Thanks for all the work you have done and all the work you will be doing in the next 3 months. Thank you for all the upfront work you have done, so we are ready for the event!!

Any questions, please email me at kimthez@aol.com.

President's Message

Dear Members of the Guild,

Arrrggghhh! How did this happen?! It's the end of the year already! No one can convince me that 2017 didn't somehow shrink like a wool sweater in a hot washing machine.

I'd like to express my appreciation for those of you who made our first-ever Holiday Bazaar a success. For those of you who used your precious time to create hand-made treasures to donate: thank you! For those who purchased items for family/friends/self, thank you! And a special thank you to Cheri Bruger and her crew of tiara-topped assistants who made it all come together!

I regret that I will not be able to join you for our annual holiday social on December 19, as I will be recovering from my knee replacement surgery— at last! I hope all of you have a lovely time. I leave you in the capable hands of our VP, Doreen. Don't forget to bring either cookies or fruit to share and a drink for yourself. I will be thinking of you and wishing I could be with you. I also want to thank all of you who have kindly wished me well as I go through my surgery and the recovery process.

I know that this is a time of year many of us find joy in traditions. In my family, our New Year's Eve tradition is having a meal of crepes with our champagne. At around 11:00pm, we lay out fillings, both savory and sweet, and I produce one crepe after another while family members trick/cajole/offer-to-arm-wrestle each other in an attempt to get to the next crepe. Everyone fills their own and eats it in the kitchen so as not to miss their next turn in line. It is a slow process due to my inability to turn out more than one crepe at a time, but it gives us time to hang around together in the kitchen and talk. I admit that Jules and I don't do this when the kids aren't around, as it is just too much work for two, but I do think back on those turn-of-the-year champagne-and-crepes meals with fondness!

I hope all of you enjoy whatever winter holiday(s) you celebrate and that you have a joyous, healthy and prosperous new year, filled with quilting inspirations and successes!

President's Challenge

You have until our June 2018 meeting to complete a project/projects that you started in a workshop offered through the Workshops Committees of the Guild. There is no time limit backwards. If you started a project in a workshop you took 20 years ago, you may enter it. In fact, there will be a prize for the oldest project brought to the in-house show in June, in addition to the Viewers' Choice award(s). You may enter as many quilts/projects as you like. It is okay if you didn't complete the project in precisely the way the instructor intended. If that king-sized quilt you started ended up a lap quilt, enter it. If you turned a block into a pillow or a potholder, enter it. Just include in the description the name of the instructor, the year in which you took the class, and (if applicable) how you changed the instructor's workshop project into your own project.

HOLIDAY BOUTIQUE

The first Capital Quilting Club Bazaar was a great Success. A round of applause goes to the artists who donated such wonderful items to be bid on. We totaled around $930 in sales. Sandy, our treasurer, did a great job completing the charge transactions. A final total will be announced at the December meeting. Thank you for your generous bidding.

The purple tiara ladies, Alice, Carolyn, Christine, Linda and Heather, were a fabulous team and did a wonderful job organizing the event. A heartfelt thank you to you!

I love the items that I bought, and hope you love yours, too!

Sincerely, Cherie Brugler

Shannon Shirley – Woodbridge, Virginia

Shannon Shirley is an artist, teacher, speaker, author, and an award-winning quilter. Shannon enjoys both traditional quilting and art quilting. She prefers to design original quilts, working from the stash she has collected over the years. Letting the projects evolve as she works, one common thread in her art would be mixing a large variety of printed fabrics.

Shannon has been teaching professionally since 2006 and loves working with students of all ability levels. She particularly enjoys when she is able to help someone overcome a stumbling block of some kind.

Friday, May 18: Introduction to Free Motion Quilting

If you have ever wanted to try free motion quilting or you just don't have the hang of it yet, come relax and play with your sewing machine. Any machine that you can drop the feed dogs on and has a darning foot will work. Learn a variety of stitches and see which ones you find the easiest, you might be surprised. We will be practicing on quilt sandwiches not creating a finished piece so it's OK if it's not perfect! You can choose to practice on a group of ~12" quilt sandwiches or one larger quilt sandwich, ~36"x22" or larger.

Saturday, May 19: Creating Children's Artwork Quilts

Have you ever wished you could save your children's artwork forever? Often these treasures do not stand the test of time. Come learn a variety of methods you can use to recreate those special pieces you love and enjoy them for years to come.
