JAKE OWEN FOUNDATION
ESTABLISHED 2010

ABOUT

The Jake Owen Foundation was established in 2010 as a registered 501(C)(3) private nonprofit foundation through the vision and effort by Jake Owen initially to offer financial support on a national level to children battling cancer and other catastrophic childhood diseases through St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Memphis, Tennessee. In addition, the foundation provides assistance to various youth organizations and charities in Owen's hometown of Vero Beach, Florida and surrounding Indian River County.

Today, the Jake Owen Foundation is proud to be able to expand its mission of helping people in the places they call home, all while supporting the beneficiaries who have been a part of the foundation since its inception. Our helping hands are able to reach out anywhere and everywhere to make a difference — raising funds through private donations, brand partnerships, and special events while assisting youth programs, education, healthcare, fitness, nutrition, enrichment and crisis care. By supporting organizations and charitable partners everywhere, the Jake Owen Foundation is evolving into a national charity, with a local approach. To date the Jake Owen Foundation has raised more than $3 million dollars for charitable causes and for other nonprofit organizations.

Funding for the Jake Owen Foundation and providing aid is generated primarily through monies raised from the annual Jake Owen Foundation benefit concert, songwriters showcase and the Jake Owen Flamingo Golf Classic held each year in Vero Beach. It does not stop there however. The ultimate goal of the Jake Owen Foundation is to grow its mission worldwide.

In 2017 at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am Jake Owen received the prestigious "Arnie Award" - named for the iconic golfer Arnold Palmer - alongside Phil Mickelson and Peyton Manning. Golf Digest gives the award to the most charitable golfers on the course, "Golfers who give back," recognizing Owen for his many charitable contributions through the Jake Owen Foundation.

🌊 MISSION 🌊

The Jake Owen Foundation is committed to helping people, in the places they call home. The JOF is a nationally active charitable organization, with a local approach.

“The Jake Owen Foundation is one of the most fulfilling things I have ever been involved with. What matters is, the kind of person you are. Your character ... Your legacy. Giving back has always been important to me in everything I do.”
