2016-2017 ODI PRESIDENT

Jason Russell

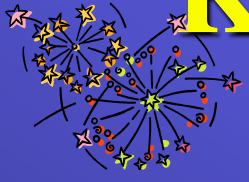

Russell Automation

Oregon Dairy Industries 2017

Kiara Single, 58th Oregon Dairy Princess-Ambassador

Kiara's father is the Production Planner at Kroger Swan Island Milk Plant. She will spend the next 12 months traveling statewide, talking about life on a dairy farm and nutritional benefits of consuming dairy products. Kiara studies Elementary Education at Concordia University.

Lee Trautman
ODI Lifetime member

Oregon Dairy Industries 2017

Meet Lee Trautman

Born and raised in Portland, OR

1969: US Army, Field Intelligence (MA, Vietnam, Germany)

1973: Portland State University

1977: Western Engineers intern. Fell in love with refrigeration and stayed eventually moving into sales

1991: Precision Refrigeration

1994: PermaCold Engineering

2009: Logix Refrigeration Controls Company

Meet Lee Trautman

April 30 2017: Retirement

June 2017: Re-starting Engineering Studies to complete degree at Portland State University

In the early 1990's, Lee was sent to an ODI conference in Eugene. He fell in love with the organization and has been to every conference and golf outing, since then. He served on the Board of Directors and later as President.

Oregon Dairy Industries 2017

Meet Lee Trautman

Lee's advice to young professionals getting into the dairy industry:

- stay in school
- develop a passion for your career

Oregon Dairy Industries 2017

Paul Nelson
ODI Lifetime member

Oregon Dairy Industries 2017

Meet Paul Nelson

1970: Graduated from WSU

1970: Returned home to the family dairy farm in Colville, WA to operate a producer handler operation with father and brother.

1978: Vitamilk Dairy, Seattle. Started as a pasteurizer then moved to plant foreman, production manager and operations manager

2003: Safeway Bellevue Milk Plant, Quality Assurance Supervisor

2016: Retired

Paul has been a member of the Washington Association of Food Protection since his college days. He was president of that organization twice during that time.

Meet Paul Nelson

Paul's advise to young professionals getting into the dairy industry:

- Join and be active in your local professional organization. The connections you make with other people in the industry are important for your professional growth
- Never stop learning. Attend conferences and seminars to keep current with the constant changes taking place in the industry

Oregon Dairy Industries 2017

Rob Marlowe
ODI Lifetime member

Oregon Dairy Industries 2017

Meet Rob Marlowe

1975: B.S. in microbiology (ROTC). Oregon State University.

1981: Lab Technician. Mayflower Farms/Darigold, Portland.

1990: Quality Manager. Darigold Portland.

2016: Retired (after 35 years with Mayflower/Darigold)

- Followed transition of fluid milk industry from HTST products coded at 19 days to UP products coded at 120 days
- Rob has been married for 42 years, and has 2 children and 5 grandchildren. Retirement will provide Rob more time for hunting, fishing, hiking, backpacking, and traveling.

Oregon Dairy Industries 2017

Meet Rob Marlowe

Advice to young professionals getting into the dairy industry

- 1. Find a mentor to provide guidance and help promote your career.
- 2. When you are in a position where it is possible, be a mentor. It can be a very rewarding experience.
- 3. Develop a rapport with regulatory personnel. They aren't the enemy.
