PRAYER TO THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY FOR PROTECTION FROM THE CORONAVIRUS

O Immaculate Heart of Mary, we entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick. At the foot of the Cross, you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith. Patroness of the Diocese of Jefferson City, you know what we need. We are certain of the power of your intercession, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who taught us to "love one another, as I have loved you" took our sufferings upon Himself and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Bring under your mantle of protection all who provide care for the sick and minister to their needs, as your Son implores us to do for one another.

V. We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.
 R. Do not despise our pleas and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

"Consider this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each must do as already determined, without sadness or compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver."
 2 CORINTHIANS 9:6-7

The Catholic Stewardship Appeal is well underway. A blessed thank you to everyone that has made a financial and prayerful commitment to our appeal. Our work is reliant on you as our faithful to help fund programs in our parishes, provide Catholic education and formation for our children, foster vocations, provide disaster relief through Catholic Charities, and many more vital programs in the diocese. Remember that no gift is too small and each and every person's gift is important.

THE NATIONAL SHRINE OF Mary
MOTHER OF THE CHURCH

The 15 promises of the Virgin Mary to those who pray the Rosary

The Blessed Virgin Mary made these promises to Saint Dominic and to all who follow that "Whatever you ask in the Rosary will be granted."

- 1: Whoever shall faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall receive signal graces.
- 2: I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary.
- 3: The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell, it will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.
- 4: The Rosary will cause virtue and the good works to flourish; it will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God; it will withdraw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities, and will lift them to the desire for eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means.
- 5: The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall not perish.
- 6: Whoever shall recite the Rosary devoutly, applying himself to the consideration of its sacred mysteries shall never be conquered by misfortune.
- 7: Whoever shall have a true devotion for the Rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.
- 8: Those who are faithful to recite the Rosary shall have during their life and at their death the light of God and the plenitude of His graces; at the moment of death they shall participate in the merits of the saints in paradise.
- 9: I shall deliver from Purgatory those who have been devoted to the Rosary.
- 10: The faithful children of the Rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in Heaven.
- 11: You shall obtain all you ask of me by the recitation of the Rosary.
- 12: All those who propagate the Holy Rosary shall be aided by me in their necessities.
- 13: I have obtained from my Divine Son that all the advocates of the Rosary shall have for intercessors the entire celestial court during their life and at the hour of death.
- 14: All who recite the Rosary are my sons and daughters, and brother and sisters of my only Son Jesus Christ.
- 15: Devotion of my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.

FAMILY CORNERAbout the Gospel:

In next Sunday's Gospel, Jesus offers us a unique perspective on generosity. He explains that giving from our excess is not as powerful as giving everything like the widow did. We are challenged to give everything to God—not just our extra time, talent, and treasure.

Visit www.usccb.org/bible-readings to read next Sunday's Scripture.

In Church: Look around the church and notice all the beauty in the windows, candles, statues, or altar. Consider the wonder and awe of God that they represent.

Family Prayer: Help us to see what we are withholding from you, Lord, and to give it freely.

Question of the Week: What have you held back from God?

Is your faith the size of a mustard seed?

The Adult Faith Formation Committee is looking for new members who want to share their faith and heart with others. This Spirit-led team meets the second Tuesday of the month to plan activities that bring our community into closer relationship with God. For more information contact Lisa Cluver at 573-480-2754 or lisa_cluver@yahoo.com.
Come, help us move mountains.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Daily Examen of Stewardship

"Stewardship" can get a bum rap these days. When folks hear the term "stewardship" from the pulpit, their eyes tend to kind of glaze over. "Here's Father asking for more money," they groan inwardly, "Get ready for the passing of the pledge cards."

Christ refutes this idea when he gives us what he calls the greatest commandments — instructing us to love God and to love our neighbor. Now, Christ is a man who chose his words carefully. He meant exactly what he said — and he didn't say that the greatest commandments were to tithe and to give money to charity. If he had wanted stewardship to be only about money, he would have said so.

Sometimes we are indeed called to show our love for God and neighbor in the form of a financial gift. But the concept of Everyday Stewardship — living mindfully in prayer, grateful for our blessings, and gracious to our neighbors, committed to God, and accountable to each other — is about so much more.

I propose a twist on the long-held practice of the "Daily Examen" — a pious devotion wherein, at day's end, we go over the events of the last 24 hours and discern God's will. A Daily Examen of Stewardship might contain questions like this:

*How did I love God today? In whom did I love Him?
What did God give me today? With whom did I share it? What did I give to Him?*

To whom did I reach out today? Who reached out to me?

Where was God on my list of priorities today? First? Second? Third, Fourth?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
