By: Dick Smith

I'm fascinated with history, I was watching a story on the history channel not too long ago about England's great King Arthur. As each historian spoke, there was a theme acknowledging that there were no eyewitness accounts nor historical evidence to support the story of King Arthur, his knights, and their Round Table. Repeatedly, the story was referred to as "legend" or "mythology." It appears that the story is merely a legend woven together over centuries from fragments of other stories.

The good news of the gospel, however is not rooted in mythology or legend but in verified fact, and it's the greatest story ever told. Paul wrote that the most important event in human history---the resurrection of Jesus Christ---is supported by actual eyewitnesses. While listing disciples who had seen the risen Christ, Paul marked the list of eyewitnesses by writing, "After that He was seen by over five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain to the present, but some have fallen asleep." At the time of Paul's writing, many of those witnesses were still alive and available for questioning.

The resurrection of Christ is not a myth. It is the factual pivot-point of history.

On The Lighter Side

TEACHER: Glenn, how do you spell "crocodile?" GLENN: K-R-O-K-O-D-I-A-L. TEACHER: No, that's wrong. GLENN: Maybe it is wrong, but you asked me how I spell it. (I love this kid)
