You can contribute online through the online giving portal or in the donation box in the narthex. Please consider giving as your means allow —thank you for your generosity.

REBUILD

*This Lent, our parish is beginning a journey of prayer, healing and unity with an initiative called "Rebuild." We seek to join together as a parish family to pray for our church and one another. As we move into the Easter season, we will continue to pray and grow as a parish community in our faith and good works for Holy Trinity.

We continue to humbly pray: What does God want from our parish and for our lives?

This week, we pray for greater gratitude in our parish and our Church. Throughout this Lent, we have prayed together as a parish as we begin to rebuild our spiritual church and the relationships within our parish community. We have so much to be thankful for—it being Holy Week should remind us of that. A great example of gratitude from the church is Blessed Solanus Casey. Fr. Solanus was a simple Capuchin priest from Detroit during the early 20th century. He was known for his great faith, resulting in many "favors" from God for others incurred by his dedication to prayer and discernment. Fr. Solanus' catchphrase was always "Thank God Ahead of Time." Let us do the same as we enter the joyous season of Easter next week. Bl. Solanus Casey — Pray for Us.

Our scripture passage this week is taken from 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

"Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, in all circumstances give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you."

This week, our intentions are:

- For Father Rafal, his family and his intentions—particularly in search of a Business Manager and Facilities Manager for our parish
- For Father Ed Howe, C.R. and his family as they mourn the death of his father
- For Father George Zieba, C.R., in his recovery after successful surgery
- For all the intentions in our Lent intentions book—especially those intentions for healing and peace
- For the success of our Parish Center Campaign
- That we may intently enter into this Holy Week and grow spiritually through reflection of the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus
- Lord Jesus, teach us how to give thanks in all circumstances
- Lord Jesus, give us the courage to tell others of all the good things you have done for us
- Lord Jesus, show us how to live every day in thanksgiving for your death on the cross and forgive us for all the ways we turn away from you
- Lord Jesus, thank you for giving us victory over sin and death and for your steadfast love for us. We will give thanks to you everyday, Lord, with all our hearts
- Bl. Solanus Casey, pray that we might see God's infinite blessings in our lives and all around us
- Bl. Solanus Casey, pray that our gratitude turns into service of others

Rebuild Prayer

Eternal Father, source of love, by your Holy Spirit you move human hearts so that enemies may speak to each other again, adversaries join hands, hatred is overcome by love, revenge gives way to forgiveness and discord is changed to mutual respect.

Grant us, through the Holy Spirit, the grace to contribute, together with all people of good will, to the fulfillment of your Son's will: "That they may all be one!"

With faith, we ask you for the divine gift of unity. Give us enough love and courage to seek to overcome disunity, whether it is friction in our families, tensions in our neighborhood, disagreements at work, in our parish, or differing opinions with our neighbor.

Help us to enter into honest and respectful dialogue. Keep us from being indifferent. Soften our hearts. Open our ears. Help us to listen with close attention to the other person, sharing in the pain caused by their wounds.

Help us to build bridges rather than walls. Make us instruments of your peace.

We humbly pray to you: allow us, your children, to live in solidarity with all people and so to honor you, who are the Father of us all.

We ask these things through our Lord Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Most Holy Trinity. Amen.

April 2022 | Lenten pruning
leads to Easter glory

Recently, I stopped by a big home improvement store. The garden center was bustling with people shopping for flowers and plants. Happily, I sighed and thought, "Ah, spring is in the air!"

One of my favorite images in the Bible is that of the garden. It not only reminds us that we reap what we sow. But also, it all begins in the Garden of Eden with the creation of Adam and Eve and then their eventual fall from grace. Jesus experiences deep prayer, agony and betrayal in the Garden of Gethsemane before his crucifixion. At the resurrection, Mary Magdalene is the first to see the risen Christ, but she does not recognize him, "supposing him to be the gardener" (John 20:15). Throughout Scripture, gardens are a place to encounter the mystery of God. They are places of suffering, death and most importantly, new life.

Saying all this, let me acknowledge that I do not have a naturally green thumb. I admire people who possess that gift. Regardless, I am starting to dabble in some basic gardening.

At the bishop's residence in Joliet where I live, I have made the decision to have some large trees cut down in my backyard. The reason I am having them removed is not because I am "anti-tree." On the contrary, I love trees. However, there are so many in my backyard, that they have created a canopy over the yard through which no sunlight can penetrate. As a result, instead of grass, my backyard is basically a plot of dirt that, when it rains, turns into a muddy mess and at worst a swamp. As we remove a few of the trees, my hope is that the sun may shine through the remaining ones and that grass, flowers and plants may return to sprout, grow and flourish.

Scripturally, Jesus reminds us that gardens need to be pruned so that they may produce fruit: "He prunes it so that it may bear more fruit" (John 15:3). In the Catholic Church, spiritual pruning is not a negative exercise. Instead, it helps our spiritual growth by removing whatever inhibits or prevents us from growing in healthy and holy ways.

Perhaps that is a good way to look at these past 40 days. Lent provides us the time to cut down and prune some things in our lives that prevent God's light from shining on and through us. We do so, specifically during Lent, with our acts of penance, prayer and almsgiving.

Continuing this theme of gardening around my house, late last fall I planted over 50 tulip bulbs around the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary. After I planted them, I have constantly wondered, "Did the squirrels dig them up and eat them?" "Will they blossom and what color will they be?" "Will the Blessed Mother enjoy them?" Every day, I find myself eagerly awaiting these tulips to colorfully burst through the soil.

This is an act of hope! While I still cannot see the flowers, I eagerly anticipate their arrival. We, too, wait with faith and hope to celebrate the resurrection of our Lord and savior at Easter and boldly proclaim that he is not dead. He is not still in the ground. He is risen!

The lingering question is, "Why do we spend time at garden centers and in our own gardens, planting and caring for flowers and plants?" It is partially because they are tangible signs of beauty, hope and life. As St. Alphonsus Liguori rightly noted, "When we see a beautiful garden, or a beautiful flower, let us think that there we behold a ray of the infinite beauty of God, who has given existence to that object."

As we come to the end of this Lenten time of pruning in our own spiritual gardens, let us approach Easter with great joy and enthusiasm. In other words, with springtime hope, let us continue to search for and bask in the risen life of Christ, for he truly fills our world and lives with light, beauty and new life. †

Gospel Reflection

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord: April 10

Pope St. John Paul II rightly taught, “To believe in Jesus is to accept what he says, even when it runs contrary to what others are saying. It means rejecting the lure of sin, however attractive it may be, in order to set out on a difficult path of Gospel virtues.” Acceptance, rejection, suffering, betrayal, fear, reluctance, persecution, and painful, undeserved and unjust death are all played out in dramatic fashion today. Jesus spoke of God’s unconditional love, mercy, and forgiveness. Who doesn’t like hearing about love, especially God’s? Jesus did not have backs turned on him, face intense suffering, and succumb to a horrific death because he spoke of God’s love. All of those things occurred because of the implications of actually believing in God’s love.

God’s love comes with an intimate and equal bond with love of neighbor. This moves the believer outward to truly see their brothers and sisters as equals and compels them to work for a world that mirrors God’s kingdom: a world based on justice, peace, mercy, and forgiveness. Sometimes, people want to keep God’s love to themselves and use it solely for their own benefit. When they only want to use God’s love to justify their own intentions and for their own projects, problems occur.

Sin makes something hurtful, destructive, and self-serving look very attractive and justifiable. The lure of sin creates friends who begin to believe the lie that the sin expounds. This is what happened on Calvary. When you begin actually doing what Jesus is saying and translate love into action, it inevitably will upset popular and longstanding conventions and structures. Many of these serve to protect status, foster personal gain and success, and further divide those who have from those who do not. Most people who hear the Gospel are attracted to what they hear, at first. When they realize that it means standing apart from popular opinion, even if that opinion is against the Gospel and sinful, they cower back in fear and join the throngs shouting, “Crucify him!” There is an ambivalence found in many believers as they struggle with whether their belief is strong enough “to set out on the difficult path of Gospel virtues.”

It takes a lot of courage to admit that the system is broken. It takes even more courage to point out the sin. And it takes an unbreakable love of God to then accept the consequences of doing so.

Why is it called Operation Andrew Dinner?

In the Eastern Church, St. Andrew is known as Protokletos ("First Called") as John the Baptist invited him to follow Jesus. After doing so, Andrew then brought his brother Simon Peter to the Lord. (John 1:38-41) Like Andrew, the Lord is asking priests to bring others to Him so that they may discover their vocation as well.

2021-22 Budget Shortfall

As we enter into the final quarter of the fiscal year, we want to continue to thank you for your support of the Sunday collection throughout this past year. There are a few of the other collections that have fallen a bit short, particularly in the Capital and Maintenance area along with the Holy Day collections, including Christmas. We have highlighted them below. If you are able to offer your support to these specific funds, it would be much appreciated. As we enter tax season, consider perhaps contributing some of your tax return to the parish during this season of almsgiving. You may make a contribution online or use your envelopes marked for these categories. (You may also simply indicate on the memo line of a check if you don't have the envelope or would like to make an additional contribution.) We have had a number of projects this year in repairing and related upkeep of the campus that are supported by these. Thank you again for being an important part of our community!
