Anthony A. Williams  MAYOR

Dear Taxpayer:

It's tax season time again. OTR employees are committed to continuing to improve customer services for District taxpayers. This includes making it easier for you to file, get help, and find information you need.

I encourage you to join over 75,000 taxpayers who have filed their tax returns electronically. You'll save time, be able to track any refund and get your refund faster. You'll also be able to have your refund directly deposited into your checking or savings account. If you do not have the Internet at home, you can use a public library computer.

To file electronically, simply go to the District's electronic Taxpayer Service Center (eTSC), at www.cfo.dc.gov and search for Electronic Taxpayer Service Center. Or click on the Federal State Electronic filing (eFile) option to file. Please note that eFile offers part-year calculations, if you were a part year resident.

Two other programs that may help you are:

1) The Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC): You can get twenty-five percent of the federal Earned Income Credit, if you took it; and
2) The DC 529 College Savings Program: Save money for your children's education and save on your taxes at the same time. You may deduct up to $$ 3,000$, or up to $$ 6,000$, for married couples filing jointly, if each spouse has set up a separate account.

Your tax form package includes instructions written so they are easily understood. Please follow them carefully to avoid mistakes that can delay the processing of your tax return.

Thank you for making the District of Columbia your home and for supporting city services through your tax dollars. Together, we're building a stronger city and a brighter tomorrow.

Sincerely,

Mayor Anthony A. Williams

Who must file a DC tax return?

You must file a DC tax return if --

- You were a DC resident and were required to file a federal return.
- Your permanent residence was in DC for part or all of 2003.
- You lived in DC for 183 days or more during 2003, even if your permanent residence was outside DC.
- You were a member of the armed forces and DC was your home of record for part or all of 2003.
- You are the spouse of an exempt military person or another exempt person, such as a non-resident presidential appointee and you meet any one of the above requirements.

Do not file a DC return if --

- You were not required to file a federal return.
- You were not a resident of DC at any time during 2003.
- You were an elected member of the U.S. government who is not domiciled in DC
- You were an employee on the personal staff of an elected member of the U.S. legislative branch and you and the elected member are bona fide residents of the same state.
- You were a member of the U.S. executive branch appointed by the President, subject to confirmation by the U.S. Senate, whose tenure of office is at the pleasure of the President and you were not domiciled in DC during any part of 2003
- You were a justice of the U.S. Supreme Court and were not domiciled in DC during any part of 2003.

Special filing circumstances

Part-year status

If you were a DC resident (or your permanent home was in DC) for less than a year, you must file as a part-year resident.

Amended return

To amend a tax year 2001 or 2002 return, use the Form D-40 for that year. To amend returns for years prior to 2001 obtain Form D-40X. Please check our website - www.cfo.dc.gov for prior year forms or call 202-442-6546 for copies.
If the Internal Revenue Service adjusts your individual income tax return, you must file an amended DC return within 90 days of receiving notice of the federal change. To file an amended return for the current year, for this or any other reason, complete another Form D-40 with the correct information and fill in the amended return oval.

Refund of DC taxes withheld

If you were a $D C$ resident but are not required to file a DC return, you must file a D-40 or D-40EZ to request a refund of any DC taxes withheld.
If you were not a DC resident and are not required to file a DC return, but DC tax was withheld from your wages, file Form D-40B, Nonresident Request for Refund.

Business income of more than $\mathbf{$ 1 2 , 0 0 0}$

If you have gross income from DC sources of more than $12,000 from a business or business activity, including the rental of property, you must file a Form D-30, Unincorporated Business Franchise Tax Return, and report that income. The only exception is if you are specifically exempted by law. Calculation A on page 9 of this booklet allows you to subtract income reported and taxed on Form D-30.

Which form should you file?

D-40EZ Income Tax Return for Single and Joint Filers with No Dependents
You may use this simpler form if you meet all of the following:

- Your filing status is single or married filing jointly;
- You do not claim dependents;
- You do not claim an exemption for being age 65 or older or legally blind;
- You were a DC resident from January 1 through December 31, 2003;
- Your income is less than $$ 100,000$ and consists only of wages, salaries and tips; taxable scholarships or fellowship grants; unemployment compensation; and/or interest and dividends ( $$ 1500$ maximum)
- You have no federal adjustments to income;
- You do not itemize your deductions;
- You do not file DC Schedule H;
- You do not make estimated income tax payments; and
- You are not claiming a deduction for a DC college savings plan payment.

D-40 Individual Tax Return
Use this form if you cannot use the D-40EZ.

D-40T TeleFile

We have eliminated the TeleFile option. Please see "How to file" on page 6 for other electronic filing options.

D-41 Fiduciary Income Tax Return
Use this form if you are the fiduciary of a DC estate or trust and:

- The gross income for the estate is $$ 1,370$ or more for the taxable year; or
- The gross income for the trust is $$ 100$ or more for the taxable year.

When are your Taxes Due?

Due date

File your return and pay any taxes due by April 15, 2004. If you need more time to file your return, submit a request for an extension, Form FR-127 Extension of Time to File, on or before April 15, 2004. Any tax due must be paid in full with the request; there is no extension of time to pay.

FR-127 Extension of Time to File
Use this form if you cannot complete and file your return by the April 15 due date. You can receive a six-month extension of time to file. You must submit this form by April 15, 2004.
Do not use the federal extension form to request an extension of time to file a DC return.

A filing extension does not extend the due date for paying any tax you may owe. Before filing for an extension, estimate the tax you will owe and pay this amount with the FR-127 by April 15, 2004. Attach a copy of your FR-127 to the D-40 when you file. Penalty and interest are charged on any tax not paid on time.

How to file

By mail
Send your completed original return to:
Office of Tax and Revenue
PO Box 7861
Washington, DC 20044-7861
Do not include more than one return per envelope. Postage on the return envelope is 49 cents for the first ounce, 60 cents for two ounces and 23 cents for each additional ounce.

By DC e-file

E-File offers individual income taxpayers a full Federal/State Electronic Filing program. There are two ways in which taxpayers can file their federal and DC returns together electronically: 1) through a tax practitioner who is an authorized e-file provider or 2) through a commercial online filing service, which allows taxpayers to transmit their DC and Federal returns electronically from their home PC for a fee. Visit our website at www.cfo.dc.gov for more information.
In addition, we now offer a free and easy way to file your DC income tax return on the Internet directly with the Office of Tax and Revenue. On the electronic Taxpayer Service Center (eTSC), you may file your D-40 and D-40EZ 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. This Internet site provides a full calculation of DC tax and credits. This filing option is available to taxpayers who filed a D-40 or D-40EZ tax return in 2002. To file online, visit www.taxpayerservicecenter.com/individual/Ind Logon.jsp?type= 100. Visit our website at www.cfo.dc.gov for more information.
If you use one of our e-file options to file your DC income tax return, you may also choose to have your refund deposited directly into your checking or savings account.
Refund Status Inquiry
To check the status of your refund refer to https:// www.taxpayerservicecenter.com/individual/Ind_Refund Status_Logon.jsp

Payment options--

Credit card
24-hour service
You may pay the amount you owe on your 2003 tax return using Visa, M asterCard, Discover, or American Express. You will be charged a fee equal to $2.5 \%$ of your payment, which is paid directly to the Official Payments Corporation, the credit card service provider. Payment is effective on the day you charge it.

To charge your taxes by phone

Call 1-800-272-9829 using a touch-tone phone. The DC jurisdiction code is 6000 . You will be given a confirmation number, please save it for your records.

To charge your taxes online

Log onto www.officialpayments.com and select "make a payment." The D.C. jurisdiction code is 6000 . You will be given a confirmation number that you should keep with your records.

Check or money order

Include a personal check or money order made payable to the DC

Treasurer with your completed return. Write your social security number, daytime phone number, and "2003 D-40" on your payment.

How can you avoid penalties and interest?

File your return on time
There is a $5 \%$ per-month penalty for failure to file a return or pay any tax due on time. The penalty is calculated on the unpaid tax for each month or part of a month that the return is not filed or the tax is not paid. The maximum penalty is an additional amount due, equal to $25 \%$ of the tax due.
You will be charged interest of $10 \%$ per year, compounded daily, on any tax not paid on time. Interest is calculated from the due date of the return to the date when the tax is paid. Interest on any underpayment of tax will accrue even if you requested an extension to file your return.

Estimate your taxes accurately and pay as you go
You need to estimate the amount of taxes you will owe and pay your taxes periodically throughout the year. You may have your employer withhold taxes from your earnings, make estimated tax payments yourself, or both.
If you expect to owe $$ 100$ or more in taxes after subtracting your withholdings and credits from your estimated total tax, you must make additional payments. To make these payments use D-40ES, Estimated Individual Income Tax Vouchers. Call 202-442-6546 to get a D-40ES booklet.. The D-40ES voucher booklet explains the estimated tax payment rules and due dates. You may also pay your estimated payments electronically. See www.cfo.dc.gov.
You will be charged a 10\% per year (compounded daily) penalty for a late payment or an underpayment of taxes. An underpayment occurs if your withheld taxes, credits and estimated tax payments do not equal at least $90 \%$ of the amount of tax you owe on your DC return for 2003 or $100 \%$ of the amount of tax owed on your 2002 DC return. This penalty will be automatically assessed by OTR's integrated tax system.

Do not understate your taxes
There is a $20 \%$ penalty on any understated amount of taxes due if:

- The unpaid amount is more than $10 \%$ of the actual amount due; or
- The unpaid amount is $$ 2,000$ or more.

You will pay the penalty on the greater amount.
Tax preparers must pay a penalty for understating taxes for any of the following:

- the refund or amount due is based on unrealistic information; or
- the preparer should have been aware of a relevant law or regulation; or
- relevant facts about the return are not adequately disclosed.

Penalties range from $$ 250$ to $$ 10,000$.
Make sure your check will clear
You will be charged a $$ 65$ fee if your check is returned to us.

Instructions for the 2003 D-40

Getting started

To complete this form, you should have the following -

- A copy of your completed 2003 federal return (Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ) and any additional forms, schedules, or worksheets.
- A copy of your completed state return if you filed an income tax return with another state.
- Copies of all your W-2 and 1099 forms.
- A calculator.
- A pen with black ink.

Before completing your D-40 you will need to do a series of calculations contained in these instructions and copy many of the line items and totals onto your D-40. You may also need to attach other federal and DC schedules, forms and worksheets to your Form D-40.

Schedule S Supplemental information and dependents Schedule S provides space for reporting a foreign address, dependents, head of household, DC franchise and fiduciary tax information and itemized deduction summary amounts. It also contains Calculation G for determining the number of exemptions that may be claimed, and Calculation J for determining the DC tax amount for married filing separately on the same return. If you itemized on your federal return, you must itemize on your DC return. Fill in the itemized deduction information on page 2 of Schedule S. If you use any part of this schedule, please staple it to your return.
Part-year residents
You will be given guidance for completing your D-40 throughout these instructions.

How to file a part-year return
If you were a DC resident, or your permanent home was in DC for less than a year, prepare a worksheet showing the type and amount of income received:

- during the time you resided in DC;
- during the time you were a non-resident; and
- the total income reported on your federal income tax return.
If you received a state income tax refund while a resident of DC, you must subtract the amount of the refund if you included it as income received and allocated to DC.

If you claimed itemized deductions on your federal income tax return, you must also include on your worksheet any deductions that pertain to the time you were a DC resident. If the itemized deductions were subject to a limitation on the federal return, you must complete Calculation F. Your worksheet information will assist you in completing Calculations A, B, C, D, F (if applicable) and $H$. You should keep a copy of your worksheet along with a copy of your tax return and all calculation worksheets.

Filling out the form

To aid us in processing your return quickly and accurately, please follow these guidelines.

Do not print outside the boxes.

Leave a space between worrs and between $\quad 8 \cdot E L M \square \square$ words and numbers.
Write 35 with a rounded
top, not a flat top.

Write 7s without a middle bar.
Fill in ovals completely.

Do not $\boldsymbol{V}$ or " $x$ " ovals.
$\begin{aligned} & \text { Do not enter cents. Round } \\ & \text { cents to the nearest dollar. }\end{aligned} \quad 572204: 00$
Note: Your social security number is used for tax administration purposes only

Amended return Fill in the amended return oval.
An amended return should be filed any time you realize your DC tax liability for a prior open tax year has changed. To file an amended return for the current year, fill in the amended return oval, and complete the D40 with the correct information. Attach a statement explaining the adjustments.
Please file the amended return separately from any other return. By filing an amended return as soon as possible, you will minimize the accumulation of any applicable penalty and interest charges. If the Internal Revenue Service adjusts your individual income tax return, you must file an amended DC return within 90 days of receiving notice of the federal change.
To amend a 2001 or 2002 return obtain a copy of the D-40 for that year. To amend years prior to 2001 obtain a copy of D-40X. Please check our website for prior year forms - www.cfo.dc.gov or call 202-442-6546 to receive forms by mail.

Filing for a deceased taxpayer Fill in the oval.

If a taxpayer died in 2003 or in 2004 before filing a return, a return must be filed for that person. Complete this form providing the deceased's information, not your own.
You do not need to adjust his or her income, exemptions, or deductions to reflect the date of death. Tax preparers other than the surviving spouse, such as executors, attorneys, or other personal representatives, must attach letters of administration. If a refund is due, complete and attach Form FR-147, Statement of Person Claiming Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer, and a copy of the death certificate. Do not use the federal form, it is not acceptable for DC tax purposes.

Foreign address Use Schedule S.
If your home address is in another country, provide this information on Schedule S. Do not abbreviate the country name. Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code. Attach Schedule S to your D-40.

Dependents Use Schedule S.
You can take an exemption for each of your dependents. If you are claiming exemptions, you must use Schedule $S$ to list each dependent's name, social security number, and relationship to you. Attach Schedule S to your D-40.

Filing status

More than one filing status may apply to you. Choose the one that will give you the lowest tax.
Usually, you will file using the same status on your DC return as you used on your federal return. However, if you filed married filing jointly on your federal return, it may be better for you to file your DC return using either married filing separately or married filing separately on same return. If both spouses have income you should figure your tax both ways to see which status is better for you.

Line 1

Single

You were unmarried or legally separated as of December 31, 2003, or were widowed and did not remarry before J anuary 1, 2004.

Married filing jointly

You were married and both spouses were DC residents as of December 31, 2003, or your spouse died in 2003 and you did not remarry in 2003. If you are legally separated, you cannot file jointly.

Married filing separately

You are married and both spouses had income.
Include your spouse's name and social security number in the Personal information section.
You will each report only your own income, exemptions, deductions and credits. You will each report one half of the income from any securities, bank accounts, real estate, etc., that are registered or titled in both names.
You must file using this status if:

- You and your spouse were part-year residents of DC during different periods of 2003.
- You were a DC resident and your spouse was one of the following:
- A member of the armed forces and not considered a DC resident;
- A member of the U.S. Congress or an employee on the personal staff of a member of Congress who is considered a resident of the member's state of residency;
- An officer of the U.S. Executive Branch whose primary residence was not in DC, who is appointed by the President, and who is confirmed by the U.S. Senate and serves at the pleasure of the President; or
- A justice of the U.S. Supreme Court whose primary residence was not in DC.

Dependent claimed by someone else

If you are claimed as a dependent on someone else's 2003 tax return you may not claim an exemption for yourself on your return.

Married filing separately on same return

If you claim this status, you and your spouse must combine your separate amounts using Calculation Jon Schedule $S$ so that you will either receive one refund or make one tax payment. You can also claim a credit for child and dependent care expenses, which you are not allowed to claim if you file separately on separate returns. (Claiming this filing status may reduce the amount of tax that you pay by allowing each spouse to take advantage of lower tax brackets.)
Before filling out Calculation J and Form D-40, you will need to figure the following amounts for you and your spouse:

- Each person's federal adjusted gross income;
- Each person's additions to federal income;
- Each person's subtractions from federal income;
- Each person's deductions; and
- Each person's exemptions.

If you and your spouse were part-year residents of DC during different periods of 2003, you cannot file separately on the same return. You must file separate returns.

Head of household

You were unmarried or legally separated as of December 31, 2003, and paid over half the cost of keeping a home for a qualifying person, such as a child or parent. Certain married people who lived apart from their spouse for the last 6 months of 2003 may also be able to use this filing status.
Use Schedule $S$ to enter the name of the qualifying person whether that person is a dependent or non dependent.

Line 2

Part-year resident

If you resided in DC for only part of 2003, you must allocate your income, exemptions, deductions and credits.
Before completing the D-40, calculate the following:

- Income received when you were a resident of DC and when you resided outside DC; and
- Deductible expenses paid when you resided outside DC and when you resided in DC. The same allocation is required for exemptions, credits and other deductions.

Number of months of DC residency

Divide the number of days you lived in DC by 30 to figure the number of months. Any remainder over 15 days counts as a full month. Enter the number of months you were a DC resident.
Example 196 days of residency in DC divided by $30=$ 7 months ( 6 months plus one month due to the remainder of 16 days).

Income Information

The amount of income on which you are taxed on your federal individual return is often different from the amount of income on which you are taxed by DC. You make adjustments to your federal income in Lines 13-16 of D-40 by subtracting amounts that are exempt from $D C$ tax and adding amounts that are exempt from federal tax.
Note: pension and annuity income is included in the amount entered on Line 10 of the D-40. You may be eligible for an annuity/ pension exclusion. See Line $h$ in Calculation A on the next page.

- You can copy many line amounts directly from federal forms 1040, 1040A, and 1040EZ. Please be careful since the line numbers for these amounts will differ from D-40 line numbers.
- Copy lines $\mathbf{3}$ through $\mathbf{1 2}$ from the appropriate lines on your federal return. Do not recalculate any amounts or totals. Some amounts entered on your federal return may not need to be entered on you DC return.
- Not all items will apply to you. Fill in only those that apply. If the amount is zero, leave the line blank.
- If you had a loss for Lines $6,7,8,9,10,12,14$ or 16 , fill in the oval to indicate that the figure entered is a negative figure. Do not enter a minus sign in the boxes.
- Do not enter cents. Round cents to the nearest dollar. Drop cents for amounts under $50 \phi$, and round up to the next dollar for amounts of $50 \$$ and over.

Example: $$ 10,500.50$ rounds up to $$ 10,501$
$$ 10,500.48$ rounds down to $$ 10,500$.
Line 3 Wages, salaries, tips, etc.
Enter the amount from your 1040 or 1040A, Line 7 or 1040EZ, Line 1 , plus any unemployment compensation received.

Line 4 Taxable interest

Enter the amount from your 1040 or 1040A, Line 8a (do not include 8b) or 1040EZ, Line 2.

Line 5 Ordinary dividends

Enter the amount from your 1040 or 1040A, Line 9a.
Line 6 Business income or loss

Calculation A Subtractions from federal adjusted gross income. Some, all, or none of these line items may apply to you. Fill in only those that apply.
a If part-year resident, income received while residing outside DC Enter this amount on D-40 Line 13b.
Part-year residents: for Lines b through h include only the amounts that apply to the time you resided in DC. a
*Note: Since any income reported on Federal Form 8814 and included in the parent's federal return income is subtracted in item g , the child must file a separate DC return reporting this income.
under a claim of unlawful employment discrimination may, for DC tax purposes, be averaged over several tax years. Income averaging is allowed for "back pay" and "front pay" awarded as the result of such a claim. Back pay is compensation awarded and attributable to the period during which services were performed or would have been performed but for the claimed violation of law. Front pay is compensation awarded and attributable to employment that would have been realized in a subsequent year but for the claimed violation of law. Back pay and front pay are averaged and reported in income over the number of years in the period for which the back pay and/or front pay was awarded. This special treatment does not apply to punitive damages and interest. These are taxable in this year of receipt. DC taxpayers may claim credit for income tax paid to a state if the income taxed by that state is derived from and is of a kind taxed by DC. The tax paid to a state is the total state tax liability shown on the state tax return. (It is not the withholding amount shown on your W-2.)
Complete Calculation $\mathbf{K}$ to determine your credit. Attach a copy of any state income tax returns showing a payment for which you are claiming a credit.

Who can claim a property tax credit? (Eligibility requirements)

Renters and homeowners who have a total household gross income of $$ 20,000$ or less may be eligible to claim a property tax credit. If you are filing a Form D-40 and claiming this credit file Schedule H with it. If you are not required to file a Form D-40, you may file a Schedule H by itself.
You must meet all of the following requirements to claim this credit:

- You were a DC resident from J anuary 1 through December 31, 2003;
- You rented or owned and lived in your home in DC during all of 2003;
- Your total household gross income for 2003 was $$ 20,000$ or less;
- You did not rent from a landlord whose property was either exempt from real property taxes or who paid a percentage of rental income to DC instead of paying a real estate tax;
- If you are under age 65, you are not claimed as a dependent on someone else's 2003 federal, state, or DC income tax return;
- Your residence is not part of a public housing dwelling; and
- If you are not blind or disabled, you and your spouse (if married) provide at least 50\% of the total household gross income.
Only one member of a household can claim a property tax credit. A property tax credit may not be claimed on behalf of a taxpayer who died before the end of the tax year.

When is Schedule H due?

If you are filing a Form D-40, your Schedule H must be attached to your D-40 and submitted by April 15, 2004. If you have received an extension of time to file your D-40, you may file Schedule H by the extended due date.
If you are filing Schedule H by itself, you must file it by April 15, 2004.

Personal information

Fill out either Section A or Section B of this form but not both. If you rent your home, fill out Section $A$; if you own your home, fill out Section B.
Blind or disabled
If you identify yourself as blind or disabled, you must have your physician complete the certification on page 3 of Schedule H and you must submit it with Schedule H.

Section A-Claim based on rent

Line 1 Total household gross income

You must report the income of every member of your household including any income not subject to DC income tax. Use the calculation on page 2 of Schedule H to determine the total amount. If your total household gross income is more than $$ 20,000$, you cannot claim a property tax credit.
Household members are the people you live with whether or not they are related to you. For example, if you live in an apartment where you share the kitchen and bathroom with two other people, they are household members, even if they are not related to you. If you are a tenant in a house or apartment where other people live, but you have a separate kitchen and/or bath, you are the sole household member.
On page 2 of Schedule $H$, list the names and social security numbers of all household members whose income is included in the total household gross income amount.

Line 2 Rent paid in 2003

Enter the total amount of rent you paid during the year and multiply it by .15. If Line 2 exceeds Line 1 , you cannot claim a property tax credit unless you provide adequate documentation to support the claim.

Line 3 Property tax credit

Using the amounts entered on Lines 1 and 2, find your property tax credit amount using the tables on pages 42-48. If you are under the age of 62 and are not blind or disabled, use Table $A$; if you are 62 or older or blind or disabled, use Table B.
If you sublet part of your residence to another person, you must subtract the amount of rent you receive from that person from the amount of rent you pay. The income you receive from subletting is taxable and must be reported on your D-40.

Line 4 Rent supplements received in 2003 by you or your landlord on your behalf.

Enter any federal or state subsidies you received, or any received on your behalf, during the year. If there were none, leave the line blank.

Section B-Claim based on real property tax

Line 7 Total household gross income

You must report the income of every member of your household including any income not subject to DC income tax. Use the calculation on page 2 of Schedule H to determine this income. To help you complete this calculation, refer to your 2003 federal return (Form 1040, 1040A or 1040EZ). If your total household gross income is more than $$ 20,000$, you cannot claim a property tax credit.
Household members are all the people you live with whether or not they are related to you. For example, if you live in a house where you share the kitchen and bathroom with two other people, they are household members, even if they are not related to you.
If you rent out part of your house and share the kitchen and bath with a tenant, you must report the tenant's income as part of your total household gross income.
Line 8 Real property tax paid by you in 2003
Enter the amount of DC real property tax you paid (see your real property tax bills). In determining your property tax credit, you may include any deferred portion of your real property tax as part of the real property tax paid.

Line 9 Property tax credit

Using the amounts on Lines 7 and 8, find your property tax credit amount in the tables on pages 42-48. If you are under the age of 62 and are not blind or disabled, use Table A. If you are 62 or older or blind or disabled, use Table B.

Low Income Credit Table

(This is not a tax table)
Use this table to determine the amount of low income credit you can claim. This is a non-refundable credit, which means that it can reduce the DC tax you owe, but it will not directly result in a tax refund. If you claim this credit, you must attach a copy of your federal tax return. Failure to attach a copy of your federal return to the DC Form D-40 will delay or prevent the processing of your return.

Eligibility

To qualify for this credit, you must meet all of the following:

- You must have filed a federal return, and your federal tax before credits and payments (1040, Line 41; 1040A, Line 28; or 1040EZ, Line 10) is 0.
- Your federal adjusted gross income (1040, Line 34; 1040A, Line 21; or 1040EZ, Line 4) is less than the sum of your federal personal exemptions and your federal standard deduction.
- The amount on Line 22 of your D-40 is more than 0 .

■ The earnings potential on every penny you contribute is enhanced by federal-tax-free growth.

■ Deduct up to $3,000 annually in plan contributions from your federal adjusted gross income on your DC tax return (up to $$ 6,000$ for married couples filing jointly if both own accounts).* (If you contributed in 2003, don't forget to claim your current deduction.)

- Earnings won't be subject to federal or DC income tax when withdrawn for qualifying higher education expenses.
- Amounts greater than $3,000 contributed to one or more accounts in any one tax year may be carried forward, subject to the annual limit, as a deduction in subsequent tax years, up to five years from the contribution date.
- A change of the designated beneficiary is not a taxable event if the new beneficiary is a member of the family of the former beneficiary.
- An account owner may transfer any part of the account balance, without tax consequences, to another account under a qualified plan if the transfer follows procedures established by the Chief Financial Officer.

Using the Form D-40

The Form D-40 is designed to be easy to fill out and fast to process, but we need you to fill it out correctly, so please read and follow the instructions.

If you enter a negative number, fill in the oval, don't use a minus sign.

Copy information for Lines 3 through 12 from information on your federal return. You may have reported other types of income on your federal return that you don't need to copy here.

It is very important that you re-enter your last name and social security number on the top of all additional pages, attachments and schedules filed with your return.

If you have nothing to enter on a line leave it blank. No zeroes or dashes, please.

A separate calculation for refunds and payments for amounts owed is provided to make the form clearer. Information on how and when to pay are found in this booklet.

If you want us to contact someone else if we have questions about your return, indicate that here.

It's not a return if you don't sign it. If you're married filing jointly or separately on the same return, both must sign.
