Some of the word type categories

1. Noun: a thing or idea
2. Verb: An action
3. Adverb: Tells how an action occurred
4. Adjective: Tells about a noun
5. Pronoun: used to replace a noun
6. Preposition: describes a relationship
7. Conjunction: Joins words or phrases

This feels generic. Can you please spice it up

Four main parts of a sentence:

1. The subject is who or what the sentence is addressing. This is the base of the sentence and a sentence only need a subject and predicate to be a real sentence.
2. The predicate is the action that the subject completes
3. The object is part of the action of the subject, e.g. "They celebrated the victory"
4. Complements or predicates are used to complete a sentence where an object is not present.

Business models: Overview

Banks need to consider their internal capabilities and external factors, and choose between pure play business models or hybrid ones

Business models: Overview

Challenges

- Increased cost pressure
- Disaggregate value chains (standardization)
- New, agile entrants
- Accelerated innovation cycles
- More sophisticated and thus more demanding clients<sup>0.1</sup>

Choice

Business models

Hybrid models will co-exist with pure-play business models, if the bank is able to create a strategic differentiator from managing the interface between client relationship, product development or transaction processing

Selskapets struktur vurderes I lys av behovet for å være et konsern eller en helhetlig enhet gjennom overlap mellom fire faktorer

Bakgrunn

- A business is defined as an arena within which it is possible to establish and maintain a competitive advantage
- The four principal determinants of boundaries are related to costs, customers, competitors and competencies.
- Once identified, these boundaries define the arena within which
  - scale leads to differentiated competitive performance
  - relative market share plus shared cost advantages determine relative cost positions
  - independent pricing decisions cannot be made without relative market share consequences

New trends

Digital disruptors use digital technology to enter the market for banking services and to deliver a more seamless customer experience.

(More text!)

Conclusion

- Technology firms do not want to replicate the universal banking model. However, they innovate around it, undermining and traditional integration banking business model.

Barclays UK has launched peer-to-peer Twitter payments via its mobile application Pingit

Conclusion

- Google, Twitter, Facebook and Alibaba do not seek to enter banking market as such, but they are interested in selling banking products, apps and services to consumers in order to maintain acquisition traction and to provide add-on services.
- Positioning themselves across the entire payment process gives them an upper hand to earn high-frequency, low margin revenue as well as the ability to purchase behavioral insights.
