Bishop: Let us pray.
Lord our God, who in governing your people make use of the ministry of Priests, grant a persevering obedience to your will
to this Deacon of your Church, whom you graciously choose today
for the office of the priesthood,
so that by his ministry and life
he may gain glory for you in Christ.
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading (Jeremiah 1:4-9)

please sit

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah
Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you.

In the days of Josiah, the word of the Lord was addressed to me, saying,
'Before I formed you in the womb I knew you;
before you came to birth I consecrated you;
I have appointed you as prophet to the nations.'
I said, 'Ah, Lord; look, I do not know how to speak: I am a child!' But the Lord replied,
'Do not say, "I am a child."
Go now to those to whom I send you and say whatever I command you.
Do not be afraid of them,
for I am with you to protect you - it is the Lord who speaks!'
Then the Lord put out his hand and touched my mouth and said to me:
'There! I am putting my words into your mouth.

The Word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm (Psalm 89)

I will sing for ev-er of the good-ness of the Lord.

Cantor I will sing forever of the goodness of the Lord.
All I will sing forever of the goodness of the Lord.

Cantor I will sing forever of your love, O Lord,
Through all ages my mouth will proclaim your truth.
Of this I am sure: that your love lasts forever,
That your truth is firmly established as the heavens.

All I will sing forever of the goodness of the Lord.

Cantor I have made a covenant with my chosen one,
I have sworn to David, my servant.
I will establish your dynasty forever,
And set up your throne through all ages.

All I will sing forever of the goodness of the Lord.

Cantor I have found David my servant
And with my holy oil anointed him.
My hand shall be with him always,
And my arm shall make him strong.

All I will sing forever of the goodness of the Lord.

Cantor My truth and love shall be with him;
By my name shall his might be exalted.
He will say to me: 'You are my Father,
My God, the rock who saves me.'

All I will sing forever of the goodness of the Lord.

Second Reading (2 Corinthians 4:1-2, 5-7)

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

We preach Christ Jesus and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake.

Since we have by an act of mercy been entrusted with this work of administration, there is no weakening on our part. On the contrary, we will have none of the reticence of those who are ashamed, no deceitfulness or watering down the word of God; but the way we commend ourselves to every human being with a conscience is by stating the truth openly in the sight of God. For it is not ourselves that we are preaching, but Christ Jesus as the Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. It is the same God that said, 'Let there be light shining out of the darkness', who has shone in our minds to radiate the light of the knowledge of God's glory, the glory on the face of Christ.

We are only the earthenware jars that hold this treasure, to make it clear that such an overwhelming power comes from God and not from us.

The Word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Deacon:        The Lord be with you.
All:            And with your Spirit.
Deacon:        A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.
All:            Glory to you, O, Lord

But Jesus called them to him and said, “You know that among the pagans the rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to be great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be your slave, just as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYER OF ORDINATION

Bishop Draw near, O Lord, Holy Father, almighty and eternal God, author of human dignity: it is you who apportion all graces. Through you everything progresses; through you all things are made to stand firm.

To form a priestly people, you appoint ministers of Christ your Son by the power of the Holy Spirit, arranging them in different orders. Already in the earlier covenant offices arose, established through mystical rites: when you set Moses and Aaron over your people to govern and sanctify them, you chose men next in rank and dignity to accompany them and assist them in their task. So too in the desert you implanted the spirit of Moses in the hearts of seventy wise men; and with their help he ruled your people with greater ease. So also upon the sons of Aaron you poured an abundant share of their father's plenty, that the number of the priests prescribed by the Law might be sufficient for the sacrifices of the tabernacle, which were a shadow of the good things to come.

But in these last days, holy Father, you sent your Son into the world, Jesus, who is Apostle and High Priest of our confession. Through the Holy Spirit he offered himself to you as a spotless victim; and he made his Apostles, consecrated in the truth, sharers in his mission. You provided them also with companions to proclaim and carry out the work of salvation throughout the whole world.

And now we beseech you, Lord, in our weakness, to grant us this helper that we need to exercise the Priesthood that comes from the Apostles. Grant, we pray, Almighty Father, to this your servant the dignity of the Priesthood; renew deep within him the Spirit of holiness; may he henceforth possess this office, which comes from you, O God, and is next in rank to the office of Bishop; and by the example of his manner of life, may he instil right conduct.

May he be a worthy co-worker with our Order, so that by his preaching and through the grace of the Holy Spirit the words of the Gospel may bear fruit in human hearts and reach even to the ends of the earth. Together with us, may he be a faithful steward of your mysteries, so that your people may be renewed in the waters of rebirth and nourished from your altar; so that sinners may be reconciled and the sick raised up.

May he be joined with us, Lord, in imploring your mercy for the people entrusted to his care and for all the world. And so may the full number of the nations, gathered together in Christ, be transformed into your one people and made perfect in your Kingdom. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever.

All            Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer III and Preface Dialogue

Preface Christ, source of all ministry in the Church.

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation,
always and everywhere to give you thanks,
Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

For by the anointing of the Holy Spirit
you made your Only Begotten Son High Priest of the new and eternal covenant, and by your wondrous design were pleased to decree
that his one Priesthood should continue in the Church.
For Christ not only adorns with a royal priesthood
the people he has made his own, but with a brother's kindness he also chooses men
to become sharers in his sacred ministry through the laying on of hands.

They are to renew in his name
the sacrifice of human redemption,
to set before your children the paschal banquet,
to lead your holy people in charity,
to nourish them with the word
and strengthen them with the Sacraments.

As they give up their lives for you and for the salvation of their brothers and sisters, they strive to be conformed to the image of Christ himself and offer you a constant witness of faith and love.

And so, Lord, with all the Angels and Saints,
we, too, give you thanks, as in exultation we acclaim:

Bishop At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

All Our Father, who art in heaven,

thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
