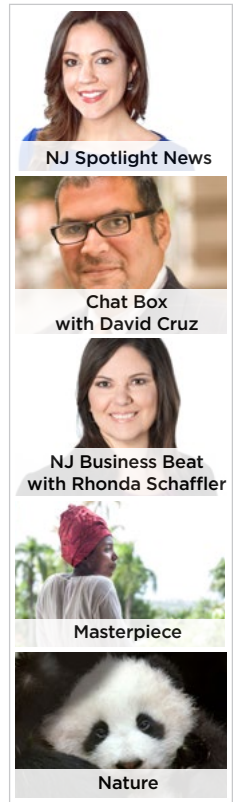

NJ PBS starts with being local, but it's also part of something bigger and unique in today's content landscape. We're rebranding to a name that more clearly identifies and differentiates our network and its mission in a crowded media market, and one that more directly connects our excellent local programming to the national footprint and trust of PBS, America's Public Broadcasting Service.

You can continue to depend on NJ PBS for:

- New Jersey's newsroom, NJ Spotlight News, our state's leading destination for local issues-driven news and investigations with an audience-focused, story-first approach across all media platforms.
- Jersey-centric programming like NJ Spotlight News with Briana Vannozi, Chat Box with David Cruz and NJ Business Beat with Rhonda Schaffler, plus PBS favorites like Nature, NOVA and Masterpiece.
- Jersey-focused special events and roundtable discussions on important local issues such as education, economic disparity, maternal health and environmental regulations.
- Critical information and community resources in times of crisis, from Superstorm Sandy to COVID-19, and providing them for as long as they are relevant to our state.
- Exceptional educational resources, including Jersey-centric lessons through PBS LearningMedia and over 200 hours of NJTV Learning Live programs to help with remote learning.

While our name has changed, our mission remains the same: to offer content to our local communities that enlightens, entertains, and resonates in living rooms and video conferences. NJ PBS will continue to document our state's history, tell the stories that make the Garden State what it is, and highlight the issues, arts and news of New Jersey and beyond.

Now more than ever when you experience NJ PBS, you'll feel "that's my NJ, that's my PBS."

BINGE "THE 1900 ISLAND"

Four families go "back in time" to the start of the 20th century in a rural fishing community – The Davis family of seven, the Powers family of five, a pair of newlyweds, and a retired couple venture out in a fierce storm to take possession of their new island home Llanddwyn in northwest Wales. They must adapt quickly to their new way of life but bad weather, lack of experience, and limited rations lead to hunger and frustration.

With music venues, clubs and bars closed for COVID-19, some artists discovered inspiration with each other to create musical experiences that both reflect our times and entertain us. Without an audience, the band Insomniac Hotel performs before a gathering of cameras at the multi-purpose studio 10PRL in Long Branch. The space, which opened in January 2020, is the perfect setting for a collaborative musical and visual experience forged during the pandemic.
