REMEMBERING JFK

On November 22, 1963, CBS interrupted its live broadcast of the soap opera As the World Turns with a news bulletin from Walter Cronkite announcing that President John F. Kennedy had been shot. Nearly an hour later came an even more unthinkable bulletin confirming that our nation's promising young President had died.

President Kennedy's assassination was a defining historical moment of the 20th century — and the four days of network television coverage chronicling the tragedy and its aftermath represent some of the most moving and memorable moments in broadcast history.

WLIW21 commemorates the 50th anniversary of President Kennedy's death with specials exploring his life and legacy, continuing our tradition of presenting timely, informative, and enlightening history programming.

Secrets of the Dead — JFK: One PM Central Standard Time (Thursday, 11/14 at 10pm) tells the story of two men: the President of the United States — shot in Dallas and rushed to Parkland hospital, his fate unknown — and CBS anchor Walter Cronkite, who had to get the story right amid the uncertainties of that tragic day. Narrated by George Clooney and featuring an interview with President Bill Clinton, the special recounts the riveting story of the reporting from Dallas and the CBS Newsroom in New York from the moment President Kennedy was shot until Cronkite's emotional pronouncement of his death at One PM Central Standard Time. It features archival footage of President Kennedy and Cronkite, and memories from the producers, writers, and reporters who were there on that fateful day, including Robert MacNeil, Bob Schieffer, Marvin Kalb, and Marianne Means.

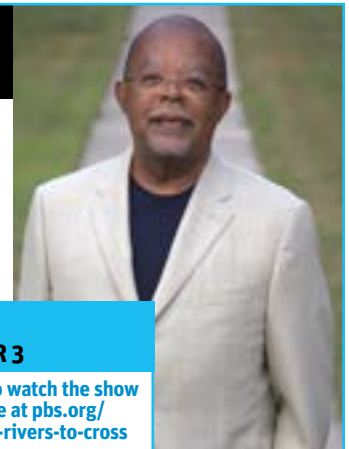

Forensic experts shed new light on the assassination in NOVA: Cold Case JFK (Thursday, 11/14 at 9 pm), while The Kennedy Half-Century (Sunday, 11/17 at 10pm) chronicles the impact and influence of JFK's life, administration and tragic death on the public, the media and every subsequent U.S. president.

THE AFRICAN AMERICANS: MANY RIVERS TO CROSS WITH HENRY LOUIS GATES, JR.

Harvard scholar Henry Louis Gates, Jr. returns to WLIW21 with a new six-part series recounting the full sweep of African-American history.

Commencing with the origins of slavery in Africa, it moves through five centuries of remarkable historic events. Professor Gates travels throughout the United States, visiting key historical sites, engaging in lively debates with historians, and interviewing eyewitnesses — including school integration pioneers Ruby Bridges and Charlayne Hunter-Gault, former Black Panther Kathleen Neal Cleaver, former Secretary of State Colin Powell, and many more.
