Thanksgiving!

Happy Thanksgiving Horizon!

Happy Thanksgiving Horizon! It is that time of year again, it is Thanksgiving! What is your favorite Thanksgiving food? Make sure to tell us!

This article will talk about Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving is a holiday celebrated in the U.S.A, and Canada. It was originally celebrated to be thankful the food harvested in the year's harvest.

The day of Thanksgiving was changed to boost the economy in the U.S.

91% of Americans, eat Turkey on Thanksgiving, which means that, 280 million Turkeys are sold, 7

Billion pounds of Turkey are sold, and that means people spend 3 billion dollars on Turkey.

Interview with Johnston Blaze Head Coach Dan Lake

Belen: About how people are doing Blaze?

Coach Dan Lake: By the end of October we will have between 160 and 170 kids.

B: What would you tell the team to work on?

CL: Proper stroke technique,(for all strokes) starts, and turns.

B: How long have you been coaching Blaze?

CL: This is my second year.

B: Do you enjoy coaching Blaze?

CL: Yes, I love it.

B: Have you coached other teams?

CL: Yes, I have been coaching swimming for 23 years.

B: Which team is your favorite?

CL: I love all the teams for different reasons

B: What would you tell future Blaze swimmers ?

CL: Our team is something special,and if you want to join us you're going to be a part of something special.

B: Do you get to have some fun doing Blaze?

CL: Yes, I always have fun, but the best type of fun is when you swim your hardest and shave those seconds!

Author: Scott O'Dell

Genre: Historical Fiction

Summary: Karana lives on a 3 mile by 1 mile island off the coast of California. She lives peacefully with her tribe, including her father, the leader of the tribe, and her brother, Ramo, and sister Ulape. Ramo is curious and Ulape is really interested in boys! One day, Russians come to their island looking for otter skins. Karana's father, chief, agrees for them to hunt on their island, but as long as they share the skins. Then Russians don't give any skins and kill most of the tribe, including her father, and sail away without sharing..... Her tribe FLEES THE ISLAND! In a hurry, her tribe, including Karana, her sister Ulape, and her brother Ramo, leave to the neighboring island. Wait! Where's Ramo? Karana frantically searches the boat, but he is not there! She swims back to the island only to find him killed by wolves. She catches the wolf for her self, with makes her feel good! But she realizes.... She's ALONE!!!! Her tribe isn't coming back. Karana has to live by herself, besides her friend/ pet wolf and hummingbirds. She has to survive hungry wolves, poisonous fish, and pesky seagulls. Will she survive? Will someone rescue her? Or is she going to be alone without humans forever? Read to find out!!!!

Game Informer

Hello Everyone! This month's game is Animal Crossing New Leaf! Now, I know what you are thinking, "This game came out in 2013, why are you covering it now?"

Well, the thing is, a new update, out now, and this update is BIG!

Animal Crossing New Leaf, Welcome Amiibo, is almost exactly what it sounds like. In this new update the crew has added the functionality of Amiibo. The way to use these Amiibo is:

1. Install the update, and complete the tutorial.
2. Wait a day, and then walk around your town, until a mysterious person talks to you.
3. Pick up the lamp this mysterious person is in, and take the lamp to your house.
4. Summon the lamp spirit, and use Amiibo!

What do these Amiibo do? Well, using Wisp, (the mysterious lamp spirit,) you can tell him to invite someone to your Campground, (a new area in this update,) and from there you can talk to them, or invite them to your town! Some special Amiibos you can use are the, Splatoon Set Amiibos, and The Legend Of Zelda Set Amiibos. They each give you special crossover items that you can not obtain in stores.

Some other new features are the MEOW, (Mutual Exchange Or Wealth), Coupons that can buy you the special items. How do you obtain these? Well just do the quests on your TPC, (Town Pass Card), and turn it into the CAT, (Coupon Allocating Terminal), and now you've got yourself some Meow Coupons!

An alternative way to earn Meow Coupons is to have Wisp invite Villagers to your town. The reason he will give you free Meow Coupons, is Wisp loves to help people.

Another new feature is house improvement. You could already improve your home, but there are two new features to help you decorate your home! The first is Secret Storage! This is a huge, secret, room that you can store things in. Now you can finally have enough storage! Also you can decorate your home the same way you do in Happy Home Designer, a spin off game of the Animal Crossing Series! This is a feature fans have been waiting for since Happy Home Designer came out! If you find a special console in a mobile home, you can play special games like, Animal Crossing Puzzle League, and Desert Island Escape. Now, look at some pictures from the new update!

Enjoy The new update!

Art Contest

This month's art contest topic is candy! Also congratulations to Averie Ryan for winning the art contest!

When you have an answer put your teacher's name, your grade, and your first and last name on it and turn it into the newspaper folder outside of Mrs. Florer's room. The winner will get a prize and will be entered into next month's newspaper.

Entering

Remember you can only put in entries for the month that has come out last so you can't do an entry for last month's newspaper if the next one has come out. Please enter too, last month we only got 6 entries and we put a lot of time and effort into this and we want you to feel included to.

And that's how it will stay!

Origins!

Long ago when dinosaurs roamed the Earth, the aliens attacked! Mankind thinks that the dinosaurs went extinct because of a natural asteroid, but that was just the aliens' weapons system. You see aliens came to Earth because their planet was dying, and they needed Earth. Little did they know that when they attacked Earth to claim it for themselves, they made it impossible for them to live on Earth. So, they biologically engineered humans out of the leftover dinosaur cells to watch over earth to see if it would clear up. But the aliens engineered the humans too well. Over time they adapted and evolved to the aliens control and eventually they overcame the aliens' control and were finally free. Unfortunately, the aliens had made main leader humans to watch over the other humans. There were about 20 leaders that were deep in the aliens' control and had to evolve even more than all the other humans--they had to gain superpowers. After the humans evolved beyond the aliens, the aliens moved on from conquering Earth, knowing there was no way they could know for sure if Earth was clear for them to live on. The humans that gained superpowers eventually had children, and their superpowers were passed down their bloodline all the way to the 21st century. Now every time something life threatening happens to an ancestor of a mutant, their super powers kick in and they become a mutant with superpowers. This story is about a kid who almost died falling off a building--when his super powers kicked in, and he gained the power of super speed. After he uncovers his new abilities he encounters a few other kids with superpowers and forms the Jr. League! Read the next edition of Horizon Suntime News to figure out Lucas's (the kid with superspeed, his name is Lucas but everyone calls him Luke) exciting journey, the problems he faces, and how he conquers them!(:
