INTRODUCTION

Like many others, I've faced numerous challenges over the years that have caused me to question my destiny and my life purpose. As such, I have spent many days, weeks, and months feeling uncertain and confused. However, in the midst of this uncertainty and confusion, I've always had something I could count on to get me through the day . . . something I could rely on and turn to for inspiration and hope. Through all of my ups and downs, my trusty deck of oracle cards has been my kind and faithful friend.

When I feel that I have nowhere else to turn, my cards are always there to give me accurate guidance and support. Whenever I need reassurance from Source (God/Universe/Spirit/Divine) and confirmation that I'm on the right path, they affirm my inner knowing and remind me that I'm not alone. Words cannot adequately convey the many cherished moments I've spent with my cards, and the many tears I've cried due to their accuracy and kindness. They are my reliable and faithful allies, and they never let me down.

As a numerologist for more than 20 years, I have experienced the profound influence "numbers" have had over my own life. In fact, a numerology reading at the age of 21 was so astonishingly accurate, insightful, and beneficial to me that I decided to investigate the numbers further in a quest to turn my life around. Ever since that day, numerology has helped me become a better person, improve my life circumstances, and manifest my dreams with greater ease. Now it is my intention that numerology enables you to do the same.

As a numerologist and dedicated user of oracle cards, I found it only natural to combine my two favorite self-help tools for self-empowerment, guidance, and support to create this deck of cards. By using two of the most ancient and powerful forms of divination together, side by side, you can obtain additional information and insight to assist you on your path. By amalgamating the mystical guidance of oracle cards with the age-old wisdom of numerology, the Numerology Guidance Cards will allow you to reap the benefits of both worlds and “feed two birds with one scone.”

I’ve created these Numerology Guidance Cards because it is my wish that this deck of cards will do for you what mine has done for me. I’ve written and designed each and every card with love, and the intention that when you’re feeling uncertain and confused, the cards will bring you clarity and hope . . . when you’re feeling insecure and self-conscious, they’ll reflect your beauty and perfection . . . and when you’re feeling lonely and afraid, they’ll reassure you that you’re not alone.

Since you have the power to actualize your dreams, I’ve designed each card to inspire you to make those dreams come true. This deck will point you in a direction that supports your greater good, but most of all, it was created to give you a dependable and gentle ally. Trust in these cards, and I promise you that they will never let you down. Like a straight-talking friend, they may not always tell you what you want to hear, but they have your best interests at heart and are always on your side.

As you go through ups and downs, and experience the trials and tribulations of life, all I ask is that you be kind to yourself along the way and treat yourself like a friend. If you become aware of the numbers in your “Personal Numerology Profile,”* you can use numerology to obtain a deeper understanding, acceptance, and appreciation of yourself (and others) so you can create a better quality of life. For it is only in the understanding, acceptance, and appreciation of the present that you can create a better future.

From the bottom of my heart, I thank you for embarking on this magical journey with me.

Love and blessings,
Michelle

* To learn how to calculate your “Personal Numerology Profile” from your date of birth and name, please consult my book, The Numerology Guidebook (Hay House, 2013).

INSTRUCTIONS FOR WORKING WITH THE NUMEROLOGY GUIDANCE CARDS

You were born with the ability to access your Divine inner guidance to get answers and direction at any given time; however, there are times when you may question its accuracy. There are also moments when you may get so caught up in a situation that you can't see the forest for the trees, so your inner guidance is hazy, blocked, or confused. It's on occasions like these that the Numerology Guidance Cards become the ultimate tools of divination, providing confirmation and clarity.

When you're in need of answers and direction, these cards bridge the gap between your inner wisdom and the "universal wisdom of All That Is" through the ancient energy of numbers. In Western Pythagorean numerology, numbers are energy vibrations that significantly influence your life. Aside from those in your "Personal Numerology Profile" (calculated from your date of birth and name), the numbers that are currently influencing your life the most will show up in these cards. Through the universal Law of Attraction, you will automatically draw the ones that are a direct vibrational match to your current situation.

Upon shuffling the cards and asking a question, you will automatically attract the perfect cards for you—those that will reveal your potential outcomes and opportunities, along with the issues (patterns/blocks/fears) that are holding you back from success. Because your past affects your present (whether you're aware of it or not), the cards will uncover any unresolved issues that are influencing your choices today.

Based on your current thoughts and behaviors, the Numerology Guidance Cards will also uncover any conscious or subconscious blocks that are impeding the manifestation of your goals. Once these blocks have been identified and removed, you can begin to improve your life and actualize your dreams.

This card deck wasn't designed to predict your future but rather to help you create the future you desire. Since one of the key ingredients for successful manifestation via the Law of Attraction is to live in consistent alignment with Source Energy (or the Universe, the Divine, or whatever term you wish to use) through positive thought and emotion, the cards will point out the areas in your life that may be taking you out of alignment. Once these areas have been identified and aligned, you will be well on your way to manifesting your dreams.

Everything in the Universe is composed of energy; and every number, sound, color, word, and sacred geometrical shape has its own unique vibration: the higher its vibration, the greater its ability to enhance your connection to Source. This is why all of the 44 cards in the deck feature specific numbers, colors, and words that vibrate at their highest potential, along with two sacred-geometry symbols—the “Merkaba” star tetrahedron (as seen on the card front) and the “Flower of Life” (as seen on the card box cover and card back)—since both of these symbols illustrate the universal spirit and connectedness of all life and assist in raising your vibration.

The higher your vibration, the easier it will be to receive clear and accurate guidance from Divine beings (including spirit guides and angels), as well as your higher self.

Upon viewing the Merkaba and Flower of Life symbols, you energetically open your heart to physical and emotional healing. These ancient sacred-geometry symbols will also help return you to your original higher state of consciousness, which is why they are depicted on each card.

If you’re new to the journey of enlightenment and are viewing these symbols for the first time, the adjustment may be so subtle that you probably won’t even notice. On the other hand, if you're highly in tune with your energetic field, you may experience a powerful and profound recognition on either a conscious or subconscious level. Regardless of your response, energetic adjustments are still being made on a soul level to facilitate your spiritual growth.

Blessing and Connecting with Your Cards

Upon opening your Numerology Guidance Cards, take a little time to connect to, and blend your energy with, the deck. Look at and touch each of the 44 cards. Study their numbers, words, colors, and symbols; and allow yourself to tune in to their individual energies, affirmations, and meanings. You're about to embark on a deep and meaningful friendship with these cards. They will always be there when you need them, and they will never let you down. So take some time to get to know them, and create an energetic bond.

You may wish to meditate or reflect upon the Merkaba and Flower of Life symbols or a particular card's color and number to enhance your connection to the Divine, raise your energy vibration, or form a deeper connection with the deck. You may also choose to meditate upon a particular affirmation; statement; or word such as Self-Discipline, Compassion, or Forgiveness to enhance certain traits, intentions, or behaviors within yourself.

When you are ready, hold your cards in your hands and tell them about your intentions, hopes, and dreams. Then place them against your heart and affirm your intention to connect. While doing so, perform the following five-minute visualization to seal your energetic alliance for all time.

Five-Minute Visualization

Close your eyes and imagine a golden white light surrounding you and your cards, connecting you with the Divine. Call upon God, Archangel Michael, your spirit guides, your guardian angels, and departed loved ones to surround you with love and protection. Imagine a cord from the top of your head connecting you with the heavens, and another cord from the bottom of your spine connecting you to the center of Mother Earth. Feel your energy vibration rising, and your heart expanding with love. See your aura being cleansed, centered, and protected as you prepare to give a card reading.

Next, imagine yourself giving clear and accurate readings to yourself and others, and improving many lives as a result. See yourself and others as “happy, healthy, and healed” because you’re on the right path and are making dreams come true. Experience the joy, gratitude, and relief that come from knowing that all is well, and feel the confirmation from Spirit that you are never on your own. Then as you come out of your visualization, say the following prayer:

Universal Source of All That Is, I thank you for the opportunity to connect to you through these cards. I request your guidance and protection during all of my readings; and ask that they be accurate, specific, and clear for the greater good of all. Please help me intuitively interpret the true meaning behind these cards so I can improve my quality of life and that of others. Thank you for your love, protection, and guidance. And so it is. Amen.

Using the Cards

There are no set rules when it comes to using the cards, and you can never make a mistake. Although an understanding of numerology will certainly improve your ability to interpret the number meanings of each card, you don't need to be a numerologist or have any prior experience with oracle cards to give accurate and meaningful readings. All you have to do is get comfortable and relaxed, and trust that you'll be guided toward the perfect cards for you and others. Believing in yourself, the cards, and your relationship with the Divine is the number one key to a clear and accurate reading.

Every card you draw is significant, even if it appears to have no relevance whatsoever to the question you've asked. Even though you may not understand its meaning at the time, pay close attention to its message, and acknowledge it with an open mind. Your cards will often identify areas in need of your attention that, when taken seriously and addressed, can improve your situation and your quality of life.

When interpreting the cards, it's important to think outside the box to see the bigger picture. When you're open to abstract and hidden messages, you will uncover the deeper meaning behind the reading.

For example, if you were to ask the cards: "Will I have a romantic relationship this year?" and then draw the "61, Self-Love" card, the deeper meaning would be: You will attract a romantic relationship when you learn to love yourself.

On another occasion you may ask the cards: “Will I find a better job within six months?” and then draw the “32, Music” card. As a result, you may wonder, What on earth does music have to do with finding a new job? However, when you think outside the box, you’ll discover the deeper underlying meaning, which in this particular example happens to be: By listening to music you enjoy, you will raise your energy vibration, which in turn will enable you to attract a better job.

Upon interpreting the meaning of one card or an overall reading, it’s also important to pay attention to your intuition, thoughts, and feelings—as well as any visions, words, and symbols that arise—to gain additional insight and understanding. Also, be sure to trust each message you’re given regardless of how irrelevant or insignificant it may seem. With practice, you will come to understand the meaning behind each card, and create your own interpretation of what it means to you. Before you know it, you’ll be a pro and won’t need this guidebook at all.

It's important to trust yourself and the cards you've chosen, because you've attracted them for a reason. Regardless of what they say, know that you have the ability to change your future in an instant with your thoughts and beliefs. Your cards are simply pointing you in the best direction to help you manifest your dreams.

Affirmations

Within this guidebook you will see an affirmation beneath every card description. An affirmation is a positive, present-tense statement that when spoken, visualized, or meditated upon regularly can assist you in attracting those particular circumstances into your life. Since you have the power to attract what you think and speak about the most, affirmations are powerful tools that can help you accomplish your goals and improve your life.

Within this deck, each affirmation relates directly to the meaning of the card in your reading, and it's up to you whether you choose to use it or not. Feel free to read through the guidebook and use the ones you like to assist you on your path. Why not give it a go? You might be amazed by the results.

How to Do a Reading

Although it isn't necessary, you may wish to begin each reading with the prayer from the Five-Minute Visualization to ensure your protection and to enhance your connection to Source. Then take a moment to center yourself, clarify your question, and merge your energy with the cards. When you're ready, shuffle them while asking your question out loud or in your mind. It makes no difference to Spirit how you pose your question, as it is heard either way. If you're performing a reading for someone else, request that the person ask his or her question silently or out loud. The query can be general or specific; however, questions such as these tend to get the best results:

Universal Source of All That Is, please tell me . . .

- What do I need to do to improve my quality of life?
- What do I need to work on to restore my health/get a better job/manifest abundance/attract a love relationship?
- What do I need to focus on today, this week, this month, or this year?
- How I can improve my [fill in the blank]?
- What can I expect if I continue on this path?
- What am I currently learning at this time?

There is no set time limit when it comes to how long you need to shuffle the cards. Simply stop shuffling when it feels right. If one or two cards jump out or fall from the deck, place them to the side to be included in your reading.

Clarifying Your Question

It's also important to be completely honest and direct about your intentions and motivations during a reading, as the cards/numbers will respond to your true question or desire. For example, you may ask whether a business endeavor with a client you met through work will be successful, when what you really want to know is whether there is the potential for love and romance with this person. In cases such as these, the cards will respond by answering your hidden question or secret agenda. Therefore, it's best to be clear about your question before you ask the cards.

Selecting Your Cards

After shuffling, you have three options with respect to selecting your cards. All you have to do is choose the option that suits you best. There's no right or wrong; it's simply a matter of personal preference. No matter what, through the universal Law of Attraction, you will select the perfect cards.

- Option 1: Fan your cards out, and randomly choose the number of cards you require for the type of reading you choose (see next section).
- Option 2: Select the cards from the top of the deck and place them in order according to your chosen spread.
- Option 3: Split the deck into two or three piles. Choose the deck you feel drawn to and pull the number of cards you require from the top.

Types of Card Readings

When selecting the type of reading you'd like to perform, once again you have three options. All you have to do is choose the reading that works best for you.

Single-Card Reading

Upon shuffling and choosing your card-selection option, take one card from the deck to address your question or to represent your subject of inquiry. It will either answer your question directly or identify the action you must take in order to improve the situation or attract the outcome you desire.

Single-card sample reading

QUESTION:

"What can I do to improve my state of health?"

ANSWER:

Card 96, Forgiveness

This card indicates a need to forgive yourself and others for any past actions that may have caused you pain. By drawing this card, you are being encouraged to heal any unresolved anger, jealousy, resentment, or guilt that is blocking your success. Emotions such as these are toxic to your body and hold you back from attracting a joyful, harmonious life. For the sake of your health and future happiness, you must forgive the past.

Three-Card Reading

Upon shuffling, and then choosing your card-selection option, take three cards from the deck and lay them down left to right, with the pictures facing up. These cards can either be read as a “3 Points of View” or a “Situation, Action, Outcome” answer. How you choose to read them is entirely up to you.

In a “3 Points of View” interpretation, all three cards combined provide the answer to your question, whereas in a “Situation, Action, Outcome” interpretation, the cards will be read like so:

- Card 1: Represents the current situation
- Card 2: Represents the action that is required to achieve the outcome you desire
- Card 3: Represents the final outcome, should you follow the second option

3 Points of View sample reading

QUESTION:

“What do I need to do to attract financial abundance?”

ANSWER:

1st Card: 48, Financial Discipline

2nd Card: 8, Manifestation

3rd Card: 93, Happy Ending

Based on your current thoughts and behavior, your unhealthy relationship with money and lack of disciplined spending habits are preventing you from attaining financial security and abundance. However, since the Universe is abundant, and there is plenty to go around, there are myriad opportunities for you to increase your financial flow. Using the universal Law of Attraction, you can manifest financial security and abundance through your thoughts, emotions, and behavior. With a healthy attitude toward money and consistent financial discipline, you will attract abundance like a magnet, which will enrich your life in many ways.

Situation, Action, Outcome
sample reading

QUESTION:

"Will I ever run my own business as a healer?"

ANSWER:

1st Card (Current Situation): 2, Patience

2nd Card (Action Required):

57, Teaching and Learning

3rd Card (Final Outcome): 78, Spiritual Career

Based on your current thoughts and behavior, your situation reveals that patience is required in order to attract the outcome you desire. This isn't a time to take action; rather, you need to go within to remove all fears and limiting beliefs that are standing in your way—for it is in the stillness that you will discover the next logical step to take. In the meantime, additional study may be required, so focus your attention on acquiring knowledge and building your self-confidence as a teacher. Should you follow this advice, in Divine timing and order you will reach your desired outcome and embark on a spiritual career path (perhaps as a self-employed healer).

Special Note: Always remember to give thanks after each and every reading.

Multiple-Card-Deck Reading

The Numerology Guidance Cards can also be used with other card decks, such as angel or tarot cards, for added insight and information. For example, you could lay down a row of three numerology cards followed by a row of three angel or tarot cards. If you're feeling particularly adventurous, you may choose to lay down rows from all three types of decks or bring in additional ones.

Create Your Own Reading

The readings listed in this guidebook are by no means the only ones you can perform with the Numerology Guidance Cards. Feel free to create your own and draw as many cards as you wish. You may even opt to experiment with other card spreads you may have discovered elsewhere.

Fallen Cards

While you're shuffling or dealing your cards, should one or two happen to fall from the deck, please be aware that this isn't simply an accident or coincidence. These cards require your attention and have an important message to share. Whether they relate directly to your subject of inquiry or not, include them in your reading and pay attention to their meaning.

Upside-Down Cards

While laying down your cards, should one appear upside down, leave it as it is. Whenever an upside-down card appears in a reading for yourself or another, it indicates a particular area that requires special consideration. Regardless of whether or not these cards are related to your subject of inquiry, this is the Divine's way of emphasizing a point and getting your attention.

Clearing Your Cards

It's perfectly acceptable to let others handle your cards; however, if you've performed multiple readings in a row or have worked with someone in an extremely negative mood or emotional state, it's wise to give your cards a breath of fresh air by clearing the deck. This can be achieved by smudging the deck (as well as the area where you conduct your readings) with the smoke from burning sage.

Placing a crystal such as clear quartz or amethyst on top of your deck in between readings is another way to clear your cards, as is visualizing your deck surrounded by white light and calling upon Archangel Michael to clear away any negative or stagnant energy.

Another option is to “knock” any stagnant energy from the cards by holding them in your nondominant hand and giving them one solid punch from the fist of your other hand.

Storing Your Cards

The Numerology Guidance Cards are your kind and faithful friends, and they’re infused with your intentions, hopes, dreams, and energetic imprint. How you wish to store them is completely up to you. It’s perfectly fine to put them away in their original box, and you may even elect to place a crystal of your choice on top to keep their vibration high and clear.

Some people prefer to store their oracle cards in a natural material such as a wooden box or a cotton or silk pouch. Another option is to wrap them in your favorite colored silk cloth or scarf, since colors are energy vibrations, too, with purple being one of the highest-vibrational colors of all.

GENERAL MEANINGS OF THE CARDS

In the Numerology Guidance Cards, and numerology in general, every number between 1 and 9 has several meanings and a color vibration. For example:

- 1 (Red) New Beginnings, Individuality, Leadership, The Self
- 2 (Orange) Patience, Intuition, Partnership, Emotions
- 3 (Yellow) Creativity, Communication, Self-Expression, Joy
- 4 (Green) Perseverance, Environment, Discipline, Stability

- 5 (Turquoise) Change, Adventure, Life Experience, Opportunity
- 6 (Blue) Love, Healing, Relationships, Family, Home
- 7 (Violet) *Personal Growth,
Spirituality, Health, Study, Solitude*
- 8 (Pink) Manifestation, Abundance, Leadership, Career
- 9 (Purple) *Completion, Compassion, Forgiveness,
Humanitarianism*

Within this 44-card deck, I have chosen 44 number and color combinations that will reveal your present challenges and enhance your ability to manifest your dreams. Presented in nonconsecutive order, from lowest (1) to highest (99), they are the 44 most effective number and color combinations to help you find your way and reach your full potential.

This guidebook lists the general meaning for every card in the deck. Upon viewing the numbers, titles, and colors of the cards you've chosen, your higher self, spirit guides, and angels will send you additional information and messages to accompany the meanings in the guidebook. So pay attention to any thoughts, feelings, symbols, visions, or voices that may pop into your head; and only consult the guidebook once you've taken those impressions into account.

Your guidebook is simply a tool to help you familiarize yourself with the cards and their meanings. By no means does it provide the only interpretation of a card. In time, you may discover your own interpretations and meanings. Either way, be sure to pay attention to your intuition at all times, and put trust in your relationship with the cards and your connection to the Divine.

Additional Points to Note

In numerology, 13, 14, 16, and 19 are considered “Karmic Debt Numbers,” which indicate specific challenges that need to be overcome. Also, repeated-digit numbers such as 11, 22, 33, and so on are known as “Master Numbers” carrying specific meanings. For example, 11 is known as the “Spiritual Messenger”; 22, the “Master Builder”; and 33, “The Cosmic Parent.”

However, in the Numerology Guidance Cards, the repeated-digit number meanings are simply alternative meanings of the single number. In other words, 11 is “Individuality,” an alternative meaning of number 1; 22 is “Intuition,” an alternative meaning of number 2; and 33 is “Communication,” an alternative meaning of number 3.

(For further information about Master Numbers, Karmic Debt Numbers, and numerology in general, I suggest you read my book, The Numerology Guidebook. Although a deeper understanding of numerology isn’t essential to work with your Numerology Guidance Cards, it will certainly enhance your ability to interpret the meanings of the cards.)

NEW BEGINNINGS

This card indicates a time of new beginnings, where there will be plenty of opportunities to create a fresh start. These opportunities play a very important part in catapulting you to where you need to be, so it's in your best interest to follow them wherever they may lead. By drawing this card, you're being encouraged to find the inner strength and courage to step into the unknown—to feel the fear and do it anyway and create a brand-new life.

New opportunities may present themselves in the area of relationships, home, or career. There might be a chance to move, study, or travel; or embark on an exciting new endeavor. Regardless, you must pay attention to the signs and seize the moment when it arises. When you're open to new beginnings, the Universe will send you the next logical step to take.

In order to improve your current situation, you are being asked to adjust to, and harmonize with, the natural rhythm and cycles of your life—cycles that are leading you toward an exciting new beginning. So be optimistic and ambitious, and move with the changing tides. Embrace the mystery in the unknown and you will make your dreams come true.

Affirmation: I embrace new beginnings and make my dreams come true.*

PATIENCE

This card indicates a time to stop and enjoy the present moment, as nothing more can be done to achieve the outcome you desire. Rather than take action, you are being asked to evaluate your progress and clarify your dreams, which will help you manifest them sooner.

This card also indicates a need to take your time and pace yourself instead of making hasty plans and decisions. Failure to do so could result in stress and disappointment. This is an opportunity to focus all your energy and attention on visualizing your dreams, as opposed to pushing against the obstacles standing in your way. Surrender the outcome to the Universe and get on with living your life. Allow things to come to fruition in Divine order and timing.

In order to improve your current situation, you are being asked to adjust to, and harmonize with, the natural rhythm and cycles of your life—cycles that are encouraging you to be patient and still. Stillness is the key to receiving clear and accurate guidance, and patience will help you attract the outcome you desire.

Affirmation: I patiently trust, and surrender the outcome to the Divine.*

CREATIVITY

This card indicates a need to reconnect with your creative side to improve your quality of life and align yourself with Source. By drawing this card, you are being encouraged to step out of your practical, logical mind and the seriousness of life in order to partake in lighthearted endeavors that are stimulating and fun. Playful creative expression is important because it raises your vibration, which brings you closer to your dreams.

This is a time to immerse yourself in any creative endeavor that lifts your spirits and makes you feel good. It might take the form of playing a musical instrument, painting, writing, cooking, jewelry making, decorating, sewing, photography, landscaping, dancing, or designing—it doesn't matter what it is as long as it brings you joy. Through playful creative expression, you can heal disharmony in your body . . . and disharmony in your life.

In order to improve your current situation, you are being asked to adjust to, and harmonize with, the natural rhythm and cycles of your life—cycles that are encouraging you to express yourself creatively. It's now time to use your imagination and see the world through the eyes of a child. For in rediscovering the creativity of your youth, you will rediscover the magic in your life.

Affirmation: Through playful creative expression,
I make my dreams come true.*

This is a time when you must ask yourself, *Am I truly open to giving and receiving love? You are being urged to familiarize yourself with the Law of Attraction and clarify your wants and needs, for you have entered a powerful cycle of Divine manifestation. Provided that your dreams serve the greater good, as well as the intentions of your soul, the Universe will assist you in making them come true.

By drawing this card, you are being reminded that successful manifestation requires more than just positive and wishful thinking. You must also surrender the outcome to the Divine and detach from the results. Remember that the Law of Attraction works both ways, so pay attention to your doubts, worries, and fears, and monitor your negative thoughts. Then focus predominantly on what you want, rather than what you fear or don't want.

In order to improve your current situation, you are being asked to adjust to, and harmonize with, the natural rhythm and cycles of your life—cycles that are leading you toward a time of manifestation. ## KARMIC COMPLETION

This card indicates the end of a karmic lesson or cycle where you have successfully cleared a contract or debt from your past. This could refer to a challenging situation you have recently conquered in your life or a troubling experience with an individual that involved a great deal of effort or pain. Even though there are ongoing lessons to confront throughout the course of your life, you will never have to experience this particular lesson again.

This card also represents the “wheel of fortune,” where whatever goes up must also come down. Just as the tides are constantly ebbing and flowing, you are being encouraged to adapt to both the highs and lows in your life. For it is in your ability to adapt that you will make your dreams come true. By stating “This too shall pass” in the face of each and every experience, you will remain centered, grounded, and stable.

In order to better your current situation, you are being asked to adjust to, and harmonize with, the natural rhythm and cycles of your life—cycles that have cleared you of a karmic debt from your past. Instead of feeling like you're a square peg in a round hole, you're being encouraged to build your own "square hole." By drawing this card, you are being called upon to step up to the plate and celebrate your uniqueness.

At this time, you must have the courage to speak your truth and march to the beat of your own drum despite the opinions of those around you. What others think of you isn't your business anyway, and it's impossible to please everybody, so you must focus on pleasing yourself. As you honor your individuality and feelings, you will reclaim your personal power and enhance your connection to Source. When you do so, you can make your dreams come true.

In order to improve your current situation, you are being asked to adjust to, and harmonize with, the natural rhythm and cycles of your life—cycles that are encouraging you to embrace your individuality. get going. So pull yourself together, and have faith in your success.

By drawing this card, you are being encouraged to call upon your inner and outer resources to achieve the outcome you desire. Rather than succumb to quick-fix solutions, shortcuts, or manipulation, you must plan, focus, and act with tenacity and drive. ## MODERATION

This card indicates a need to exercise restraint and self-control in every area of your life. Perhaps you are overeating, drinking too much alcohol, smoking, overmedicating or taking drugs, overspending, exercising excessively, consuming too much sugar or coffee, gambling, or otherwise overindulging or engaging in obsessive or aggressive behavior. If so, this card serves as a gentle and loving reminder that behaviors such as these can delay the manifestation of your dreams.

This card also indicates a need to balance your desire for freedom and adventure with your responsibilities, because by honoring your commitments, you will prevent the build-up of karmic debt. By choosing to live as your higher self rather than giving in to your lower tendencies, you align with Source and the intentions of your soul. Everybody has a shadow side that needs to be acknowledged, embraced, and loved. But when you learn to rise above it, you can make your dreams come true.

In order to improve your current situation, you are being asked to adjust to, and harmonize with, the natural rhythm and cycles of your life—cycles that are encouraging you to exercise temperance and moderation. changes around you and prepare to be the best you can be.

You are being encouraged to trust and believe that a magical future awaits, but first you need to let go of the old in order to experience the new. Take time to reevaluate your core values and reexamine your life, then eliminate any superficial foundations that don't align with your higher self and your dreams. This is a time to recognize and rise above any ego-based thoughts and behaviors, for humility and authenticity are the keys to your success.

In order to improve your current situation, you are being asked to adjust to, and harmonize with, the natural rhythm and cycles of your life—cycles that are leading you toward a higher level of understanding and awareness. Affirmation: Through personal transformation,
I reach my greatest potential.*

19 PRIDE

This card indicates a need to swallow your pride to improve your current situation and your quality of life. By admitting when you're wrong and choosing to see another's point of view (whether this person is right or wrong), you raise your vibration, which brings you closer to your dreams. The bottom line is: if you want to create a happy, harmonious life, you must let go of your need to be right or in control.

To overpower, belittle, or punish another goes against the nature of your soul and takes you out of alignment. Yet when you have the courage to own up to your mistakes, you align yourself with Source. Admitting when you're wrong builds character, inner strength, and self-esteem. It opens the door for resolution and creates better relationships with others. Stubbornness and pride get you nowhere, but humility and compromise bring you closer to the realization of your dreams.

In order to improve your current situation, you are being asked to adjust to, and harmonize with, the natural rhythm and cycles of your life—cycles that are encouraging you to rise above your ego. This isn't a time to be influenced by others' opinions or to betray your inner guidance in order to fit in. Instead, you must trust your intuition, for it will never let you down.

You are now being encouraged to spend quiet time alone. Nature and the outdoors will enhance your connection to Source and align your soul with Mother Earth. Likewise, regular prayer, meditation, listening to beautiful music, mindful breathing, and exercises such as yoga or Qigong will enhance your intuition and help develop your clairvoyant, clairaudient, clairsentient, and claircognizant abilities.

In order to improve your current situation, you are being asked to adjust to, and harmonize with, the natural rhythm and cycles of your life—cycles that are encouraging you to trust your inner guidance. When you're indecisive and unsure, always go within, for your intuition knows the path that serves your greater good. When you trust in yourself and your connection to the Divine, you will synchronistically be led to where you need to be.

Or maybe your current relationship is about to progress to a deeper level of understanding and commitment. Either way, love is just around the corner—provided you believe.

In the meantime, you're being encouraged to focus on what you have to offer, rather than what you'd like to receive. By doing so, you will attract a mutually loving relationship that serves both parties' needs. Remember, you must believe that love exists in order to attract it into your life. So work on any limiting beliefs or negative thoughts you may have about love.

This card indicates a time when a significant spiritual relationship is about to be forged. Perhaps it comes in the form of a friendship between like-minded souls on a similar journey toward enlightenment. Or maybe it's a master/disciple relationship where an important individual enters your life. The saying goes, "When the student is ready, the teacher will appear," and when yours arrives, he or she will assist you in expanding your spiritual growth.

During the course of this relationship, you will play the role of both teacher and student, and the wisdom gained from this experience will enhance your connection to Source. Perhaps a spiritually minded person will broaden your understanding of the Divine. Maybe you become a catalyst in another's spiritual journey and help that individual on his or her path. Regardless of the form this spiritual relationship takes, it will serve your greater good.

In order to improve your current situation, you are being asked to adjust to, and harmonize with, the natural rhythm and cycles of your life—cycles that are leading you toward a significant spiritual relationship.
