The Late Victorian Folksong Revival. The Persistence of English Melody, 1878-1903 (a reliable and comprehensive history of the birth and early development of the first English folksong revival. Systematical exploration what the Late Victorian folksong collectors discovered in the field and what they published for posterity, identifying differences between the songs noted from oral tradition and those published in print. Determination of the extent to which the collectors distorted what they found when publishing the results of their research in an era when some folksong texts were deemed unsuitable for "polite ears." The book provides a reliable overall survey of the birth of a movement, tracing the genesis and development of the first English folksong revival. It discusses the work of more than a dozen song-collectors, focusing in particular on three key figures: the pioneer folklorist in the English west country, Reverend Sabine Baring-Gould; Frank Kidson, who greatly increased the known corpus of Yorkshire song; and Lucy Broadwood, who collected mainly in the counties of Sussex and Surrey, and with Kidson and others, was instrumental in founding the Folk Song Society in the late 1890s. The book includes copious examples of the song tunes and texts collected, including transcriptions of nearly 300 traditional ballads, broadside ballads, folk lyrics, occupational songs, carols, shanties, and "national songs," demonstrating the abundance and high quality of the songs recovered by these early collectors)

JOUVE Jeremy

- 198736 Jeremy Jouve – 2003 Winner of the International GFA Competition (Over the past few years Jeremy's concert program has become oriented towards 20th century European music. The first composer, Joaquin Rodrigo, for some time now Jeremy has included in his repertory in homage to the rich and diverse Spanish culture, his Sonata – Ommaggio a Boccherini. In the 2nd part of the concert the inspiration changes with a work by Benjamin Britten, Nocturnal after John Dowland. The composer was a close friend of Julian Bream and here he offers a truly great musical masterpiece. A true psychodrama, he takes us through the various emotions encountered while sleeping, exaltation with a Passacaglia leading to and finishing on John Dowland's inspirational theme as dawn finally brings the reassuring light of day. Jouve concludes the recital with the Jazz Sonata by the composer Dusan Bogdanovic, who, with great spirit, explores the musical horizons of Jazz and music from his native Balkans. Finally, an allusion to France with one of my Jouve's native country's greatest popular singers of the 20th century, Edith Piaf and her L 'Hymne à l'Amour, with, as a bonus, Erik Satie's first Gnossienne, both arranged by Roland Dyens) DVD; 73 minutes 27,50
