PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Community of Our Lady of Perpetual Help,

“I come to gather nations of every language ... they bring all your brothers and sisters from all the nations ...” Isaiah

God came for all people! We might be very different in language and in culture, yet all of us are children of God. God wants us to be united, to help each other here on earth. He has prepared a place for all of us in Heaven. He will always challenge us to live true fraternity with all people.

“My son ... do not disdain the discipline of the Lord or lose heart when reproved by Him ... for whom the Lord loves ... He disciplines ...” Hebrews

He sends us to others, even those that are very different from us. The language of love calls us to communion with all.

“Go out to all the world and tell the Good News ...” Psalm 117

If we do not follow His will and become people of division ... There will be consequences.

“I do not know where you are from ... depart from me ... all you evildoers ...” Luke

Good Shepherd, help us to be like you!

Monsignor Lorenzo

Evaluate playgrounds for safety

Before you let a child enjoy the playground, it is important to check the safety features of the park or playground area. Make sure children are using height-appropriate swings, slides and ladders. Equipment should be mounted on shock-absorbent materials and not hard surfaces, and children should be able to move easily between equipment. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Playground Safety,”

LIFE AFTER LOSS BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

offers an 8 week group meeting for anyone who has suffered a loss through death or divorce of a loved one.

English Group Sessions ~ Wednesdays
September 18 ~ Parish Center
7pm – 8:30 pm

This psalm reassures us all that our God is with us in times of Joy and especially in times of sorrow. Grief is a normal deep sorrow connected to a loss of a loved one. Join us as a community to journey through the process for 8 sessions.

Registration for the sessions is not necessary.

building faith

CAN YOU SEE GOD?

Are you aware of God's presence in your life? Looking for ways in which He blesses us rather than thinking about prayers He hasn't yet answered makes us more aware of how He moves in our lives. Of course, God is always with us whether we see Him or not. Ask Him to give you eyes to see Him.

ISRAEL AND THE NATIONS

The Old Testament is the story of God and the people of Israel. Today we can also see that other peoples --the nations--are important participants in the story. It was a crowded Middle East, and other nations like Egypt, Canaan, and Babylon were often close observers of Israel's encounters with God. They witnessed God's judgment upon Israel and God's restoration of Israel (Ezekiel 36). God's reputation spread widely among them. God ruled them and blessed them (Psalm 47, Psalm 67).

In today's reading from Isaiah, the author presents a vision that all nations will one day be gathered to worship God. They will be accepted into God's house as full members, and blessed with God's salvation (Isaiah 56, Isaiah 19). God's intention all along was to form Israel so as to invite the nations to participate in the great plan. When God first called Abraham, God said I will bless you . . . All the families of the earth will find blessing in you (Genesis 12). We, the Church today, share in this call.

THE LAST AND FIRST

Jesus phrase in Luke's Gospel today--some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last--also appears in similar form in Matthew (20:16) and Mark (10:31). All are concluding statements of a teaching of Jesus, but each appears in a different context. In Matthew, the phrase concludes the parable of the vineyard workers, upsetting listeners expectations of work and reward. In Mark, wealth is presented as an obstacle to salvation, again reversing expectations.

In Luke, when asked whether only a few may be saved, Jesus shifts the focus to who is best able to receive God's invitation. Following his healing of a woman on the Sabbath (13:11-17), Jesus emphasizes compassion over a narrow interpretation of Jewish law. To his listeners surprise, Jesus announces that those who practice compassion, rather than those in religious leadership, are the first to understand and accept God's salvation.

ISRAEL Y LAS NACIONES

El Antiguo Testamento es la historia de Dios y el pueblo de Israel. Hoy también podemos ver que otros pueblos, las naciones, son participantes importantes en la historia. Fue un Medio Oriente poblado y otras naciones como Egipto, Canaán y Babilonia que a menudo estaban observando los encuentros de Dios con Israel. Ellos atestiguaron el juicio de Dios hacia Israel y la restauración de Dios hacia Israel (Ezequiel 36). La reputación de Dios se propagó ampliamente en medio de ellos. Dios los gobernó y los bendijo (Salmo 47, Salmo 67).

En la lectura de hoy de Isaías, el autor presenta una visión en la que todas las naciones, un día, estarán reunidas para adorar a Dios. Ellas serán aceptados en la casa de Dios como miembros plenos y bendecidas con la salvación de Dios (Isaías 56, Isaías 19). La intención de Dios todo el tiempo fue formar a Israel para invitar a las naciones a participar en el plan grande. Cuando Dios primero llamó a Abraham, Dios dijo: te bendeciré. . . Todas las familias de la tierra encontrarán la bendición en ti (Génesis 12). Nosotros, la Iglesia de hoy, compartimos este llamado.

EL ÚLTIMO Y EL PRIMERO

La frase de Jesús en el Evangelio de Lucas de hoy, los que ahora son los últimos, serán los primeros; y los que ahora son los primeros, serán los últimos, también está de una manera parecida en Mateo (20:16) y Marcos (10:31). Todas ellas son frases con las que concluye una enseñanza de Jesús, pero cada una de ellas está en un contexto diferente. En Mateo, la frase concluye la parábola de los trabajadores de la huerta, molestando a las expectativas de los oyentes acerca del trabajo y su salario. En Marcos, la riqueza se presenta como un obstáculo para la salvación, una vez más revirtiendo las expectativas.

En Lucas, cuando se le pregunta si solo algunos se salvarán, Jesús cambia el énfasis de quién es la mejor persona para recibir esa invitación de Dios. Siguiendo la sanación de la mujer en día sábado (13:11-17), Jesús enfatiza la compasión sobre la estricta interpretación de la ley judía. Sorprende a las personas que lo están escuchando, Jesús anuncia que quienes sean compasivos, en lugar de aquellos en posiciones de liderazgo religioso, serán los primeros en entender y aceptar la salvación de Dios.

COLUMNA DEL PASTOR

Querida Comunidad de Nuestra Señora del Perpetuo Socorro,

“Yo vendré para reunir a las naciones de toda lengua ... ellos darán a conocer mi nombre a las naciones ...” Isaías

¡Dios vino por todos! Aunque somos muy diferentes en idioma y en cultura, todos somos hijos de Dios. Dios quiere que estemos unidos aquí en la tierra. El nos ha preparado un lugar en el Cielo. Siempre nos retará a que vivamos la verdadera fraternidad con todos.

“Hijo mío ... no desprecies la corrección del Señor ... ni te desanimes cuando te reprenda ... Porque el Señor corrige a los que ama ...” Hebreos

Nos envía a otros, aún a los muy diferentes de nosotros. El idioma del amor nos llama a la comunión con todos.

“Vayan por todo el mundo y prediquen el Evangelio ...” Salmo 117

Si no seguimos Su voluntad y nos hacemos personas de division ... habrá consecuencias.

“Yo les aseguro que no sé quienes son ustedes ... apártense de mí ... todos ustedes los que hacen el mal ...” Lucas

¡Buen Pastor, ayúdanos a ser como tu!

Monseñor Lorenzo

Por seguridad evalúe los patios de recreo

Antes de dejar que un niño disfrute del patio de recreo, es importante comprobar las características de seguridad del parque o área de juegos. Asegúrese de que los niños estén usando columpios, toboganes y escaleras apropiados para su altura. El equipo debe montarse sobre materiales absorbentes de golpes y no sobre superficies duras, y los niños deben poder moverse fácilmente en el equipo.
