WELCOME TO BEAVER ISLAND

Many people coming to Beaver Island look forward to its abundant nature and solitude. There are also fine museums, gift shops, art & craft galleries, the golf course, tennis courts, Island tours and many special events. Culinary options range from unique fast food to fine dining.

Much of what the Island offers is free for the finding: beachcombing, bird watching, biking, camping, hunting, fishing, cross country skiing or exploring the other islands. There are over 100 miles of scenic roads, lighthouses, old trails, cabins, beaver dams, and beautiful wildflowers.

Beaver Island is a pristine paradise with a year-round population of about 650 who have a history of welcoming visitors and sharing Irish traditions as well as the crystalline waters of the Beaver Island Archipelago. Plan a visit to America's Emerald Isle.

A Little Island History

Beaver Island was first inhabited by Native Americans.

French explorers stopped by and the Island once had a large Mormon community run by "King Strang."

In the late 19th century the island was the center of the finest fresh water commercial fishery in the world. Two museums tell visitors the whole story.

Island Lighthouses

Two lighthouses grace Beaver Island. The Beaver Head Light and keepers house at the south end is completely restored.

Guarding the entrance to Paradise Bay in the Island's NE corner is the Whiskey Point Light. It has also recently been completely restored.

The Island serves as the gateway by boat or plane to many other northern Lake Michigan lights.

The Great Outdoors

Surrounded by Lake Michigan and with a number of inland lakes, just about any kind of fresh water recreation has a place on Beaver Island.

To name a few: scuba & snorkel diving, sail & power boating, jet skis, swimming, beautiful beach fun, kayaking, plus an annual softball tournament and tons of terrestrial fun.

Nearly half of Beaver Island is state forest land, conservancy owned - managed or local government owned and in its pristine natural state.

The Island is a nature lovers dream and Islanders cherish the abundant natural beauty. It takes much more than a few weeks to explore all the trails and wild places. Even some towering old growth forest is found on Beaver Island.

HUNTING & FISHING

The Island is an outdoor sportsman's dream. Imagine a remote fishing and hunting lodge with fun for the whole family.

Five pound plus small mouth bass are common. One inland lake is an undiscovered largemouth paradise. The flats style fishing for golden bones is world class.

Beaver Island is a QDM whitetail destination. Hunting ducks, turkeys, upland game birds and rabbits is great.

A variety of events are enjoyed by Islanders and visitors alike.

Many locals of Irish decent take charge of regular celebrations starting with St. Patrick's Day. The Bite of Beaver Island food fest in October is tons of fun and autumn is a great time to visit and enjoy spectacular color.

The Community Center "downtown" across from the ferry dock is home to many events ranging from current films - comedy shows - live theater - musical productions and much more.

A pair of music festivals share the Island's long summer days and cool comfortable evenings; and numerous talented artists and craft persons call Beaver Island their home.
